

5sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universestalisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-
ticket - Set 1

1-) What are the two beliefs named at the start of the passage? (9

kelime)

Belief in

2-) What two big benefits of those beliefs are mentioned first? (12

kelime)

They explain the

3-) What are called medicines in this passage? (11 kelime)

Trust in

4-) What kind of hard situation did the soldier fall into? (15 kelime)

He fell into

5-) How many major troubles are described around the soldier before help comes? (15 kelime)

Four major troubles

6-) What emotion probably filled the soldier before help arrived? (3

kelime)

7-) What three kinds of help did that person offer? (12 kelime)

He offered two

8-) Why is the ticket important in the story? (10 kelime)

It makes

9-) How were the wounds changed by the medicines? (6 kelime)
They

10-) Did the soldier blindly accept the claim, or did he check it in some way? (9 kelime)
He tested

5sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 2

1-) What sentence in meaning begins the lesson of this passage? (10 kelime)

It begins

2-) What does the passage say these things do for the human spirit? (8 kelime)

They bring

3-) What four religious actions are named as preparation for the next life? (15 kelime)

Listening to the

4-) Besides prayer, what sinful behavior are people told to leave? (7 kelime)

They

5-) What physical suffering did the soldier have? (8 kelime)

He had

6-) Why is the lion especially frightening in the story? (8 kelime)

Because it

7-) Why was the journey ahead of the soldier difficult? (11 kelime)

It was

8-) What promise was made about the soldier's journey if he took the ticket? (11 kelime)

A journey

9-) What condition was placed on receiving the full benefit of the talismans and medicines? (11 kelime)

The soldier

10-) Why was the soldier told to try it a little if he doubted? (8 kelime)

So he

5sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universestalisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-
ticket - Set 3

1-) What two beliefs are presented as the center of this passage? (9
kelime)

Faith in

2-) What does the passage say this belief opens for human beings? (9
kelime)

It opens

3-) Which actions are described as important supplies for the journey to the next life? (17 kelime)

Listening to the Qur'an,

4-) What kind of person is used in the story to teach the lesson? (7
kelime)

A

5-) How does the passage show that the soldier was surrounded by trouble? (19 kelime)

Pain was on his

6-) Who came to the soldier, and how is he described? (8 kelime)

A bright,

7-) What happened to the wounds after the medicine was used as instructed? (8 kelime)

They changed

8-) What happened to the gallows after that? (8 kelime)
It became

9-) What did the ticket allow the soldier to do? (14 kelime)
It allowed him

10-) Why does the passage mention that the speaker also tested this truth? (16 kelime)
To reassure the reader

5sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 4

1-) At the beginning, what are people invited to understand? (18 kelime)

They are invited to

2-) What human problem do these beliefs help answer according to the passage? (16 kelime)

They help answer the

3-) What are believers told to do with the Qur'an in this passage? (12 kelime)

They are told

4-) Why is avoiding major sins important in the passage? (13 kelime)

Because it is

5-) What do the two wounds tell us about the soldier's condition? (12 kelime)

They show he

6-) What does the gallows show about the soldier's fear? (12 kelime)

It shows fear

7-) What shows that the helper cared for the soldier? (15 kelime)

He spoke kindly,

8-) How is the helper's appearance meant to affect the soldier? (12

kelime)

It gives him

9-) What was the result after the soldier tried it? (10 kelime)

He confirmed

10-) What does the speaker say about his own experience with this comparison? (11 kelime)

He says

5sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 5

1-) What phrase of belief is the passage built around? (11 kelime)

It is

2-) What practices are described as healing and helpful for a person? (15 kelime)

Trusting the Creator,

3-) What acts of worship are named as preparation for the life to come? (11 kelime)

Listening to

4-) What example story is used to explain these ideas? (9 kelime)

The story

5-) How did the soldier feel when he thought about his condition? (7 kelime)

He

6-) How are the lion and gallows changed after using the gifts properly? (6 kelime)

Something

7-) What happened to the scary lion when the talismans were used correctly? (7 kelime)

It

8-) What would happen to the soldier's two wounds if he used the medicines properly? (6 kelime)

They

9-) What role does obedience play in receiving benefit from the gifts?
(9 kelime)

The gifts

10-) What conclusion did both the soldier and the speaker reach? (9
kelime)

They both

5sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universestalisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-
ticket - Set 6

1-) What are the two parts of faith named in this passage? (9 kelime)
Belief in

2-) What is reliance on the Creator joined with in the passage? (11 kelime)
It is

3-) What connection does the passage make between prayer and the hereafter? (14 kelime)
Prayer is described

4-) What kind of setting is the soldier placed in? (12 kelime)
He is placed

5-) What does the lion suggest about the soldier's danger? (11 kelime)
It suggests

6-) What other burden made the soldier's situation worse? (9 kelime)
He still

7-) What shows that the soldier cannot save himself easily? (13 kelime)
Along with all

8-) Why did the helper tell the soldier to experiment a little? (11 kelime)
So he

9-) What does the soldier's test of the gifts teach about belief? (12 kelime)

It teaches that

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What are the two beliefs named at the start of the passage?

Belief in Allah and belief in the Last Day.

2-) What two big benefits of those beliefs are mentioned first?

They explain the mystery of creation and open the door to happiness.

3-) What are called medicines in this passage?

Trust in Allah, patience, asking Him for help, and thanking Him.

4-) What kind of hard situation did the soldier fall into?

He fell into a very dangerous and frightening test with both possible gain and loss.

5-) How many major troubles are described around the soldier before help comes?

Four major troubles are described: two wounds, a lion, a gallows, and a long journey.

6-) What emotion probably filled the soldier before help arrived?

Fear and hopelessness.

7-) What three kinds of help did that person offer?

He offered two talismans, two medicines, and a ticket for the journey.

8-) Why is the ticket important in the story?

It makes a long, hard journey much easier and faster.

9-) How were the wounds changed by the medicines?

They turned into beautiful, fragrant flowers.

10-) Did the soldier blindly accept the claim, or did he check it in some way?

He tested it a little and found it true.

5sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes- talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and- ticket - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What sentence in meaning begins the lesson of this passage?

It begins with faith in Allah and the Last Day.

2-) What does the passage say these things do for the human spirit?

They bring healing, help with difficulties, and happiness.

3-) What four religious actions are named as preparation for the next life?

Listening to the Qur'an, obeying its commands, performing the required prayers, and leaving major sins.

4-) Besides prayer, what sinful behavior are people told to leave?

They are told to leave serious sins.

5-) What physical suffering did the soldier have?

He had two deep wounds on his sides.

6-) Why is the lion especially frightening in the story?

Because it seems ready to attack from behind.

7-) Why was the journey ahead of the soldier difficult?

It was long and felt like being sent away into exile.

8-) What promise was made about the soldier's journey if he took the ticket?

A journey of a year could be done in one day.

9-) What condition was placed on receiving the full benefit of the talismans and medicines?

The soldier had to use them properly and follow the instructions.

10-) Why was the soldier told to try it a little if he doubted?

So he could gain confidence by seeing proof.

5sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes- talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and- ticket - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two beliefs are presented as the center of this passage?

Faith in Allah and faith in the Last Day.

2-) What does the passage say this belief opens for human beings?

It opens the door of happiness for the soul.

3-) Which actions are described as important supplies for the journey to the next life?

Listening to the Qur'an, following its commands, praying the required prayers, and staying away from major sins.

4-) What kind of person is used in the story to teach the lesson?

A soldier is used as the example.

5-) How does the passage show that the soldier was surrounded by trouble?

Pain was on his sides, danger was behind him and before him, and a hard road was still ahead.

6-) Who came to the soldier, and how is he described?

A bright, kind person came, shining like Khidr.

7-) What happened to the wounds after the medicine was used as instructed?

They changed from painful sores into pleasant flowers.

8-) What happened to the gallows after that?

It became something enjoyable instead of something terrifying.

9-) What did the ticket allow the soldier to do?

It allowed him to travel a year's distance in one day, as if flying.

10-) Why does the passage mention that the speaker also tested this truth?

To reassure the reader that this is not just a story but something confirmed by experience.

5sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes- talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and- ticket - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At the beginning, what are people invited to understand?

They are invited to understand how precious faith, trust in Allah, patience, gratitude, prayer, and obedience really are.

2-) What human problem do these beliefs help answer according to the passage?

They help answer the confusing question of why creation exists and how a person finds happiness.

3-) What are believers told to do with the Qur'an in this passage?

They are told to listen to it and obey what it teaches.

4-) Why is avoiding major sins important in the passage?

Because it is part of getting ready for the hereafter and true success.

5-) What do the two wounds tell us about the soldier's condition?

They show he is badly hurt and in serious need of help.

6-) What does the gallows show about the soldier's fear?

It shows fear of losing life and losing the people he loves.

7-) What shows that the helper cared for the soldier?

He spoke kindly, gave him hope, and offered things that could save and help him.

8-) How is the helper's appearance meant to affect the soldier?

It gives him hope and makes him feel that rescue has come.

9-) What was the result after the soldier tried it?

He confirmed that what he had been told was true.

10-) What does the speaker say about his own experience with this comparison?

He says he also tested it and found it completely true.

5sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes- talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and- ticket - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What phrase of belief is the passage built around?

It is built around believing in Allah and the Last Day.

2-) What practices are described as healing and helpful for a person?

Trusting the Creator, seeking refuge in Him with patience and dua, and thanking the Provider.

3-) What acts of worship are named as preparation for the life to come?

Listening to the Qur'an, obeying it, praying, and avoiding major sins.

4-) What example story is used to explain these ideas?

The story of a soldier in a terrible crisis.

5-) How did the soldier feel when he thought about his condition?

He felt hopeless and full of fear.

6-) How are the lion and gallows changed after using the gifts properly?

Something frightening becomes useful or enjoyable.

7-) What happened to the scary lion when the talismans were used correctly?

It became tame and useful for riding.

8-) What would happen to the soldier's two wounds if he used the medicines properly?

They would become two sweet-smelling flowers.

9-) What role does obedience play in receiving benefit from the gifts?

The gifts help when the instructions are followed properly.

10-) What conclusion did both the soldier and the speaker reach?

They both concluded that the guidance was truly right.

5sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universestalisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What are the two parts of faith named in this passage?

Belief in Allah and belief in the Last Day.

2-) What is reliance on the Creator joined with in the passage?

It is joined with patience, asking Allah for help, and thankfulness.

3-) What connection does the passage make between prayer and the hereafter?

Prayer is described as part of what prepares a person for the next life.

4-) What kind of setting is the soldier placed in?

He is placed in a severe test that feels like a battlefield.

5-) What does the lion suggest about the soldier's danger?

It suggests a threat that feels close and ready to strike.

6-) What other burden made the soldier's situation worse?

He still had a long journey ahead of him.

7-) What shows that the soldier cannot save himself easily?

Along with all the dangers, he also has a long forced journey ahead.

8-) Why did the helper tell the soldier to experiment a little?

So he could see for himself that the promise was true.

9-) What does the soldier's test of the gifts teach about belief?

It teaches that true guidance can be known by its real results.