

5sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 1

1-) What does the passage say can help a person understand the world, the human soul, and why religion matters? (13 kelime)

Thinking carefully about

2-) Which religion is clearly named as the true religion before Allah in the passage? (1 kelime)

3-) In the story, what do the two roads seem to represent? (19 kelime)
They represent two ways

4-) What setting is used to teach this lesson? (11 kelime)

A story

5-) What choice did the brothers have to make? (12 kelime)

They had to

6-) What information did he give about the left road? (11 kelime)

It allowed

7-) Which brother chose the right road, and what kind of person was he? (10 kelime)

The well-mannered

8-) What does the good brother's choice show about his character? (12 kelime)

It shows that

9-) Why is the left path not truly a better path even though it offers freedom? (10 kelime)
Because that

10-) What big message can a student learn from the two brothers' choices? (17 kelime)
A right path may

5sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 2

1-) What is the main topic introduced at the start of this passage? (13 kelime)

It is about

2-) According to the passage, what frees the human spirit from darkness? (11 kelime)

Turning to

3-) What role do the words about Allah play in the passage? (17 kelime)

They are shown as

4-) What is one reason the comparison of the two brothers is important? (10 kelime)

It shows

5-) What information did the man at the fork give about the right road? (9 kelime)

It required

6-) What did the man say about the road on the left? (11 kelime)

It had

7-) What warning was connected to the left path? (7 kelime)

Its

8-) Why is the right path not described as completely easy? (9 kelime)

Because it

9-) What contrast is given between appearance and reality in the last sentence of the target passage? (14 kelime)

The left road

10-) What mistake did the other brother make when choosing his road? (8 kelime)

He chose

5sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 3

1-) What does the passage teach about the connection between religion and understanding life? (12 kelime)

It teaches that

2-) How is a life without true religion pictured in the passage? (8 kelime)

It is

3-) How does the passage describe the condition of a person without religion? (5 kelime)

That

4-) Who are the main people in the comparison? (5 kelime)

Two

5-) What did the man say about the road on the right? (12 kelime)

It had rules

6-) What warning and promise were connected to the right path? (11 kelime)

It required

7-) How did the brother on the left respond after hearing the advice? (6 kelime)

He

8-) What desire pushed the other brother to the left road? (7 kelime)

He

9-) Which brother acted with trust in Allah? (6 kelime)

The

10-) What does the passage suggest about choosing a path only because it looks easy? (15 kelime)

It can be

5sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 4

1-) What does the passage say a person can understand by thinking about religion properly? (16 kelime)

A person can understand

2-) What does the passage say a person should understand about the world if there is no true religion? (6 kelime)

The

3-) What kind of story method is used to explain the lesson? (4 kelime)

A

4-) In the comparison, who met the two brothers when the road split? (11 kelime)

They met

5-) What happened that forced them to make a choice? (6 kelime)

The

6-) How did the brother on the right respond after hearing the advice? (9 kelime)

He trusted

7-) What prayerful attitude did the good brother show? (5 kelime)

He

8-) What was hidden inside that seeming freedom? (3 kelime)

9-) Which road would best match a person who follows his desires just because it feels easy? (3 kelime)

10-) What important lesson about freedom and rules can be learned from the two roads? (21 kelime)

Rules may feel hard at

5sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 5

1-) What does the passage say is the religion accepted before Allah? (7 kelime)

Islam

2-) What does the passage say rescues the human spirit from darkness? (6 kelime)

Remembering

3-) Which two words or statements are said to help solve the mystery of the world and rescue the human spirit from darkness? (12 kelime)

Calling on Allah

4-) Where were the two brothers going when the story began? (6 kelime)

They

5-) What did the serious man leave up to the brothers? (7 kelime)

He

6-) What made the good brother different from the other one before he even chose? (6 kelime)

He

7-) What was attractive about the left-hand road at first? (5 kelime)

It

8-) Which road would best match a person who follows Allah's guidance even when it is hard? (3 kelime)

9-) How is the second brother described in the passage? (7 kelime)

He

10-) Why does the passage say “we shall follow this man” on the left road? (17 kelime)
It is preparing the

5sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 6

1-) What subjects does the passage say a person can understand through its lesson? (17 kelime)

The world, the human

2-) What happens to a human being without religion, according to the passage? (4 kelime)

He

3-) Why does the passage invite the reader to listen to a comparison? (18 kelime)

Because the comparison helps

4-) What kind of person would be more likely to choose the left road in this passage? (10 kelime)

A person

5-) How did the man compare the two roads? (17 kelime)

He said one had

6-) What was the reward of taking the right-hand road? (3 kelime)

7-) Why did the other brother prefer the left road? (6 kelime)

He

8-) Why did the other brother choose the left road? (6 kelime)

He

9-) The left road looked easier at first. In the end of the passage, how is that road described? (14 kelime)

It only seemed

10-) What is one main lesson of the target passage for a Muslim student? (18 kelime)

Trusting Allah and following

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say can help a person understand the world, the human soul, and why religion matters?

Thinking carefully about true religion, especially Islam, helps a person understand these things.

2-) Which religion is clearly named as the true religion before Allah in the passage?

Islam.

3-) In the story, what do the two roads seem to represent?

They represent two ways of life: one with faith, order, and safety, and one with selfish freedom and harm.

4-) What setting is used to teach this lesson?

A story about two brothers traveling and choosing between two roads.

5-) What choice did the brothers have to make?

They had to choose between a right-hand road and a left-hand road.

6-) What information did he give about the left road?

It allowed more freedom, but it led to harm and sadness.

7-) Which brother chose the right road, and what kind of person was he?

The well-mannered brother chose it, and he had good character.

8-) What does the good brother's choice show about his character?

It shows that he was willing to accept discipline and trust Allah.

9-) Why is the left path not truly a better path even though it offers freedom?

Because that kind of freedom leads to danger and sadness.

10-) What big message can a student learn from the two brothers' choices?

A right path may ask for self-control, but it brings goodness, while careless freedom can bring trouble.

5sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main topic introduced at the start of this passage?

It is about understanding life, the human spirit, and the importance of religion.

2-) According to the passage, what frees the human spirit from darkness?

Turning to Allah and affirming His oneness frees it from darkness.

3-) What role do the words about Allah play in the passage?

They are shown as keys that help solve life's deep mystery and bring light to the soul.

4-) What is one reason the comparison of the two brothers is important?

It shows the difference between following guidance and following desires.

5-) What information did the man at the fork give about the right road?

It required obedience, but it brought protection and joy.

6-) What did the man say about the road on the left?

It had fewer limits, but it led to danger and misery.

7-) What warning was connected to the left path?

Its freedom came with danger and unhappiness.

8-) Why is the right path not described as completely easy?

Because it includes laws and discipline that require effort.

9-) What contrast is given between appearance and reality in the last sentence of the target passage?

The left road looked comfortable at first, but it was actually difficult and heavy.

10-) What mistake did the other brother make when choosing his road?

He chose based only on having no restrictions.

5sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage teach about the connection between religion and understanding life?

It teaches that true religion helps a person understand life and himself.

2-) How is a life without true religion pictured in the passage?

It is pictured as dark, painful, and trapped.

3-) How does the passage describe the condition of a person without religion?

That person becomes deeply unhappy.

4-) Who are the main people in the comparison?

Two brothers on a journey.

5-) What did the man say about the road on the right?

It had rules and discipline, but it led to safety and happiness.

6-) What warning and promise were connected to the right path?

It required obedience to order, but it brought safety and happiness.

7-) How did the brother on the left respond after hearing the advice?

He chose the path without restrictions.

8-) What desire pushed the other brother to the left road?

He wanted to avoid limits and responsibilities.

9-) Which brother acted with trust in Allah?

The brother with good character did.

10-) What does the passage suggest about choosing a path only because it looks easy?

It can be a bad choice because what looks easy may actually lead to hardship.

5sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say a person can understand by thinking about religion properly?

A person can understand the world, the soul, and the worth of religion for human life.

2-) What does the passage say a person should understand about the world if there is no true religion?

The world becomes like a prison.

3-) What kind of story method is used to explain the lesson?

A comparison is used.

4-) In the comparison, who met the two brothers when the road split?

They met a serious man at the fork in the road.

5-) What happened that forced them to make a choice?

The road divided into two paths.

6-) How did the brother on the right respond after hearing the advice?

He trusted Allah and followed the path with order.

7-) What prayerful attitude did the good brother show?

He showed reliance on Allah.

8-) What was hidden inside that seeming freedom?

Danger and misery.

9-) Which road would best match a person who follows his desires just because it feels easy?

The left road.

10-) What important lesson about freedom and rules can be learned from the two roads?

Rules may feel hard at first, but they can protect a person, while doing whatever one wants can lead to harm.

5sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say is the religion accepted before Allah?
Islam is the religion accepted before Allah.

2-) What does the passage say rescues the human spirit from darkness?

Remembering Allah and declaring His oneness.

3-) Which two words or statements are said to help solve the mystery of the world and rescue the human spirit from darkness?

Calling on Allah and saying that there is no god but Allah.

4-) Where were the two brothers going when the story began?
They were on a long journey.

5-) What did the serious man leave up to the brothers?
He left the final choice to them.

6-) What made the good brother different from the other one before he even chose?

He had better manners and character.

7-) What was attractive about the left-hand road at first?
It seemed free and unrestricted.

8-) Which road would best match a person who follows Allah's guidance even when it is hard?

The right road.

9-) How is the second brother described in the passage?
He is described as immoral and lazy.

10-) Why does the passage say "we shall follow this man" on the left road?

It is preparing the reader to watch what happens to the brother who made the wrong choice.

5sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What subjects does the passage say a person can understand through its lesson?

The world, the human spirit, the value of religion, and the condition of life without true religion.

2-) What happens to a human being without religion, according to the passage?

He becomes very miserable.

3-) Why does the passage invite the reader to listen to a comparison?

Because the comparison helps explain the value of religion and the condition of people with or without it.

4-) What kind of person would be more likely to choose the left road in this passage?

A person who is careless, morally weak, and dislikes rules.

5-) How did the man compare the two roads?

He said one had discipline with good results, and the other had unchecked freedom with bad results.

6-) What was the reward of taking the right-hand road?

Safety and happiness.

7-) Why did the other brother prefer the left road?

He wanted a life without limits.

8-) Why did the other brother choose the left road?

He wanted a path without restrictions.

9-) The left road looked easier at first. In the end of the passage, how is that road described?

It only seemed easy on the outside, but it was really heavy and difficult.

10-) What is one main lesson of the target passage for a Muslim student?

Trusting Allah and following right guidance lead to good, while rejecting guidance for selfish freedom leads to harm.