

5sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-quranic-judgment - Set 1

1-) What is the biggest difference between the two travelers at the start of this passage? (16 kelime)

One is full of

2-) What is happening inside the unfortunate traveler's heart? (8 kelime)

It is

3-) What emotions trap the unfortunate traveler? (5 kelime)

Fear,

4-) What makes life sweet for the fortunate traveler? (5 kelime)

Hope,

5-) What permission is given about the fruit? (6 kelime)

Only

6-) What does the passage say the unfortunate traveler does to a bright reality? (11 kelime)

He changes

7-) Why does that drunken man not deserve pity in the example? (13 kelime)

Because he caused

8-) Why does the passage say such a person should not be pitied? (7 kelime)

Because

9-) How does the fortunate brother act toward the truth's owner? (3 kelime)

10-) What has the first brother's lower self built for him, and what has the second brother's goodness opened for him? (20 kelime)

The first has made a

5sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-quranic-judgment - Set 2

1-) Where is the traveler on the left road headed in his fear? (9 kelime)

He expects

2-) How does the fortunate traveler look at the strange things around him? (9 kelime)

He sees

3-) What kind of knowledge does the fortunate traveler gain? (6 kelime)

He

4-) How do the two travelers differ in status? (16 kelime)

One feels like a

5-) Why are the fruits dangerous for the unhappy traveler? (12 kelime)

He uses them

6-) What personal fault causes the unfortunate traveler to wrong himself? (4 kelime)

He

7-) What false ideas does that man imagine after becoming drunk? (12 kelime)

He thinks he

8-) Why does the fortunate brother deserve mercy? (17 kelime)

Because he recognizes the

9-) Why does that make him worthy of mercy? (10 kelime)

Because he

10-) What good results come to the second brother because of his inner goodness? (9 kelime)

He receives

5sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-quranic-judgment - Set 3

1-) Compare the ending direction of the two travelers in this passage.
(16 kelime)

The unhappy one moves

2-) What is pounding in the unfortunate traveler's heart? (4 kelime)
Severe

3-) How does the miserable traveler see himself? (10 kelime)
He sees

4-) How is the fortunate traveler's life described emotionally? (9 kelime)
It is

5-) What is the purpose of tasting the fruit only a little? (12 kelime)
It helps a

6-) What does the passage say the unhappy traveler deserves because of his false thinking? (5 kelime)
He

7-) What season and setting are used in the example of the banquet? (12 kelime)
It is a

8-) What does the fortunate brother do differently from the unfortunate one? (15 kelime)
He sees what

9-) What qualities help the fortunate brother receive blessings and happiness? (9 kelime)

Good intention,

10-) What has the second brother's good intention and good thoughts allowed him to receive? (14 kelime)

They have allowed

5sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-quranic-judgment - Set 4

1-) What is one traveler waiting for with dread, and what is the other invited to? (16 kelime)

One fears being swallowed

2-) What does the fortunate traveler do with the unusual things he sees? (7 kelime)

He

3-) What three painful feelings trouble the unfortunate traveler? (6 kelime)

He

4-) What mistake does the unhappy traveler make with the fruit? (11 kelime)

He keeps

5-) Why does the unhappy traveler's pleasure from the fruits not really help him? (11 kelime)

The fruits

6-) What is the unhappy traveler doing to himself besides eating wrongly? (7 kelime)

He

7-) What does the drunk man in the example wrongly believe about his friends? (7 kelime)

He

8-) Why is the unfortunate brother compared to that man? (10 kelime)
Because both

9-) What does the passage teach about the source of evil? (7 kelime)
Evil

5sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-quranic-judgment - Set 5

1-) In this passage, how are the two brothers shown to end up very differently? (14 kelime)

One lives in

2-) How does the fortunate traveler use what he sees around him? (9 kelime)

He treats

3-) What does the passage say about the unfortunate traveler's inner condition? (12 kelime)

He is in

4-) How do the two travelers differ in the way they see the creatures around them? (15 kelime)

One sees attacking

5-) What does the fortunate traveler do when he tastes the fruit? (13 kelime)

He understands its

6-) What does the passage call the unhappy traveler's false way of seeing things? (9 kelime)

It is

7-) In the example, what kind of place is the man really in? (9 kelime)

He is

8-) What does the fortunate brother recognize about the truth? (6 kelime)

He

9-) According to the Qur'anic teaching quoted here, where does good come from? (4 kelime)

It

5sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-quranic-judgment - Set 6

1-) What scene shows the difference between the two travelers most clearly? (16 kelime)

One is terrified of

2-) What does the fortunate traveler gain from looking carefully at strange events? (8 kelime)

He gains

3-) What conditions make life bitter for the unfortunate traveler? (5 kelime)

Despair,

4-) How does overeating the fruit increase the unfortunate traveler's suffering? (10 kelime)

He chases

5-) What does the fortunate traveler understand after tasting the fruits? (9 kelime)

He understands

6-) What example is given to show how a person can wrong himself? (20 kelime)

A man at a nice

7-) How does the drunk man treat good people in his imagination? (7 kelime)

He

8-) Why is the unfortunate brother said to be like that man? (14 kelime)
Because he turns

9-) What does the quoted Qur'anic rule say about evil and good? (9 kelime)
Harm comes

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-quranic-judgment - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the biggest difference between the two travelers at the start of this passage?

One is full of fear and misery, while the other is welcomed into a beautiful garden.

2-) What is happening inside the unfortunate traveler's heart?

It is beating under heavy fear and pain.

3-) What emotions trap the unfortunate traveler?

Fear, sadness, hopelessness, and loneliness.

4-) What makes life sweet for the fortunate traveler?

Hope, longing, and feeling connected.

5-) What permission is given about the fruit?

Only enough to sample and understand.

6-) What does the passage say the unfortunate traveler does to a bright reality?

He changes it in his mind into a dark, crushing fear.

7-) Why does that drunken man not deserve pity in the example?

Because he caused his own misery and wrongly judged his friends and surroundings.

8-) Why does the passage say such a person should not be pitied?

Because he brought the trouble on himself.

9-) How does the fortunate brother act toward the truth's owner?

He shows respect.

10-) What has the first brother's lower self built for him, and what has the second brother's goodness opened for him?

The first has made a kind of hell, and the second has opened the way to blessings, happiness, and virtue.

5sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-quranic-judgment - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Where is the traveler on the left road headed in his fear?

He expects to end up in the dragon's mouth.

2-) How does the fortunate traveler look at the strange things around him?

He sees them as a meaningful and enjoyable lesson.

3-) What kind of knowledge does the fortunate traveler gain?

He gains understanding joined with love.

4-) How do the two travelers differ in status?

One feels like a captive under attack, and the other is treated like an honored visitor.

5-) Why are the fruits dangerous for the unhappy traveler?

He uses them in the wrong way and seeks only quick pleasure.

6-) What personal fault causes the unfortunate traveler to wrong himself?

He lacks clear judgment.

7-) What false ideas does that man imagine after becoming drunk?

He thinks he is freezing, hungry, alone, and surrounded by dangerous animals.

8-) Why does the fortunate brother deserve mercy?

Because he recognizes the truth as good and shows respect to the One who owns that truth.

9-) Why does that make him worthy of mercy?

Because he honors the goodness and beauty placed in reality.

10-) What good results come to the second brother because of his inner goodness?

He receives blessings, true happiness, prosperity, and beautiful virtue.

5sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-quranic-judgment - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Compare the ending direction of the two travelers in this passage.
The unhappy one moves toward terror, while the fortunate one is brought toward beauty and welcome.

2-) What is pounding in the unfortunate traveler's heart?
Severe fear and distress.

3-) How does the miserable traveler see himself?
He sees himself like a trapped prisoner surrounded by danger.

4-) How is the fortunate traveler's life described emotionally?
It is filled with hope, joyful expectation, and belonging.

5-) What is the purpose of tasting the fruit only a little?
It helps a person understand and seek the real gift behind it.

6-) What does the passage say the unhappy traveler deserves because of his false thinking?

He does not deserve pity.

7-) What season and setting are used in the example of the banquet?
It is a beautiful summer meal in a lovely garden with friends.

8-) What does the fortunate brother do differently from the unfortunate one?

He sees what is true instead of turning it into a lie in his mind.

9-) What qualities help the fortunate brother receive blessings and happiness?

Good intention, good will, good character, and good thoughts.

10-) What has the second brother's good intention and good thoughts allowed him to receive?

They have allowed him to receive abundant gifts, real happiness, success, and noble character.

5sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-quranic-judgment - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is one traveler waiting for with dread, and what is the other invited to?

One fears being swallowed by the dragon, and the other is welcomed into a rich garden.

2-) What does the fortunate traveler do with the unusual things he sees?

He studies them and benefits from them.

3-) What three painful feelings trouble the unfortunate traveler?

He feels isolated, hopeless, and lonely.

4-) What mistake does the unhappy traveler make with the fruit?

He keeps eating it for pleasure even though it is harmful.

5-) Why does the unhappy traveler's pleasure from the fruits not really help him?

The fruits seem sweet at first, but they actually harm him.

6-) What is the unhappy traveler doing to himself besides eating wrongly?

He is hurting himself by misreading reality.

7-) What does the drunk man in the example wrongly believe about his friends?

He thinks they are like wild beasts.

8-) Why is the unfortunate brother compared to that man?

Because both create misery for themselves by seeing things falsely.

9-) What does the passage teach about the source of evil?

Evil begins from a person's own self.

5sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-quranic-judgment - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, how are the two brothers shown to end up very differently?

One lives in terror and misery, while the other receives welcome, joy, and peace.

2-) How does the fortunate traveler use what he sees around him? He treats it like a lesson that brings understanding.

3-) What does the passage say about the unfortunate traveler's inner condition?

He is in deep suffering because he feels alone and without hope.

4-) How do the two travelers differ in the way they see the creatures around them?

One sees attacking wild animals, while the other sees friendly servants of a generous host.

5-) What does the fortunate traveler do when he tastes the fruit?

He understands its purpose and waits patiently instead of rushing to eat more.

6-) What does the passage call the unhappy traveler's false way of seeing things?

It is described as a dark and hell-like delusion.

7-) In the example, what kind of place is the man really in?

He is really in a pleasant gathering with friends.

8-) What does the fortunate brother recognize about the truth?

He sees that it is good.

9-) According to the Qur'anic teaching quoted here, where does good come from?

It comes from Allah.

5sinif short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-quranic-judgment - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What scene shows the difference between the two travelers most clearly?

One is terrified of destruction, while the other is welcomed into a fruitful and lovely garden.

2-) What does the fortunate traveler gain from looking carefully at strange events?

He gains a pleasant lesson and loving understanding.

3-) What conditions make life bitter for the unfortunate traveler?

Despair, loneliness, and inner torment.

4-) How does overeating the fruit increase the unfortunate traveler's suffering?

He chases short pleasure that actually brings him more pain.

5-) What does the fortunate traveler understand after tasting the fruits?

He understands their meaning and is willing to wait.

6-) What example is given to show how a person can wrong himself?

A man at a nice summer gathering gets drunk, imagines he is in a terrible place, and starts crying out.

7-) How does the drunk man treat good people in his imagination?

He unfairly sees them as dangerous creatures.

8-) Why is the unfortunate brother said to be like that man?

Because he turns a good reality into a nightmare through his own bad state.

9-) What does the quoted Qur'anic rule say about evil and good?

Harm comes from oneself, and good comes from Allah.