

5sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 1

1-) How does the passage describe a person's natural strength? (9 kelime)

It says

2-) What two feelings can come when many things affect a person deeply? (3 kelime)

3-) What comes against people even though they have little power? (7 kelime)

Many

4-) What mismatch does the passage show between what people have and what they need? (8 kelime)

They have

5-) What two words in the passage show that people may struggle to act strongly? (7 kelime)

It

6-) How far does human connection reach according to the passage? (7 kelime)

It

7-) How does being human connect a person to other things? (7 kelime)

It

8-) Why might a person struggle to reach those goals? (18 kelime)

Because his reach is

9-) What kind of goals does the mind point toward? (4 kelime)

Great

10-) Which human quality is said to be small along with power? (1 kelime)

5sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 2

1-) According to the passage, what kind of condition is a human being in? (11 kelime)

A human

2-) Besides weakness, what does the passage say about human power? (7 kelime)

It

3-) How does the passage describe the number of enemies and hardships around a person? (6 kelime)

It

4-) What does the passage say about what people want and need? (8 kelime)

It says

5-) What makes life hard even if a person wants to do well? (6 kelime)

Life

6-) What is said about the duties of life? (7 kelime)

They

7-) What does reason help a person notice? (9 kelime)

It helps

8-) How do the loss and passing of familiar things affect a person? (5 kelime)

They

9-) What tone does the passage have about human nature: proud or humble? (1 kelime)

10-) If you had to choose one word for the human condition in this passage, what word fits best? (1 kelime)

5sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 3

1-) What is the first weakness about people mentioned in the passage?
(5 kelime)

People

2-) When troubles are many and strength is small, what does that show about people? (7 kelime)

It

3-) Even though people are low in power, what is high in number? (4 kelime)

Their

4-) What does the passage teach about human poverty in a broad sense? (14 kelime)

It teaches that

5-) How does the passage describe a person's ability to carry out work? (9 kelime)

It says

6-) What happens when things a person loves go away? (6 kelime)

He

7-) What wider connection comes with being human? (9 kelime)

A person

8-) What keeps a person from easily reaching everything reason points to? (15 kelime)

His reach is

9-) Why is there a struggle between what a person hopes for and what he can do? (12 kelime)

Because his hopes

10-) What is one main idea of the whole passage? (8 kelime)

Human beings

5sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 4

1-) In the passage, what makes a person easy to be affected by many things? (8 kelime)

His weakness

2-) What happens because many things touch a person's life and heart? (5 kelime)

He

3-) What does the passage say about human strength against danger? (9 kelime)

Human strength

4-) What does the passage teach about human needs? (7 kelime)

A

5-) What part of being human makes losses hurt more? (12 kelime)

Being connected to

6-) Are life's responsibilities described as light or heavy? (5 kelime)

They

7-) What good things does reason show to a person? (7 kelime)

It

8-) What does reason let a person see beyond everyday life? (9 kelime)

It lets

9-) How does little patience add to human difficulty? (13 kelime)

It makes it

5sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 5

1-) What does the passage teach about the basic condition of human beings? (7 kelime)

Human

2-) What emotional result comes from being affected by many things? (8 kelime)

A person

3-) What is said about the troubles and enemies a person faces? (3 kelime)

4-) How does the passage compare a person's ability with life's duties? (14 kelime)

It says a

5-) What does the passage say about human energy and skill? (10 kelime)

It says

6-) What causes ongoing emotional pain according to the passage? (8 kelime)

Seeing loved

7-) What kind of things does a person often love in the passage? (8 kelime)

Things he

8-) What shortness or smallness is mentioned about human life and ability? (14 kelime)

A person's reach

9-) What limits keep a person from reaching all those goals easily? (18 kelime)

His ability is limited,

5sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 6

1-) What picture of the human being does the passage give at the start? (9 kelime)

It gives

2-) How is a person's power described? (6 kelime)

It

3-) What contrast does the passage make about human need? (13 kelime)

It shows that

4-) How many needs does the passage say people have? (6 kelime)

It

5-) Why do familiar things matter so much to a person in this passage? (9 kelime)

Because he

6-) How does being human increase a person's pain when things change? (11 kelime)

It ties

7-) What can the human mind understand that goes beyond daily survival? (8 kelime)

It can

8-) What does a person's mind show him? (8 kelime)

It shows

9-) What idea about human nature is repeated in several ways? (10 kelime)

That people

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How does the passage describe a person's natural strength?

It says a person is very weak by nature.

2-) What two feelings can come when many things affect a person deeply?

Grief and sadness.

3-) What comes against people even though they have little power?

Many disasters and enemies come against them.

4-) What mismatch does the passage show between what people have and what they need?

They have little, but they need a lot.

5-) What two words in the passage show that people may struggle to act strongly?

It describes them as lazy and incapable.

6-) How far does human connection reach according to the passage?

It reaches out to the whole universe.

7-) How does being human connect a person to other things?

It links him to the whole universe.

8-) Why might a person struggle to reach those goals?

Because his reach is limited, his life is short, and he does not have much strength or patience.

9-) What kind of goals does the mind point toward?

Great and lofty goals.

10-) Which human quality is said to be small along with power?

Patience.

5sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what kind of condition is a human being in?

A human being is in a needy, weak, and limited condition.

2-) Besides weakness, what does the passage say about human power?
It says people have very little power.

3-) How does the passage describe the number of enemies and hardships around a person?

It describes them as very numerous.

4-) What does the passage say about what people want and need?
It says their wants and needs are many.

5-) What makes life hard even if a person wants to do well?
Life places heavy responsibilities on him.

6-) What is said about the duties of life?
They are heavy and hard to carry.

7-) What does reason help a person notice?
It helps him notice noble goals and lasting rewards.

8-) How do the loss and passing of familiar things affect a person?
They keep causing him pain.

9-) What tone does the passage have about human nature: proud or humble?
Humble.

10-) If you had to choose one word for the human condition in this passage, what word fits best?
Neediness.

5sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first weakness about people mentioned in the passage?
People are naturally very weak.

2-) When troubles are many and strength is small, what does that show about people?

It shows that people are not self-sufficient.

3-) Even though people are low in power, what is high in number?
Their hardships and enemies.

4-) What does the passage teach about human poverty in a broad sense?

It teaches that people do not have enough in themselves and need many things.

5-) How does the passage describe a person's ability to carry out work?
It says he is slow and not very able.

6-) What happens when things a person loves go away?
He feels pain again and again.

7-) What wider connection comes with being human?
A person becomes connected with the rest of creation.

8-) What keeps a person from easily reaching everything reason points to?

His reach is short, his life is brief, and his strength and patience are limited.

9-) Why is there a struggle between what a person hopes for and what he can do?

Because his hopes are big, but his ability and time are small.

10-) What is one main idea of the whole passage?

Human beings have many weaknesses, needs, and limits.

5sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the passage, what makes a person easy to be affected by many things?

His weakness makes him easy to be affected.

2-) What happens because many things touch a person's life and heart?

He becomes upset and sorrowful.

3-) What does the passage say about human strength against danger?

Human strength is very small compared to the dangers.

4-) What does the passage teach about human needs?

A person has a lot of needs.

5-) What part of being human makes losses hurt more?

Being connected to the world around him makes those losses hurt more.

6-) Are life's responsibilities described as light or heavy?

They are described as heavy.

7-) What good things does reason show to a person?

It shows noble goals and lasting outcomes.

8-) What does reason let a person see beyond everyday life?

It lets him see higher purposes and lasting benefits.

9-) How does little patience add to human difficulty?

It makes it harder to keep going through long struggles and heavy duties.

5sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage teach about the basic condition of human beings?

Human beings are weak, needy, and limited.

2-) What emotional result comes from being affected by many things?
A person feels hurt, sad, and weighed down.

3-) What is said about the troubles and enemies a person faces?
They are many.

4-) How does the passage compare a person's ability with life's duties?
It says a person is not very capable, but life's duties are very heavy.

5-) What does the passage say about human energy and skill?
It says people can be sluggish and not fully able.

6-) What causes ongoing emotional pain according to the passage?
Seeing loved and familiar things decline and disappear.

7-) What kind of things does a person often love in the passage?
Things he knows well and feels close to.

8-) What shortness or smallness is mentioned about human life and ability?

A person's reach is short, his life is short, and his power is slight.

9-) What limits keep a person from reaching all those goals easily?
His ability is limited, his life is short, his strength is small, and his patience is not great.

5sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What picture of the human being does the passage give at the start?

It gives the picture of a very weak person.

2-) How is a person's power described?

It is described as very small.

3-) What contrast does the passage make about human need?

It shows that a person has little in himself but needs many things.

4-) How many needs does the passage say people have?

It says they have many needs.

5-) Why do familiar things matter so much to a person in this passage?

Because he becomes attached to them and loves them.

6-) How does being human increase a person's pain when things change?

It ties him to many things, so their loss hurts him.

7-) What can the human mind understand that goes beyond daily survival?

It can understand high goals and lasting results.

8-) What does a person's mind show him?

It shows him high goals and lasting results.

9-) What idea about human nature is repeated in several ways?

That people are limited and cannot rely on themselves completely.