

5sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station- fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 1

1-) What is the main question raised at the start of this passage about worship? (11 kelime)

It asks

2-) What does the example of being paid a little money teach? (12 kelime)

It teaches that

3-) What does the passage say prayer gives the heart during life in this world? (7 kelime)

It

4-) What does prayer provide for the heart while a person lives in this temporary world? (7 kelime)

It

5-) For the grave, what two blessings of prayer are named? (3 kelime)

6-) What kind of certainty is taught about Allah's promise? (7 kelime)

It

7-) How is the time spent in worship described? (6 kelime)

It

8-) Why is half-hearted worship presented as dangerous? (9 kelime)

Because it

9-) How does the passage use fear to make its point? (20 kelime)

It says that if fear

10-) What message would this passage give to a student who says prayer is too hard? (18 kelime)

Prayer is not too

5sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station- fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 2

1-) Why does the passage call the inner self foolish? (12 kelime)

Because it gets

2-) What everyday behavior is used to show that people can work hard when they want to? (15 kelime)

They will keep

3-) How does the passage describe the world? (12 kelime)

It describes the

4-) For a weak heart, what are prayers like during life in this world? (7 kelime)

They

5-) Why does the passage mention the grave, resurrection, and Sirat together? (11 kelime)

To show

6-) What kind of reward is promised for worship? (4 kelime)

Paradise

7-) What is the difference between the man who promises money and Allah, according to the passage? (12 kelime)

The man may

8-) What might happen to someone who is careless and disrespectful in worship? (8 kelime)

He may

9-) What serious outcome is mentioned for those who treat worship carelessly? (7 kelime)

They

10-) What warning is given to someone who neglects worship while fearing only worldly punishment? (17 kelime)

He should realize that

5sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-
fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 3

1-) What complaint of the self is answered in this passage? (10 kelime)

The complaint

2-) What two worldly reasons are given that can make a person work hard? (10 kelime)

Getting a

3-) What does that example reveal about human behavior? (15 kelime)

People often give

4-) According to the passage, how are prayers a blessing for a person's heart in this life? (6 kelime)

They

5-) Why is it foolish to trust a human promise but act carelessly about Allah's promise? (9 kelime)

Because Allah's

6-) On the Sirat, how do prayers help? (11 kelime)

They help

7-) What is one sign that someone is treating worship badly? (10 kelime)

He performs

8-) What is wrong with doing worship in a bored or unwilling way? (10 kelime)

It shows

9-) What comparison shows that fear should push a person toward worship? (19 kelime)

If fear of a

10-) What is one main lesson of the whole passage? (20 kelime)

A believer should perform prayer

5sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station- fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 4

1-) What false idea about worship is challenged in this passage? (14 kelime)

The false idea

2-) What does the passage say a person might do for just a little worldly benefit? (9 kelime)

He might

3-) What does this tell us about how people often measure value? (12 kelime)

They may chase

4-) What does the passage teach about Allah's promise compared with a human promise? (10 kelime)

A person

5-) On the Day of Judgment, what role do prayers have? (8 kelime)

They serve

6-) Why is the promise of eternal happiness more trustworthy than a promise from people? (6 kelime)

Because

7-) What makes Allah's promise different from the promise of a person? (5 kelime)

Allah's

8-) How long and how difficult is the worship described as being? (9 kelime)

It is

9-) What does such careless worship say about a person's view of Allah's gift? (8 kelime)

It shows

10-) If you had to say the passage's advice in one sentence, what would it be? (16 kelime)

Do your prayers willingly

5sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station- fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 5

1-) At the beginning of the passage, what is the self being corrected for? (9 kelime)

It is

2-) Which simple example from daily life is used first to challenge that mistake? (16 kelime)

A person may work

3-) Besides helping in this life, what future places or times are mentioned where prayer will help a person? (14 kelime)

It will help

4-) In the grave, what are prayers compared to? (7 kelime)

They

5-) What does this passage suggest about the value of a small amount of worship time? (9 kelime)

A short

6-) Why is the example of a person promising a gift after many days of work included? (16 kelime)

To show that people

7-) What huge rewards are mentioned from Allah for worship? (6 kelime)

Entry

8-) What are some wrong ways of performing worship mentioned in the passage? (10 kelime)

Doing it

9-) What comparison is made between fear of prison and fear of Hell?

(21 kelime)

If people can work hard

5sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-
fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 6

1-) What big mistake about prayer is answered in this passage? (14 kelime)

The mistake of

2-) According to the passage, how do the required prayers help a weak heart in this world? (7 kelime)

They

3-) In this world, what are the prayers said to be for the heart? (12 kelime)

They are like

4-) What does the passage say about crossing the Sirat? (8 kelime)

It says

5-) What help from prayer is mentioned for the resurrection? (12 kelime)

It acts like

6-) On the Sirat, what two kinds of help do prayers become? (8 kelime)

They become

7-) How does the passage describe the act of worship itself? (7 kelime)

It

8-) What may a person deserve if he treats Allah's promise lightly and serves unwillingly? (7 kelime)

A

9-) What balance of feelings does the passage encourage in worship?
(12 kelime)

It encourages both

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station- fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main question raised at the start of this passage about worship?

It asks whether worship really has little benefit and little reward.

2-) What does the example of being paid a little money teach?

It teaches that people often make strong effort for small worldly gain.

3-) What does the passage say prayer gives the heart during life in this world?

It gives spiritual strength and valuable support.

4-) What does prayer provide for the heart while a person lives in this temporary world?

It provides needed spiritual provision and wealth.

5-) For the grave, what two blessings of prayer are named?

Support and light.

6-) What kind of certainty is taught about Allah's promise?

It is completely certain and never broken.

7-) How is the time spent in worship described?

It is short, easy, and pleasant.

8-) Why is half-hearted worship presented as dangerous?

Because it shows disrespect toward Allah's promise and gift.

9-) How does the passage use fear to make its point?

It says that if fear of worldly jail can make people work, fear of Hell should move them even more.

10-) What message would this passage give to a student who says prayer is too hard?

Prayer is not too hard; it is light work with amazing rewards in this life and the next.

5sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station- fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why does the passage call the inner self foolish?

Because it gets tired of worship even though worship brings huge benefits.

2-) What everyday behavior is used to show that people can work hard when they want to?

They will keep working for hours for a small payment or because they feel threatened.

3-) How does the passage describe the world?

It describes the world as a temporary place where we are guests.

4-) For a weak heart, what are prayers like during life in this world?

They are like spiritual food and riches.

5-) Why does the passage mention the grave, resurrection, and Sirat together?

To show that prayer helps at every major stage after death.

6-) What kind of reward is promised for worship?

Paradise and everlasting happiness.

7-) What is the difference between the man who promises money and Allah, according to the passage?

The man may fail to keep his word, but Allah never fails.

8-) What might happen to someone who is careless and disrespectful in worship?

He may deserve a harsh warning and punishment.

9-) What serious outcome is mentioned for those who treat worship carelessly?

They may face severe blame and punishment.

10-) What warning is given to someone who neglects worship while fearing only worldly punishment?

He should realize that punishment in the next life is far more serious and should awaken him.

5sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-
fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 3 -
CEVAPLAR

1-) What complaint of the self is answered in this passage?

The complaint that worship is tiring and not worth much.

2-) What two worldly reasons are given that can make a person work hard?

Getting a small reward or being scared by a threat.

3-) What does that example reveal about human behavior?

People often give energy to small worldly things more easily than to great spiritual things.

4-) According to the passage, how are prayers a blessing for a person's heart in this life?

They strengthen and enrich the heart.

5-) Why is it foolish to trust a human promise but act carelessly about Allah's promise?

Because Allah's promise is completely true and much greater.

6-) On the Sirat, how do prayers help?

They help like light and a ride to carry a person.

7-) What is one sign that someone is treating worship badly?

He performs it as if forced and without sincere willingness.

8-) What is wrong with doing worship in a bored or unwilling way?

It shows disrespect for the gift and reward being offered.

9-) What comparison shows that fear should push a person toward worship?

If fear of a worldly prison can make someone work hard, fear of Hell should move him much more.

10-) What is one main lesson of the whole passage?

A believer should perform prayer eagerly because its rewards are great, its burden is light, and Allah's promise is certain.

5sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station- fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

- 1-) What false idea about worship is challenged in this passage?
The false idea that worship gives little back and is not worth the effort.
- 2-) What does the passage say a person might do for just a little worldly benefit?
He might keep working until evening without slowing down.
- 3-) What does this tell us about how people often measure value?
They may chase small worldly things while neglecting much greater spiritual rewards.
- 4-) What does the passage teach about Allah's promise compared with a human promise?
A person may break a promise, but Allah never does.
- 5-) On the Day of Judgment, what role do prayers have?
They serve like proof in a person's favor.
- 6-) Why is the promise of eternal happiness more trustworthy than a promise from people?
Because Allah cannot break His promise.
- 7-) What makes Allah's promise different from the promise of a person?
Allah's promise can never fail.
- 8-) How long and how difficult is the worship described as being?
It is described as brief and pleasant, not harsh.
- 9-) What does such careless worship say about a person's view of Allah's gift?
It shows he is not valuing it properly.
- 10-) If you had to say the passage's advice in one sentence, what would it be?
Do your prayers willingly and eagerly, because Allah's reward is immense and His warning is real.

5sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station- fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At the beginning of the passage, what is the self being corrected for?

It is being corrected for getting weary of worship.

2-) Which simple example from daily life is used first to challenge that mistake?

A person may work a long time for a small payment or because someone pressures him.

3-) Besides helping in this life, what future places or times are mentioned where prayer will help a person?

It will help in the grave, at the resurrection, and while crossing the Sirat.

4-) In the grave, what are prayers compared to?

They are compared to nourishment and light.

5-) What does this passage suggest about the value of a small amount of worship time?

A short time of worship can bring enormous reward.

6-) Why is the example of a person promising a gift after many days of work included?

To show that people trust weak human promises, so they should trust Allah's promise much more.

7-) What huge rewards are mentioned from Allah for worship?

Entry into Paradise and endless happiness.

8-) What are some wrong ways of performing worship mentioned in the passage?

Doing it resentfully, lazily, with boredom, or as though forced.

9-) What comparison is made between fear of prison and fear of Hell?

If people can work hard out of fear of prison, they should even more eagerly worship out of fear of Hell.

5sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station- fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What big mistake about prayer is answered in this passage?

The mistake of thinking prayer has little reward and is not worth much effort.

2-) According to the passage, how do the required prayers help a weak heart in this world?

They give it spiritual support and richness.

3-) In this world, what are the prayers said to be for the heart?

They are like provision and treasure for a weak and needy heart.

4-) What does the passage say about crossing the Sirat?

It says every person must pass over it.

5-) What help from prayer is mentioned for the resurrection?

It acts like a record or proof when a person is judged.

6-) On the Sirat, what two kinds of help do prayers become?

They become illumination and a means of transport.

7-) How does the passage describe the act of worship itself?

It describes it as short and enjoyable.

8-) What may a person deserve if he treats Allah's promise lightly and serves unwillingly?

A strong rebuke and a severe punishment.

9-) What balance of feelings does the passage encourage in worship?

It encourages both hope for great reward and fear of serious punishment.