Cevap 4 There were road vehicles, trains, boats, and airplanes.	Cevap 3 They were told to prepare for travel and for setting up their home there.	Cevap 2 He wanted them to travel and settle in a better place prepared for them.	Cevap 1 The lesson is that the daily prayers are very valuable, easy to gain, and foolish to neglect.
Cevap 8 He would resemble the fortunate servant.	Cevap 7 He told him to buy a ticket with it.	Cevap 6 True wisdom is to use what remains for what is necessary, not for extra pleasure.	Cevap 5 It shows that sinful or foolish choices can leave a person weak and unprepared.
Cevap 12 It shows they both began with the same opportunity.	Cevap 11 It says that person is acting in a very foolish and harmful way.	Cevap 10 It says that the prescribed prayers hold religion up like a pillar supports a building.	Cevap 9 Self-control helps a person save for what truly matters.

13 Which servant acted in a smart and successful way?	14 What poor habits are named for the second servant?	15 What does the friend want to protect the careless servant from?	16 What does that comparison help the reader understand?

Cevap 16 It helps the reader understand that a small cost can open the way to a huge reward.	Cevap 15 He wants to protect him from a long, hungry, lonely journey.	Cevap 14 Gambling, entertainment, laziness, and stubbornness are named.	Cevap 13 The fortunate servant did.
Cevap 20 He sent them to live on one of his rich farms.	Cevap 19 Because it helps explain clearly how precious prayer is and how wrong it is to ignore it.	Cevap 18 It wants the reader to see prayer as precious and worth the effort.	Cevap 17 It asks the reader to use clear reasoning and common sense.
Cevap 24 He compared it to a key that opens a treasure.	Cevap 23 It grew many times over.	Cevap 22 The first spent a little wisely, while the second spent almost everything foolishly.	Cevap 21 He treated it responsibly and used part of it for good benefit.
