Cevap 4 The king promised to return it later in a better form.	Cevap 3 It shows the men were caretakers, not the true owners.	Cevap 2 The time was full of turmoil, so nothing stayed secure.	Cevap 1 He gave each one an estate with the things needed to run it, like equipment, animals, and weapons.
Cevap 8 There would be worry from managing it and punishment for unfaithfulness.	Cevap 7 They would carry the stress of taking care of it and also be punished for breaking trust.	Cevap 6 Because they would lose the property, miss the reward, and face punishment too.	Cevap 5 He would no longer be lowly and ordinary, but honored in the king's service.
Cevap 12 He wanted to protect it from being wasted or ruined.	Cevap 11 A noble lieutenant brought it.	Cevap 10 People envied his excellent condition.	Cevap 9 His arrogance made him speak that way.

13 What was the main action the king asked the men to take?	14 What improvement did the king promise after the hard times ended?	15 What does the king's promise to handle expenses show about the men's situation?	16 What does the first man understand that the second man does not?

Cevap 16 He understands that accepting the king's offer leads to safety and reward.	Cevap 15 It shows they were not strong enough or rich enough to manage it alone.	Cevap 14 He promised the property would be returned in better condition.	Cevap 13 He asked them to transfer the trust back to him.
Cevap 20 The world around them was full of war and instability.	Cevap 19 He acted as if his stay in the estate would never end.	Cevap 18 He accepted it completely and with thanks.	Cevap 17 He said he was glad and grateful to accept it.
Cevap 24 Because he took responsibility for the costs and equipment they could not handle.	Cevap 23 He would return it in a better state.	Cevap 22 He said he would count it as their property and pay them well for it.	Cevap 21 Because the time was unstable, and the estate could easily be destroyed or changed.
