Cevap 4 Each one begins an important change or turning point.	Cevap 3 The season of spring after the Intermediate Realm is also described as certain.	Cevap 2 It says it is as sure and certain as the coming of morning after night.	Cevap 1 It makes a person think about the morning when people will be raised again.
Cevap 8 Because these times remind people of great changes and of Allah's mighty works and mercy.	Cevap 7 They are a natural duty, the foundation of worship, and a debt that must be paid.	Cevap 6 They call to mind His power and His mercy.	Cevap 5 They remind people of changes in each year, each age, and each long period of history.
Cevap 12 It says that it will surely come, just like morning surely comes.	Cevap 11 It uses the certain return of morning as an example to show that resurrection is also certain.	Cevap 10 It is linked with the morning of resurrection.	Cevap 9 The conclusion is that the required prayers fit these times perfectly.

13 What is shared by all five prayer times?	14 What do these times remind people about every year, every age, and every epoch?	15 Which divine qualities are highlighted in this passage?	16 How are the prescribed prayers described in relation to worship?

Cevap 16 They are described as the base or main support of worship.	Cevap 15 Allah's power and mercy are highlighted.	Cevap 14 They remind people of Allah's acts of power and His merciful gifts in all those periods.	Cevap 13 All of them mark the start of an important change.
Cevap 20 The passage says both are equally certain.	Cevap 19 It points to the resurrection.	Cevap 18 Because the times themselves match the meanings of worship and remind people of Allah's greatness and kindness.	Cevap 17 It teaches that praying then is very proper and well-matched to those times.
Cevap 24 They help people remember His amazing power and His merciful blessings.	Cevap 23 They each signal the beginning of a major change.	Cevap 22 The Intermediate Realm comes before it.	Cevap 21 Spring is mentioned.
