Cevap 16 The problem is feeling bored with the regular daily prayers.	Cevap 15 He learned that a person should work on fixing his own soul before trying to fix others.	Cevap 14 It was taking that lesson from Satan.	Cevap 13 It is shown as listening with the ear of laziness.
Cevap 20 He saw that it came through laziness and satanic whispering.	Cevap 19 The speaker examined himself and heard the same words from his own inner self.	Cevap 18 Because the story is about someone complaining that the prayers happen regularly every day.	Cevap 17 It teaches that prayer times are appointed and not left random.
Cevap 24 Ignorance, idleness, and heedlessness.	Cevap 23 They are needed to answer the self's mistaken and careless complaint.	Cevap 22 He chose to begin reform by dealing with his own self first.	Cevap 21 It means the lower self can push a person toward wrong attitudes and actions.
