Cevap 4 Because a person is suffering from things that are either over already or have not happened yet.	Cevap 3 The enemy saw the opening, attacked the middle, and defeated him.	Cevap 2 The past and the future.	Cevap 1 It mixes up the past, present, and future, and becomes upset by thinking about pains and duties that should not all be carried at once.
Cevap 8 Patience in worship.	Cevap 7 Sad, heavy feelings can turn into cheerful effort.	Cevap 6 The good result, such as blessing and reward, remains.	Cevap 5 Those days have not come yet, so worrying about them now is like suffering before there is any real need.
Cevap 12 It shows how strength is scattered in the wrong places instead of being kept where it is needed now.	Cevap 11 It makes the person feel weighed down by pains that have already ended.	Cevap 10 The impatient self, or nafs.	Cevap 9 Do not waste strength on the past and future; use patience wisely and do today's worship with courage and hope.

13 Why was the commander's plan foolish?	14 How does the passage describe worrying today about tomorrow's pain?	15 What should a person feel when thinking of continuing worship?	16 How many forms of patience does the passage mention?
