

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 1

1-) What question is asked at the start of this passage? (23 kelime)

It asks whether all created

2-) What everyday-style example is used to help explain that statement? (15 kelime)

An example is

3-) How does that town example help explain the rest of the passage? (17 kelime)

It shows that when

4-) After this example, what big truth does the passage teach about all things? (9 kelime)

It teaches

5-) How are gardens described in a way that helps us understand their blessings? (15 kelime)

They are described

6-) How are gardens like places where food is prepared? (14 kelime)

They bring forth

7-) What surprising thing do soft roots do? (8 kelime)

They go

8-) What unusual ability do roots and rootlets have? (11 kelime)

They can

9-) Who is criticized in the passage for trusting only in nature and physical causes? (12 kelime)

People who explain

10-) How do the examples of roots and leaves answer people who only trust natural causes? (14 kelime)

They show that

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 2

1-) What claim from earlier is being checked again at the start of this passage? (21 kelime)

The claim is that all

2-) What would you conclude if one person controlled a whole town by force? (12 kelime)

I would conclude

3-) If that person is really able to do it, whose support must he have? (9 kelime)

He must

4-) Why are seeds and grains mentioned before trees? (14 kelime)

They show how

5-) What does the passage say trees do for us? (12 kelime)

They bring out

6-) Why are cows, camels, sheep, and goats called blessed in this passage? (10 kelime)

Because Allah

7-) Why is the milk compared to something life-giving? (9 kelime)

Because it

8-) What does that surprise help us understand? (13 kelime)

It helps us

9-) What two examples from prophets are used near the end of the passage? (16 kelime)

One example is Musa

10-) What wrong idea is being pushed back against by these examples? (17 kelime)

The idea that nature

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 3

1-) What is the main question raised in the first line of the target passage? (14 kelime)

It asks whether

2-) Is the answer doubtful or certain in the passage? (5 kelime)

It

3-) What would that example make you sure about? (18 kelime)

It would make you

4-) How is that like the way things work in nature? (13 kelime)

The things we

5-) What makes seeds and grains amazing in this passage? (13 kelime)

They hold the

6-) What image does the passage use to describe gardens full of foods? (11 kelime)

It uses

7-) What special gift do cows, camels, sheep, and goats provide? (5 kelime)

They

8-) What can roots do that seems almost impossible? (8 kelime)

They can

9-) Why is it important that the roots are soft? (16 kelime)

It makes the action

10-) What two natural forces are shown to be under Allah's rule? (7 kelime)

Hardness

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 4

1-) What statement about all beings is repeated at the beginning of the passage? (17 kelime)

The statement is that

2-) In that example, what would people understand about the man's power? (22 kelime)

They would understand that his

3-) In the example, what is the man compared to? (10 kelime)

He is

4-) What is the lesson about trees from this passage? (15 kelime)

Trees receive gifts

5-) What do trees give people that shows mercy and care? (7 kelime)

They

6-) Why is the milk of those animals described as a mercy? (17 kelime)

It is pure, gentle,

7-) What words best describe that milk from the passage's meaning? (6 kelime)

It

8-) What do leaves teach us by staying fresh in very hot weather? (9 kelime)

They show

9-) Which two parts of nature are especially said to be under command? (8 kelime)

Rock-like hardness

10-) What is the main message of this whole passage? (18 kelime)

Everything in creation works

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 5

1-) What idea is the passage trying to prove right after the opening question? (13 kelime)

It is trying

2-) Why would a single person ordering around a whole town seem impossible by his own strength? (14 kelime)

Because one person

3-) What similar conclusion does the passage want us to make about the world? (14 kelime)

It wants us

4-) Why are seeds and grains strong signs of this truth? (16 kelime)

Because something so tiny

5-) How do gardens help people, based on this passage? (8 kelime)

They provide

6-) What do the animals named in the passage have in common? (9 kelime)

They are

7-) What is surprising about the roots of plants and trees? (14 kelime)

Even though they

8-) What does this contrast help prove? (15 kelime)

It helps prove

9-) What do the leaves do that amazes the reader? (9 kelime)

They stay

10-) What error of some thinkers is being challenged in this passage? (14 kelime)

The error of

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 6

1-) What teaching is asked about in the first sentence of the target passage? (13 kelime)

It asks whether

2-) What human example is used first to make the idea easier to understand? (18 kelime)

The passage uses the

3-) What does that scene show about acting with authority? (17 kelime)

It shows that big

4-) How does the passage apply this idea to everything in creation? (12 kelime)

It says all

5-) What do trees do with the blessings given to them? (10 kelime)

They bring

6-) What picture is used for gardens to show how they serve people? (13 kelime)

Gardens are pictured

7-) What does the milk example tell us about mercy? (13 kelime)

It tells us

8-) What hard obstacle do roots go through? (7 kelime)

They

9-) What do leaves do during strong heat? (13 kelime)

They keep their

10-) What final lesson does the passage give about the created world? (15 kelime)

The world is

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What question is asked at the start of this passage?

It asks whether all created things say "In the Name of Allah" in the way they are made and the way they act.

2-) What everyday-style example is used to help explain that statement?

An example is given of one man making a whole town's people gather and work.

3-) How does that town example help explain the rest of the passage?

It shows that when something very great is done, it points to a higher power behind it.

4-) After this example, what big truth does the passage teach about all things?

It teaches that all things work under Allah's authority.

5-) How are gardens described in a way that helps us understand their blessings?

They are described like cooking places where many kinds of foods are prepared for people.

6-) How are gardens like places where food is prepared?

They bring forth many different foods as if meals are being made for us.

7-) What surprising thing do soft roots do?

They go through hard soil and even rock.

8-) What unusual ability do roots and rootlets have?

They can enter and pass through very hard ground and stone.

9-) Who is criticized in the passage for trusting only in nature and physical causes?

People who explain things as if nature works by itself are criticized.

10-) How do the examples of roots and leaves answer people who only trust natural causes?

They show that the real control belongs to Allah, not to blind natural forces.

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What claim from earlier is being checked again at the start of this passage?

The claim is that all beings say "In the Name of Allah" through how they are created and how they behave.

2-) What would you conclude if one person controlled a whole town by force?

I would conclude that he has authority and support from a ruler.

3-) If that person is really able to do it, whose support must he have?

He must have support from a ruler or government.

4-) Why are seeds and grains mentioned before trees?

They show how something very small can be the beginning of something much bigger.

5-) What does the passage say trees do for us?

They bring out blessings and offer useful things like fruits and produce.

6-) Why are cows, camels, sheep, and goats called blessed in this passage?

Because Allah gives people great benefit through them, especially milk.

7-) Why is the milk compared to something life-giving?

Because it is pure, beneficial, and a precious nourishment.

8-) What does that surprise help us understand?

It helps us understand that physical weakness does not stop what Allah commands.

9-) What two examples from prophets are used near the end of the passage?

One example is Musa striking the rock, and the other is Ibrahim being safe from fire.

10-) What wrong idea is being pushed back against by these examples?

The idea that nature or material causes are in charge by themselves is being pushed back against.

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main question raised in the first line of the target passage?

It asks whether all things really declare Allah's name by the way they function.

2-) Is the answer doubtful or certain in the passage?

It is presented as certain.

3-) What would that example make you sure about?

It would make you sure that the man is using authority from above, not only his own strength.

4-) How is that like the way things work in nature?

The things we see are doing their work through Allah's power behind them.

5-) What makes seeds and grains amazing in this passage?

They hold the beginning of very large trees even though they are tiny.

6-) What image does the passage use to describe gardens full of foods?

It uses the image of places where many foods are prepared.

7-) What special gift do cows, camels, sheep, and goats provide?

They provide milk for people.

8-) What can roots do that seems almost impossible?

They can push through hard earth and stone.

9-) Why is it important that the roots are soft?

It makes the action more amazing and shows that the power behind them is from Allah.

10-) What two natural forces are shown to be under Allah's rule?

Hardness and heat are under Allah's rule.

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What statement about all beings is repeated at the beginning of the passage?

The statement is that all beings say "In the Name of Allah" through their condition and actions.

2-) In that example, what would people understand about the man's power?

They would understand that his strength is not just his own and that he is backed by the ruler and the state.

3-) In the example, what is the man compared to?

He is compared to a soldier serving under higher authority.

4-) What is the lesson about trees from this passage?

Trees receive gifts from Allah's mercy and then give fruits and other benefits to people.

5-) What do trees give people that shows mercy and care?

They give people useful produce and nourishment.

6-) Why is the milk of those animals described as a mercy?

It is pure, gentle, and nourishing, and it is given to people as a gift from Allah.

7-) What words best describe that milk from the passage's meaning?

It is pure, gentle, and life-supporting.

8-) What do leaves teach us by staying fresh in very hot weather?

They show that heat is also under Allah's command.

9-) Which two parts of nature are especially said to be under command?

Rock-like hardness and burning heat are especially mentioned.

10-) What is the main message of this whole passage?

Everything in creation works through Allah's power and mercy, so we should see His control in all things.

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What idea is the passage trying to prove right after the opening question?

It is trying to prove that all created things act in Allah's name.

2-) Why would a single person ordering around a whole town seem impossible by his own strength?

Because one person alone would not have enough power or authority to do that.

3-) What similar conclusion does the passage want us to make about the world?

It wants us to see that the works of creation come from Allah's power.

4-) Why are seeds and grains strong signs of this truth?

Because something so tiny becomes the start of something huge, which shows amazing power beyond itself.

5-) How do gardens help people, based on this passage?

They provide many kinds of foods for people.

6-) What do the animals named in the passage have in common?

They are useful animals that give people wholesome milk.

7-) What is surprising about the roots of plants and trees?

Even though they are very soft, they can move through hard ground and rock.

8-) What does this contrast help prove?

It helps prove that the roots succeed by Allah's command, not by their own strength.

9-) What do the leaves do that amazes the reader?

They stay fresh with moisture even during severe heat.

10-) What error of some thinkers is being challenged in this passage?

The error of thinking nature works by itself without Allah's command is being challenged.

5sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What teaching is asked about in the first sentence of the target passage?

It asks whether all beings really proclaim Allah's name by their very state.

2-) What human example is used first to make the idea easier to understand?

The passage uses the example of one man making all the people of a town move and work.

3-) What does that scene show about acting with authority?

It shows that big actions can point to hidden authority behind the one who appears in front.

4-) How does the passage apply this idea to everything in creation?

It says all things do their work as signs of Allah's power.

5-) What do trees do with the blessings given to them?

They bring them out and offer them for our benefit.

6-) What picture is used for gardens to show how they serve people?

Gardens are pictured like cooking pots or kitchens making many kinds of food.

7-) What does the milk example tell us about mercy?

It tells us that Allah sends tender and beneficial gifts to His creation.

8-) What hard obstacle do roots go through?

They go through tough earth and rock.

9-) What do leaves do during strong heat?

They keep their moisture and do not dry up as we might expect.

10-) What final lesson does the passage give about the created world?

The world is full of signs that everything obeys Allah and serves by His command.