

5sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 1

1-) What does the passage say a person will find in believing in Allah? (6 kelime)

Great

2-) What were the two men hoping to gain from their trip? (4 kelime)

Enjoyment

3-) How did the first man view the land he entered? (9 kelime)

He saw

4-) What does his seeing the whole country as a mourning place tell us? (8 kelime)

He could

5-) What did he think he saw all around him besides enemies? (6 kelime)

Dead

6-) How did he understand the people around him? (5 kelime)

As

7-) How did the second man view other people? (8 kelime)

He saw

8-) What did he tell the unhappy man about the source of his false vision? (9 kelime)

It came

9-) What did the second man tell the first man was the real problem? (12 kelime)

The ugliness inside

10-) What did he realize about the role of drink in his condition? (8 kelime)

He realized

5sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 2

1-) What is the main lesson the story is used to explain? (9 kelime)

That belief

2-) Which traveler had a bad view of life, and why? (11 kelime)

The first

3-) What effect did his way of thinking have on the whole country in his eyes? (9 kelime)

It made

4-) In his eyes, what were the people around him like? (5 kelime)

They

5-) What sounds of happiness did he hear? (7 kelime)

Good

6-) What joyful things did he notice everywhere? (5 kelime)

Festivals,

7-) What did the second man do when he met the first man again? (9 kelime)

He understood

8-) What was his response after his good experience? (3 kelime)

9-) What change took place in the unhappy man after the advice? (9 kelime)

He recovered

10-) What would happen if he did that? (15 kelime)

The false covering

5sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 3

1-) Which verse is mentioned near the start of the passage? (9 kelime)

The verse

2-) Why is the story called a comparison? (19 kelime)

Because it shows two

3-) What kinds of scenes made him upset wherever he went? (10 kelime)

He thought

4-) What larger mood covered the whole country in his eyes? (4 kelime)

Deep

5-) What four good qualities are given for the second man? (9 kelime)

He was

6-) How did these qualities change what he saw in the land? (13 kelime)

They helped him

7-) What words of faith and praise did he hear? (9 kelime)

He heard

8-) What extra success shows that his way was beneficial in more than one way? (6 kelime)

He

9-) What basic message did he give the first man about his false view? (9 kelime)

His inner

10-) What argument did he make from the condition of the country itself? (14 kelime)

Its clear signs

5sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 4

1-) What kind of belief is highlighted in the passage by the quoted verse? (4 kelime)

Belief

2-) What kind of path did the second man choose? (5 kelime)

A

3-) What did he think was happening to weak people in that land? (8 kelime)

He thought

4-) What was the only escape the first man found from his sadness? (11 kelime)

He thought

5-) What inner qualities gave the second man a better view? (6 kelime)

Faith,

6-) How did the second man see the same country? (9 kelime)

He saw

7-) What does his profitable trade add to the message of the story? (10 kelime)

It shows

8-) What practical benefit did the second man gain during the trip? (4 kelime)

He

9-) What evidence in the country supported that claim? (7 kelime)

Many

10-) What happened to the unhappy man in the end? (16 kelime)

He came to his

5sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 5

1-) What does the passage promise to explain by using a story? (9 kelime)

The joy

2-) What made the first man's journey turn dark in his own eyes? (7 kelime)

His

3-) What did repeated scenes like that make the whole country seem to be? (5 kelime)

One

4-) How did the second man's character help him see differently? (12 kelime)

His faith and

5-) What made the second traveler different in character? (7 kelime)

He

6-) How did their different views affect their feelings? (12 kelime)

The first lived

7-) How did his feelings differ from the first traveler's feelings? (10 kelime)

He felt

8-) What would happen if that inner veil were removed? (8 kelime)

He would

9-) What examples did he give of the first man's mistaken understanding? (16 kelime)

He had taken laughter

10-) How did the first man respond after hearing this advice? (6 kelime)

He

5sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 6

1-) What phrase from the Qur'an appears in the passage before the story begins? (9 kelime)

The phrase

2-) What was wrong with the first man's way of looking at things? (6 kelime)

He

3-) What kind of cries and suffering did he imagine around him? (7 kelime)

He

4-) How did he wrongly judge the people around him? (7 kelime)

He

5-) What was the spiritual effect of this on him? (6 kelime)

His

6-) How were people connected to him in his eyes? (6 kelime)

They

7-) What did the sounds of praise and declaration of faith mean to him? (7 kelime)

They

8-) After that success, what was his response? (5 kelime)

He

9-) What does the advice about purifying the heart teach? (9 kelime)

A clean

10-) What did he say to the man who guided him? (11 kelime)

He prayed

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

- 1-) What does the passage say a person will find in believing in Allah?
Great happiness, blessings, pleasure, and ease.
- 2-) What were the two men hoping to gain from their trip?
Enjoyment and business benefit.
- 3-) How did the first man view the land he entered?
He saw it as an evil and painful place.
- 4-) What does his seeing the whole country as a mourning place tell us?
He could not see any goodness or hope.
- 5-) What did he think he saw all around him besides enemies?
Dead bodies and crying, hopeless children.
- 6-) How did he understand the people around him?
As friends and close companions.
- 7-) How did the second man view other people?
He saw them as friends and like family.
- 8-) What did he tell the unhappy man about the source of his false vision?
It came from the darkness within his own self.
- 9-) What did the second man tell the first man was the real problem?
The ugliness inside him was making him see the outside world wrongly.
- 10-) What did he realize about the role of drink in his condition?
He realized it had driven him into madness.

5sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main lesson the story is used to explain?

That belief in Allah brings joy, goodness, and ease.

2-) Which traveler had a bad view of life, and why?

The first traveler did, because he was arrogant, self-centered, and gloomy.

3-) What effect did his way of thinking have on the whole country in his eyes?

It made the whole place seem filled with grief.

4-) In his eyes, what were the people around him like?

They were enemies and strangers.

5-) What sounds of happiness did he hear?

Good wishes, thanks, and words praising Allah.

6-) What joyful things did he notice everywhere?

Festivals, remembering Allah, and happiness.

7-) What did the second man do when he met the first man again?

He understood his condition and gave him sincere advice.

8-) What was his response after his good experience?

He thanked Allah.

9-) What change took place in the unhappy man after the advice?

He recovered his senses and turned back in repentance.

10-) What would happen if he did that?

The false covering over his sight would be lifted and he would see the truth.

5sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Which verse is mentioned near the start of the passage?

The verse about those who believe in the Unseen.

2-) Why is the story called a comparison?

Because it shows two different kinds of people and how they see the same kind of journey very differently.

3-) What kinds of scenes made him upset wherever he went?

He thought he saw helpless people crying under harsh oppressors.

4-) What larger mood covered the whole country in his eyes?

Deep mourning and sadness.

5-) What four good qualities are given for the second man?

He was godly, devout, fair-minded, and of good character.

6-) How did these qualities change what he saw in the land?

They helped him see goodness, joy, and closeness instead of fear and grief.

7-) What words of faith and praise did he hear?

He heard words glorifying Allah and declaring Allah's oneness.

8-) What extra success shows that his way was beneficial in more than one way?

He also did well in trade.

9-) What basic message did he give the first man about his false view?

His inner corruption had colored what he saw outside.

10-) What argument did he make from the condition of the country itself?

Its clear signs of progress and accomplishment proved there was order and goodness there.

5sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of belief is highlighted in the passage by the quoted verse?

Belief in the Unseen.

2-) What kind of path did the second man choose?

A godly and good path.

3-) What did he think was happening to weak people in that land?

He thought they were suffering under cruel oppressors.

4-) What was the only escape the first man found from his sadness?

He thought drunkenness was the only way not to notice it.

5-) What inner qualities gave the second man a better view?

Faith, devotion, fairness, and good manners.

6-) How did the second man see the same country?

He saw it as a beautiful and joyful place.

7-) What does his profitable trade add to the message of the story?

It shows that faith brings benefit in practical life too.

8-) What practical benefit did the second man gain during the trip?

He made profitable business.

9-) What evidence in the country supported that claim?

Many clear signs of development and success.

10-) What happened to the unhappy man in the end?

He came to his senses, repented, and admitted he had been acting crazily because of drink.

5sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage promise to explain by using a story?

The joy and ease found in belief in Allah.

2-) What made the first man's journey turn dark in his own eyes?

His negative outlook made everything seem bad.

3-) What did repeated scenes like that make the whole country seem to be?

One giant place of grief.

4-) How did the second man's character help him see differently?

His faith and good character helped him see beauty, friendship, and joy.

5-) What made the second traveler different in character?

He was faithful, devoted, fair, and good-mannered.

6-) How did their different views affect their feelings?

The first lived in torment, while the second felt joy and peace.

7-) How did his feelings differ from the first traveler's feelings?

He felt joy and contentment instead of sorrow and pain.

8-) What would happen if that inner veil were removed?

He would be able to see reality correctly.

9-) What examples did he give of the first man's mistaken understanding?

He had taken laughter for crying and an orderly release from duty for looting and destruction.

10-) How did the first man respond after hearing this advice?

He repented and admitted his error.

5sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What phrase from the Qur'an appears in the passage before the story begins?

The phrase about believing in what cannot be seen.

2-) What was wrong with the first man's way of looking at things?

He was selfish, arrogant, and gloomy.

3-) What kind of cries and suffering did he imagine around him?

He imagined helpless people lamenting under oppression.

4-) How did he wrongly judge the people around him?

He treated them as enemies and outsiders.

5-) What was the spiritual effect of this on him?

His inner self was in torment.

6-) How were people connected to him in his eyes?

They seemed like friends and relatives.

7-) What did the sounds of praise and declaration of faith mean to him?

They showed cheerful worship and meaningful purpose.

8-) After that success, what was his response?

He gave thanks to Allah.

9-) What does the advice about purifying the heart teach?

A clean heart helps a person understand reality correctly.

10-) What did he say to the man who guided him?

He prayed good for him and thanked him for rescuing him.