

5sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 1

1-) In the story, what were the two soldiers told to do at the beginning? (9 kelime)

They were

2-) What choice faced both soldiers? (8 kelime)

They had

3-) What did the guide say about the left side? (12 kelime)

He said it

4-) Which road had rules and authority over it? (5 kelime)

The

5-) What bad things were connected with the left-hand road? (8 kelime)

No real

6-) Which soldier is called fortunate in the story? (7 kelime)

The

7-) What bigger troubles was he saved from inside himself? (14 kelime)

He was saved

8-) What does his begging show about the result of his choice? (14 kelime)

It shows that

9-) Why was he not dependent on others? (8 kelime)

He had

10-) What kind of person was the second soldier by the end? (7 kelime)

A

5sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 2

1-) Who met the two soldiers when the road split? (9 kelime)

A man

2-) What did the man at the fork say about the road on the right? (14 kelime)

He said it

3-) What did he say about the left road's outcome for most people? (11 kelime)

Most people

4-) What did the successful soldier do after hearing the advice? (7 kelime)

He

5-) What did the right-road travelers have to carry besides food? (3 kelime)

6-) What does this show about appearances? (11 kelime)

Something can

7-) Which soldier is called luckless? (7 kelime)

The

8-) What happened to the soldier who left the army's way? (11 kelime)

He traveled

9-) Why is the obedient soldier described as fearing no one? (10 kelime)

Because he

10-) What made the other soldier deserving of punishment? (7 kelime)

He

5sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 3

1-) What two things does the passage compare at the start? (13 kelime)

It compares worship

2-) According to him, how often did the right road lead to good results? (12 kelime)

Most of the

3-) How were the two roads alike? (6 kelime)

They

4-) What hidden advantage did the right road offer? (8 kelime)

It gave

5-) What kind of weight did he carry physically? (7 kelime)

He

6-) What did he gain by doing that? (12 kelime)

He gained safety

7-) What happened to the soldier who accepted that responsibility? (10 kelime)

He was

8-) Even though he carried less on his body, what heavier load did he gain? (9 kelime)

He gained

9-) What happened when the disobedient soldier finally arrived? (7 kelime)

He

10-) What happened to the obedient soldier when he reached the city? (10 kelime)

He received

5sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 4

1-) What does the passage say lies in worship? (4 kelime)

Great

2-) Who are the main characters in the story? (2 kelime)

3-) Did the man say one road was longer than the other? (8 kelime)

No. He

4-) What did the travelers on the left road not have to carry? (9 kelime)

They did

5-) What does the rifle carried on the right road suggest? (7 kelime)

It

6-) What did the other soldier do after hearing the same advice? (10 kelime)

He chose

7-) What did he wrongly think he was gaining? (8 kelime)

He thought

8-) What was the emotional state of the disobedient soldier during his trip? (6 kelime)

He

9-) What does trembling before every object and event show? (9 kelime)

It shows

10-) What qualities did the obedient soldier show? (12 kelime)

He respected order,

5sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 5

1-) At the start of the comparison, what are listeners told to understand? (16 kelime)

They are told to

2-) What job or role did the two men in the story have? (3 kelime)

3-) What important place did they reach during the journey? (9 kelime)

They reached

4-) Why was that ease misleading? (12 kelime)

It only looked

5-) Why might the left road seem easier at first? (13 kelime)

It looked lighter

6-) What happened to his inner life because of that? (11 kelime)

His heart

7-) How did he react to things around him? (7 kelime)

He

8-) How does the passage contrast outer load and inner load? (13 kelime)

A small outer

9-) How did each soldier end his journey? (8 kelime)

One was

10-) What warning does the story give about rejecting rightful order? (13 kelime)

Rejecting rightful order

5sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 6

1-) What four things are connected in the opening line of the passage? (18 kelime)

Worship is linked with

2-) What did the guide say about the chances of success on the right side? (12 kelime)

He said most

3-) Before they chose a road, what help did they receive? (9 kelime)

Someone explained

4-) What good things were connected with the right-hand road? (10 kelime)

Benefit, inner

5-) What does carrying those items show about the right road? (10 kelime)

It shows

6-) What burden did the successful soldier carry on his back? (9 kelime)

He carried

7-) What happened to him on the road because of that choice? (6 kelime)

He

8-) How did the obedient soldier travel emotionally? (7 kelime)

With

9-) What kind of person was the first soldier by the end? (9 kelime)

An honorable

10-) If someone judges only by what feels lighter at first, which soldier is he thinking like? (7 kelime)

He

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the story, what were the two soldiers told to do at the beginning?

They were ordered to travel to a faraway city.

2-) What choice faced both soldiers?

They had to choose between two different roads.

3-) What did the guide say about the left side?

He said it gave no benefit and most who took it lost.

4-) Which road had rules and authority over it?

The road on the right.

5-) What bad things were connected with the left-hand road?

No real gain and loss for most travelers.

6-) Which soldier is called fortunate in the story?

The one who chose the right road.

7-) What bigger troubles was he saved from inside himself?

He was saved from great fear and from having to depend on other people.

8-) What does his begging show about the result of his choice?

It shows that trying to avoid a small burden led him into greater weakness.

9-) Why was he not dependent on others?

He had obeyed and carried what he needed.

10-) What kind of person was the second soldier by the end?

A rebel and deserter who faced punishment.

5sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

- 1-) Who met the two soldiers when the road split?
A man standing at the fork spoke to them.
- 2-) What did the man at the fork say about the road on the right?
He said it usually brought benefit and peace of mind, with no real loss.
- 3-) What did he say about the left road's outcome for most people?
Most people who took it ended up harmed and without gain.
- 4-) What did the successful soldier do after hearing the advice?
He chose the road on the right.
- 5-) What did the right-road travelers have to carry besides food?
A strong rifle.
- 6-) What does this show about appearances?
Something can look easy on the outside while hiding harm inside.
- 7-) Which soldier is called luckless?
The one who chose the left road.
- 8-) What happened to the soldier who left the army's way?
He traveled in need, afraid of everything, and begging from people.
- 9-) Why is the obedient soldier described as fearing no one?
Because he was prepared and was walking the proper path.
- 10-) What made the other soldier deserving of punishment?
He rebelled and deserted instead of obeying.

5sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two things does the passage compare at the start?

It compares worship with profit and happiness, and wrongdoing with loss and ruin.

2-) According to him, how often did the right road lead to good results?

Most of the time, with nine out of ten travelers doing well.

3-) How were the two roads alike?

They were the same in distance.

4-) What hidden advantage did the right road offer?

It gave protection, order, and a good ending.

5-) What kind of weight did he carry physically?

He carried a manageable amount of equipment.

6-) What did he gain by doing that?

He gained safety in his heart and freedom from depending on others.

7-) What happened to the soldier who accepted that responsibility?

He was protected from fear and from depending on others.

8-) Even though he carried less on his body, what heavier load did he gain?

He gained deep worry, fear, and dependence on others.

9-) What happened when the disobedient soldier finally arrived?

He was punished for rebellion and desertion.

10-) What happened to the obedient soldier when he reached the city?

He received a fitting reward for doing his duty faithfully.

5sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say lies in worship?

Great gain and happiness.

2-) Who are the main characters in the story?

Two soldiers.

3-) Did the man say one road was longer than the other?

No. He said they were equal in length.

4-) What did the travelers on the left road not have to carry?

They did not have to carry supplies or weapons.

5-) What does the rifle carried on the right road suggest?

It suggests strength and protection against danger.

6-) What did the other soldier do after hearing the same advice?

He chose to leave the ordered path and go left.

7-) What did he wrongly think he was gaining?

He thought he was gaining comfort and relief.

8-) What was the emotional state of the disobedient soldier during his trip?

He was anxious, pressured, and frightened.

9-) What does trembling before every object and event show?

It shows that he was living in constant fear.

10-) What qualities did the obedient soldier show?

He respected order, protected his equipment, and stayed loyal to his duty.

5sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At the start of the comparison, what are listeners told to understand?

They are told to understand that worship brings great good, while sinful behavior brings great harm.

2-) What job or role did the two men in the story have?

They were soldiers.

3-) What important place did they reach during the journey?

They reached a fork where one road became two.

4-) Why was that ease misleading?

It only looked comfortable, but it did not lead to real good.

5-) Why might the left road seem easier at first?

It looked lighter and more comfortable because there was no load to carry.

6-) What happened to his inner life because of that?

His heart and spirit were kept safe from many heavy troubles.

7-) How did he react to things around him?

He was scared by everything he faced.

8-) How does the passage contrast outer load and inner load?

A small outer burden can save a person from a huge inner burden.

9-) How did each soldier end his journey?

One was punished, and the other was rewarded.

10-) What warning does the story give about rejecting rightful order?

Rejecting rightful order can bring misery even if it looks easy at first.

5sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What four things are connected in the opening line of the passage?

Worship is linked with profit and happiness, while vice and wasteful living are linked with loss and ruin.

2-) What did the guide say about the chances of success on the right side?

He said most who took it gained greatly and felt at ease.

3-) Before they chose a road, what help did they receive?

Someone explained the dangers and benefits of each road.

4-) What good things were connected with the right-hand road?

Benefit, inner peace, and a good result for most travelers.

5-) What does carrying those items show about the right road?

It shows that the road requires preparation, responsibility, and readiness.

6-) What burden did the successful soldier carry on his back?

He carried a moderate load of supplies and equipment.

7-) What happened to him on the road because of that choice?

He became needy, frightened, and miserable.

8-) How did the obedient soldier travel emotionally?

With peace in his heart and conscience.

9-) What kind of person was the first soldier by the end?

An honorable soldier who had done his duty well.

10-) If someone judges only by what feels lighter at first, which soldier is he thinking like?

He is thinking like the disobedient soldier.