

5sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 1

1-) In the comparison, what do the two travelers stand for? (21 kelime)

One stands for people who

2-) Who does the rebellious traveler represent? (11 kelime)

He represents

3-) Why are worship and fear of Allah compared to things a traveler carries? (16 kelime)

Because they may feel

4-) How does this belief help a person when he is afraid or in trouble? (17 kelime)

It helps him turn

5-) What does the worshipper believe about who controls provision? (6 kelime)

He

6-) What result comes from this trust in Allah? (10 kelime)

The person

7-) How is the fearful philosopher different from the worshipper? (16 kelime)

He had worldly learning

8-) How does the passage describe the relationship between belief and bravery? (10 kelime)

It says

9-) What does the passage say about human needs compared with human ability? (9 kelime)

Human needs

10-) Based on the passage, why is reliance on Allah reasonable for people? (17 kelime)

Because people are weak

5sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 2

1-) Which kind of person is represented by the traveler who submits to the law? (10 kelime)

A person

2-) What does the journey path stand for in human life? (14 kelime)

It stands for

3-) What is the meaning of the traveler's supplies in the comparison? (10 kelime)

They mean

4-) During prayer, what belief opens a person to Allah's mercy? (10 kelime)

Believing that

5-) What does the worshipper know about events that happen in life? (10 kelime)

He knows

6-) What does it mean that everything is under the command of the worshipper's Lord? (14 kelime)

It means all

7-) How does the passage connect faith and courage? (8 kelime)

It says

8-) How does the passage contrast a heart full of faith with a mind that only seems bright? (18 kelime)

A faithful heart stays

9-) Why does the passage say humans especially need Allah? (14 kelime)

Because they face

10-) What overall benefit does the passage give for worship and trusting Allah? (11 kelime)

They bring

5sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 3

1-) What is the main comparison used at the start of the passage? (12 kelime)

It compares two

2-) In the comparison, what do the bag and the weapon stand for? (9 kelime)

They stand

3-) What do the carried items teach us about religious duties? (15 kelime)

They teach that

4-) How does this statement change the way a believer looks at the world? (14 kelime)

He sees signs

5-) According to the passage, what is the root of bravery? (9 kelime)

True bravery

6-) Why is it important that Allah is wise and compassionate? (12 kelime)

Because it means

7-) Which quality is linked with sin and wrong guidance? (1 kelime)

8-) If people are so weak, why are worship, Allah's oneness, trust in Him, and submission so important? (15 kelime)

They give the

9-) What is the point of the example about the earth and the comet? (15 kelime)

It shows the

5sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 4

1-) In this passage, what kind of person follows divine law? (7 kelime)

A

2-) What stages are included in the road of life in this passage? (14 kelime)

It begins before

3-) What surprising truth does the passage teach about worship? (15 kelime)

Even if it

4-) What belief helps the worshipper find mercy in everything? (11 kelime)

The belief

5-) How does knowing Allah is wise and merciful affect the worshipper? (15 kelime)

It helps him

6-) How does trust in Allah affect the worshipper during disasters? (9 kelime)

It makes

7-) What produces real courage in a person? (6 kelime)

Belief

8-) Why is the story of the comet included? (18 kelime)

To show that a

9-) Why is the human spirit described as weak and needy? (15 kelime)

Because people need

5sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 5

1-) Who does the obedient traveler represent in the passage? (9 kelime)

He represents

2-) What does the road symbolize besides daily life? (15 kelime)

It symbolizes the

3-) What truth does the worshipper say in prayer that changes how he sees everything? (16 kelime)

He believes that only

4-) How does that belief lead to hope instead of sadness? (12 kelime)

It helps the

5-) When the worshipper faces danger, what three things does he do? (12 kelime)

He asks Allah

6-) What example is given to show how strong a believing heart can be? (21 kelime)

A person with a bright

7-) What is the result of this reliance when trouble comes? (10 kelime)

The person

8-) What does the example of the comet show about a faithless heart? (11 kelime)

It can

9-) What does the passage say about the limits of human power? (17 kelime)

A person can only

5sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 6

1-) What two groups of people are shown through the two travelers? (13 kelime)

Those who obey

2-) What larger journey does the road of life point to? (15 kelime)

It points to

3-) What does the passage say about the outside and inside of worship? (15 kelime)

On the outside

4-) How does this belief help the worshipper understand the world? (11 kelime)

He understands

5-) How does the worshipper respond after learning this? (10 kelime)

He turns

6-) What kind of feeling grows in the worshipper because of this trust? (7 kelime)

Strong

7-) What is named as the source of cowardice? (1 kelime)

8-) What lesson is taught by comparing the believer and the frightened philosopher? (17 kelime)

Faith gives calmness, while

9-) How far can human hopes and worries reach, according to the passage? (12 kelime)

They can stretch

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the comparison, what do the two travelers stand for?

One stands for people who obey Allah's law, and the other stands for people who rebel and follow their own wishes.

2-) Who does the rebellious traveler represent?

He represents people who resist guidance and chase their own desires.

3-) Why are worship and fear of Allah compared to things a traveler carries?

Because they may feel like responsibilities, but they help and protect a person on the journey.

4-) How does this belief help a person when he is afraid or in trouble?

It helps him turn to Allah, ask Him for help, and trust Him instead of feeling alone.

5-) What does the worshipper believe about who controls provision?

He believes Allah alone gives provision.

6-) What result comes from this trust in Allah?

The person becomes stronger inside and less shaken by troubles.

7-) How is the fearful philosopher different from the worshipper?

He had worldly learning but lacked a believing heart, so he became terrified by a comet.

8-) How does the passage describe the relationship between belief and bravery?

It says belief and worship are where bravery comes from.

9-) What does the passage say about human needs compared with human ability?

Human needs are countless, but human ability is tiny.

10-) Based on the passage, why is reliance on Allah reasonable for people?

Because people are weak and needy, so they need Allah's support more than their own limited power.

5sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Which kind of person is represented by the traveler who submits to the law?

A person who obeys Allah and lives by His commands.

2-) What does the journey path stand for in human life?

It stands for the full path of life leading through death to the hereafter.

3-) What is the meaning of the traveler's supplies in the comparison?

They mean acts of worship and being conscious of Allah.

4-) During prayer, what belief opens a person to Allah's mercy?

Believing that no one besides Allah truly creates and provides.

5-) What does the worshipper know about events that happen in life?

He knows they happen under Allah's wise and merciful care.

6-) What does it mean that everything is under the command of the worshipper's Lord?

It means all creation is controlled by Allah, not by chance or independent power.

7-) How does the passage connect faith and courage?

It says courage grows from belief and worship.

8-) How does the passage contrast a heart full of faith with a mind that only seems bright?

A faithful heart stays calm, while a person with only outward cleverness can still be full of fear.

9-) Why does the passage say humans especially need Allah?

Because they face endless needs and troubles with very little strength of their own.

10-) What overall benefit does the passage give for worship and trusting Allah?

They bring profit, happiness, strength, and peace to the human soul.

5sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main comparison used at the start of the passage?

It compares two travelers to two kinds of people in real life.

2-) In the comparison, what do the bag and the weapon stand for?

They stand for worship and being mindful of Allah.

3-) What do the carried items teach us about religious duties?

They teach that religious duties may seem like a load, but they actually help us.

4-) How does this statement change the way a believer looks at the world?

He sees signs of Allah's mercy everywhere and knows everything is under Allah's rule.

5-) According to the passage, what is the root of bravery?

True bravery comes from faith in Allah and worship.

6-) Why is it important that Allah is wise and compassionate?

Because it means His actions have purpose and are full of mercy.

7-) Which quality is linked with sin and wrong guidance?

Cowardice.

8-) If people are so weak, why are worship, Allah's oneness, trust in Him, and submission so important?

They give the human soul great help, happiness, and support beyond its own weak power.

9-) What is the point of the example about the earth and the comet?

It shows the huge difference between the calm of faith and the panic of unbelief.

5sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, what kind of person follows divine law?

A person who submits to Allah's guidance.

2-) What stages are included in the road of life in this passage?

It begins before worldly life, passes through the grave, and continues to the hereafter.

3-) What surprising truth does the passage teach about worship?

Even if it looks heavy, it carries a deep ease that is hard to describe.

4-) What belief helps the worshipper find mercy in everything?

The belief that Allah alone creates, provides, and controls all matters.

5-) How does knowing Allah is wise and merciful affect the worshipper?

It helps him trust that Allah's actions have wisdom and that His kindness is great.

6-) How does trust in Allah affect the worshipper during disasters?

It makes him firm and gives him full confidence.

7-) What produces real courage in a person?

Belief in Allah together with worship.

8-) Why is the story of the comet included?

To show that a person without a believing heart can be scared easily, even if he seems smart.

9-) Why is the human spirit described as weak and needy?

Because people need countless things and face many troubles with very little power or resources.

5sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who does the obedient traveler represent in the passage?

He represents people who accept and follow Allah's law.

2-) What does the road symbolize besides daily life?

It symbolizes the full journey of the soul through life, death, and the next world.

3-) What truth does the worshipper say in prayer that changes how he sees everything?

He believes that only Allah is truly in charge, gives provision, and controls harm and benefit.

4-) How does that belief lead to hope instead of sadness?

It helps the person see Allah's mercy and kindness all around him.

5-) When the worshipper faces danger, what three things does he do?

He asks Allah for help, takes refuge in Him, and trusts Him.

6-) What example is given to show how strong a believing heart can be?

A person with a bright heart would not panic even at something as huge and frightening as the earth blowing apart.

7-) What is the result of this reliance when trouble comes?

The person gains protection in his heart and becomes confident.

8-) What does the example of the comet show about a faithless heart?

It can become frightened very quickly, even over something far away.

9-) What does the passage say about the limits of human power?

A person can only do a little by himself, even though his needs and worries are huge.

5sinif short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two groups of people are shown through the two travelers?

Those who obey Allah's law and those who rebel and follow their desires.

2-) What larger journey does the road of life point to?

It points to the journey from the unseen beginning, through the grave, to the hereafter.

3-) What does the passage say about the outside and inside of worship?

On the outside it may seem difficult, but inside it holds great ease and comfort.

4-) How does this belief help the worshipper understand the world?

He understands that Allah alone creates, provides, and rules all things.

5-) How does the worshipper respond after learning this?

He turns to Allah in dua and depends on Him.

6-) What kind of feeling grows in the worshipper because of this trust?

Strong confidence and calmness grow in him.

7-) What is named as the source of cowardice?

Misguidance.

8-) What lesson is taught by comparing the believer and the frightened philosopher?

Faith gives calmness, while a heart without faith can stay fearful even if a person seems educated.

9-) How far can human hopes and worries reach, according to the passage?

They can stretch as far as a person can see and imagine.