

5sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 1

1-) What is the first benefit of giving a person's life and belongings to Allah? (13 kelime)

What does not

2-) What picture does the passage use to show that moments of life are not wasted? (10 kelime)

It compares

3-) Which ability is first shown as either helpful or harmful? (2 kelime)

4-) Why does the passage say some sinful people run to drinking or pointless fun? (11 kelime)

They want

5-) What is one right use of the eye? (8 kelime)

Seeing Allah's

6-) What body part is connected with the sense of taste? (2 kelime)

7-) What are readers told to compare with the mind, eye, and tongue? (7 kelime)

All

8-) What should a person do because of this weakness and need? (6 kelime)

Depend

9-) How can a person face these facts in the right way? (7 kelime)

By

10-) What is the fifth benefit? (22 kelime)

The acts of worship done

5sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 2

1-) What change happens to short worldly life when it is given for Allah? (5 kelime)
It

2-) What is the second profit stated in the passage? (6 kelime)
Paradise

3-) What happens when intelligence is controlled by the nafs instead of being used for Allah? (10 kelime)
It becomes

4-) What does this teach about intelligence by itself? (11 kelime)
It can

5-) What is the eye able to become if it is used for Allah? (8 kelime)
A noble

6-) Why does the passage speak directly to the intelligence, eye, and tongue? (14 kelime)
To help the

7-) What should a reader do with the other limbs and senses after hearing these examples? (6 kelime)
Compare

8-) What should a person do because of these weaknesses? (8 kelime)
Put trust

9-) What happens to the conscience without this reliance? (7 kelime)
It

10-) When will that reward be given? (9 kelime)
At the

5sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 3

1-) What is the first profit trying to teach about life in this world? (17 kelime)

If life is used

2-) What is the second benefit named in the passage? (8 kelime)

A person

3-) What is one wrong way to use intelligence? (9 kelime)

Using it

4-) What does rightly used intelligence open up for a person? (8 kelime)

Understanding of

5-) What happens to the eye when it is used for selfish desires? (12 kelime)

It falls into

6-) Why are these three examples important for understanding the passage? (14 kelime)

They show how

7-) After these examples, what conclusion are readers supposed to reach about all their other abilities? (7 kelime)

The

8-) Why does the believer gain a better value? (12 kelime)

Because the believer

9-) What is the fifth profit about worship? (11 kelime)

Worship done

10-) What does the phrase about the “time of greatest need” suggest? (15 kelime)

That this reward

5sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 4

1-) What does the first profit say happens to temporary possessions and life? (12 kelime)
They become everlasting

2-) What is given as the payment in the second benefit? (1 kelime)

3-) What kinds of thoughts trouble a person when intelligence is misused? (5 kelime)
Painful

4-) What does intelligence become when given back to its true Owner? (14 kelime)
It becomes a

5-) What lowers the eye's value? (9 kelime)
Using it

6-) After hearing these examples, what should the reader understand about all the other faculties? (11 kelime)
They also

7-) What does the unbeliever do with that trust? (9 kelime)
Misuses it

8-) What kind of person is described in the fourth benefit? (10 kelime)
A person

9-) What does the fifth profit promise for worship done by one's members and faculties? (3 kelime)

10-) When will this reward be especially given? (7 kelime)
When

5sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 5

1-) In the first profit, what happens to things that normally fade away? (6 kelime)

They

2-) What is the second profit in simple words? (5 kelime)

Allah

3-) What happens to a person's intelligence if it is used only for the nafs? (9 kelime)

It becomes

4-) What does intelligence become when it is used for Allah? (13 kelime)

It becomes a

5-) What wrong use of the eye is warned against? (10 kelime)

Looking after

6-) What happens to the tongue and taste when they are used only for the stomach and the nafs?
(11 kelime)

They fall

7-) What does the fourth profit say about human strength? (10 kelime)

Human beings

8-) What is the reason given for this difference? (11 kelime)

One obeys

9-) What happens inside a person who does not trust the All-Powerful One? (10 kelime)

The conscience

10-) Who has agreed on this truth? (8 kelime)

People who

5sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 6

1-) What is the first profit of giving one's life and property for Allah's sake? (6 kelime)

Temporary

2-) What is the second profit named in the passage? (5 kelime)

Receiving

3-) If intelligence is used for selfish purposes, how does it affect a person? (8 kelime)

It becomes

4-) What role does such intelligence play in a person's future? (8 kelime)

It helps

5-) What poor use of the tongue is criticized? (8 kelime)

Using it

6-) What do the tongue and taste become when they are used well? (11 kelime)

They become

7-) What is the reason for this difference between believer and unbeliever? (16 kelime)

The believer uses Allah's

8-) What does the fourth profit teach about the human condition? (14 kelime)

People cannot carry

9-) What is the danger of carrying life's burden without trust in Allah? (9 kelime)

It can

10-) Who is said to agree on this truth? (10 kelime)

Those who

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first benefit of giving a person's life and belongings to Allah?

What does not last in this world becomes lasting in the next life.

2-) What picture does the passage use to show that moments of life are not wasted?

It compares them to seeds that later show beautiful results.

3-) Which ability is first shown as either helpful or harmful?

The intelligence.

4-) Why does the passage say some sinful people run to drinking or pointless fun?

They want to escape the pain caused by their troubled minds.

5-) What is one right use of the eye?

Seeing Allah's artistry and signs in the world.

6-) What body part is connected with the sense of taste?

The tongue.

7-) What are readers told to compare with the mind, eye, and tongue?

All the other body parts and abilities.

8-) What should a person do because of this weakness and need?

Depend on Allah and trust Him.

9-) How can a person face these facts in the right way?

By depending on Allah and trusting Him.

10-) What is the fifth benefit?

The acts of worship done with one's body and senses will return as fruits of Paradise at the time of greatest need.

5sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What change happens to short worldly life when it is given for Allah?

It turns into something everlasting.

2-) What is the second profit stated in the passage?

Paradise is given as the price.

3-) What happens when intelligence is controlled by the nafs instead of being used for Allah?

It becomes harmful and fills a person with heavy worries.

4-) What does this teach about intelligence by itself?

It can help or hurt depending on how it is used.

5-) What is the eye able to become if it is used for Allah?

A noble observer of Allah's signs and artistry.

6-) Why does the passage speak directly to the intelligence, eye, and tongue?

To help the reader clearly notice the difference between low use and noble use.

7-) What should a reader do with the other limbs and senses after hearing these examples?

Compare them in the same way.

8-) What should a person do because of these weaknesses?

Put trust in Allah and submit to Him.

9-) What happens to the conscience without this reliance?

It stays disturbed and full of pain.

10-) When will that reward be given?

At the moment when a person needs it most.

5sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first profit trying to teach about life in this world?

If life is used for Allah, it does not end in loss but continues with lasting reward.

2-) What is the second benefit named in the passage?

A person receives Paradise as the great payment.

3-) What is one wrong way to use intelligence?

Using it for selfish desires instead of for Allah.

4-) What does rightly used intelligence open up for a person?

Understanding of Allah's mercy and wisdom in creation.

5-) What happens to the eye when it is used for selfish desires?

It falls into a low use by chasing passing beauty and desires.

6-) Why are these three examples important for understanding the passage?

They show how every gift from Allah should be used in the right direction.

7-) After these examples, what conclusion are readers supposed to reach about all their other abilities?

The same rule applies to them too.

8-) Why does the believer gain a better value?

Because the believer uses Allah's trust for Allah and within His limits.

9-) What is the fifth profit about worship?

Worship done by one's faculties will return as a great reward.

10-) What does the phrase about the "time of greatest need" suggest?

That this reward will help most in the Hereafter, when a person needs it deeply.

5sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

- 1-) What does the first profit say happens to temporary possessions and life?
They become everlasting when offered to Allah and used for His sake.
- 2-) What is given as the payment in the second benefit?
Paradise.
- 3-) What kinds of thoughts trouble a person when intelligence is misused?
Painful memories and fearful expectations.
- 4-) What does intelligence become when given back to its true Owner?
It becomes a key that opens understanding and guides a person to eternal joy.
- 5-) What lowers the eye's value?
Using it to chase temporary beauty for selfish desire.
- 6-) After hearing these examples, what should the reader understand about all the other faculties?
They also rise or fall depending on how they are used.
- 7-) What does the unbeliever do with that trust?
Misuses it for the selfish desires of the nafs.
- 8-) What kind of person is described in the fourth benefit?
A person who is weak, needy, and surrounded by hardships.
- 9-) What does the fifth profit promise for worship done by one's members and faculties?
A lofty reward.
- 10-) When will this reward be especially given?
When the person has the greatest need.

5sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the first profit, what happens to things that normally fade away?

They are changed into something lasting.

2-) What is the second profit in simple words?

Allah gives Paradise in return.

3-) What happens to a person's intelligence if it is used only for the nafs?

It becomes harmful and causes pain, worry, and weakness.

4-) What does intelligence become when it is used for Allah?

It becomes a helpful guide that opens the treasures of meaning in creation.

5-) What wrong use of the eye is warned against?

Looking after passing beauties in a selfish and desire-driven way.

6-) What happens to the tongue and taste when they are used only for the stomach and the nafs?

They fall to a low job, serving only eating and desire.

7-) What does the fourth profit say about human strength?

Human beings are weak and cannot manage everything by themselves.

8-) What is the reason given for this difference?

One obeys Allah's limits, and the other follows the selfish self.

9-) What happens inside a person who does not trust the All-Powerful One?

The conscience stays troubled and full of pain and regret.

10-) Who has agreed on this truth?

People who were given spiritual light and insight.

5sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first profit of giving one's life and property for Allah's sake?

Temporary life turns into everlasting gain.

2-) What is the second profit named in the passage?

Receiving Paradise as the payment.

3-) If intelligence is used for selfish purposes, how does it affect a person?

It becomes a source of distress and harm.

4-) What role does such intelligence play in a person's future?

It helps prepare the person for eternal happiness.

5-) What poor use of the tongue is criticized?

Using it only for appetite and worldly craving.

6-) What do the tongue and taste become when they are used well?

They become thankful recognizers of Allah's mercy in food and provision.

7-) What is the reason for this difference between believer and unbeliever?

The believer uses Allah's trust as Allah wants, while the unbeliever uses it for the nafs.

8-) What does the fourth profit teach about the human condition?

People cannot carry life well on their own because they are weak and needy.

9-) What is the danger of carrying life's burden without trust in Allah?

It can overwhelm a person and pull him down.

10-) Who is said to agree on this truth?

Those who have spiritual illumination and clear insight into reality.