

5sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 1

1-) What question is asked at the start of the passage about giving back the trust to its Owner? (13 kelime)

It asks whether

2-) Which is wider in this passage: what Allah allows or what He forbids? (5 kelime)

What

3-) If someone says, "Allah asks too much," which line of thought from the passage answers that? (10 kelime)

The passage

4-) Based on the passage, why is doing haram unnecessary? (8 kelime)

Because halal

5-) What does the passage say about being Allah's servant and soldier? (9 kelime)

It says

6-) What title of honor is given to the one who serves Allah? (8 kelime)

The honor

7-) What does the passage teach about taking and giving? (9 kelime)

A person

8-) Does the passage expect people to be perfect all the time? (12 kelime)

No. It shows

9-) What two requests are made after asking for pardon? (15 kelime)

To be accepted

10-) What should come after a mistake: giving up or seeking forgiveness? (2 kelime)

5sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 2

1-) What is the main point of this passage? (19 kelime)

Living by Allah's rules

2-) What reason is given to show that obedience is manageable? (15 kelime)

The allowed things

3-) How does the passage describe the halal choices Allah gave people? (7 kelime)

They

4-) How does the passage describe the religious duties Allah placed on people? (8 kelime)

They are

5-) How does the passage help calm fear about religious duties? (8 kelime)

It says

6-) According to the passage, what is a person's simple duty in life? (13 kelime)

To begin actions

7-) What rule should guide a person's actions according to the passage? (8 kelime)

Allah's permission

8-) What should a person do after noticing he has not fully obeyed? (7 kelime)

He

9-) What should happen after a shortcoming: hiding it or turning to Allah? (3 kelime)

10-) Until when should a person ask to be a trustworthy keeper of the trust? (11 kelime)

Until the

5sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 3

1-) What feeling about Allah's commands does the passage try to remove? (12 kelime)

It tries to

2-) What makes the burden lighter according to the passage: many restrictions or broad permission? (5 kelime)

Broad

3-) What does "no need to trespass" mean here in simple words? (12 kelime)

It means there

4-) What conclusion should a reader make from that about forbidden things? (12 kelime)

A reader should

5-) How is serving Allah described emotionally? (11 kelime)

It is

6-) How should a person handle both receiving things and giving things? (10 kelime)

He should

7-) Name another everyday area the passage says should be connected to Allah. (3 kelime)

8-) What should decide whether a person acts or holds back? (4 kelime)

Allah's

9-) After admitting faults, to whom should the person turn? (2 kelime)

10-) What future help does the prayer ask for regarding the trust? (14 kelime)

It asks Allah

5sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 4

1-) At the beginning, what false idea about this “trade” is rejected? (11 kelime)

The false

2-) What is one reason the passage gives for this answer? (8 kelime)

Allah has

3-) What does the passage say about the space Allah gave in lawful things? (11 kelime)

It says

4-) What two roles are used to describe a believer serving Allah? (10 kelime)

A believer

5-) What does doing things in Allah’s name mean in a simple way? (14 kelime)

It means making

6-) Name one everyday area the passage says should be connected to Allah. (3 kelime)

7-) How should choices about giving and receiving be made? (7 kelime)

They

8-) What should a person admit if he falls short? (7 kelime)

He

9-) What is the simple rule for action and rest? (8 kelime)

Do both

10-) What does the final prayer teach about responsibility? (16 kelime)

It teaches that our

5sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 5

1-) What answer does the passage give to people who avoid this path because they think it is hard? (13 kelime)

It tells them

2-) What strong reply is given right after those questions? (4 kelime)

A

3-) How are Allah's duties described in this passage? (8 kelime)

They are

4-) Why might calling a believer a soldier be a helpful image here? (11 kelime)

It shows

5-) What kind of life does the passage encourage: self-ruled or Allah-ruled? (1 kelime)

6-) What does a soldier-like believer do with his actions? (9 kelime)

He starts

7-) What two guides should shape those parts of life? (5 kelime)

Allah's

8-) What is the simple rule for everyday exchanges with others? (6 kelime)

Take

9-) Besides asking forgiveness, what else should a person ask from Allah? (18 kelime)

He should ask to

10-) What three things are asked for in the closing prayer? (17 kelime)

Forgiveness for faults, acceptance

5sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 6

1-) What two questions open this passage? (19 kelime)

They ask whether handing

2-) Why does the passage say people do not need to cross the limits set by Allah? (10 kelime)

Because what

3-) What does the passage say about the number and weight of Allah's commands? (8 kelime)

They are

4-) Why is that relationship not described as shameful? (8 kelime)

Because it

5-) What picture does the passage use to explain a Muslim's mission in life? (10 kelime)

It uses

6-) Which parts of life are directly mentioned as needing to follow Allah's guidance? (6 kelime)

Taking,

7-) What is the simple rule for starting actions? (5 kelime)

Start

8-) If a person fails in these duties, what should he do next? (7 kelime)

He

9-) What does the prayer ask Allah to do with our mistakes? (3 kelime)

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What question is asked at the start of the passage about giving back the trust to its Owner?

It asks whether doing this is really hard or too heavy for people.

2-) Which is wider in this passage: what Allah allows or what He forbids?

What Allah allows is wider.

3-) If someone says, "Allah asks too much," which line of thought from the passage answers that?

The passage answers that Allah's duties are light and limited.

4-) Based on the passage, why is doing haram unnecessary?

Because halal already covers people's needs and desires.

5-) What does the passage say about being Allah's servant and soldier?

It says this is a wonderful and joyful honor.

6-) What title of honor is given to the one who serves Allah?

The honor of being Allah's servant and soldier.

7-) What does the passage teach about taking and giving?

A person should take and give for Allah's sake.

8-) Does the passage expect people to be perfect all the time?

No. It shows that people may fall short and then should repent.

9-) What two requests are made after asking for pardon?

To be accepted as a servant and to be made trustworthy in keeping the trust.

10-) What should come after a mistake: giving up or seeking forgiveness?

Seeking forgiveness.

5sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main point of this passage?

Living by Allah's rules is not too hard, and when a person slips, he should turn back to Allah.

2-) What reason is given to show that obedience is manageable?

The allowed things are plenty, so there is no need to go into the forbidden.

3-) How does the passage describe the halal choices Allah gave people?

They are broad and enough for people.

4-) How does the passage describe the religious duties Allah placed on people?

They are easy enough and not too many.

5-) How does the passage help calm fear about religious duties?

It says the duties are light and few.

6-) According to the passage, what is a person's simple duty in life?

To begin actions in Allah's name and live by His permission and law.

7-) What rule should guide a person's actions according to the passage?

Allah's permission and His law should guide them.

8-) What should a person do after noticing he has not fully obeyed?

He should ask Allah to pardon him.

9-) What should happen after a shortcoming: hiding it or turning to Allah?

Turning to Allah.

10-) Until when should a person ask to be a trustworthy keeper of the trust?

Until the time comes for that trust to be taken back.

5sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What feeling about Allah's commands does the passage try to remove?

It tries to remove the feeling that obeying Allah is too difficult.

2-) What makes the burden lighter according to the passage: many restrictions or broad permission?

Broad permission makes it lighter.

3-) What does "no need to trespass" mean here in simple words?

It means there is no need to do what Allah has forbidden.

4-) What conclusion should a reader make from that about forbidden things?

A reader should understand that going into forbidden things is not needed.

5-) How is serving Allah described emotionally?

It is described as a great honor full of deep happiness.

6-) How should a person handle both receiving things and giving things?

He should do both in a way that pleases Allah.

7-) Name another everyday area the passage says should be connected to Allah.

Moving and stopping.

8-) What should decide whether a person acts or holds back?

Allah's permission and law.

9-) After admitting faults, to whom should the person turn?

To Allah.

10-) What future help does the prayer ask for regarding the trust?

It asks Allah to help us keep it safely until He takes it back.

5sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At the beginning, what false idea about this “trade” is rejected?

The false idea that it is too hard and too heavy.

2-) What is one reason the passage gives for this answer?

Allah has made the lawful wide and sufficient.

3-) What does the passage say about the space Allah gave in lawful things?

It says that space is wide and enough for human desire.

4-) What two roles are used to describe a believer serving Allah?

A believer is described as a servant and a soldier.

5-) What does doing things in Allah’s name mean in a simple way?

It means making your actions for Him and remembering Him in what you do.

6-) Name one everyday area the passage says should be connected to Allah.

Taking and giving.

7-) How should choices about giving and receiving be made?

They should be made for Allah’s sake.

8-) What should a person admit if he falls short?

He should admit his faults before Allah.

9-) What is the simple rule for action and rest?

Do both according to Allah’s permission and law.

10-) What does the final prayer teach about responsibility?

It teaches that our trust is serious and we need Allah’s help to carry it faithfully.

5sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What answer does the passage give to people who avoid this path because they think it is hard?
It tells them they are mistaken because the path is not truly hard.

2-) What strong reply is given right after those questions?

A very firm no.

3-) How are Allah's duties described in this passage?

They are described as light and not many.

4-) Why might calling a believer a soldier be a helpful image here?

It shows obedience, discipline, and following orders for a higher purpose.

5-) What kind of life does the passage encourage: self-ruled or Allah-ruled?

Allah-ruled.

6-) What does a soldier-like believer do with his actions?

He starts them for Allah and follows Allah's command.

7-) What two guides should shape those parts of life?

Allah's permission and His law.

8-) What is the simple rule for everyday exchanges with others?

Take and give on Allah's behalf.

9-) Besides asking forgiveness, what else should a person ask from Allah?

He should ask to be accepted as Allah's servant and to be helped to guard the trust faithfully.

10-) What three things are asked for in the closing prayer?

Forgiveness for faults, acceptance as Allah's servants, and help in guarding the trust until its time ends.

5sinif short-words-p20-sixth-word-conclusion-ease-of-the-sale-lawful-bounds-and-servanthood - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two questions open this passage?

They ask whether handing back the trust is difficult and whether it is so heavy that people avoid it.

2-) Why does the passage say people do not need to cross the limits set by Allah?

Because what is allowed is wide enough for human wants.

3-) What does the passage say about the number and weight of Allah's commands?

They are few and easy enough to carry.

4-) Why is that relationship not described as shameful?

Because it is presented as a joyful honor.

5-) What picture does the passage use to explain a Muslim's mission in life?

It uses the picture of a soldier serving under Allah.

6-) Which parts of life are directly mentioned as needing to follow Allah's guidance?

Taking, giving, moving, and being still.

7-) What is the simple rule for starting actions?

Start them in Allah's name.

8-) If a person fails in these duties, what should he do next?

He should ask Allah to forgive him.

9-) What does the prayer ask Allah to do with our mistakes?

To forgive them.