

5sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 1

1-) In this passage, who does the unfortunate soldier stand for? (11 kelime)

He stands

2-) In the comparison, what truth is given about the soldier? (8 kelime)

The soldier

3-) What does the gallows teach about life in this world? (12 kelime)

It teaches that

4-) What human experiences are gathered into the meaning of the gallows? (10 kelime)

It includes

5-) What is meant by the second wound? (12 kelime)

It means people

6-) What two beliefs are presented as the answer to fear and confusion? (8 kelime)

Belief in

7-) Why do some wise people welcome death, according to the passage? (16 kelime)

Because they understand that

8-) According to the passage, where does this ride take the believer? (19 kelime)

It takes the believer

9-) What does the Arabic sentence at the end of the passage mean in a simple way? (12 kelime)

It means that

10-) What lesson comes from the example of things being replaced by better scenes? (16 kelime)

The lesson is that

5sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 2

1-) Why does the passage speak to the nafs in a serious way? (17 kelime)

Because the nafs had

2-) What danger does the lion point to? (11 kelime)

It points

3-) What human experience is represented by the lion waiting nearby? (9 kelime)

It represents

4-) What is meant by the first wound? (10 kelime)

It means

5-) What does the long road in the comparison include beyond this world? (11 kelime)

It includes

6-) How does belief in the Hereafter change the meaning of death for a believer? (20 kelime)

It turns death into a

7-) When a person believes in the Last Day, what does death become like? (14 kelime)

It becomes like

8-) What does belief in Allah help a person notice in the world? (14 kelime)

It helps the

9-) How does the first talisman change the meaning of separation and passing time? (13 kelime)

It turns them

5sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 3

1-) What is the first symbol explained in the passage, and what does it mean? (11 kelime)

The soldier

2-) What is the purpose of explaining the soldier image? (11 kelime)

The purpose

3-) What does the gallows symbolize about worldly life? (14 kelime)

It symbolizes that

4-) What do the two wounds reveal about human nature? (8 kelime)

They reveal

5-) What are the two talismans explained in the passage? (10 kelime)

They are

6-) What two beliefs are given as the answer to these fears? (9 kelime)

Belief in

7-) Why is this a comfort to believers? (12 kelime)

Because it means

8-) What does the passage say wise people understood about death? (12 kelime)

They understood its

9-) How does belief in Allah change the way a person sees the world's constant changes? (15 kelime)

It helps the

5sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 4

1-) Who is being addressed by the words to the nafs? (9 kelime)

A person's

2-) What does the lion symbolize that no one can escape forever? (10 kelime)

It symbolizes

3-) What part stands for death and the loss of loved ones over time? (6 kelime)

The

4-) What does the long journey represent? (21 kelime)

It represents the long path

5-) What stages are included in the long journey? (24 kelime)

It includes the path from the

6-) What change happens to death through belief in the Hereafter? (19 kelime)

It is no longer

7-) How does the second talisman help with fear of death? (15 kelime)

It makes death

8-) According to the passage, why might wise people long for death? (15 kelime)

Because they see

9-) How does faith in Allah affect the way a person sees loss, endings, and passing days? (15 kelime)

It helps the

5sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 5

1-) In the comparison, what does the soldier teach us about ourselves? (12 kelime)

He teaches that

2-) What part of the story stands for a person's final time in this world? (8 kelime)

The lion

3-) What do the two wounds stand for? (8 kelime)

They stand

4-) Which part of the comparison shows that people are always in need? (10 kelime)

The wound

5-) What are believers given to face these problems? (9 kelime)

They are

6-) What two beliefs are called talismans in this passage? (10 kelime)

Faith in

7-) What happens to the image of death when a person believes in the Hereafter? (11 kelime)

It changes

8-) Why is this understanding important for a believer? (7 kelime)

Because

9-) What idea do the changing mirror colors and moving scenes help explain? (13 kelime)

They help explain

5sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 6

1-) What is one main point of the passage's explanation of the soldier story? (13 kelime)

It explains that

2-) What does the gallows represent in the comparison? (11 kelime)

It represents

3-) Which part of the comparison shows that people are not fully strong on their own? (9 kelime)

The wound

4-) What does the passage show by describing life as a journey? (17 kelime)

It shows that human

5-) Why is the journey described as very long? (15 kelime)

Because it stretches

6-) What are the two spiritual keys given in this section? (10 kelime)

They are

7-) What place is this ride leading toward? (8 kelime)

It is

8-) What picture is used to help explain how changing things can still be beautiful? (16 kelime)

The passage uses the

9-) Why does the passage mention new scenes appearing when old ones change? (12 kelime)

To show that

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, who does the unfortunate soldier stand for?

He stands for every human being, including the person's own self.

2-) In the comparison, what truth is given about the soldier?

The soldier is a picture of human life.

3-) What does the gallows teach about life in this world?

It teaches that life in this world includes death, change, and separation.

4-) What human experiences are gathered into the meaning of the gallows?

It includes death, growing weaker, and losing people through separation.

5-) What is meant by the second wound?

It means people have many needs and cannot provide everything for themselves.

6-) What two beliefs are presented as the answer to fear and confusion?

Belief in Allah and belief in the Hereafter.

7-) Why do some wise people welcome death, according to the passage?

Because they understand that it can lead a believer to a better place with Allah's mercy.

8-) According to the passage, where does this ride take the believer?

It takes the believer from the prison of this world to the gardens of Paradise and to Allah's mercy.

9-) What does the Arabic sentence at the end of the passage mean in a simple way?

It means that we belong to Allah and will return to Him.

10-) What lesson comes from the example of things being replaced by better scenes?

The lesson is that change does not only take away; it can also uncover greater beauty.

5sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why does the passage speak to the nafs in a serious way?

Because the nafs had once laughed carelessly but now feels sorrow and needs to learn the truth.

2-) What danger does the lion point to?

It points to the nearness and certainty of death's appointed time.

3-) What human experience is represented by the lion waiting nearby?

It represents the fixed time when death will come.

4-) What is meant by the first wound?

It means people do not have endless strength or power.

5-) What does the long road in the comparison include beyond this world?

It includes the grave, the intermediate life, resurrection, and the bridge.

6-) How does belief in the Hereafter change the meaning of death for a believer?

It turns death into a way to go from this world to the beauty and mercy of the next life.

7-) When a person believes in the Last Day, what does death become like?

It becomes like a ride carrying the believer out of this world to Paradise.

8-) What does belief in Allah help a person notice in the world?

It helps the person notice Allah's power, art, and mercy in the changing world.

9-) How does the first talisman change the meaning of separation and passing time?

It turns them into ways of seeing Allah's wonderful works again and again.

5sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first symbol explained in the passage, and what does it mean?

The soldier is explained first, and it means the human being.

2-) What is the purpose of explaining the soldier image?

The purpose is to show what human life is really like.

3-) What does the gallows symbolize about worldly life?

It symbolizes that people and things do not remain forever and that separation comes.

4-) What do the two wounds reveal about human nature?

They reveal that people are weak and needy.

5-) What are the two talismans explained in the passage?

They are belief in Allah and belief in the Hereafter.

6-) What two beliefs are given as the answer to these fears?

Belief in Allah and belief in the Last Day.

7-) Why is this a comfort to believers?

Because it means death can bring them to peace, mercy, and Paradise.

8-) What does the passage say wise people understood about death?

They understood its true meaning, so they did not only fear it.

9-) How does belief in Allah change the way a person sees the world's constant changes?

It helps the person see those changes as displays of Allah's creative beauty and mercy.

5sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who is being addressed by the words to the nafs?

A person's own self that needs correction and guidance.

2-) What does the lion symbolize that no one can escape forever?

It symbolizes the moment of death appointed for each person.

3-) What part stands for death and the loss of loved ones over time?

The gallows stands for those things.

4-) What does the long journey represent?

It represents the long path of human life and what comes after it, from before birth all the way to resurrection.

5-) What stages are included in the long journey?

It includes the path from the world of spirits, to the womb, childhood, old age, the grave, the intermediate life, resurrection, and the bridge.

6-) What change happens to death through belief in the Hereafter?

It is no longer seen as only an end, but as a way to reach a better eternal life.

7-) How does the second talisman help with fear of death?

It makes death seem like a servant that carries the believer to a beautiful destination.

8-) According to the passage, why might wise people long for death?

Because they see it as a meeting with mercy and a passage to something better.

9-) How does faith in Allah affect the way a person sees loss, endings, and passing days?

It helps the person see them as signs of Allah's ongoing wisdom, power, and mercy.

5sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the comparison, what does the soldier teach us about ourselves?

He teaches that every person faces danger, weakness, and a long journey.

2-) What part of the story stands for a person's final time in this world?

The lion stands for that final appointed time.

3-) What do the two wounds stand for?

They stand for human weakness and human neediness.

4-) Which part of the comparison shows that people are always in need?

The wound that stands for poverty and need shows that.

5-) What are believers given to face these problems?

They are given faith in Allah and the Hereafter.

6-) What two beliefs are called talismans in this passage?

Faith in Allah and faith in the life to come.

7-) What happens to the image of death when a person believes in the Hereafter?

It changes from something frightening into a means of reaching Paradise.

8-) Why is this understanding important for a believer?

Because it brings comfort and removes hopelessness.

9-) What idea do the changing mirror colors and moving scenes help explain?

They help explain that when things change, new and better beauties can appear.

5sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is one main point of the passage's explanation of the soldier story?

It explains that the story is really about the condition of human beings.

2-) What does the gallows represent in the comparison?

It represents death, fading away, and being separated from loved ones.

3-) Which part of the comparison shows that people are not fully strong on their own?

The wound that stands for human weakness shows that.

4-) What does the passage show by describing life as a journey?

It shows that human life keeps moving through many stages and does not end at this world.

5-) Why is the journey described as very long?

Because it stretches across many parts of existence, not just our years in this world.

6-) What are the two spiritual keys given in this section?

They are belief in Allah and belief in the Hereafter.

7-) What place is this ride leading toward?

It is leading toward Paradise and Allah's mercy.

8-) What picture is used to help explain how changing things can still be beautiful?

The passage uses the example of changing reflections and changing scenes that make new beauty appear.

9-) Why does the passage mention new scenes appearing when old ones change?

To show that change can reveal fresh beauty instead of only loss.