

5sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate-brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 1

1-) What kind of person is the second brother at the start of this passage? (8 kelime)

He is

2-) How did he usually imagine things around him? (9 kelime)

He imagined

3-) What mixed condition did he find in the garden? (10 kelime)

The garden

4-) Why was he still able to stay steadier than his brother? (13 kelime)

He believed the

5-) What signs of danger surrounded him in the well? (14 kelime)

There was a

6-) What other threat did he notice near the tree? (7 kelime)

Two

7-) What did he realize about himself after that? (19 kelime)

He realized he was

8-) How did curiosity grow into something stronger? (9 kelime)

It became

9-) What explanation did he give for this wonder? (13 kelime)

He believed it

10-) What amazing change happened when he made that supplication? (9 kelime)

The well

5sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate-brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 2

1-) How is the second traveler described in this passage? (8 kelime)

He is

2-) What place did he come to on his journey? (13 kelime)

He came to

3-) What two opposite kinds of things were in the garden? (10 kelime)

There were

4-) How did that choice help his journey? (8 kelime)

It gave

5-) What was his condition inside the well? (10 kelime)

He was

6-) What three things did he think the hidden ruler was doing? (11 kelime)

Watching him,

7-) What did he begin to believe that hidden ruler was doing? (15 kelime)

He believed the

8-) What was strange about the fig tree he saw? (12 kelime)

One tree seemed

9-) What did he think the hidden ruler intended by this display? (14 kelime)

He thought it

10-) How did the dragon and lion change? (13 kelime)

They became like

5sinf short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate-brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 3

1-) What is one main difference between the two brothers in this passage? (18 kelime)

One thinks in a

2-) What mix of things did he find in the garden? (12 kelime)

He found pretty

3-) What happened because he paid attention to the good things in the garden? (9 kelime)

He benefited

4-) What good results came from following that rule? (10 kelime)

He benefited,

5-) What action did he take even though he found some comfort? (9 kelime)

He still

6-) What did he think about the connection between all these strange things? (12 kelime)

He thought they

7-) What came after love? (10 kelime)

A desire

8-) What grew from that love? (12 kelime)

He wanted to

9-) What did he ask for before making his prayer? (10 kelime)

He asked

10-) In what way did the threatening animals become welcoming? (11 kelime)

They turned

5sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate-brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 4

1-) What personal qualities make the second brother different from the first? (9 kelime)

He has

2-) What did he discover in the garden? (9 kelime)

He discovered

3-) What does this show about his way of thinking? (11 kelime)

It shows

4-) What thought gave him comfort when he saw the lion? (17 kelime)

He thought the desert

5-) Did comfort make him careless? Explain. (9 kelime)

No. He

6-) What was waiting at the top and bottom of the well? (11 kelime)

The lion

7-) What question did this lead him to ask in his heart? (11 kelime)

He wondered

8-) What did that conclusion do to his fear? (5 kelime)

It

9-) What did he do after realizing this? (10 kelime)

He begged

10-) What was on the other side of the opening? (7 kelime)

A

5sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate-brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 5

1-) At the beginning of the target passage, how is the second traveler doing compared with his brother? (10 kelime)

He is

2-) What kind of garden did he enter? (13 kelime)

He entered a

3-) What happened when he later crossed the desert? (6 kelime)

A

4-) What idea made him calmer than his brother? (15 kelime)

He thought the

5-) What two things did he see attacking the tree? (8 kelime)

He saw

6-) What made the situation in the well dangerous? (15 kelime)

A lion was

7-) According to his understanding, what was the hidden ruler doing with him? (11 kelime)

The ruler

8-) What unusual sign did he notice on the fig tree? (8 kelime)

It carried

9-) How were the lion and dragon shown after that change? (16 kelime)

They were no longer

10-) How were the dragon and lion no longer frightening? (9 kelime)

They turned

5sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate-brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 6

1-) What overall picture is given of the second brother in this passage? (10 kelime)

He is

2-) Because of this, how do things appear to him? (6 kelime)

They

3-) What reward did he get from that habit? (6 kelime)

He

4-) Where did he end up while fleeing? (8 kelime)

He ended

5-) What danger was above him? (5 kelime)

The

6-) What made his fear smaller? (16 kelime)

His good morals gave

7-) What did he believe about the hidden ruler's purpose? (12 kelime)

He believed the

8-) Why did he want to gain good qualities? (9 kelime)

He wanted

9-) What did he request before speaking directly to the ruler? (9 kelime)

He requested

10-) What lesson is introduced at the end of the passage? (21 kelime)

The passage invites us to

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate-brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of person is the second brother at the start of this passage?

He is wise, fortunate, and good in character.

2-) How did he usually imagine things around him?

He imagined them in a good and hopeful way.

3-) What mixed condition did he find in the garden?

The garden had both pleasant things and spoiled, dirty things.

4-) Why was he still able to stay steadier than his brother?

He believed the lion was not acting on its own but under authority.

5-) What signs of danger surrounded him in the well?

There was a lion above, a dragon below, and two creatures cutting the roots.

6-) What other threat did he notice near the tree?

Two animals were chewing through the roots.

7-) What did he realize about himself after that?

He realized he was not alone and that he was being watched, tested, and led somewhere for a purpose.

8-) How did curiosity grow into something stronger?

It became love for the one behind the mystery.

9-) What explanation did he give for this wonder?

He believed it was a miraculous display arranged by the ruler for guests.

10-) What amazing change happened when he made that supplication?

The well opened into a lovely and peaceful garden.

5sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate-brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How is the second traveler described in this passage?

He is shown as lucky, smart, and well-behaved.

2-) What place did he come to on his journey?

He came to a garden with both beautiful things and dirty, rotten things.

3-) What two opposite kinds of things were in the garden?

There were lovely, useful things and also rotten, filthy things.

4-) How did that choice help his journey?

It gave him rest and strength to continue.

5-) What was his condition inside the well?

He was hanging in the middle, holding onto a tree.

6-) What three things did he think the hidden ruler was doing?

Watching him, testing him, and guiding him somewhere for a purpose.

7-) What did he begin to believe that hidden ruler was doing?

He believed the ruler was watching him, testing him, and leading him for a reason.

8-) What was strange about the fig tree he saw?

One tree seemed to carry the fruits of many thousands of trees.

9-) What did he think the hidden ruler intended by this display?

He thought it was set up to show examples of foods prepared for guests.

10-) How did the dragon and lion change?

They became like servants, and the lion even became a gentle riding animal.

5sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate-brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is one main difference between the two brothers in this passage?

One thinks in a good and wise way, while the other thinks in a bad and foolish way.

2-) What mix of things did he find in the garden?

He found pretty and useful things along with rotten and dirty things.

3-) What happened because he paid attention to the good things in the garden?

He benefited from them, rested well, and continued peacefully.

4-) What good results came from following that rule?

He benefited, rested, and moved on in a better state.

5-) What action did he take even though he found some comfort?

He still ran away and jumped into a well.

6-) What did he think about the connection between all these strange things?

He thought they were all linked and directed by one hidden ruler.

7-) What came after love?

A desire to solve the mystery and gain good qualities.

8-) What grew from that love?

He wanted to solve the mystery and become pleasing to the ruler.

9-) What did he ask for before making his prayer?

He asked to be shown the key to the mystery.

10-) In what way did the threatening animals become welcoming?

They turned into servants, and the lion became a gentle horse.

5sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate-brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What personal qualities make the second brother different from the first?

He has intelligence, good manners, and a hopeful outlook.

2-) What did he discover in the garden?

He discovered both pleasant things and dirty, decaying things.

3-) What does this show about his way of thinking?

It shows he tried to see the better side of things.

4-) What thought gave him comfort when he saw the lion?

He thought the desert must have a ruler and the lion might be under that ruler's command.

5-) Did comfort make him careless? Explain.

No. He still took the danger seriously and fled.

6-) What was waiting at the top and bottom of the well?

The lion was at the top and the dragon was below.

7-) What question did this lead him to ask in his heart?

He wondered who the ruler was and wanted to know him.

8-) What did that conclusion do to his fear?

It took his fear away.

9-) What did he do after realizing this?

He begged to be taught the key to the mystery.

10-) What was on the other side of the opening?

A wonderful, peaceful, beautiful garden was there.

5sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate-brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At the beginning of the target passage, how is the second traveler doing compared with his brother?

He is traveling without the heavy misery his brother had.

2-) What kind of garden did he enter?

He entered a garden that had both nice things and neglected, dirty things.

3-) What happened when he later crossed the desert?

A lion came attacking toward him.

4-) What idea made him calmer than his brother?

He thought the lion might be under the command of the ruler of the place.

5-) What two things did he see attacking the tree?

He saw two animals chewing its two roots.

6-) What made the situation in the well dangerous?

A lion was above, a dragon was below, and two creatures were cutting the roots.

7-) According to his understanding, what was the hidden ruler doing with him?

The ruler was watching him, testing him, and guiding him somewhere.

8-) What unusual sign did he notice on the fig tree?

It carried fruits from countless kinds of trees.

9-) How were the lion and dragon shown after that change?

They were no longer threats but became servants, and the lion became gentle enough to ride.

10-) How were the dragon and lion no longer frightening?

They turned into servants, and the lion became tame.

5sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate-brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What overall picture is given of the second brother in this passage?

He is shown as a blessed, smart, and upright traveler.

2-) Because of this, how do things appear to him?

They appear friendly and not hostile.

3-) What reward did he get from that habit?

He got benefit, rest, and peace.

4-) Where did he end up while fleeing?

He ended up hanging in a deep well.

5-) What danger was above him?

The lion was above him.

6-) What made his fear smaller?

His good morals gave him good thoughts, and those thoughts helped him see a hopeful side.

7-) What did he believe about the hidden ruler's purpose?

He believed the ruler was testing him and directing him somewhere meaningful.

8-) Why did he want to gain good qualities?

He wanted to please the owner of the mystery.

9-) What did he request before speaking directly to the ruler?

He requested inspiration for the key to the mystery.

10-) What lesson is introduced at the end of the passage?

The passage invites us to compare the two brothers and see that good leads to good while evil leads to evil.