

5sinif short-words-p31-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-in-the-comparison-general-principle - Set 1

1-) What choice is the listener being urged to make at the start of the passage? (14 kelime)
To avoid being

2-) What is the reader expected to do with the finer details? (11 kelime)
Figure them

3-) What does the blessed brother stand for? (8 kelime)
A believing

4-) What result comes from choosing the good and leaving the bad? (5 kelime)
A

5-) Why is the lion a fitting symbol in the passage? (14 kelime)
Because it represents

6-) What does the well symbolize? (7 kelime)
The

7-) How are those hardships described for a believer? (15 kelime)
As kind warnings

8-) What does the one tree with many fruits prove in the passage's argument? (8 kelime)
It points

9-) What does the tree having many fruits show about Allah? (10 kelime)
His power,

10-) How is death described for people of guidance? (18 kelime)
As a reunion with

5sinif short-words-p31-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-in-the-comparison-general-principle - Set 2

1-) At the beginning of the passage, who is being addressed along with the nafs? (6 kelime)
The

2-) What does this show about true guidance? (7 kelime)
It

3-) In this explanation, what does one brother represent spiritually? (6 kelime)
A

4-) What does the left-hand road teach about life? (9 kelime)
It teaches

5-) What does the desert represent in the explanation? (8 kelime)
This earth

6-) What two parts of human existence are symbolized by the well? (7 kelime)
The

7-) What future stage is shown by the dragon? (11 kelime)
The passage

8-) How can these painful things actually help a believer? (14 kelime)
They can serve

9-) How do those blessings teach about the next life? (12 kelime)
They are reminders,

10-) How does it describe the grave for believers? (9 kelime)
As a

5sinif short-words-p31-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-in-the-comparison-general-principle - Set 3

1-) What other instruction follows listening to the Qur'an? (5 kelime)

To

2-) What four actions or attitudes toward revelation are taught at the beginning? (9 kelime)

Listen, obey,

3-) In this explanation, what does the garden on the road represent? (9 kelime)

A person's

4-) How does the passage describe the wise way to deal with this mixture? (11 kelime)

Take the

5-) What kind of heart does that wise approach lead to? (3 kelime)

6-) What does the dragon represent? (16 kelime)

The way to the

7-) What are the poisonous creatures around the person like in real life? (11 kelime)

They are

8-) What merciful purpose can those troubles have for a believer? (10 kelime)

They can

9-) What does the grave mean for people who reject guidance? (9 kelime)

A lonely

10-) How is the grave described for people of the Qur'an? (12 kelime)

As a gate

5sinif short-words-p31-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-in-the-comparison-general-principle - Set 4

1-) What is the passage trying to help the listener avoid becoming? (3 kelime)

2-) What does this tell us about real religious understanding? (8 kelime)

It should

3-) What does the believing brother represent inside a person? (7 kelime)

A

4-) What does the garden tell us about life in society? (10 kelime)

It contains

5-) What benefit comes from that method? (2 kelime)

6-) Why is the number sixty mentioned? (7 kelime)

It

7-) What does the dragon symbolize? (8 kelime)

The passage

8-) What do the poisonous vermin stand for? (6 kelime)

Hardships

9-) What is the hidden mystery called in the passage? (5 kelime)

The

10-) How is death different for people of misguidance and people of guidance? (17 kelime)

For the misguided it

5sinif short-words-p31-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-in-the-comparison-general-principle - Set 5

1-) Who is the advice meant for at the start of the passage? (7 kelime)

The

2-) What is the main difference between the two brothers in the explanation? (18 kelime)

One stands for a

3-) Which road matches denial and disobedience? (5 kelime)

The

4-) What does the roadside garden stand for? (9 kelime)

A person's

5-) What does the well's depth point to? (7 kelime)

A

6-) What do the two root-cutting animals teach about time? (10 kelime)

That day

7-) What does the dragon symbolize? (11 kelime)

The path

8-) What is the talisman explained to be? (7 kelime)

The

9-) For those who reject truth, what is the grave like? (7 kelime)

A

10-) What is the grave like for those who go against guidance? (6 kelime)

A

5sinif short-words-p31-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-in-the-comparison-general-principle - Set 6

1-) What warning and hope are both given in the first sentence of the passage? (17 kelime)

A warning not to

2-) What shows that real belief is more than hearing words? (12 kelime)

The passage says

3-) What kind of inner life does the unfortunate brother represent? (7 kelime)

A

4-) What does the garden symbolize about ordinary life? (9 kelime)

Human life

5-) Why does the desert fit as a picture of the world? (18 kelime)

Because the passage uses

6-) What does the tree growing there represent? (7 kelime)

Life's

7-) What can a student infer from night and day wearing down the roots? (8 kelime)

Time keeps

8-) What do the fruits teach about blessings in this world? (14 kelime)

They are signs

9-) What is meant by the talisman? (7 kelime)

The

10-) What final comfort does the passage give about death for believers? (15 kelime)

It is not

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p31-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-in-the-comparison-general-principle - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What choice is the listener being urged to make at the start of the passage?

To avoid being like the unlucky brother and instead be like the blessed brother.

2-) What is the reader expected to do with the finer details?

Figure them out by thinking after the main points are given.

3-) What does the blessed brother stand for?

A believing inner self and a righteous heart.

4-) What result comes from choosing the good and leaving the bad?

A calm and peaceful heart.

5-) Why is the lion a fitting symbol in the passage?

Because it represents the frightening reality of death and the moment appointed for it.

6-) What does the well symbolize?

The body and the length of life.

7-) How are those hardships described for a believer?

As kind warnings and merciful gifts from Allah that wake a person up from carelessness.

8-) What does the one tree with many fruits prove in the passage's argument?

It points to Allah's unmatched power and control.

9-) What does the tree having many fruits show about Allah?

His power, lordship, and sovereignty are unique and beyond imitation.

10-) How is death described for people of guidance?

As a reunion with loved ones, a return to their true home, and a rest after life's duties.

5sinif short-words-p31-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-in-the-comparison-general-principle - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At the beginning of the passage, who is being addressed along with the nafs?

The person listening to the story.

2-) What does this show about true guidance?

It must shape both belief and behavior.

3-) In this explanation, what does one brother represent spiritually?

A believing soul and upright heart.

4-) What does the left-hand road teach about life?

It teaches rebellion against truth and denial of faith.

5-) What does the desert represent in the explanation?

This earth and the life of this world.

6-) What two parts of human existence are symbolized by the well?

The body and the span of life.

7-) What future stage is shown by the dragon?

The passage to the next world and the realm after death.

8-) How can these painful things actually help a believer?

They can serve as gentle warnings from Allah and keep him from spiritual laziness.

9-) How do those blessings teach about the next life?

They are reminders, examples, and samples of the blessings waiting in Paradise.

10-) How does it describe the grave for believers?

As a passage into lasting life, mercy, and Paradise.

5sinif short-words-p31-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-in-the-comparison-general-principle - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What other instruction follows listening to the Qur'an?

To carry out its commands.

2-) What four actions or attitudes toward revelation are taught at the beginning?

Listen, obey, hold to it, and act by it.

3-) In this explanation, what does the garden on the road represent?

A person's short life in human society and civilization.

4-) How does the passage describe the wise way to deal with this mixture?

Take the clean and pleasant part, and leave the disturbing part.

5-) What kind of heart does that wise approach lead to?

A tranquil heart.

6-) What does the dragon represent?

The way to the world after death and the place between this life and the hereafter.

7-) What are the poisonous creatures around the person like in real life?

They are like troubles and disasters people face in the world.

8-) What merciful purpose can those troubles have for a believer?

They can wake him up and keep him from heedlessness.

9-) What does the grave mean for people who reject guidance?

A lonely and painful entrance like a narrow prison.

10-) How is the grave described for people of the Qur'an?

As a gate from this world's prison into eternal life and Paradise.

5sinif short-words-p31-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-in-the-comparison-general-principle - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the passage trying to help the listener avoid becoming?

The miserable brother.

2-) What does this tell us about real religious understanding?

It should lead to action, not just ideas.

3-) What does the believing brother represent inside a person?

A faithful soul and a sound heart.

4-) What does the garden tell us about life in society?

It contains both beneficial things and harmful or dirty things.

5-) What benefit comes from that method?

Peacefulness inside.

6-) Why is the number sixty mentioned?

It points to an average human lifetime.

7-) What does the dragon symbolize?

The passage into the next stage after death.

8-) What do the poisonous vermin stand for?

Hardships and disasters in worldly life.

9-) What is the hidden mystery called in the passage?

The secret purpose behind creation.

10-) How is death different for people of misguidance and people of guidance?

For the misguided it is a bitter separation, but for believers it is reunion, reward, and relief.

5sinif short-words-p31-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-in-the-comparison-general-principle - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who is the advice meant for at the start of the passage?

The speaker's nafs and the person listening.

2-) What is the main difference between the two brothers in the explanation?

One stands for a believing, upright inner self, and the other stands for an unbelieving, corrupt inner self.

3-) Which road matches denial and disobedience?

The road on the left.

4-) What does the roadside garden stand for?

A person's short worldly life in society and civilization.

5-) What does the well's depth point to?

A usual lifetime of about sixty years.

6-) What do the two root-cutting animals teach about time?

That day and night keep using up a person's life.

7-) What does the dragon symbolize?

The path to the life after death and the intermediate state.

8-) What is the talisman explained to be?

The secret of why creation was made.

9-) For those who reject truth, what is the grave like?

A bleak and crushing place of confinement.

10-) What is the grave like for those who go against guidance?

A lonely, painful, and tight place.

5sinif short-words-p31-eighth-word-applying-the-symbols-in-the-comparison-general-principle - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What warning and hope are both given in the first sentence of the passage?

A warning not to live like the unfortunate brother, and hope to become like the fortunate brother.

2-) What shows that real belief is more than hearing words?

The passage says to obey, hold fast, and act by the Qur'an.

3-) What kind of inner life does the unfortunate brother represent?

A faithless spirit and a corrupted heart.

4-) What does the garden symbolize about ordinary life?

Human life in society where opposites are mixed together.

5-) Why does the desert fit as a picture of the world?

Because the passage uses it to represent the earth and worldly life as a place people travel through.

6-) What does the tree growing there represent?

Life's duration and the support of living.

7-) What can a student infer from night and day wearing down the roots?

Time keeps moving and life keeps getting shorter.

8-) What do the fruits teach about blessings in this world?

They are signs and small samples pointing to greater blessings in the next world.

9-) What is meant by the talisman?

The hidden wisdom of why creation exists.

10-) What final comfort does the passage give about death for believers?

It is not only an end but also a reunion, a reward, and a rest.