

5sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 1

1-) At what time of day does this passage focus? (8 kelime)

It focuses

2-) What two actions does the passage say a person should do through worship at that time? (9 kelime)

The person

3-) To whom should a person turn at Fajr? (10 kelime)

To Allah,

4-) Why does a person need help at the beginning of the day? (15 kelime)

Because many things

5-) What does the passage say prayer gives a person for the day ahead? (5 kelime)

It

6-) What does asking Allah for success mean in this passage? (17 kelime)

It means seeking His

7-) How does this passage show the connection between human weakness and prayer? (16 kelime)

Since people are not

8-) What is one main idea of this passage? (21 kelime)

Fajr prayer is very necessary

9-) What can we infer about someone who starts the day by asking Allah for help? (11 kelime)

That person

5sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer - Set 2

1-) What does the passage teach about human beings without Allah's help? (14 kelime)

It teaches that

2-) What is a petition in this passage? (8 kelime)

It is

3-) What does the passage say a believer seeks from Allah at Fajr? (3 kelime)

4-) What are the two big reasons a person needs support in the morning? (11 kelime)

To meet

5-) Which is stronger in this passage: human power or Allah's power? (9 kelime)

Allah's power

6-) How does the passage encourage humility? (18 kelime)

It teaches a person

7-) If someone thinks, "I can handle the whole day by myself," how would this passage correct that idea? (15 kelime)

It would remind

8-) What lesson about daily life can be learned from this passage? (10 kelime)

Each day

9-) In one sentence, summarize the message of the passage. (19 kelime)

A weak human being

5sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 3

1-) What does the passage say is clear to understand? (14 kelime)

That a person

2-) When should this turning to Allah take place? (7 kelime)

In

3-) How is Allah described in the passage? (10 kelime)

As perfectly

4-) What is the purpose of prayer and supplication here? (8 kelime)

To ask

5-) What future time does the passage point to after Fajr? (3 kelime)

6-) What must a person be able to do during that day? (9 kelime)

Face events

7-) According to the passage, why is prayer not just a habit? (11 kelime)

Because it

8-) What cause-and-effect idea appears in the passage? (16 kelime)

Since people are weak

9-) What can we infer about the value of Fajr prayer from this passage? (13 kelime)

It is very

5sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 4

1-) Who especially needs prayer in this passage? (9 kelime)

A human

2-) What time is presented as the right time for this need to be met? (8 kelime)

The time

3-) What does it mean to have recourse to Allah? (10 kelime)

It means

4-) What does the passage say a person should present before Allah? (5 kelime)

A

5-) Why is Allah the right One to ask for help from? (8 kelime)

Because He

6-) What challenge is ahead for a person after Fajr? (10 kelime)

The person

7-) Besides events of the day, what else must a person bear? (7 kelime)

The

8-) How does the passage connect worship with everyday life? (12 kelime)

It shows that

9-) What is the main point of the whole passage? (19 kelime)

Fajr prayer is an

5sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -
Set 5

1-) What problem does the passage assume about the human condition? (7 kelime)
That

2-) What solution does the passage give for that problem at the start of the day? (9 kelime)
Turning to

3-) What does the passage say a person should ask Allah for? (3 kelime)

4-) Why is Allah's compassion important in this passage? (12 kelime)
Because a needy

5-) Why is Allah's power important in this passage? (15 kelime)
Because only the

6-) What does the phrase about the coming day tell us? (13 kelime)
That the day

7-) How does the passage describe responsibilities? (6 kelime)
As

8-) What central teaching should a Muslim student remember from this passage? (11 kelime)
Begin the

9-) What attitude toward Allah does this passage teach? (12 kelime)
Trusting Him, asking

5sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer - Set 6

1-) In this passage, what makes prayer necessary at dawn? (10 kelime)

Human weakness

2-) Which prayer time is being discussed? (1 kelime)

3-) What two forms of worship are mentioned? (3 kelime)

4-) What is a believer hoping to receive from Allah through this worship? (4 kelime)

Support,

5-) What does the passage teach about the day before it even begins? (12 kelime)

That it already

6-) Why would a person not be wise to depend only on himself, according to this passage? (13 kelime)

Because he needs

7-) How does the passage balance Allah's greatness and kindness? (14 kelime)

It shows that

8-) What is the relationship between morning prayer and daily responsibilities in this passage? (9 kelime)

Morning prayer

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At what time of day does this passage focus?

It focuses on Fajr, the early morning time.

2-) What two actions does the passage say a person should do through worship at that time?

The person should pray and ask Allah for help.

3-) To whom should a person turn at Fajr?

To Allah, the One with complete power, mercy, and beauty.

4-) Why does a person need help at the beginning of the day?

Because many things will happen during the day, and the person has duties to carry.

5-) What does the passage say prayer gives a person for the day ahead?

It gives support and strength.

6-) What does asking Allah for success mean in this passage?

It means seeking His help so one can do what is right and handle the day well.

7-) How does this passage show the connection between human weakness and prayer?

Since people are not strong enough by themselves, they need to turn to Allah in prayer.

8-) What is one main idea of this passage?

Fajr prayer is very necessary because it prepares a weak and needy person for the day by connecting him to Allah.

9-) What can we infer about someone who starts the day by asking Allah for help?

That person is more ready to face daily problems and responsibilities.

5sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage teach about human beings without Allah's help?

It teaches that they are not enough on their own to face life's tasks.

2-) What is a petition in this passage?

It is a humble request made to Allah.

3-) What does the passage say a believer seeks from Allah at Fajr?

Success and help.

4-) What are the two big reasons a person needs support in the morning?

To meet whatever the day brings and to carry its responsibilities.

5-) Which is stronger in this passage: human power or Allah's power?

Allah's power is complete, while human power is weak.

6-) How does the passage encourage humility?

It teaches a person to admit his need and turn to Allah instead of depending only on himself.

7-) If someone thinks, "I can handle the whole day by myself," how would this passage correct that idea?

It would remind the person that people need Allah's support to manage the day properly.

8-) What lesson about daily life can be learned from this passage?

Each day should begin with prayer and dependence on Allah.

9-) In one sentence, summarize the message of the passage.

A weak human being should begin the day at Fajr by praying to Allah for help, support, and success.

5sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say is clear to understand?

That a person in this condition truly needs to turn to Allah at Fajr.

2-) When should this turning to Allah take place?

In the early morning at Fajr time.

3-) How is Allah described in the passage?

As perfectly powerful, full of compassion, and full of beauty.

4-) What is the purpose of prayer and supplication here?

To ask Allah for aid and good results.

5-) What future time does the passage point to after Fajr?

The coming day.

6-) What must a person be able to do during that day?

Face events and carry the duties placed on him.

7-) According to the passage, why is prayer not just a habit?

Because it is a needed source of support for real life.

8-) What cause-and-effect idea appears in the passage?

Since people are weak and the day brings many tasks, they need prayer to gain support.

9-) What can we infer about the value of Fajr prayer from this passage?

It is very valuable because it strengthens a person before the day begins.

5sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who especially needs prayer in this passage?

A human soul in a weak and needy state.

2-) What time is presented as the right time for this need to be met?

The time of Fajr in the early morning.

3-) What does it mean to have recourse to Allah?

It means to turn to Him for help and refuge.

4-) What does the passage say a person should present before Allah?

A humble request through prayer.

5-) Why is Allah the right One to ask for help from?

Because He has full power and perfect mercy.

6-) What challenge is ahead for a person after Fajr?

The person must deal with what happens during the day.

7-) Besides events of the day, what else must a person bear?

The duties and responsibilities placed on him.

8-) How does the passage connect worship with everyday life?

It shows that worship helps a person manage daily struggles and tasks.

9-) What is the main point of the whole passage?

Fajr prayer is an essential way for a weak human being to seek Allah's help before facing the day.

5sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What problem does the passage assume about the human condition?

That people are weak and need support.

2-) What solution does the passage give for that problem at the start of the day?

Turning to Allah in prayer and supplication at Fajr.

3-) What does the passage say a person should ask Allah for?

Help and success.

4-) Why is Allah's compassion important in this passage?

Because a needy person needs mercy as well as power from Allah.

5-) Why is Allah's power important in this passage?

Because only the One with complete power can truly help a person face the day.

6-) What does the phrase about the coming day tell us?

That the day will bring events and tests a person must go through.

7-) How does the passage describe responsibilities?

As burdens a person must carry.

8-) What central teaching should a Muslim student remember from this passage?

Begin the day by relying on Allah, not only on yourself.

9-) What attitude toward Allah does this passage teach?

Trusting Him, asking Him sincerely, and depending on His mercy and power.

5sinif short-words-p43-ninth-word-fifth-point-wisdom-of-the-dawn-prayer -

Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, what makes prayer necessary at dawn?

Human weakness and the need to prepare for the day.

2-) Which prayer time is being discussed?

Fajr.

3-) What two forms of worship are mentioned?

Prayer and supplication.

4-) What is a believer hoping to receive from Allah through this worship?

Support, help, and success.

5-) What does the passage teach about the day before it even begins?

That it already holds events and duties that a person must face.

6-) Why would a person not be wise to depend only on himself, according to this passage?

Because he needs a stronger source of help than his own limited strength.

7-) How does the passage balance Allah's greatness and kindness?

It shows that Allah is mighty enough to help and merciful enough to care.

8-) What is the relationship between morning prayer and daily responsibilities in this passage?

Morning prayer prepares a person to carry those responsibilities.