

5sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 1

1-) At nightfall, what kind of condition is the human spirit described as being in? (15 kelime)
It is described

2-) What problem does the worshipper face when he thinks about the future? (10 kelime)
He feels

3-) What does the worshipper ask Allah to send into his world and future? (11 kelime)
He asks

4-) What does sleep remind the reader of in this passage? (6 kelime)
It

5-) How does the passage show honesty in worship? (13 kelime)
It shows the

6-) What does it mean that Allah takes the place of mortal loved ones in prayer? (21 kelime)
It means the heart turns

7-) In prayer, who protects a person from harmful things he fears? (6 kelime)
Allah,

8-) What does the opening chapter of the prayer teach about who deserves praise? (11 kelime)
It teaches

9-) How can a small and lonely person become honored in worship? (13 kelime)
By being connected

10-) What does the person ask for when saying, "Guide us to the Straight Path"? (13 kelime)
He asks Allah

5sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha - Set 2

1-) What time of day is the passage mainly about? (8 kelime)

It is

2-) What does the worshipper decide about things that disappear? (12 kelime)

He decides not

3-) What kind of Being does the worshipper turn to instead? (9 kelime)

He turns

4-) What does the passage say man does for a while about the unseen world? (17 kelime)

It says he stops

5-) What does the passage say a person does no matter what happens before going to sleep? (7 kelime)

He

6-) What is meant by ending the day's record well? (12 kelime)

It means closing

7-) Why should people not give deep praise to created beings as if they deserve it fully? (21 kelime)

Because they are limited and

8-) Why does the person begin with al-Fatiha instead of praising created beings? (13 kelime)

Because created beings

9-) Why does the passage say the worshipper speaks in the name of all creatures? (13 kelime)

Because the prayer

10-) What is the final request mentioned in the passage, and why is it important? (20 kelime)

The final request is for

5sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha - Set 3

1-) What feelings or weaknesses make the night prayer especially important in this passage? (11 kelime)

Human weakness,

2-) During the night prayer, from whom does a person seek safety and shelter? (14 kelime)

A person seeks

3-) Why is turning to Allah at night especially fitting in this passage? (12 kelime)

Because night reminds

4-) What does the worshipper do with these inner pains? (11 kelime)

He presents

5-) What is one reason a person stands to pray before sleeping? (13 kelime)

He wants to

6-) Why is sleep compared to death in a lesson like this? (17 kelime)

Because both involve leaving

7-) Why is Allah the right protector against fearful things? (12 kelime)

Because He is

8-) What does praising Allah at the start of prayer teach about Allah? (10 kelime)

It teaches

9-) How does a person's connection to Allah change his place in the universe? (14 kelime)

It gives him

10-) Why is asking for the Straight Path a fitting ending to this part of the prayer? (21 kelime)

Because after praising Allah and

5sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha - Set 4

1-) In this passage, what is happening around a person that matches the time of the night prayer? (14 kelime)

Darkness is settling

2-) What future does the passage describe man as facing? (7 kelime)

It

3-) In a short prayer time, what lasting blessings does the worshipper seek? (11 kelime)

He seeks

4-) What effect does Allah's mercy have on a hurting heart in the passage? (10 kelime)

It comforts

5-) What comparison is made between sleep and another event? (5 kelime)

Sleep

6-) What does Allah replace for the person in prayer when it comes to love? (8 kelime)

Allah replaces

7-) What does the prayer give the worshipper instead of fear of harmful things? (7 kelime)

It

8-) How does being connected to the Master of the Day of Judgment raise a person's worth? (16 kelime)

It gives the person

9-) How can someone small and alone still reach a high rank? (14 kelime)

By worshipping Allah

10-) What is the Straight Path in this passage connected to at the end? (12 kelime)

It is connected

5sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 5

1-) What is the main idea of this passage about the night prayer? (23 kelime)

The main idea is that

2-) Why is Allah called the Eternal Beloved in this part? (12 kelime)

Because He does

3-) What does the passage say a person does with his sadness and troubles? (10 kelime)

He brings

4-) What does the worshipper hope Allah's guidance will do for him? (11 kelime)

He hopes

5-) Why does the passage connect the end of the day with keeping a record? (14 kelime)

Because prayer helps

6-) In prayer, who takes the place of weak creatures from whom people ask for help? (9 kelime)

Allah, the

7-) What does the passage teach about creatures as sources of help? (13 kelime)

Creatures are limited

8-) What qualities of Allah are highlighted in the opening of the prayer? (8 kelime)

His perfection,

9-) When saying, "You alone do we worship and from You alone do we seek help," how does the person speak? (16 kelime)

He speaks as if

5sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 6

1-) What four hard things about human life are described at the start of the passage? (16 kelime)

Human beings are described

2-) What truth about worldly things is shown by the example from Prophet Ibrahim? (15 kelime)

Worldly things do

3-) How can Allah's guidance help a person according to the passage? (13 kelime)

It can brighten

4-) Where does the worshipper take that pain? (8 kelime)

He takes

5-) Why is the moment before sleep spiritually serious? (17 kelime)

Because sleep is like

6-) What three replacements does prayer give the worshipper? (12 kelime)

Allah replaces mortal

7-) What does Allah replace for the person in prayer when it comes to safety? (12 kelime)

Allah replaces all

8-) What does worship do for a person who seems small and unimportant? (10 kelime)

It raises

9-) What kind of path is the Straight Path described as being? (10 kelime)

It is

CEVAP ANAHTARI

5sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At nightfall, what kind of condition is the human spirit described as being in?

It is described as weak, needy, and surrounded by many troubles and unknown things ahead.

2-) What problem does the worshipper face when he thinks about the future?

He feels surrounded by darkness, uncertainty, and many troubling events.

3-) What does the worshipper ask Allah to send into his world and future?

He asks for mercy and guidance that bring light and comfort.

4-) What does sleep remind the reader of in this passage?

It reminds the reader of death.

5-) How does the passage show honesty in worship?

It shows the worshipper openly admitting his sadness, fear, and need before Allah.

6-) What does it mean that Allah takes the place of mortal loved ones in prayer?

It means the heart turns to the One Who never leaves instead of depending only on people who cannot stay forever.

7-) In prayer, who protects a person from harmful things he fears?

Allah, the All-Compassionate Protector, protects him.

8-) What does the opening chapter of the prayer teach about who deserves praise?

It teaches that true and complete praise belongs to Allah alone.

9-) How can a small and lonely person become honored in worship?

By being connected to Allah, Who rules over all times and all things.

10-) What does the person ask for when saying, "Guide us to the Straight Path"?

He asks Allah to lead him on the path that brings everlasting happiness.

5sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What time of day is the passage mainly about?

It is about the night prayer at nightfall.

2-) What does the worshipper decide about things that disappear?

He decides not to give his heart to things that fade away.

3-) What kind of Being does the worshipper turn to instead?

He turns to Allah, the One Who remains forever.

4-) What does the passage say man does for a while about the unseen world?

It says he stops thinking about it for a time and pours out his grief before Allah.

5-) What does the passage say a person does no matter what happens before going to sleep?

He performs his final act of worship.

6-) What is meant by ending the day's record well?

It means closing the day with obedience and worship instead of neglect.

7-) Why should people not give deep praise to created beings as if they deserve it fully?

Because they are limited and needy, so they are not worthy of the kind of perfect praise that belongs to Allah.

8-) Why does the person begin with al-Fatiha instead of praising created beings?

Because created beings are not complete and do not deserve that highest praise.

9-) Why does the passage say the worshipper speaks in the name of all creatures?

Because the prayer expresses worship and need that fit the whole created world.

10-) What is the final request mentioned in the passage, and why is it important?

The final request is for guidance to the Straight Path, and it is important because it leads to everlasting success.

5sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What feelings or weaknesses make the night prayer especially important in this passage?

Human weakness, neediness, fear, sadness, and uncertainty make it especially important.

2-) During the night prayer, from whom does a person seek safety and shelter?

A person seeks refuge with Allah, the One Who lives forever and never fades.

3-) Why is turning to Allah at night especially fitting in this passage?

Because night reminds a person of weakness, loneliness, and need for protection.

4-) What does the worshipper do with these inner pains?

He presents them to Allah and asks for healing and support.

5-) What is one reason a person stands to pray before sleeping?

He wants to end the record of his day in a good way.

6-) Why is sleep compared to death in a lesson like this?

Because both involve leaving behind the day's activities and entering a state where a person is powerless.

7-) Why is Allah the right protector against fearful things?

Because He is compassionate and able to guard the person from harm.

8-) What does praising Allah at the start of prayer teach about Allah?

It teaches that Allah is perfect, self-sufficient, merciful, and generous.

9-) How does a person's connection to Allah change his place in the universe?

It gives him honor and makes him like a welcomed guest and respected servant.

10-) Why is asking for the Straight Path a fitting ending to this part of the prayer?

Because after praising Allah and asking His help, the believer asks to be led to the way that brings eternal joy.

5sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this passage, what is happening around a person that matches the time of the night prayer?
Darkness is settling in, and the person feels surrounded by uncertainty and many events.

2-) What future does the passage describe man as facing?

It describes a dark and uncertain future.

3-) In a short prayer time, what lasting blessings does the worshipper seek?

He seeks lasting mercy, guidance, and light for his life ahead.

4-) What effect does Allah's mercy have on a hurting heart in the passage?

It comforts the heart and helps heal sorrow from loss.

5-) What comparison is made between sleep and another event?

Sleep is compared to death.

6-) What does Allah replace for the person in prayer when it comes to love?

Allah replaces the mortal beings the person loves.

7-) What does the prayer give the worshipper instead of fear of harmful things?

It gives him trust in Allah's protection.

8-) How does being connected to the Master of the Day of Judgment raise a person's worth?

It gives the person honor and a high standing even if he seems small by himself.

9-) How can someone small and alone still reach a high rank?

By worshipping Allah and being connected to the Lord of all time and judgment.

10-) What is the Straight Path in this passage connected to at the end?

It is connected to a shining way that leads to everlasting happiness.

5sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main idea of this passage about the night prayer?

The main idea is that the night prayer helps a weak human being turn to Allah for safety, mercy, praise, help, and guidance.

2-) Why is Allah called the Eternal Beloved in this part?

Because He does not die, disappear, or leave like created things do.

3-) What does the passage say a person does with his sadness and troubles?

He brings them before Allah's mercy and asks for help.

4-) What does the worshipper hope Allah's guidance will do for him?

He hopes it will give light to his life and future.

5-) Why does the passage connect the end of the day with keeping a record?

Because prayer helps a person finish the day in a good and blessed way.

6-) In prayer, who takes the place of weak creatures from whom people ask for help?

Allah, the All-Powerful and Generous One, takes their place.

7-) What does the passage teach about creatures as sources of help?

Creatures are limited and weak, so they cannot be depended on like Allah.

8-) What qualities of Allah are highlighted in the opening of the prayer?

His perfection, independence from need, mercy, and generosity.

9-) When saying, "You alone do we worship and from You alone do we seek help," how does the person speak?

He speaks as if he is joining all creatures in worship and asking Allah for help.

5sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What four hard things about human life are described at the start of the passage?

Human beings are described as weak, powerless, poor, and surrounded by darkness about what is coming.

2-) What truth about worldly things is shown by the example from Prophet Ibrahim?

Worldly things do not last, so they are not the right final object of love.

3-) How can Allah's guidance help a person according to the passage?

It can brighten his life ahead and comfort the pain caused by loss.

4-) Where does the worshipper take that pain?

He takes it to Allah's court of mercy.

5-) Why is the moment before sleep spiritually serious?

Because sleep is like a reminder of death and may be the last moment of the day.

6-) What three replacements does prayer give the worshipper?

Allah replaces mortal loved ones, weak helpers, and protection from fearful harms.

7-) What does Allah replace for the person in prayer when it comes to safety?

Allah replaces all lesser protections by being the compassionate protector from harm.

8-) What does worship do for a person who seems small and unimportant?

It raises him in honor through his relationship with Allah.

9-) What kind of path is the Straight Path described as being?

It is a bright path that leads to eternal happiness.