5sinif short-words-p60-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-todays-value-and-the-world-lit-by-prayer - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say about yesterday and tomorrow?

Yesterday is gone, and tomorrow is not promised to us.

2-) Since the future is uncertain, what should a person value most?

The day he is living right now.

3-) What special meaning does each new day have?

It opens a fresh personal world.

4-) What happens to a person's daily world if the prayers are not performed?

It becomes dark and miserable and stands against the person.

5-) What further result comes from that darkness?

That day will later count against the person.

6-) What lesson comes from the example of a smooth or rough mirror?

A person's condition affects how his world appears, just as a mirror changes a reflection.

7-) What do the prayers help a person see in the world's confusion?

They help the person see wisdom, order, and meaning.

8-) Why is the lamp image a good example for prayer?

Because prayer lights up what was dark and hidden.

9-) How does the date seed example answer that wrong thought?

It shows that a small beginning still carries the truth of what it can become.

10-) What stays present in all levels of prayer?

The core of that blessed light remains in every level.

5sinif short-words-p60-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-todays-value-and-the-world-lit-by-prayer - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why does the passage tell the nafs not to count on tomorrow?

Because no one has proof that tomorrow will come for him.

2-) Based on those facts, what is called a person's true life?

Today, the present day.

3-) What does every new day open for a person?

A new world that belongs to that day.

4-) In this passage, what decides whether a person's daily world is bright or dark?

The condition of the person's heart and the way he lives and acts.

5-) Can that daily world affect a person later? Explain.

Yes. It can later speak either for the person or against him.

6-) How can a person change the look of his own world?

By what he loves, thinks, intends, and does.

7-) What does prayer uncover in the middle of life's mess and confusion?

It uncovers a planned and meaningful order.

8-) What does that light help the person understand about life?

That behind confusion there is divine wisdom and order.

9-) What result comes from that shining world?

It becomes a witness for the person.

10-) Why are some prayers stronger or brighter than others?

Because people differ in spiritual level and in how much that truth opens in them.

5sinif short-words-p60-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-todays-value-and-the-world-lit-by-prayer - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What should a person understand about time from this passage?

The past is over, the future is uncertain, and today is what we truly have.

2-) What should a person do with at least one hour of the day?

Spend it in prayer and worship.

3-) How is that hour helpful for the life after death?

It is stored like savings for the true future.

4-) What makes a daily world become sad and dark?

Leaving the prayers undone.

5-) Why does the passage use the example of a mirror and a palace?

To show that the same thing can look beautiful or ugly depending on what reflects it, just as a person's inner state changes his daily world.

6-) If the "mirror" is bad, what happens to the reflected picture?

Even something beautiful can look ugly or rough.

7-) Why are prayers compared to switching on a lamp?

Because they drive away darkness and help a person see clearly.

8-) What warning is given about thinking, "My prayers are too small"?

A small prayer still carries the same basic truth, just like a seed carries the pattern of the tree.

9-) What should a regular person believe about his own prayer?

It still has a share in the same blessed light as the prayer of the righteous.

10-) What varies among people's prayers while the core stays the same?

Their stages, strength, and degree of unfolding vary, but the essence remains.

5sinif short-words-p60-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-todays-value-and-the-world-lit-by-prayer - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main message about how to view the day you are living in?

Treat today as your real chance, since the past is gone and the future is not guaranteed.

2-) Why is that one hour a smart use of time?

Because it is stored like savings for the life to come.

3-) What is the purpose of spending that hour in worship?

To prepare for the hereafter.

4-) Where will that dark daily world speak against the person?

In the unseen realm mentioned in the passage.

5-) What can a person do to his own world by his choices?

He can make it support him or speak against him.

6-) Why is the palace-and-mirror picture important in this passage?

It helps explain that our inner condition changes how our world is shown to us.

7-) What does prayer remove from the person's world?

Darkness and the feeling of miserable confusion.

8-) What does the passage say that bright world will do for the person?

It will testify for the person, not against him.

9-) What good testimony comes from a brightened daily world?

It bears witness in the person's favor.

10-) How does the passage explain the link between simple prayers and higher prayers?

They share the same root truth, even though some are much more developed than others.

A person should not rely on tomorrow because it may never come.

2-) What picture is given to show the value of that hour?

It is like putting treasure aside for the hereafter.

3-) What is each new day compared to for every person?

A doorway to a new personal world.

4-) What is one harmful result of not praying during the day?

The person's day becomes spiritually dark.

5-) What four things are named as shaping a person's world?

The heart, the mind, the actions, and the wishes.

6-) What example is used to explain how prayer brings light?

Prayer is compared to turning on a lamp with a switch.

7-) What do the five daily prayers do to the person's world?

They fill it with light.

8-) What should a person not say about his own prayers?

He should not think they are worthless compared with greater prayers.

9-) What is different between the prayers of different people?

Their depth, brightness, and level are different.

10-) What stays the same in all true prayers, even when people are at different levels?

Their shining essence stays the same.

1-) What two facts about time are given at the start of the passage?

The past has gone, and the future is not guaranteed.

2-) Why is worship in that hour compared to keeping something in a safe place?

Because it is being saved for the everlasting life ahead.

3-) If someone ignores prayer during the day, how will that day's world end?

It will leave in a sad and dark condition and become a witness against that person.

4-) What makes that daily world leave in darkness and sadness?

Neglecting the prayers.

5-) Why does the passage mention mirrors of different colors and qualities?

To explain that the same reality can look different depending on the one reflecting it.

6-) What happens right away to the person's world after that turning?

It becomes filled with light.

7-) What everyday object is used to explain this sudden brightness?

An electric light turned on by a switch.

8-) How does the light mentioned in the passage reach the person?

It reflects onto the heart and lights up that day's world.

9-) What does that comparison teach about ordinary people's prayers?

Even simple prayers hold a real share of the same truth and light.

10-) What is the final lesson about different people's prayers?

They are not equal in level, but all true prayers contain the same basic luminous truth.
