

1

What main subjects does the passage say a person can understand by listening to the comparison?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 1

It says the comparison helps explain the world, the human soul, the importance of religion, why life becomes like a prison without true religion, and how calling on Allah and

2

What choice was placed before the two brothers at the fork in the road?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 2

They had to choose between a path with rules, safety, and happiness and a path with fewer limits but danger and misery.

3

How was the road on the right described?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 3

It was described as having order and discipline, with some difficulty, but leading to safety and well-being.

4

How was the road on the left described?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 4

It was described as having freedom from restraint on the surface, but leading to harm and unhappiness.

5

What does the brother with good character say before taking his road?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 5

He says that he puts his trust in Allah.

6

Why did the better brother choose the right-hand road?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 6

He chose it because he had good character and accepted order and rules.

7

Why did the other brother choose the left-hand road?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 7

He chose it because he was morally careless and wanted a path without restrictions.

8

Which brother is followed more closely in this part of the story, and why?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 8

The brother on the left is followed so the reader can see that what looks easy at first can actually become difficult and heavy.

9

What lesson about freedom and rules can be inferred from the two roads?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 9

It suggests that freedom without guidance can harm a person, while living by right guidance brings safety and peace.

10

How does this opening comparison connect religion to a person's life?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 10

It shows religion as a guide that brings order, protection, and happiness instead of confusion and misery.

11

What is the purpose of the comparison at the beginning of the passage?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 11

Its purpose is to help the reader understand big truths about human life, religion, and the condition of the soul.

12

Who gives direction to the two brothers when the road divides?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 12

A serious man at the split in the road gives them guidance.

13

What warning is given about the left-hand road?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 13

The warning is that its lack of limits hides danger and misery.

14

What promise is given about the right-hand road?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 14

The promise is that even though it requires obedience and effort, it brings safety and happiness.

15

What does the response of the good brother show about his faith?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 15

It shows that he trusts Allah and is willing to follow what is right.

16

What does the response of the other brother show about his attitude?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 16

It shows that he prefers ease and unrestricted living over discipline and wisdom.

17

How does the passage contrast appearance and reality?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 17

It shows that the road that seems harder is actually better, while the road that seems easier is actually worse.

18

What kind of person is the second brother described as being?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 18

He is described as immoral, lazy, and drawn to comfort without responsibility.

19

Why is the right road not presented as completely easy?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 19

Because the passage teaches that the right path includes responsibility and self-control.

20

What overall message about religion can be drawn from the brothers' choices?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 20

True religion guides a person to the better path, even when that path requires obedience and patience.

21

According to the passage, what happens to the world and human life if true religion is missing?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 21

The world becomes like a prison, and human beings become deeply unhappy.

22

Which two expressions are presented as keys to freeing the human spirit from darkness?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 22

Calling on Allah and declaring that no god deserves worship except Allah.

23

Why is a comparison used instead of giving only direct statements?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 23

A comparison makes the lesson easier to picture and understand through a story.

24

What did the two brothers ask the man at the fork in the road?

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-
choosing-between-two-roads

Cevap 24

They asked which road was the better one.