

8sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 1

1-) What question is raised at the start of the passage about all created things? (16 kelime)

It asks whether all

2-) What answer is given to that question? (9 kelime)

A strong

3-) Why is this comparison effective for understanding the natural world? (13 kelime)

Because it shows

4-) What lesson do trees teach in this passage? (18 kelime)

They show that they

5-) What do small seeds teach us when they grow into large trees? (15 kelime)

They teach us

6-) Why are milk-giving animals called blessed in this passage? (13 kelime)

Because they provide

7-) What main point is made by saying everything becomes obedient when Allah's name is mentioned? (10 kelime)

The point

8-) What makes the movement of roots through rock so meaningful?

(14 kelime)

Their softness makes

9-) What do the leaves show by staying moist in severe heat? (15 kelime)

They show that

10-) What overall message do roots and leaves together give? (13 kelime)

They show that

8sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 2

1-) What claim from earlier is confirmed at the beginning of this passage? (16 kelime)

The claim that all

2-) What simple real-life comparison is used to explain this idea? (15 kelime)

A comparison about

3-) How does this human example prepare us to think about nature? (16 kelime)

It teaches us that

4-) What do trees do for people after receiving from Allah's mercy? (8 kelime)

They present

5-) What picture is used for gardens, and what does it show? (13 kelime)

Gardens are pictured

6-) What is special about the milk from the animals named in the passage? (10 kelime)

It is

7-) What contrast is made between the softness of roots and the hardness of the earth? (14 kelime)

The roots are

8-) What happens to the idea that nature acts by itself when we look at these examples? (13 kelime)

That idea becomes

9-) How does the example connected to Musa, peace be upon him, strengthen the argument? (11 kelime)

It reminds

10-) What big truth should a student understand from the final examples in the passage? (14 kelime)

Even the strongest

8sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 3

1-) At the opening of the passage, what issue is being asked and answered? (18 kelime)

Whether all beings truly

2-) In that example, what does the person's success prove about him? (16 kelime)

It proves that he

3-) Why can't that person's action be explained as personal strength only? (11 kelime)

Because the

4-) What does the passage teach about the work of trees? (14 kelime)

They receive gifts

5-) Which animals are mentioned, and what do they provide? (11 kelime)

Cows, camels,

6-) How are gardens described in a way that highlights abundance? (13 kelime)

They are described

7-) What happens to things when Allah's name and mercy are mentioned in the passage? (8 kelime)

They become

8-) What two things are especially challenged in the passage as not having final control? (10 kelime)
Heat and

9-) How does the passage challenge a view that depends only on nature? (10 kelime)
It shows

10-) What is one central message of the whole passage? (14 kelime)
The whole world

8sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 4

1-) What statement about all beings is examined at the beginning of the passage? (15 kelime)

The statement that

2-) What does the image of a soldier help the reader understand? (20 kelime)

It helps the reader understand

3-) What larger truth does that comparison point to? (13 kelime)

It points to

4-) What does that teach about their own power? (15 kelime)

It teaches that

5-) What does the variety of foods in gardens suggest? (10 kelime)

It suggests

6-) Which animals are named to make this point clear? (5 kelime)

Cows,

7-) What is surprising about roots and rootlets? (11 kelime)

They are

8-) How does the passage respond to people who trust only in physical laws like heat and hardness? (13 kelime)

It says those

9-) Why does the passage mention fire in connection with Prophet Ibrahim, peace be upon him? (9 kelime)
To show

10-) If a student had to summarize this passage in one sentence, what would be a good summary? (15 kelime)
Everything in creation

8sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 5

1-) What is the short question asked at the start of this passage section? (19 kelime)

It asks if it

2-) What conclusion would a careful observer make from that scene? (12 kelime)

That the person

3-) What do seeds and grains show about Allah's power? (22 kelime)

They show that tiny things

4-) How does the passage apply this idea to everything in creation? (12 kelime)

It says all

5-) What does the garden image teach us about Allah? (12 kelime)

It teaches that

6-) What surprising work do roots and rootlets do? (14 kelime)

They move through

7-) Why is that gift important in the passage? (12 kelime)

Because it is

8-) How do the roots answer that mistake without speaking words? (10 kelime)

Their actions

9-) What do the leaves show by staying fresh in strong heat? (17
kelime)

They show that even

8sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 6

1-) What belief about creation is brought up again at the beginning of this passage? (13 kelime)

The belief that

2-) What would show that this person had official backing? (15 kelime)

His ability to

3-) Why are seeds and grains important examples in this passage? (18 kelime)

Because they are very

4-) What do trees give to people, according to the passage? (11 kelime)

They give

5-) Why are gardens compared to places where food is cooked? (14 kelime)

Because they produce

6-) What do these animals produce, and why is that meaningful? (19 kelime)

They produce milk, which

7-) What does their ability to pass through hard places teach about the world? (8 kelime)

It teaches

8-) What false idea is being corrected when the passage speaks against trust in heat and hardness? (12 kelime)

The false idea

9-) What is the purpose of referring to the story of Ibrahim, peace be upon him? (9 kelime)

It helps

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What question is raised at the start of the passage about all created things?

It asks whether all beings, in their own created way, say "In the Name of Allah."

2-) What answer is given to that question?

A strong confirmation is given that it is true.

3-) Why is this comparison effective for understanding the natural world?

Because it shows that great results point to a greater power behind them.

4-) What lesson do trees teach in this passage?

They show that they receive their provisions from Allah's mercy and then bring fruits and benefits to people.

5-) What do small seeds teach us when they grow into large trees?

They teach us that great results can come from tiny things only through Allah's command.

6-) Why are milk-giving animals called blessed in this passage?

Because they provide a clean and valuable food as a mercy from Allah.

7-) What main point is made by saying everything becomes obedient when Allah's name is mentioned?

The point is that created things submit to Allah's command.

8-) What makes the movement of roots through rock so meaningful?

Their softness makes it clear that their success does not come from brute force.

9-) What do the leaves show by staying moist in severe heat?

They show that heat does not act independently and that Allah preserves what He wills.

10-) What overall message do roots and leaves together give?

They show that both strong barriers and harsh conditions are under Allah's control.

8sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What claim from earlier is confirmed at the beginning of this passage?

The claim that all beings say “In the Name of Allah” through their condition and actions.

2-) What simple real-life comparison is used to explain this idea?

A comparison about one man forcing the people of a town to gather and labor.

3-) How does this human example prepare us to think about nature?

It teaches us that great actions in the world must also come from a greater authority.

4-) What do trees do for people after receiving from Allah’s mercy?

They present fruits and other benefits to people.

5-) What picture is used for gardens, and what does it show?

Gardens are pictured like cooking pots or kitchens, showing rich and varied provision.

6-) What is special about the milk from the animals named in the passage?

It is pure, beneficial, and generously provided through Allah’s mercy.

7-) What contrast is made between the softness of roots and the hardness of the earth?

The roots are very soft, but they still pass through hard ground and rock.

8-) What happens to the idea that nature acts by itself when we look at these examples?

That idea becomes weak, because the examples point beyond nature to Allah’s will.

9-) How does the example connected to Musa, peace be upon him, strengthen the argument?

It reminds the reader that Allah can make solid rock open.

10-) What big truth should a student understand from the final examples in the passage?

Even the strongest natural forces obey Allah, and delicate things succeed by His will.

8sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At the opening of the passage, what issue is being asked and answered?

Whether all beings truly declare Allah's name through the way they are made and the way they act.

2-) In that example, what does the person's success prove about him? It proves that he is not acting by himself but under a ruler's command and strength.

3-) Why can't that person's action be explained as personal strength only?

Because the task is too great for one person acting alone.

4-) What does the passage teach about the work of trees?

They receive gifts from Allah's mercy and then pass those gifts on to people.

5-) Which animals are mentioned, and what do they provide?

Cows, camels, sheep, and goats are mentioned, and they provide milk.

6-) How are gardens described in a way that highlights abundance?

They are described like places where many kinds of foods are prepared together.

7-) What happens to things when Allah's name and mercy are mentioned in the passage?

They become obedient and manageable under His command.

8-) What two things are especially challenged in the passage as not having final control?

Heat and hardness are shown not to have final control.

9-) How does the passage challenge a view that depends only on nature?

It shows examples where material explanations alone are not enough.

10-) What is one central message of the whole passage?

The whole world shows Allah's power and mercy through the way created things work.

8sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What statement about all beings is examined at the beginning of the passage?

The statement that all beings say “In the Name of Allah” through their natural state.

2-) What does the image of a soldier help the reader understand?

It helps the reader understand how someone can act with power that comes from a ruler rather than from himself.

3-) What larger truth does that comparison point to?

It points to the truth that created things also work under divine authority.

4-) What does that teach about their own power?

It teaches that their own power is not enough, so they act by Allah’s power.

5-) What does the variety of foods in gardens suggest?

It suggests wide, rich, and carefully arranged mercy from Allah.

6-) Which animals are named to make this point clear?

Cows, camels, sheep, and goats.

7-) What is surprising about roots and rootlets?

They are soft and fine, yet they pass through hard materials.

8-) How does the passage respond to people who trust only in physical laws like heat and hardness?

It says those things are also under command and are not independent powers.

9-) Why does the passage mention fire in connection with Prophet Ibrahim, peace be upon him?

To show that Allah can make heat stop harming.

10-) If a student had to summarize this passage in one sentence, what would be a good summary?

Everything in creation works by Allah’s power and mercy, not by its own independent strength.

8sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the short question asked at the start of this passage section?

It asks if it is really true that all beings say “In the Name of Allah” through their condition.

2-) What conclusion would a careful observer make from that scene? That the person must be acting with a ruler’s support and authority.

3-) What do seeds and grains show about Allah’s power?

They show that tiny things can carry the beginning of huge trees, which points to power far greater than their own size.

4-) How does the passage apply this idea to everything in creation? It says all things act in Allah’s name and by His power.

5-) What does the garden image teach us about Allah?

It teaches that Allah provides many different blessings with wisdom and care.

6-) What surprising work do roots and rootlets do?

They move through hard ground and rock even though they are soft and delicate.

7-) Why is that gift important in the passage?

Because it is shown as a clean and life-giving mercy from Allah.

8-) How do the roots answer that mistake without speaking words?

Their actions show that hard matter cannot resist Allah’s command.

9-) What do the leaves show by staying fresh in strong heat?

They show that even delicate things survive by Allah’s command and care, not by their own power.

8sinif short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What belief about creation is brought up again at the beginning of this passage?

The belief that all beings, by their state and actions, declare Allah's name.

2-) What would show that this person had official backing?

His ability to command many people successfully would show he was supported by higher power.

3-) Why are seeds and grains important examples in this passage?

Because they are very small, yet they become the start of large trees, which shows amazing divine power.

4-) What do trees give to people, according to the passage?

They give fruits and other provisions that come from Allah's mercy.

5-) Why are gardens compared to places where food is cooked?

Because they produce many different kinds of nourishment as if they were preparing meals.

6-) What do these animals produce, and why is that meaningful?

They produce milk, which is meaningful because it is pure and beneficial and comes as a mercy from Allah.

7-) What does their ability to pass through hard places teach about the world?

It teaches that the world obeys Allah's command.

8-) What false idea is being corrected when the passage speaks against trust in heat and hardness?

The false idea that physical forces act on their own without Allah.

9-) What is the purpose of referring to the story of Ibrahim, peace be upon him?

It helps explain that Allah can make heat harmless.