

8sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 1

1-) What is the main lesson taught through the story of the two travelers? (22 kelime)

Belief in Allah makes life

2-) What made the first traveler's direction spiritually harmful? (10 kelime)

It was

3-) How did his surroundings affect his conscience? (8 kelime)

They left

4-) How did he view other people? (7 kelime)

He

5-) What does his view of everyone as foreign reveal? (7 kelime)

It

6-) How did the second man respond to the well-being of others? (10 kelime)

He was

7-) How did the second traveler feel about both his own condition and the condition of the people? (8 kelime)

He felt

8-) What did the sounds of praise and tawhid suggest to him? (11 kelime)

They suggested

9-) Why does the passage mention the kingdom's signs of progress and success? (13 kelime)

To show that

10-) What happened to the unhappy man in the end? (21 kelime)

He came to his senses,

8sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 2

1-) What were the two reasons the men were traveling? (8 kelime)
They were

2-) In what two ways were the two men's journeys the same at the start? (11 kelime)
Both were

3-) What does his seeing enemies everywhere suggest about his state of mind? (9 kelime)
It suggests

4-) What images show how extreme the first man's sadness was? (11 kelime)
He saw

5-) What qualities of the second man helped him read the world correctly? (11 kelime)
His devotion,

6-) Why is the second traveler called fortunate? (10 kelime)
He benefited

7-) What practical result came from his positive and faithful outlook? (5 kelime)
He

8-) What does his thanking Allah teach about the proper response to blessings? (10 kelime)

It teaches

9-) How do we know the unhappy man accepted the correction? (13 kelime)

He repented, admitted

10-) How did he describe the condition he had been saved from? (8 kelime)

He described

8sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 3

1-) What question does the passage answer through the comparison of the two men? (15 kelime)

It explains what

2-) What kinds of people did the first traveler think he saw around him? (12 kelime)

He thought he

3-) What repeated scene of suffering did he think he saw throughout the country? (12 kelime)

He thought he

4-) How did the second man's morals help him understand the country differently? (15 kelime)

His good character

5-) How did the second traveler see the same land? (13 kelime)

He saw it

6-) What made the second traveler able to see beauty and goodness? (10 kelime)

His faithfulness,

7-) What mistake had the first man made about laughter and tears? (15 kelime)

He had confused

8-) When the second traveler met the first again, what did he say was the real source of the problem? (20 kelime)
He said the darkness was

9-) What extra worldly benefit came to him along with inner peace? (6 kelime)
He

10-) What overall message does the passage give about belief in Allah? (15 kelime)
It teaches that

8sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 4

1-) What contrast stands at the center of the story? (12 kelime)

The story contrasts

2-) Which personal traits pushed the first man toward misery? (8 kelime)

Arrogance, self-focus,

3-) How did that mindset color everything he observed? (13 kelime)

It turned everything

4-) How did the second traveler describe the social atmosphere of the country? (14 kelime)

He saw it

5-) How did the second man interpret the public celebrations? (14 kelime)

He saw them

6-) How did his faith shape the way he viewed other people? (12 kelime)

It made him

7-) What does it mean that inner ugliness was reflected onto the world? (13 kelime)

It means a

8-) According to the second man, what must be removed before the truth can be seen clearly? (11 kelime)

The dark

9-) What false interpretations did he specifically correct? (14 kelime)

He corrected the

10-) What two actions did he advise the unhappy man to take? (12 kelime)

He advised him

8sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 5

1-) According to the opening of the passage, what does belief in Allah bring to a person? (7 kelime)

It

2-) What was his attitude toward the people around him? (15 kelime)

He felt cut

3-) What was the only way he found to stop noticing the pain around him? (4 kelime)

He

4-) What did he do when he could not bear what he thought he saw? (8 kelime)

He tried

5-) In the second man's eyes, what did public events seem to celebrate? (14 kelime)

They seemed to

6-) What two kinds of public sounds did the second traveler hear? (19 kelime)

He heard joyful celebrations

7-) How did he understand the cries of good wishes and thanks? (11 kelime)

He understood

8-) What advice was given to heal his false view? (11 kelime)

He was

9-) What reason did he give for saying the country could not really be so evil? (19 kelime)

He said a land

10-) What does the first man's repentance show about him at the end? (11 kelime)

It shows

8sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 6

1-) What kind of understanding is the reader invited to gain from this passage? (19 kelime)

The reader is invited

2-) How did his expectations affect what he thought he saw? (11 kelime)

They made

3-) What overall mood did he imagine covered the country? (9 kelime)

He imagined

4-) Why was his conscience suffering? (12 kelime)

His false and

5-) How is the second traveler's reaction to life different from the first traveler's reaction? (14 kelime)

The first was

6-) How did faith affect the second man's emotional response to life? (8 kelime)

It filled

7-) Why is it important that the second man was happy for all the inhabitants, not just himself? (17 kelime)

It shows that belief

8-) Why would an orderly and kind ruler not allow the kind of chaos

the first man imagined? (15 kelime)

Because such a

9-) What change took place in the first man after hearing the truth? (15 kelime)

He realized his

10-) What argument from reason did he use about the king and the country? (28 kelime)

He said a realm under a just

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main lesson taught through the story of the two travelers?

Belief in Allah makes life feel hopeful, meaningful, and peaceful, while a selfish and faithless outlook makes life feel dark and painful.

2-) What made the first traveler's direction spiritually harmful?

It was driven by selfishness and a bad inward condition.

3-) How did his surroundings affect his conscience?

They left his conscience deeply troubled and restless.

4-) How did he view other people?

He saw them as strangers and enemies.

5-) What does his view of everyone as foreign reveal?

It reveals loneliness and separation from others.

6-) How did the second man respond to the well-being of others?

He was happy for them as well as for himself.

7-) How did the second traveler feel about both his own condition and the condition of the people?

He felt pleased and thankful rather than sad.

8-) What did the sounds of praise and tawhid suggest to him?

They suggested that life had meaning, purpose, and devotion to Allah.

9-) Why does the passage mention the kingdom's signs of progress and success?

To show that the land itself gave evidence of wise and good rule.

10-) What happened to the unhappy man in the end?

He came to his senses, repented, admitted his mistake, and thanked the other man for saving him from a terrible state.

8sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What were the two reasons the men were traveling?

They were traveling for enjoyment and for trade.

2-) In what two ways were the two men's journeys the same at the start?

Both were traveling, and both had goals of enjoyment and trade.

3-) What does his seeing enemies everywhere suggest about his state of mind?

It suggests fear, alienation, and a damaged inner world.

4-) What images show how extreme the first man's sadness was?

He saw death everywhere and imagined helpless children crying in despair.

5-) What qualities of the second man helped him read the world correctly?

His devotion, fairness, and noble manners helped him understand things properly.

6-) Why is the second traveler called fortunate?

He benefited inwardly through peace and outwardly through successful trade.

7-) What practical result came from his positive and faithful outlook?

He succeeded in useful trade.

8-) What does his thanking Allah teach about the proper response to blessings?

It teaches that blessings should lead to gratitude to Allah.

9-) How do we know the unhappy man accepted the correction?

He repented, admitted his wrong condition, and thanked the one who advised him.

10-) How did he describe the condition he had been saved from?

He described it as a state like hell.

8sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What question does the passage answer through the comparison of the two men?

It explains what kind of happiness, blessing, comfort, and ease come from belief in Allah.

2-) What kinds of people did the first traveler think he saw around him?

He thought he saw weak and suffering people crushed by cruel rulers.

3-) What repeated scene of suffering did he think he saw throughout the country?

He thought he saw weak and unhappy people crying under cruel power.

4-) How did the second man's morals help him understand the country differently?

His good character let him see goodness, friendship, and wisdom instead of fear and chaos.

5-) How did the second traveler see the same land?

He saw it as a beautiful place full of joy, worship, and celebration.

6-) What made the second traveler able to see beauty and goodness?

His faithfulness, balance, and good moral character made that possible.

7-) What mistake had the first man made about laughter and tears?

He had confused signs of joy with signs of grief because of his inner confusion.

8-) When the second traveler met the first again, what did he say was the real source of the problem?

He said the darkness was inside the first man himself and that it had affected how he saw everything outside.

9-) What extra worldly benefit came to him along with inner peace?

He also gained profit in business.

10-) What overall message does the passage give about belief in Allah?

It teaches that belief opens a person to joy, wisdom, and peace in the world.

8sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What contrast stands at the center of the story?

The story contrasts a selfish, dark outlook with a believing, hopeful outlook.

2-) Which personal traits pushed the first man toward misery?

Arrogance, self-focus, and hopeless thinking pushed him there.

3-) How did that mindset color everything he observed?

It turned everything into proof of fear, cruelty, and sadness in his eyes.

4-) How did the second traveler describe the social atmosphere of the country?

He saw it as full of happiness, remembrance of Allah, and warm human closeness.

5-) How did the second man interpret the public celebrations?

He saw them as happy occasions connected to completing duties and beginning new ones.

6-) How did his faith shape the way he viewed other people?

It made him see them as familiar, friendly, and connected to him.

7-) What does it mean that inner ugliness was reflected onto the world?

It means a corrupt inner state caused false judgments about what was outside.

8-) According to the second man, what must be removed before the truth can be seen clearly?

The dark covering over the heart and perception must be removed.

9-) What false interpretations did he specifically correct?

He corrected the man's confusing joy with grief and orderly release with violent destruction.

10-) What two actions did he advise the unhappy man to take?

He advised him to come to his senses and cleanse his heart.

8sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the opening of the passage, what does belief in Allah bring to a person?

It brings happiness, blessing, pleasure, and ease.

2-) What was his attitude toward the people around him?

He felt cut off from them and treated them in his mind as hostile outsiders.

3-) What was the only way he found to stop noticing the pain around him?

He turned to intoxication.

4-) What did he do when he could not bear what he thought he saw?

He tried to avoid facing it through drinking.

5-) In the second man's eyes, what did public events seem to celebrate?

They seemed to celebrate the ending of duties and the beginning of new service.

6-) What two kinds of public sounds did the second traveler hear?

He heard joyful celebrations for those finishing duty and happy calls connected to new service and remembrance of Allah.

7-) How did he understand the cries of good wishes and thanks?

He understood them as signs of a happy completion of duties.

8-) What advice was given to heal his false view?

He was told to regain clear thinking and purify his heart.

9-) What reason did he give for saying the country could not really be so evil?

He said a land ruled by a just, merciful, powerful, and orderly king could not truly be like that.

10-) What does the first man's repentance show about him at the end?

It shows that he accepted the truth and changed his attitude.

8sinif short-words-p05-second-word-happiness-and-blessing-in-belief-opening-comparison - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of understanding is the reader invited to gain from this passage?

The reader is invited to understand how belief in Allah changes a person's view of life for the better.

2-) How did his expectations affect what he thought he saw?

They made him interpret the whole place as cruel and tragic.

3-) What overall mood did he imagine covered the country?

He imagined a mood of sorrow, fear, and loss.

4-) Why was his conscience suffering?

His false and dark interpretation of life filled him with inner pain.

5-) How is the second traveler's reaction to life different from the first traveler's reaction?

The first was overwhelmed by pain, while the second responded with gratitude and hope.

6-) How did faith affect the second man's emotional response to life?

It filled him with happiness, trust, and thankfulness.

7-) Why is it important that the second man was happy for all the inhabitants, not just himself?

It shows that belief expands a person's mercy and lets him share in the good of others.

8-) Why would an orderly and kind ruler not allow the kind of chaos the first man imagined?

Because such a ruler's justice and mercy would produce order and goodness, not meaningless cruelty.

9-) What change took place in the first man after hearing the truth?

He realized his error, turned away from it, and felt rescued from a miserable condition.

10-) What argument from reason did he use about the king and the country?

He said a realm under a just and caring ruler, especially one showing many signs of order and success, could not truly be the disaster the man imagined.