

8sinif short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 1

1-) What main lesson does the story try to teach about the daily prayers? (21 kelime)

It teaches that the daily

2-) Why does the passage say the one who neglects prayer is acting badly? (14 kelime)

Because he gives

3-) What happened when the first servant spent a little money in the right way? (9 kelime)

It brought

4-) What transportation choices were available on the way? (9 kelime)

There were

5-) What mistake did the other servant make besides wasting money? (9 kelime)

He let

6-) What kind of journey would the servant face if he ignored the advice? (11 kelime)

He would

7-) How much money did the careless servant have left at the end? (7 kelime)

He

8-) Why does the passage say even the least intelligent person can understand this point? (13 kelime)
Because the right

9-) What is the strongest message of the whole comparison? (20 kelime)
A small effort for an

10-) What is the central message of the whole passage? (16 kelime)
Choosing brief sinful enjoyment

8sinif short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 2

1-) What idea is stressed at the very beginning of this passage about the prescribed prayers? (9 kelime)

They are

2-) What three ideas does the passage promise to explain through the comparison? (19 kelime)

It explains the value

3-) What does sending them to a rich estate suggest about the destination? (10 kelime)

It suggests

4-) What does the many transportation options show about the journey? (16 kelime)

It shows that there

5-) What made the second servant “luckless”? (10 kelime)

He was

6-) What was the friend trying to protect him from by telling him to buy the ticket? (14 kelime)

He was trying

7-) What practical reason did the friend give for buying the ticket? (10 kelime)

Without it,

8-) What physical difficulties are named if he travels without the ticket?
(12 kelime)
He would have

9-) What kind of person is being warned in this comparison? (11
kelime)
A person

8sinif short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 3

1-) What two things about the prescribed prayers does the passage especially want the reader to understand? (10 kelime)

Their great

2-) Where were the two servants sent to go? (14 kelime)

They were sent

3-) What job were they expected to do after traveling? (14 kelime)

They were expected

4-) How did the second servant's choices hurt his future? (12 kelime)

He used up

5-) How did the fortunate servant use his money on the way to the station? (20 kelime)

He spent only a small

6-) What does the advice about buying a ticket teach about small acts? (15 kelime)

A small act

7-) Why does the passage mention the master's mercy? (15 kelime)

To show that

8-) What problems would come if the careless servant did not buy the ticket? (16 kelime)

He would have to

9-) How does the passage treat pleasure that comes from wrongdoing?

(11 kelime)

It treats

8sinif short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 4

1-) What statement at the start shows the importance of prayer in a Muslim's life? (12 kelime)

Prayer is presented

2-) Who sent the two servants on their journey? (5 kelime)

A

3-) What does that gift suggest about responsibility? (17 kelime)

It suggests they were

4-) What happened to the servant who acted wisely even before reaching the station? (8 kelime)

He gained

5-) Besides careful spending, what else did the first servant do on the way? (11 kelime)

He made

6-) What wise use of the final coin was suggested? (10 kelime)

It should

7-) Which is greater in the story: the cost of the ticket or the value it can unlock? (11 kelime)

The value

8-) What does the desert in the story help the reader imagine? (9 kelime)

It helps

9-) How does the master's possible kindness make the servant's refusal even worse? (17 kelime)

Because help and forgiveness

8sinif short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 5

1-) What is being compared in this passage through the story of the two servants? (12 kelime)

The story compares

2-) In the story, why were the servants given money before the journey? (13 kelime)

So they could

3-) What were they told to use the money for? (16 kelime)

They were told to

4-) How did the successful servant balance spending and gain? (12 kelime)

He spent carefully

5-) What does the friend's advice show about true friendship? (12 kelime)

A true friend

6-) How did the other servant behave with his money? (10 kelime)

He wasted

7-) What does the possibility of the master's forgiveness add to the meaning of the story? (15 kelime)

It shows that

8-) How does the passage combine logic and warning? (14 kelime)

It explains the

9-) Why is the last coin compared to a key? (14 kelime)
Because using it

8sinif short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 6

1-) What role do the prescribed prayers have in religion according to the opening line? (12 kelime)

They have a

2-) What was the ruler's relationship to the two men in the story? (7 kelime)

They

3-) How far was the station from the farm? (8 kelime)

It was

4-) What made the first servant "fortunate" in the story? (14 kelime)

He used his

5-) On what things did he waste most of his money? (7 kelime)

He

6-) What does spending almost everything on games and fun show about his priorities? (12 kelime)

It shows he

7-) What would happen if that coin were used for vice instead? (13 kelime)

The servant would

8-) What can a reader infer about short-lived fun from this passage? (13 kelime)

It can blind

9-) What overall judgment does the passage make about trading lasting benefit for brief enjoyment? (9 kelime)

It presents

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What main lesson does the story try to teach about the daily prayers?

It teaches that the daily prayers are extremely valuable, easy to gain compared to their reward, and very foolish to neglect.

2-) Why does the passage say the one who neglects prayer is acting badly?

Because he gives up something very valuable even though it asks little from him.

3-) What happened when the first servant spent a little money in the right way?

It brought a huge increase in what he had.

4-) What transportation choices were available on the way?

There were land vehicles, a train, boats, and airplanes.

5-) What mistake did the other servant make besides wasting money?

He let entertainment distract him from his real mission.

6-) What kind of journey would the servant face if he ignored the advice?

He would face a long, lonely, hungry trip across harsh land.

7-) How much money did the careless servant have left at the end?

He had only one gold coin left.

8-) Why does the passage say even the least intelligent person can understand this point?

Because the right choice is very plain and does not require complicated thinking.

9-) What is the strongest message of the whole comparison?

A small effort for an important goal is wise, but neglecting that goal for passing pleasure is a serious mistake.

10-) What is the central message of the whole passage?

Choosing brief sinful enjoyment over a small effort for a great reward is a reckless mistake.

8sinif short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What idea is stressed at the very beginning of this passage about the prescribed prayers?

They are described as a central support of religion.

2-) What three ideas does the passage promise to explain through the comparison?

It explains the value of prayer, the small cost of gaining its reward, and the foolishness of neglecting it.

3-) What does sending them to a rich estate suggest about the destination?

It suggests the place was valuable and worth preparing for.

4-) What does the many transportation options show about the journey?

It shows that there were easier ways to arrive if a person used his money wisely.

5-) What made the second servant "luckless"?

He was lazy and wasted his money on useless pleasures.

6-) What was the friend trying to protect him from by telling him to buy the ticket?

He was trying to protect him from hardship, hunger, and a long difficult walk.

7-) What practical reason did the friend give for buying the ticket?

Without it, the journey would be long, exhausting, and hungry.

8-) What physical difficulties are named if he travels without the ticket?

He would have to walk a very long distance and suffer hunger.

9-) What kind of person is being warned in this comparison?

A person who ignores what truly matters and wastes his chances.

8sinif short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two things about the prescribed prayers does the passage especially want the reader to understand?

Their great worth and the serious foolishness of leaving them.

2-) Where were the two servants sent to go?

They were sent to settle on one of the ruler's rich estates far away.

3-) What job were they expected to do after traveling?

They were expected to settle in and prepare a home on the ruler's estate.

4-) How did the second servant's choices hurt his future?

He used up almost everything for temporary fun and left himself unprepared.

5-) How did the fortunate servant use his money on the way to the station?

He spent only a small part of it and used some of it in a way that brought great profit.

6-) What does the advice about buying a ticket teach about small acts?

A small act can have huge results when it is tied to an important goal.

7-) Why does the passage mention the master's mercy?

To show that obedience can open the door to kindness beyond what a person deserves.

8-) What problems would come if the careless servant did not buy the ticket?

He would have to travel alone, hungry, and through a desert for a very long time.

9-) How does the passage treat pleasure that comes from wrongdoing?

It treats it as short, deceptive, and destructive in the end.

8sinif short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What statement at the start shows the importance of prayer in a Muslim's life?

Prayer is presented as one of the main supports of the religion.

2-) Who sent the two servants on their journey?

A powerful ruler sent them.

3-) What does that gift suggest about responsibility?

It suggests they were given enough to act wisely and are responsible for how they use it.

4-) What happened to the servant who acted wisely even before reaching the station?

He gained great benefit and increased his means.

5-) Besides careful spending, what else did the first servant do on the way?

He made a profitable deal or effort that pleased his master.

6-) What wise use of the final coin was suggested?

It should be spent on a ticket for the journey.

7-) Which is greater in the story: the cost of the ticket or the value it can unlock?

The value it can unlock is far greater than its cost.

8-) What does the desert in the story help the reader imagine?

It helps the reader picture hardship, loneliness, and suffering.

9-) How does the master's possible kindness make the servant's refusal even worse?

Because help and forgiveness might still be available, yet he would still be turning away from them.

8sinif short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is being compared in this passage through the story of the two servants?

The story compares wise attention to prayer with careless neglect of it.

2-) In the story, why were the servants given money before the journey?

So they could pay for travel and prepare for living in their destination.

3-) What were they told to use the money for?

They were told to buy travel fare and whatever they would need for their home there.

4-) How did the successful servant balance spending and gain?

He spent carefully and turned part of his effort into major profit.

5-) What does the friend's advice show about true friendship?

A true friend warns, guides, and wants good for the other person.

6-) How did the other servant behave with his money?

He wasted almost all of it on gambling and entertainment.

7-) What does the possibility of the master's forgiveness add to the meaning of the story?

It shows that mercy may come to the one who turns in the right direction.

8-) How does the passage combine logic and warning?

It explains the sensible choice clearly and warns about the harm of rejecting it.

9-) Why is the last coin compared to a key?

Because using it the right way would open the way to much greater benefit.

8sinif short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What role do the prescribed prayers have in religion according to the opening line?

They have a foundational role, like a main support holding something up.

2-) What was the ruler's relationship to the two men in the story?

They were his servants under his command.

3-) How far was the station from the farm?

It was one day away from the farm.

4-) What made the first servant "fortunate" in the story?

He used his resources carefully and in a way that brought approval and benefit.

5-) On what things did he waste most of his money?

He wasted it on gambling and entertainment.

6-) What does spending almost everything on games and fun show about his priorities?

It shows he cared more about short pleasure than his real goal.

7-) What would happen if that coin were used for vice instead?

The servant would lose his chance for easier travel and fall into hardship.

8-) What can a reader infer about short-lived fun from this passage?

It can blind a person to his real needs and harm his future.

9-) What overall judgment does the passage make about trading lasting benefit for brief enjoyment?

It presents that choice as deeply unreasonable and damaging.