

8sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes - Set 1

1-) In the comparison, what did the king give to each of the two men? (18 kelime)

He placed each man

2-) What danger threatened these estates? (11 kelime)

The unstable

3-) What did the king offer instead of mere protection? (7 kelime)

He

4-) What did the king promise about the tools and machines? (19 kelime)

He said they would

5-) What did the king promise concerning the earnings from the equipment? (7 kelime)

He

6-) Why is the first man called more intelligent? (15 kelime)

Because he recognized

7-) What extra burden would fall on the men if they rejected the king's offer? (18 kelime)

They would carry the

8-) What was the first man's immediate reaction? (7 kelime)

He

9-) What did the second man lose besides material property? (4 kelime)

He

10-) What happened to the first man after some time? (14 kelime)
He rose to

8sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes - Set 2

1-) Who carried the king's message to the two men? (7 kelime)

A

2-) What kind of world is described around them? (8 kelime)

A world

3-) What future hope did the king give them about the estate? (12 kelime)

He promised it

4-) What did the king promise concerning payment? (8 kelime)

He promised

5-) What problem of the men did the king promise to solve by taking on the expenses? (10 kelime)

Their lack

6-) What emotional burden would come with refusing the offer? (11 kelime)

Worry and

7-) What five kinds of harm are mentioned in a general way for refusal? (24 kelime)

Loss of the property, loss of

8-) Which man showed real understanding of the situation? (7 kelime)

The

9-) What does the second man's love of enjoyment do to his judgment?
(10 kelime)

It blinds

10-) What was the final outcome for the grateful man? (12 kelime)
He reached honor,

8sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes - Set 3

1-) What important choice was placed before the two men? (20 kelime)
They had to choose whether

2-) Why did the king ask the two men to hand over the property to him? (17 kelime)
He wanted to protect

3-) What was the main action the king asked from the two men? (10 kelime)
He asked

4-) What does the message tell us about the men's financial condition? (11 kelime)
They were

5-) What are two benefits the king mentioned if they accepted his offer? (14 kelime)
He would cover

6-) What shows that the king's offer included both generosity and authority? (16 kelime)
He offered large benefits,

7-) What mistake did the second man make about time and life on the estate? (8 kelime)
He imagined

8-) How did the wiser of the two men respond to the message? (7 kelime)

He

9-) What reality of the world did the second man ignore? (12 kelime)

He ignored the

10-) What is the contrast between the final homes of the two men? (15 kelime)

One lives happily

8sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes - Set 4

1-) In simple words, what was the king offering the two men? (16 kelime)

He was offering to

2-) Why was the property not safe in their hands forever? (14 kelime)
Because the world

3-) What did the king want to do for the property if the men agreed? (12 kelime)

He wanted to

4-) Why is the king's offer especially kind considering the men's condition? (16 kelime)

Because they lacked the

5-) What does the king's offer suggest about the men's ability to manage everything alone? (15 kelime)

It suggests they

6-) What would happen to the valuable instruments if they were not used as the king directed? (5 kelime)

Their

7-) How did the king describe the new role of the one who accepted? (9 kelime)

As an

8-) Which of the two men made the wiser decision? (6 kelime)

The

9-) How does the passage connect arrogance with foolishness? (17 kelime)

The arrogant man ignores

10-) What did the second man experience in the end? (8 kelime)

He was

8sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes - Set 5

1-) What had the king placed under the care of each of the two subjects? (9 kelime)

A full

2-) What does the unstable setting add to the meaning of the story? (12 kelime)

It shows that

3-) How did the king say he would treat the trust in the meantime? (19 kelime)

He said he would

4-) What improvement did the king promise in the future? (15 kelime)

He said the

5-) What kind of reasoning did the king use to persuade them? (11 kelime)

He used

6-) Besides losing the estate, what would happen to the valuable tools and materials if they refused? (7 kelime)

Those

7-) What better identity would come to the man who accepted the offer? (11 kelime)

He would

8-) Why did people both pity the second man and say he deserved his condition? (16 kelime)

They felt sorry for

9-) What false idea led the second man to reject the king's offer? (11 kelime)

He acted

10-) What was the long-term result of ego and refusal? (5 kelime)

Loss,

8sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes - Set 6

1-) How many men are at the center of this parable, and what did they have in common at the start? (11 kelime)

Two men,

2-) What does it mean that the men were holding the property in trust? (8 kelime)

It means

3-) According to the message, how would the king prevent the property from being wasted? (13 kelime)

He would keep

4-) How would the men's tools become more beneficial under the king's authority? (10 kelime)

Their work

5-) If the men refused, what would happen to the precious items waiting to be used? (5 kelime)

They

6-) Why was refusing the offer a bad choice even from a practical point of view? (16 kelime)

Because they could not

7-) What honorable change of role was offered to the one who accepted? (13 kelime)

He would become

8-) What does the first man's gratitude tell us about his heart? (9 kelime)
He was

9-) How does the passage show that the second man misunderstood reality? (12 kelime)
He ignored the

10-) What happened to the second man after some time? (13 kelime)
He lost his

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the comparison, what did the king give to each of the two men?
He placed each man in charge of an estate with the equipment and supplies needed to run it.

2-) What danger threatened these estates?

The unstable and war-filled conditions made destruction or change very likely.

3-) What did the king offer instead of mere protection?

He offered protection, improvement, payment, and honor.

4-) What did the king promise about the tools and machines?

He said they would be used in his service and that their return and payment would become far greater.

5-) What did the king promise concerning the earnings from the equipment?

He promised greatly multiplied returns and profits.

6-) Why is the first man called more intelligent?

Because he recognized the truth of the offer and chose what would truly benefit him.

7-) What extra burden would fall on the men if they rejected the king's offer?

They would carry the stress of managing and guarding the property and also face punishment for breaking trust.

8-) What was the first man's immediate reaction?

He accepted gladly and gave abundant thanks.

9-) What did the second man lose besides material property?

He also lost happiness.

10-) What happened to the first man after some time?

He rose to a high position, gained the king's favor, and lived in comfort.

8sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who carried the king's message to the two men?

A noble representative sent by the king.

2-) What kind of world is described around them?

A world of instability, conflict, and constant change.

3-) What future hope did the king give them about the estate?

He promised it would come back to them in better shape later.

4-) What did the king promise concerning payment?

He promised a great payment for the property.

5-) What problem of the men did the king promise to solve by taking on the expenses?

Their lack of resources and inability to handle the costs.

6-) What emotional burden would come with refusing the offer?

Worry and stress over protecting what could not truly be kept.

7-) What five kinds of harm are mentioned in a general way for refusal?

Loss of the property, loss of the offered payment, loss of value in the tools, the burden of guarding them, and punishment for betrayal.

8-) Which man showed real understanding of the situation?

The first man who accepted the offer.

9-) What does the second man's love of enjoyment do to his judgment?

It blinds him to danger and makes him choose badly.

10-) What was the final outcome for the grateful man?

He reached honor, earned favor, and lived happily close to the king.

8sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What important choice was placed before the two men?

They had to choose whether to trust the king and hand over the estate or keep clinging to it themselves.

2-) Why did the king ask the two men to hand over the property to him?

He wanted to protect it from being wasted or destroyed and return it later in better condition.

3-) What was the main action the king asked from the two men?

He asked them to transfer the trust back to him.

4-) What does the message tell us about the men's financial condition?

They were poor and unable to handle major costs by themselves.

5-) What are two benefits the king mentioned if they accepted his offer?

He would cover the expenses, and they would still receive the gains and profits.

6-) What shows that the king's offer included both generosity and authority?

He offered large benefits, but he also warned them of punishment if they betrayed the trust.

7-) What mistake did the second man make about time and life on the estate?

He imagined his stay there would last forever.

8-) How did the wiser of the two men respond to the message?

He gladly accepted it and was thankful.

9-) What reality of the world did the second man ignore?

He ignored the disasters and shakings that prove life is not stable.

10-) What is the contrast between the final homes of the two men?

One lives happily in the king's palace, while the other falls into misery and punishment.

8sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In simple words, what was the king offering the two men?

He was offering to protect what they had, reward them for it, and raise their status.

2-) Why was the property not safe in their hands forever?

Because the world around them was unstable and likely to bring loss or change.

3-) What did the king want to do for the property if the men agreed?

He wanted to guard it for them and later return it improved.

4-) Why is the king's offer especially kind considering the men's condition?

Because they lacked the means to support the work themselves, yet he would cover the costs.

5-) What does the king's offer suggest about the men's ability to manage everything alone?

It suggests they were too limited and needy to manage such heavy responsibilities by themselves.

6-) What would happen to the valuable instruments if they were not used as the king directed?

Their value would fade away.

7-) How did the king describe the new role of the one who accepted?

As an honored soldier serving under the king's authority.

8-) Which of the two men made the wiser decision?

The one who accepted with gratitude.

9-) How does the passage connect arrogance with foolishness?

The arrogant man ignores clear danger and turns away from a generous offer that would save him.

10-) What did the second man experience in the end?

He was left with loss, punishment, and suffering.

8sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens- responses-and-outcomes - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What had the king placed under the care of each of the two subjects?

A full estate with useful working equipment and supplies.

2-) What does the unstable setting add to the meaning of the story?
It shows that worldly possessions are not secure and can disappear quickly.

3-) How did the king say he would treat the trust in the meantime?
He said he would count it as if it were their own property and pay them generously for it.

4-) What improvement did the king promise in the future?
He said the property would be returned in a better state after the troubled period.

5-) What kind of reasoning did the king use to persuade them?
He used both mercy and clear logic about gain and loss.

6-) Besides losing the estate, what would happen to the valuable tools and materials if they refused?
Those precious things would lose their worth.

7-) What better identity would come to the man who accepted the offer?
He would serve as a free officer under a great ruler.

8-) Why did people both pity the second man and say he deserved his condition?

They felt sorry for his suffering, but they knew it came from his own bad choice.

9-) What false idea led the second man to reject the king's offer?
He acted as if he would remain on the estate forever.

10-) What was the long-term result of ego and refusal?
Loss, humiliation, and painful punishment.

8sinif short-words-p16-sixth-word-the-two-mens-responses-and-outcomes - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How many men are at the center of this parable, and what did they have in common at the start?

Two men, and both were entrusted with similar estates and equipment.

2-) What does it mean that the men were holding the property in trust?

It means they were caretakers, not absolute owners.

3-) According to the message, how would the king prevent the property from being wasted?

He would keep and protect it himself until the troubled time was over.

4-) How would the men's tools become more beneficial under the king's authority?

Their work would gain a far greater return than before.

5-) If the men refused, what would happen to the precious items waiting to be used?

They would lose their worth.

6-) Why was refusing the offer a bad choice even from a practical point of view?

Because they could not truly keep the property anyway, so refusal would only end in loss.

7-) What honorable change of role was offered to the one who accepted?

He would become a trusted servant-soldier of the king with freedom and dignity.

8-) What does the first man's gratitude tell us about his heart?

He was wise, humble, and able to appreciate mercy.

9-) How does the passage show that the second man misunderstood reality?

He ignored the disasters and acted like his enjoyment would never end.

10-) What happened to the second man after some time?

He lost his happiness and property and ended up in punishment and suffering.