

8sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universestalisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-
ticket - Set 1

1-) What two beliefs are named at the beginning of the passage? (9

kelime)

Belief in

2-) How are the two parts of that phrase described in relation to human problems? (11 kelime)

They are

3-) Which two attitudes are linked with taking refuge in the Creator? (4 kelime)

Patience

4-) What does the lion's position behind the soldier suggest? (13 kelime)

It suggests a

5-) Which parts of the soldier's trouble seem impossible for him to remove by himself? (11 kelime)

The lion,

6-) What stood in front of him, and what did it do? (18 kelime)

A gallows stood in

7-) If the soldier used the talismans correctly, what would happen to the lion and the gallows? (17 kelime)

The lion would become

8-) What does the long road ahead add to the soldier's hardship? (12 kelime)

It shows that

9-) What was the result promised for the wounds after using the medicines properly? (14 kelime)

They would no

10-) What happened after the soldier tested what he had been given? (6 kelime)

He

8sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universestalisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-
ticket - Set 2

1-) What phrase is the main focus of this passage? (10 kelime)

The statement

2-) What does the passage say these beliefs do for the mystery of existence? (6 kelime)

They

3-) In what way were the soldier's wounds especially serious? (9 kelime)

They were

4-) What does the passage connect to success in the next life? (13 kelime)

Following the Qur'an,

5-) What was behind him, and why was it frightening? (11 kelime)

A lion

6-) What did the guide promise to give the soldier first? (4 kelime)

He

7-) What does the gallows in front of the soldier remind him of? (11 kelime)

It reminds

8-) What does the passage suggest about truth by saying the soldier experimented? (12 kelime)

It suggests that

9-) Why is the invitation to “experiment a bit” important? (10 kelime)
It encourages

10-) What does the speaker add about himself at the end of the passage? (13 kelime)
He says that

8sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 3

1-) In the opening lines, what does the passage say the phrase of belief opens for the human spirit? (6 kelime)

It

2-) What kind of comparison is then introduced? (9 kelime)

A story

3-) What does the passage connect to healing a person's inner struggles? (11 kelime)

Trusting Allah,

4-) What was the soldier's physical condition? (7 kelime)

He

5-) How is the person who came to help the soldier described? (11 kelime)

He is

6-) What does the lion behind the soldier suggest? (9 kelime)

It suggests

7-) Why is it important that the guide gave instructions along with the gifts? (15 kelime)

It shows that

8-) What was the result promised for the lion after using the talismans correctly? (14 kelime)

It would no

9-) Why was the guide's offer more than simple comfort words? (12 kelime)

He gave practical

10-) What lesson comes from the soldier's test and the speaker's own test? (16 kelime)

The lesson is that

8sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 4

1-) What does the passage say a person should do if he wants to understand the value of faith and worship? (9 kelime)

He should

2-) How are these beliefs described in relation to the riddle of creation? (9 kelime)

They are

3-) What religious actions are presented as preparation for the life to come? (14 kelime)

Listening to the

4-) What threats surrounded the soldier? (20 kelime)

He had two severe wounds,

5-) What do the soldier's two wounds show about a human being? (6 kelime)

They

6-) How would the soldier's experience change if he followed the instructions properly? (13 kelime)

Things that seemed

7-) What three kinds of help did the shining guide offer? (7 kelime)

Two

8-) What does the image of finishing a year's trip in one day suggest? (7

kelime)

It

9-) How did the soldier respond after trying what he was given? (10

kelime)

He tested

10-) How does the ending strengthen the message of the comparison?

(12 kelime)

Both the soldier

8sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 5

1-) What two major topics of faith stand at the center of this passage?
(9 kelime)

Faith in

2-) What is said to act like a remedy for a person's troubles? (13 kelime)
Depending on the

3-) What kind of situation did the soldier fall into? (16 kelime)
He fell into a

4-) Why does the passage use the story of a soldier? (16 kelime)
It uses the soldier

5-) What do the lion, the gallows, and the journey together show about the soldier's state? (11 kelime)
They show

6-) What emotional condition was the soldier in when the helper appeared? (7 kelime)
He

7-) What change in the wounds shows that the help is not just protection but transformation? (12 kelime)
The wounds were

8-) What would happen if the soldier used the guide's gifts in the right way? (16 kelime)

His dangers and pains

9-) What did the guide ask the soldier to do if he doubted the promise?

(12 kelime)

He told him

10-) How does the speaker's personal statement affect the reader's understanding? (13 kelime)

It adds strong

8sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 6

1-) At the start of the passage, what is said to bring happiness to the human spirit? (7 kelime)

Belief

2-) Which acts are described as supplies for the hereafter and light for the grave? (14 kelime)

Listening to the

3-) What are Qur'an, obedience, prayer, and leaving major sins compared to? (14 kelime)

They are compared

4-) What happened to the soldier before any help came? (10 kelime)

He was

5-) Besides the lion and gallows, what other burden did the soldier have? (12 kelime)

He had to

6-) Why did the guide mention proper use of the talismans and medicines? (12 kelime)

Because the help

7-) What does the guide's first command to the soldier show about the right attitude? (10 kelime)

It shows

8-) What was the purpose of the ticket the guide offered? (15 kelime)
It would help

9-) What did the ticket show about the coming journey? (11 kelime)
It showed

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two beliefs are named at the beginning of the passage?
Belief in Allah and belief in the Last Day.

2-) How are the two parts of that phrase described in relation to human problems?

They are described as powerful keys that remove confusion and difficulty.

3-) Which two attitudes are linked with taking refuge in the Creator?
Patience and humble prayer.

4-) What does the lion's position behind the soldier suggest?
It suggests a threat pressing on him from behind and ready to strike.

5-) Which parts of the soldier's trouble seem impossible for him to remove by himself?

The lion, the gallows, the deep wounds, and the long journey.

6-) What stood in front of him, and what did it do?

A gallows stood in front of him, putting people he loved to death and waiting for him too.

7-) If the soldier used the talismans correctly, what would happen to the lion and the gallows?

The lion would become useful and gentle, and the gallows would become something pleasant instead of frightening.

8-) What does the long road ahead add to the soldier's hardship?
It shows that he still has a difficult journey to go through.

9-) What was the result promised for the wounds after using the medicines properly?

They would no longer remain ugly and painful but would turn into something beautiful.

10-) What happened after the soldier tested what he had been given?
He recognized that it was true.

8sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes-talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and-ticket - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What phrase is the main focus of this passage?

The statement of faith in Allah and the Last Day.

2-) What does the passage say these beliefs do for the mystery of existence?

They help explain its puzzling meaning.

3-) In what way were the soldier's wounds especially serious?

They were deep and frightening wounds on both sides.

4-) What does the passage connect to success in the next life?

Following the Qur'an, obeying its commands, praying, and staying away from grave sins.

5-) What was behind him, and why was it frightening?

A lion was behind him, and it seemed ready to attack.

6-) What did the guide promise to give the soldier first?

He promised two talismans.

7-) What does the gallows in front of the soldier remind him of?

It reminds him that loss and destruction are ahead of him.

8-) What does the passage suggest about truth by saying the soldier experimented?

It suggests that the truth can be recognized through testing and experience.

9-) Why is the invitation to "experiment a bit" important?

It encourages the listener to seek certainty through sincere trial.

10-) What does the speaker add about himself at the end of the passage?

He says that he also tested it himself and found it completely true.

8sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes- talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and- ticket - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the opening lines, what does the passage say the phrase of belief opens for the human spirit?

It opens the door to happiness.

2-) What kind of comparison is then introduced?

A story about a soldier in a severe test.

3-) What does the passage connect to healing a person's inner struggles?

Trusting Allah, being patient, asking Him for help, and thanking Him.

4-) What was the soldier's physical condition?

He was badly injured on both sides.

5-) How is the person who came to help the soldier described?

He is described as a kind and shining guide, like Khidr.

6-) What does the lion behind the soldier suggest?

It suggests a danger that is always approaching him.

7-) Why is it important that the guide gave instructions along with the gifts?

It shows that benefit comes when a person uses the help in the right way.

8-) What was the result promised for the lion after using the talismans correctly?

It would no longer be a threat but would become something useful for travel.

9-) Why was the guide's offer more than simple comfort words?

He gave practical means, directions, and a way to test the truth.

10-) What lesson comes from the soldier's test and the speaker's own test?

The lesson is that these truths are not just claims; they can be confirmed by experience.

8sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes- talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and- ticket - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say a person should do if he wants to understand the value of faith and worship?

He should listen carefully to the comparison that follows.

2-) How are these beliefs described in relation to the riddle of creation?

They are presented as keys that make it understandable.

3-) What religious actions are presented as preparation for the life to come?

Listening to the Qur'an, obeying it, performing the required prayers, and leaving major sins.

4-) What threats surrounded the soldier?

He had two severe wounds, a lion behind him, a gallows in front of him, and a long journey ahead.

5-) What do the soldier's two wounds show about a human being?

They show human weakness and neediness.

6-) How would the soldier's experience change if he followed the instructions properly?

Things that seemed harmful and painful would become manageable, useful, and even pleasant.

7-) What three kinds of help did the shining guide offer?

Two talismans, two medicines, and a ticket.

8-) What does the image of finishing a year's trip in one day suggest?

It suggests remarkable ease, speed, and mercy.

9-) How did the soldier respond after trying what he was given?

He tested it and became sure that it was true.

10-) How does the ending strengthen the message of the comparison?

Both the soldier and the speaker confirm the truth by personal experience.

8sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes- talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and- ticket - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two major topics of faith stand at the center of this passage?
Faith in Allah and faith in the Last Day.

2-) What is said to act like a remedy for a person's troubles?
Depending on the Creator, asking Him for help, being patient, and being thankful.

3-) What kind of situation did the soldier fall into?
He fell into a very dangerous and frightening test where gain and loss were at stake.

4-) Why does the passage use the story of a soldier?
It uses the soldier as an example to help the reader understand human life and faith.

5-) What do the lion, the gallows, and the journey together show about the soldier's state?

They show that he is surrounded by fear, loss, and hardship.

6-) What emotional condition was the soldier in when the helper appeared?

He was overwhelmed with fear and hopelessness.

7-) What change in the wounds shows that the help is not just protection but transformation?

The wounds were said to become flowers, not merely to stop hurting.

8-) What would happen if the soldier used the guide's gifts in the right way?

His dangers and pains would be changed into things that could help, comfort, or benefit him.

9-) What did the guide ask the soldier to do if he doubted the promise?
He told him to try it a little and see for himself.

10-) How does the speaker's personal statement affect the reader's understanding?

It adds strong personal witness that the comparison points to a real truth.

8sinif short-words-p21-seventh-word-the-universes- talisman-soldier-comparison-with-talisman-medicine-and- ticket - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At the start of the passage, what is said to bring happiness to the human spirit?

Belief in Allah and the Last Day.

2-) Which acts are described as supplies for the hereafter and light for the grave?

Listening to the Qur'an, obeying it, praying the required prayers, and avoiding major sins.

3-) What are Qur'an, obedience, prayer, and leaving major sins compared to?

They are compared to tickets and provisions for the journey to the next life.

4-) What happened to the soldier before any help came?

He was badly hurt and trapped in a terrifying situation.

5-) Besides the lion and gallows, what other burden did the soldier have?

He had to face a long journey away from what was familiar.

6-) Why did the guide mention proper use of the talismans and medicines?

Because the help would work only if the soldier followed the directions.

7-) What does the guide's first command to the soldier show about the right attitude?

It shows that he should not give in to hopelessness.

8-) What was the purpose of the ticket the guide offered?

It would help the soldier complete a very long journey with great ease and speed.

9-) What did the ticket show about the coming journey?

It showed that the difficult trip could be made much easier.