

8sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 1

1-) In the comparison, who does the soldier stand for? (6 kelime)

He

2-) What does the passage say about that self's earlier attitude and later feeling? (13 kelime)

It says the

3-) What is the meaning of the lion in the symbolic explanation? (13 kelime)

It means the

4-) What do the two wounds reveal about human nature? (11 kelime)

They reveal

5-) What is the second wound a symbol of? (9 kelime)

It is

6-) Which two beliefs are presented as sacred helps for this journey? (8 kelime)

Belief in

7-) According to the passage, why did some wise people come to love death? (16 kelime)

They understood its true

8-) What happens to the image of death when the hereafter is believed in? (18 kelime)

It becomes like a

9-) According to the passage, what can a believer notice in the changing world through belief in Allah? (15 kelime)

A believer can

10-) What feeling does the passage try to build in the believer: hopelessness or hope? (3 kelime)

8sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 2

1-) Who is being spoken to at the beginning of the target passage? (8 kelime)

The speaker

2-) What does the passage identify as the true meaning of the soldier? (6 kelime)

The

3-) How does the passage connect the gallows to everyday human experience? (17 kelime)

It connects it to

4-) What is the first wound a symbol of? (7 kelime)

It

5-) How far does the journey extend according to the passage? (15 kelime)

It extends from

6-) How does belief in the hereafter change the meaning of death for a believer? (19 kelime)

It turns death into

7-) Which two beliefs are presented as the answer to this difficult human condition? (8 kelime)

Belief in

8-) What does the passage suggest about wise people who understood

death correctly? (19 kelime)

It suggests they no

9-) What do the examples of changing reflections and changing scenes help explain? (15 kelime)

They help explain

10-) What key message about dunya and akhirah can be inferred from this passage? (20 kelime)

This world is temporary, but

8sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 3

1-) What is the main purpose of explaining the symbols in the story? (15 kelime)

It is to

2-) What future event is represented by the lion? (10 kelime)

It represents

3-) What does the gallows symbolize besides death itself? (8 kelime)

It also

4-) What do the two wounds teach about what people cannot escape on their own? (10 kelime)

They teach

5-) What are the two talismans explained in the passage? (10 kelime)

They are

6-) How wide is the journey described in the passage? (16 kelime)

It stretches from before

7-) How is death described after the second talisman takes effect? (15 kelime)

It is described

8-) What does belief in Allah allow a person to do when looking at the world's constant changes? (13 kelime)

It allows the

9-) How does faith in Allah change the meaning of passing time? (13
kelime)

It turns it

10-) What is one central message of the whole target passage? (12
kelime)

True faith gives

8sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 4

1-) In the target passage, what does the speaker want the naifs to understand first? (16 kelime)

The speaker wants it

2-) What does the lion symbolize in one short phrase? (7 kelime)
It

3-) Why is the gallows an especially strong symbol in this passage? (18 kelime)

Because it shows not

4-) What does the long journey symbolize? (26 kelime)

It symbolizes the human life journey

5-) What human realities are described by the two wounds? (9 kelime)

They are

6-) What are the two sacred means that answer these hardships? (8 kelime)

Faith in

7-) Why would wise people desire death after understanding it properly? (15 kelime)

Because they see

8-) What attitude toward death is mentioned for those who truly understand it? (9 kelime)

They may

9-) How do the examples at the end support the idea of constant renewal? (16 kelime)

They show that when

8sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 5

1-) Whom is the symbolic soldier said to represent? (4 kelime)

He

2-) What danger does the lion point to in human life? (13 kelime)

It points to

3-) What do the two wounds stand for? (8 kelime)

They stand

4-) Why is the gallows connected with both death and separation? (13 kelime)

Because people not

5-) What stages are included in the exile-like journey? (21 kelime)

It includes the spirit world,

6-) What change does belief in the hereafter bring to the meaning of death? (16 kelime)

It changes death from

7-) How is death reimagined for the believer through faith in the hereafter? (16 kelime)

It is reimagined as

8-) Through belief in Allah, what can a person enjoy in the changing world? (12 kelime)

A person can

9-) What main lesson is being taught through all these symbols? (11 kelime)

Faith changes

8sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 6

1-) What personal lesson is given by saying that the soldier is you and mankind? (15 kelime)

The lesson is

2-) What does the gallows represent in this passage? (11 kelime)

It represents

3-) Why is the lion a fitting symbol in the passage? (12 kelime)

Because it shows

4-) What are the two painful conditions represented by the wounds? (9 kelime)

They are

5-) Which two beliefs are called talismans? (8 kelime)

Belief in

6-) What are the two beliefs that solve the problem in the story? (10 kelime)

They are

7-) What does the passage imply about people who only see death as the end? (11 kelime)

It implies

8-) What example is used to show that change can lead to more beauty? (18 kelime)

The passage uses the

9-) What idea is expressed by the final Arabic sentence in the target passage? (12 kelime)

It expresses that

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the comparison, who does the soldier stand for?

He stands for each human being.

2-) What does the passage say about that self's earlier attitude and later feeling?

It says the self once laughed carelessly but later cried over that laughter.

3-) What is the meaning of the lion in the symbolic explanation?

It means the time of death that has been set for each person.

4-) What do the two wounds reveal about human nature?

They reveal that people are naturally weak and deeply in need.

5-) What is the second wound a symbol of?

It is a symbol of human poverty and need.

6-) Which two beliefs are presented as sacred helps for this journey?

Belief in Allah and belief in the hereafter.

7-) According to the passage, why did some wise people come to love death?

They understood its true meaning for believers and saw it as a passage to something better.

8-) What happens to the image of death when the hereafter is believed in?

It becomes like a ride carrying the believer out of this world's prison to the gardens of Paradise.

9-) According to the passage, what can a believer notice in the changing world through belief in Allah?

A believer can notice Allah's artistry, power, and mercy in the constant changes of creation.

10-) What feeling does the passage try to build in the believer: hopelessness or hope?

It builds hope.

8sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who is being spoken to at the beginning of the target passage?

The speaker is addressing the self, or nafs.

2-) What does the passage identify as the true meaning of the soldier?

The soldier means the human being.

3-) How does the passage connect the gallows to everyday human experience?

It connects it to the way people keep losing others as time passes from day to night.

4-) What is the first wound a symbol of?

It is a symbol of human helplessness.

5-) How far does the journey extend according to the passage?

It extends from the earliest beginning of human life to resurrection and crossing the Sirat.

6-) How does belief in the hereafter change the meaning of death for a believer?

It turns death into a means of reaching mercy, Paradise, and nearness to Allah instead of something only frightening.

7-) Which two beliefs are presented as the answer to this difficult human condition?

Belief in Allah and belief in the hereafter.

8-) What does the passage suggest about wise people who understood death correctly?

It suggests they no longer saw it only as a terror and even longed for it before it came.

9-) What do the examples of changing reflections and changing scenes help explain?

They help explain that renewal and change can bring fresh beauty instead of only loss.

10-) What key message about dunya and akhirah can be inferred from this passage?

This world is temporary, but faith helps a person see the path to the next world with peace and purpose.

8sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main purpose of explaining the symbols in the story?

It is to show what the parts of the story mean for real human life.

2-) What future event is represented by the lion?

It represents the arrival of death at its appointed time.

3-) What does the gallows symbolize besides death itself?

It also symbolizes decline and parting from others.

4-) What do the two wounds teach about what people cannot escape on their own?

They teach that people cannot escape their weakness and need.

5-) What are the two talismans explained in the passage?

They are belief in Allah and belief in the hereafter.

6-) How wide is the journey described in the passage?

It stretches from before birth through life, the grave, the intermediate stage, resurrection, and the Sirat.

7-) How is death described after the second talisman takes effect?

It is described as something controlled and beneficial, carrying the believer to a better home.

8-) What does belief in Allah allow a person to do when looking at the world's constant changes?

It allows the person to enjoy thinking about Allah's beautiful and ever-renewed works.

9-) How does faith in Allah change the meaning of passing time?

It turns it into an opportunity to witness Allah's signs and creative beauty.

10-) What is one central message of the whole target passage?

True faith gives meaning to suffering, change, death, and the journey ahead.

8sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the target passage, what does the speaker want the nafs to understand first?

The speaker wants it to understand that the story is really about itself and all people.

2-) What does the lion symbolize in one short phrase?

It symbolizes the appointed hour of death.

3-) Why is the gallows an especially strong symbol in this passage?

Because it shows not only dying but also the pain of watching things fade and loved ones leave.

4-) What does the long journey symbolize?

It symbolizes the human life journey and what comes after it, from the earliest stage of life all the way to resurrection and crossing the Sirat.

5-) What human realities are described by the two wounds?

They are our deep weakness and our great need.

6-) What are the two sacred means that answer these hardships?

Faith in Allah and faith in the hereafter.

7-) Why would wise people desire death after understanding it properly?

Because they see it as a doorway to eternal mercy rather than a final loss.

8-) What attitude toward death is mentioned for those who truly understand it?

They may welcome it instead of only fearing it.

9-) How do the examples at the end support the idea of constant renewal?

They show that when one image passes and another comes, a more beautiful display can appear.

8sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Whom is the symbolic soldier said to represent?

He represents every person.

2-) What danger does the lion point to in human life?

It points to the certainty that death will come at its fixed time.

3-) What do the two wounds stand for?

They stand for human weakness and human neediness.

4-) Why is the gallows connected with both death and separation?

Because people not only die, but also lose loved ones as time passes.

5-) What stages are included in the exile-like journey?

It includes the spirit world, the womb, childhood, old age, worldly life, the grave, the intermediate realm, resurrection, and the Sirat.

6-) What change does belief in the hereafter bring to the meaning of death?

It changes death from something like destruction into a way to reach Allah's mercy and Paradise.

7-) How is death reimagined for the believer through faith in the hereafter?

It is reimagined as a safe and useful ride toward Paradise and the mercy of Allah.

8-) Through belief in Allah, what can a person enjoy in the changing world?

A person can enjoy reflecting on Allah's power, mercy, and beautiful creation.

9-) What main lesson is being taught through all these symbols?

Faith changes painful and scary realities into meaningful and hopeful ones.

8sinif short-words-p23-seventh-word-interpreting-the-comparison-death-belief-patience-and-reliance - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What personal lesson is given by saying that the soldier is you and mankind?

The lesson is that the story describes our own real condition, not just someone else's.

2-) What does the gallows represent in this passage?

It represents death, fading away, and being separated from loved ones.

3-) Why is the lion a fitting symbol in the passage?

Because it shows death as something always near and impossible to escape.

4-) What are the two painful conditions represented by the wounds?

They are unlimited weakness and deep poverty or need.

5-) Which two beliefs are called talismans?

Belief in Allah and belief in the hereafter.

6-) What are the two beliefs that solve the problem in the story?

They are faith in Allah and faith in the hereafter.

7-) What does the passage imply about people who only see death as the end?

It implies they have not understood its true reality for believers.

8-) What example is used to show that change can lead to more beauty?

The passage uses the example of changing reflections and changing scenes that produce better and more beautiful images.

9-) What idea is expressed by the final Arabic sentence in the target passage?

It expresses that we belong to Allah and will return to Him.