8sinif short-words-p25-seventh-word-medicine-of-gratitude-and-contentment-prayer-and-avoiding-major-sins-as-the-ticket - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What are named as the second medicine in the passage?

It is made up of thankfulness, being content, making dua, and trusting in Allah's mercy as the Provider.

2-) What picture is used to show Allah's generosity in the world?

The world is described like a table full of gifts, and spring is pictured like a beautiful decoration spread over it.

3-) Why would a guest want a stronger appetite in the example?

A stronger appetite helps the guest enjoy the meal more, just as feeling one's need before Allah leads to turning to Him more.

4-) What warning is given so this idea will not be misunderstood?

A person should admit neediness to Allah, not show off poverty in front of people or act like a beggar for attention.

5-) Which act of worship is mentioned first among those duties?

The prescribed prayers are mentioned first.

6-) According to the passage, where do the supplies, light, and ride for the long journey come from?

They come from obeying the Qur'an's commands and avoiding what it forbids.

7-) How does the speaker describe the five daily prayers and avoiding the seven deadly sins?

They are described as not very heavy or hard, but rather light and manageable.

8-) What challenge is given to the Devil and to the one calling people to sinful pleasure?

They are told that if they can remove death, end decline, erase human weakness and poverty, and shut the grave, then they may speak; otherwise they should be silent.

9-) How should believers respond to the Qur'an according to the ending of the passage?

They should listen to it, take light from it, follow its guidance, and keep reciting it.

10-) How is the Qur'an described at the end in relation to truth?

It is presented as completely true, coming from the Truth, speaking truth, showing truth, and spreading wise guidance.

8sinif short-words-p25-seventh-word-medicine-of-gratitude-and-contentment-prayer-and-avoiding-major-sins-as-the-ticket - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Which four qualities together are called the second medicine? Gratitude, contentment, supplication, and trust in the mercy of Allah the Provider.

2-) What example from hospitality is used to explain this idea? A person is compared to a guest being hosted by a most generous giver.

3-) What does the image of spring add to that idea? It shows beauty, freshness, and abundant gifts from Allah.

4-) Why might wise people value awareness of need? Because it makes them ask Allah sincerely and recognize their dependence on Him.

5-) To whom should a person show his true poverty and need? To Allah.

6-) Why are those actions connected to a long and dark road after this life?

Because they are presented as the only way to gain what is needed for that journey.

7-) What limit is placed on science, philosophy, and art? Their benefit does not continue beyond the grave on that road.

8-) What mental ability is called on in order to understand this? Reason.

9-) What does this challenge show about sinful invitations? It shows they are empty because they cannot solve the biggest human problems.

10-) What conclusion follows when they cannot do that? Their invitation should be rejected and they should be ignored.

8sinif short-words-p25-seventh-word-medicine-of-gratitude-and-contentment-prayer-and-avoiding-major-sins-as-the-ticket - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main idea of the second medicine?

A believer should meet need with gratitude, contentment, dua, and trust in Allah's mercy.

2-) What everyday relationship is used to explain the believer's place in the world?

The relationship of a guest to a generous host.

3-) What does the mention of flowers and spring help the reader feel? It helps the reader feel the beauty and abundance of Allah's provision.

4-) Why is increasing appetite used as an example?

Because appetite makes a meal more enjoyable, just as deeper awareness of need can increase a servant's turning to Allah.

5-) What kind of display before people is criticized?

Acting needy in a showy way, like someone trying to gain sympathy by appearance.

6-) Why are these duties compared to travel supplies?

Because they prepare a person for the journey after death.

7-) How are worldly fields of knowledge treated compared with revelation?

They are shown as limited, since they cannot carry a person past the grave.

8-) What else is described as manageable along with prayer?

Leaving the seven deadly sins.

9-) Why is that challenge a strong argument?

Because it proves that those who invite people to sin cannot cure the deepest troubles of human life.

10-) What are believers invited to do instead of following temptation?

They are invited to listen to the Qur'an, receive its light, and follow its guidance.

8sinif short-words-p25-seventh-word-medicine-of-gratitude-and-contentment-prayer-and-avoiding-major-sins-as-the-ticket - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What elements make up the “second medicine” in the target passage?

Thankfulness, contentment, prayerful asking, and trust in Allah’s mercy.

2-) What reason is given for that change in attitude?

Allah is so generous in His care and provision that the believer lives as a guest surrounded by gifts.

3-) How does the passage use spring to strengthen this message?

It presents spring as another sign of Allah’s beautiful and abundant giving.

4-) How does the guest example explain the value of need?

Just as appetite helps a guest enjoy food, awareness of need helps a servant appreciate and seek Allah’s gifts.

5-) What misunderstanding does the passage try to block?

It blocks the idea that Islam praises showing off poverty to other people.

6-) What do the ticket and voucher refer to in a believer’s life?

They refer to fulfilling religious obligations and staying away from grave sins.

7-) Why are these called provisions for a road beyond this life?

Because they prepare and support a person for the journey to the life to come.

8-) What is said about the reach of science, philosophy, and art?

Their usefulness stops at the grave and does not continue along the full journey after death.

9-) What comparison is made between the effort of obedience and its reward?

The effort is small and easy, but the reward and benefit are very great.

10-) After rejecting them, what source of guidance should be followed?

The Qur’an should be followed.
