

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 1

1-) What main subjects does the passage say a person can understand by listening to the comparison? (39 kelime)

It says the comparison helps explain the world, the

2-) What choice was placed before the two brothers at the fork in the road? (22 kelime)

They had to choose between

3-) How was the road on the right described? (17 kelime)

It was described as

4-) How was the road on the left described? (17 kelime)

It was described as

5-) What does the brother with good character say before taking his road? (9 kelime)

He says

6-) Why did the better brother choose the right-hand road? (13 kelime)

He chose it

7-) Why did the other brother choose the left-hand road? (14 kelime)

He chose it

8-) Which brother is followed more closely in this part of the story, and why? (24 kelime)

The brother on the left is

9-) What lesson about freedom and rules can be inferred from the two roads? (19 kelime)

It suggests that freedom

10-) How does this opening comparison connect religion to a person's life? (17 kelime)

It shows religion as

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 2

1-) What is the purpose of the comparison at the beginning of the passage? (20 kelime)

Its purpose is to help

2-) Who gives direction to the two brothers when the road divides? (12 kelime)

A serious man

3-) What warning is given about the left-hand road? (12 kelime)

The warning is

4-) What promise is given about the right-hand road? (16 kelime)

The promise is that

5-) What does the response of the good brother show about his faith? (14 kelime)

It shows that

6-) What does the response of the other brother show about his attitude? (13 kelime)

It shows that

7-) How does the passage contrast appearance and reality? (20 kelime)

It shows that the road

8-) What kind of person is the second brother described as being? (12 kelime)

He is described

9-) Why is the right road not presented as completely easy? (12 kelime)
Because the passage

10-) What overall message about religion can be drawn from the brothers' choices? (17 kelime)
True religion guides a

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 3

1-) According to the passage, what happens to the world and human life if true religion is missing? (12 kelime)

The world becomes

2-) Which two expressions are presented as keys to freeing the human spirit from darkness? (12 kelime)

Calling on Allah

3-) Why is a comparison used instead of giving only direct statements? (13 kelime)

A comparison makes

4-) What did the two brothers ask the man at the fork in the road? (8 kelime)

They asked

5-) What did the man say was required on the road to the right? (10 kelime)

He said

6-) What did the man say was found within the hardship of the right road? (9 kelime)

He said

7-) What did the man say was hidden inside the freedom of the left road? (9 kelime)

He said

8-) In what way did the good brother's character affect his choice? (15 kelime)

His good character

9-) In what way did the other brother's character affect his choice? (12 kelime)

His bad habits

10-) What important life lesson can a student learn from the brothers' first decision? (25 kelime)

A person should not choose a

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 4

1-) What does the passage say can solve the mystery of this world? (9 kelime)

Turning to

2-) What does the passage say can rescue the human spirit from darkness? (13 kelime)

Faith in Allah

3-) How are the two roads different in terms of rules? (14 kelime)

The right road

4-) How are the two roads different in terms of outcome? (17 kelime)

The right road leads

5-) What did the good brother do after hearing the explanation about the roads? (12 kelime)

He trusted Allah,

6-) What did the other brother do after hearing the same explanation? (11 kelime)

He chose

7-) What does this show about how two people can react to the same advice? (16 kelime)

It shows that character

8-) Why is the left road said to be only outwardly easy? (13 kelime)

Because it looks

9-) What role does trust in Allah play in the better brother's decision?

(12 kelime)

It gives him

10-) What warning does this passage give to young people about following every desire? (16 kelime)

It warns that chasing

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 5

1-) What four big ideas about human life and belief are named before the story begins? (23 kelime)

The passage points to understanding

2-) How is religion presented in relation to human happiness? (12 kelime)

Religion is shown

3-) What scene begins the comparison in the story? (17 kelime)

Two brothers are traveling

4-) What kind of person was standing at the fork in the road? (11 kelime)

He was

5-) What was the good side of the right-hand road? (11 kelime)

Its good

6-) What was the bad side of the left-hand road? (11 kelime)

Its bad

7-) What personal quality especially marks the brother who chose the right road? (6 kelime)

He

8-) What personal quality especially marks the brother who chose the left road? (7 kelime)

He

9-) Why is the left-hand brother's situation described as seeming easy but truly burdensome? (16 kelime)

Because a path without

10-) What main moral truth does the beginning of the story teach? (16 kelime)

Right guidance may require

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 6

1-) What does the passage teach about the connection between Islam and truth before the story starts? (20 kelime)

It teaches that Islam is

2-) Why does the passage begin with words about Allah before telling the comparison? (18 kelime)

It begins that way

3-) What question did the brothers ask at the fork in the road? (8 kelime)

They asked

4-) What answer were they given about the road on the right? (12 kelime)

They were told

5-) What answer were they given about the road on the left? (14 kelime)

They were told

6-) How did the good brother respond to this guidance in both words and action? (11 kelime)

He expressed

7-) How did the other brother respond to the same guidance? (9 kelime)

He ignored

8-) What does the passage suggest about a person who rejects good limits? (18 kelime)

It suggests that such

9-) What can be inferred about the role of discipline in a Muslim's life from this passage? (14 kelime)

Discipline is part

10-) If you had to state the central lesson of this passage in one sentence, what would it be? (23 kelime)

Trusting Allah and following the

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What main subjects does the passage say a person can understand by listening to the comparison?

It says the comparison helps explain the world, the human soul, the importance of religion, why life becomes like a prison without true religion, and how calling on Allah and believing in His oneness save a person from darkness.

2-) What choice was placed before the two brothers at the fork in the road?

They had to choose between a path with rules, safety, and happiness and a path with fewer limits but danger and misery.

3-) How was the road on the right described?

It was described as having order and discipline, with some difficulty, but leading to safety and well-being.

4-) How was the road on the left described?

It was described as having freedom from restraint on the surface, but leading to harm and unhappiness.

5-) What does the brother with good character say before taking his road?

He says that he puts his trust in Allah.

6-) Why did the better brother choose the right-hand road?

He chose it because he had good character and accepted order and rules.

7-) Why did the other brother choose the left-hand road?

He chose it because he was morally careless and wanted a path without restrictions.

8-) Which brother is followed more closely in this part of the story, and why?

The brother on the left is followed so the reader can see that what looks easy at first can actually become difficult and heavy.

9-) What lesson about freedom and rules can be inferred from the two roads?

It suggests that freedom without guidance can harm a person, while living by right guidance brings safety and peace.

10-) How does this opening comparison connect religion to a person's life?

It shows religion as a guide that brings order, protection, and happiness instead of confusion and misery.

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the purpose of the comparison at the beginning of the passage?

Its purpose is to help the reader understand big truths about human life, religion, and the condition of the soul.

2-) Who gives direction to the two brothers when the road divides?

A serious man at the split in the road gives them guidance.

3-) What warning is given about the left-hand road?

The warning is that its lack of limits hides danger and misery.

4-) What promise is given about the right-hand road?

The promise is that even though it requires obedience and effort, it brings safety and happiness.

5-) What does the response of the good brother show about his faith?

It shows that he trusts Allah and is willing to follow what is right.

6-) What does the response of the other brother show about his attitude?

It shows that he prefers ease and unrestricted living over discipline and wisdom.

7-) How does the passage contrast appearance and reality?

It shows that the road that seems harder is actually better, while the road that seems easier is actually worse.

8-) What kind of person is the second brother described as being?

He is described as immoral, lazy, and drawn to comfort without responsibility.

9-) Why is the right road not presented as completely easy?

Because the passage teaches that the right path includes responsibility and self-control.

10-) What overall message about religion can be drawn from the brothers' choices?

True religion guides a person to the better path, even when that path requires obedience and patience.

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what happens to the world and human life if true religion is missing?

The world becomes like a prison, and human beings become deeply unhappy.

2-) Which two expressions are presented as keys to freeing the human spirit from darkness?

Calling on Allah and declaring that no god deserves worship except Allah.

3-) Why is a comparison used instead of giving only direct statements? A comparison makes the lesson easier to picture and understand through a story.

4-) What did the two brothers ask the man at the fork in the road? They asked which road was the better one.

5-) What did the man say was required on the road to the right? He said a person had to follow law and order.

6-) What did the man say was found within the hardship of the right road?

He said there was security and happiness in it.

7-) What did the man say was hidden inside the freedom of the left road?

He said danger and misery were hidden in it.

8-) In what way did the good brother's character affect his choice?

His good character led him to accept guidance, trust Allah, and choose the disciplined path.

9-) In what way did the other brother's character affect his choice?

His bad habits and laziness led him to choose the unrestricted path.

10-) What important life lesson can a student learn from the brothers' first decision?

A person should not choose a path only because it seems easier; he should choose what is right and safe in the sight of Allah.

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say can solve the mystery of this world?

Turning to Allah and affirming His oneness solve it.

2-) What does the passage say can rescue the human spirit from darkness?

Faith in Allah and calling on Him rescue the human spirit from darkness.

3-) How are the two roads different in terms of rules?

The right road has rules and order, while the left road has no restraint.

4-) How are the two roads different in terms of outcome?

The right road leads to safety and happiness, while the left road leads to danger and misery.

5-) What did the good brother do after hearing the explanation about the roads?

He trusted Allah, took the right path, and followed the rules there.

6-) What did the other brother do after hearing the same explanation?

He chose the left path because he wanted freedom from limits.

7-) What does this show about how two people can react to the same advice?

It shows that character and attitude shape whether a person accepts good guidance or rejects it.

8-) Why is the left road said to be only outwardly easy?

Because it looks comfortable at first, but it actually leads to heavy trouble.

9-) What role does trust in Allah play in the better brother's decision?

It gives him confidence to choose the path of obedience and order.

10-) What warning does this passage give to young people about following every desire?

It warns that chasing unrestricted freedom can lead to harm, even if it first looks attractive.

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What four big ideas about human life and belief are named before the story begins?

The passage points to understanding the world, the human spirit, the value of religion, and the miserable state of people without true religion.

2-) How is religion presented in relation to human happiness?

Religion is shown as necessary for peace, meaning, and rescue from darkness.

3-) What scene begins the comparison in the story?

Two brothers are traveling together and arrive at a place where the road splits into two directions.

4-) What kind of person was standing at the fork in the road?

He was a serious and weighty person who gave them guidance.

5-) What was the good side of the right-hand road?

Its good side was that it led to safety and happiness.

6-) What was the bad side of the left-hand road?

Its bad side was that it led to danger and wretchedness.

7-) What personal quality especially marks the brother who chose the right road?

He is marked by good character.

8-) What personal quality especially marks the brother who chose the left road?

He is marked by immorality and laziness.

9-) Why is the left-hand brother's situation described as seeming easy but truly burdensome?

Because a path without discipline may feel light at first, but it brings serious trouble later.

10-) What main moral truth does the beginning of the story teach?

Right guidance may require effort, but it protects a person, while careless freedom can ruin him.

8sinif short-words-p27-eighth-word-religion-and-worldly-life-choosing-between-two-roads - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage teach about the connection between Islam and truth before the story starts?

It teaches that Islam is the true religion before Allah and that belief in Allah is central to understanding life.

2-) Why does the passage begin with words about Allah before telling the comparison?

It begins that way to center the lesson on faith, Allah's oneness, and His authority over human life.

3-) What question did the brothers ask at the fork in the road?

They asked which road was the good one.

4-) What answer were they given about the road on the right?

They were told it required discipline, but it contained safety and happiness.

5-) What answer were they given about the road on the left?

They were told it offered freedom from restraint, but it contained danger and misery.

6-) How did the good brother respond to this guidance in both words and action?

He expressed trust in Allah and then chose the ordered path.

7-) How did the other brother respond to the same guidance?

He ignored the warning and took the unrestrained path.

8-) What does the passage suggest about a person who rejects good limits?

It suggests that such a person may think he is choosing comfort, but he is actually choosing harm.

9-) What can be inferred about the role of discipline in a Muslim's life from this passage?

Discipline is part of the safe and successful path, not a burden without purpose.

10-) If you had to state the central lesson of this passage in one sentence, what would it be?

Trusting Allah and following the path of right guidance lead to real safety and happiness, while following desires without limits leads to misery.