

8sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 1

1-) Where did the man end up after traveling through rough land? (5 kelime)

He

2-) What caused the man to enter the well? (6 kelime)

He

3-) Why was his safety on the tree only temporary? (12 kelime)

The roots of

4-) What colors were the two rats? (8 kelime)

One was

5-) What was the danger above? (7 kelime)

The

6-) Why should the man have realized that this situation was not ordinary? (17 kelime)

The strange mix of

7-) Why did the man fail to understand his situation correctly? (13 kelime)

He was careless

8-) Instead, how did he interpret the scene? (7 kelime)

He

9-) What lesson can be taken from the sacred hadith included here?

(17 kelime)

A servant should think

10-) According to the sacred hadith mentioned, how does Allah deal with His servants? (12 kelime)

Allah deals with

8sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 2

1-) What kind of place did the traveler enter before the danger began?
(7 kelime)

He

2-) Which creature made him panic and run? (6 kelime)

A

3-) What were the two rats doing to that support? (6 kelime)

They

4-) What did the man notice when he looked upward? (9 kelime)

The lion

5-) How did the man learn that dropping lower would also be terrible?
(8 kelime)

He saw

6-) What important truth did the man fail to notice about all these strange things? (17 kelime)

He failed to see

7-) What does the passage suggest about the man's character from the way he reacted? (10 kelime)

He was

8-) What role did the evil-commanding nafs play? (9 kelime)

It ignored

9-) How does the hadith connect to the man's behavior? (18 kelime)
It shows that a

10-) What kind of state does he remain in at the end of the passage? (9 kelime)
He remains

8sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 3

1-) Describe the chain of events that brought the man into the well. (21 kelime)

He wandered through a barren

2-) What did the man do because of fear? (6 kelime)

He

3-) What detail shows that the man was suspended in an unstable position? (10 kelime)

He was

4-) How does the description of the dragon increase the fear of the scene? (12 kelime)

It is pictured

5-) What did he see below him in the well? (8 kelime)

He saw

6-) What was the danger around him? (7 kelime)

Poisonous

7-) What was happening at the level of his nafs? (11 kelime)

His nafs

8-) How did his nafs respond to that inner pain? (13 kelime)

It acted as

9-) What does his eating of the fruit reveal about his priorities? (11 kelime)

It reveals

10-) What is the main result of his foolish response to the whole situation? (7 kelime)

He

8sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 4

1-) What first sign of danger appeared to the traveler in the wilderness? (8 kelime)

A lion

2-) What kind of well did he find? (7 kelime)

It

3-) How did he survive the fall into the well? (12 kelime)

He caught a

4-) What made the bottom of the well unsafe? (11 kelime)

A dragon

5-) Besides the lion and dragon, what third danger surrounded him? (12 kelime)

Poisonous insects or

6-) Why is the fruit tree in the well not just a normal plant? (13 kelime)

It produced many

7-) What did his evil-commanding nafs do with those warnings? (7 kelime)

It

8-) Why is eating the fruit a bad choice in the middle of this crisis? (11 kelime)

It shows

9-) What principle is taught by the sacred hadith in this passage? (10 kelime)

A servant's

10-) What overall lesson about foolishness can be drawn from this passage? (18 kelime)

When a person ignores

8sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 5

1-) In what kind of environment does the main scene take place? (14 kelime)

It takes place

2-) What kept the man from falling to the bottom right away? (11 kelime)

His hands

3-) What was happening to the tree that he held onto? (7 kelime)

Two

4-) What three directions of danger surrounded him? (12 kelime)

Danger was above

5-) What surprising sign of beauty or blessing appears in the middle of the frightening scene? (11 kelime)

A fig

6-) What was unusual about the fig tree? (9 kelime)

It carried

7-) What should the man have concluded from these strange signs? (14 kelime)

He should have

8-) What does the mention of poisonous fruit teach about appearances? (8 kelime)

Something that

9-) What problem was there with some of the fruit? (7 kelime)

Some

10-) What wrong idea did the man have about what he was seeing? (13 kelime)

He believed it

8sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 6

1-) What happened after the man crossed the rough landscape? (7 kelime)

He

2-) What object inside the well became his only support? (9 kelime)

A tree

3-) What threatened the tree from above its base? (10 kelime)

Its two

4-) How did the man learn that he could not climb back out? (7 kelime)

He

5-) What made the tree hard to explain as something normal? (10 kelime)

It had

6-) Did the man recognize that these events carried hidden meaning?

Explain. (14 kelime)

No. He thought

7-) What does the passage say was happening to his heart and spirit?

(9 kelime)

They were

8-) Why is that action especially foolish in this passage? (15 kelime)

Because he ignored

9-) What final condition is described for the man? (9 kelime)

He is

10-) What was the result of his wrong understanding? (14 kelime)

He remained stuck

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Where did the man end up after traveling through rough land?
He reached a lonely wilderness.

2-) What caused the man to enter the well?
He was escaping from a lion.

3-) Why was his safety on the tree only temporary?
The roots of the tree were being chewed through by two rats.

4-) What colors were the two rats?
One was white and the other was black.

5-) What was the danger above?
The lion was waiting at the opening.

6-) Why should the man have realized that this situation was not ordinary?

The strange mix of creatures and the impossible tree showed clear signs of hidden meaning and control.

7-) Why did the man fail to understand his situation correctly?
He was careless and foolish, so he treated it like an ordinary event.

8-) Instead, how did he interpret the scene?
He treated it as ordinary and meaningless.

9-) What lesson can be taken from the sacred hadith included here?
A servant should think well of Allah and not approach Him with a false or empty outlook.

10-) According to the sacred hadith mentioned, how does Allah deal with His servants?

Allah deals with them in line with how they think of Him.

8sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of place did the traveler enter before the danger began?

He entered an empty, lonely wild area.

2-) Which creature made him panic and run?

A lion frightened him into running.

3-) What were the two rats doing to that support?

They were gnawing through the roots.

4-) What did the man notice when he looked upward?

The lion was still there, waiting over the opening.

5-) How did the man learn that dropping lower would also be terrible?

He saw a dragon below him reaching upward.

6-) What important truth did the man fail to notice about all these strange things?

He failed to see that they were not random and that a powerful being was directing them.

7-) What does the passage suggest about the man's character from the way he reacted?

He was thoughtless, foolish, and ruled by his lower self.

8-) What role did the evil-commanding nafs play?

It ignored the warning and pretended everything was fine.

9-) How does the hadith connect to the man's behavior?

It shows that a servant's view and expectation matter, and his false outlook leads to a fitting outcome.

10-) What kind of state does he remain in at the end of the passage?

He remains in ongoing torment without rescue or peace.

8sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Describe the chain of events that brought the man into the well.

He wandered through a barren place, saw a lion coming to attack him, ran away, and jumped into a dry well.

2-) What did the man do because of fear?

He jumped into a dry well.

3-) What detail shows that the man was suspended in an unstable position?

He was hanging onto a tree halfway down the well.

4-) How does the description of the dragon increase the fear of the scene?

It is pictured as huge and close enough to threaten him directly.

5-) What did he see below him in the well?

He saw a frightening dragon rising toward him.

6-) What was the danger around him?

Poisonous stinging creatures covered the walls nearby.

7-) What was happening at the level of his nafs?

His nafs denied the seriousness of the situation and chased enjoyment.

8-) How did his nafs respond to that inner pain?

It acted as if nothing was wrong and ignored the warning inside him.

9-) What does his eating of the fruit reveal about his priorities?

It reveals that he chose immediate desire over reflection and truth.

10-) What is the main result of his foolish response to the whole situation?

He stays trapped in misery and suffering.

8sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What first sign of danger appeared to the traveler in the wilderness?

A lion suddenly came out from the forest.

2-) What kind of well did he find?

It was a deep well without water.

3-) How did he survive the fall into the well?

He caught a tree growing from the wall before reaching the bottom.

4-) What made the bottom of the well unsafe?

A dragon was below him with its mouth open toward him.

5-) Besides the lion and dragon, what third danger surrounded him?

Poisonous insects or vermin were all around the sides of the well.

6-) Why is the fruit tree in the well not just a normal plant?

It produced many kinds of fruit that do not belong on one tree.

7-) What did his evil-commanding nafs do with those warnings?

It shut them out and acted unconcerned.

8-) Why is eating the fruit a bad choice in the middle of this crisis?

It shows he preferred distraction and desire over understanding and truth.

9-) What principle is taught by the sacred hadith in this passage?

A servant's way of thinking about Allah has serious consequences.

10-) What overall lesson about foolishness can be drawn from this passage?

When a person ignores clear signs and follows the nafs, that person turns a warning into ongoing misery.

8sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In what kind of environment does the main scene take place?

It takes place in a barren and frightening wilderness with a deep dry well.

2-) What kept the man from falling to the bottom right away?

His hands caught the tree and he held on to it.

3-) What was happening to the tree that he held onto?

Two rats were chewing through its roots.

4-) What three directions of danger surrounded him?

Danger was above him, below him, and around him on the walls.

5-) What surprising sign of beauty or blessing appears in the middle of the frightening scene?

A fig tree full of many kinds of fruit appears there.

6-) What was unusual about the fig tree?

It carried many kinds of fruit, not just figs.

7-) What should the man have concluded from these strange signs?

He should have understood that the scene had hidden wisdom and was under control.

8-) What does the mention of poisonous fruit teach about appearances?

Something that looks pleasing can still be harmful.

9-) What problem was there with some of the fruit?

Some of it was harmful and poisonous.

10-) What wrong idea did the man have about what he was seeing?

He believed it was all normal and exactly what it seemed to be.

8sinif short-words-p28-eighth-word-the-unfortunate- brothers-suspicion-and-painful-state - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What happened after the man crossed the rough landscape?

He found himself in a deserted wilderness.

2-) What object inside the well became his only support?

A tree growing from the wall held him up.

3-) What threatened the tree from above its base?

Its two roots were being eaten away by two rats.

4-) How did the man learn that he could not climb back out?

He saw the lion waiting above him.

5-) What made the tree hard to explain as something normal?

It had many different fruits from different kinds of trees.

6-) Did the man recognize that these events carried hidden meaning?

Explain.

No. He thought they were ordinary and did not see that they held secrets.

7-) What does the passage say was happening to his heart and spirit?

They were crying inwardly because of his terrible condition.

8-) Why is that action especially foolish in this passage?

Because he ignored mortal danger and chose brief pleasure, even though some fruit was harmful.

9-) What final condition is described for the man?

He is left in continuing misery with no relief.

10-) What was the result of his wrong understanding?

He remained stuck in suffering, neither escaping by death nor finding peace in life.