

8sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 1

1-) What is one main difference between the intelligent brother and his brother at the beginning of the passage? (21 kelime)

The intelligent brother does not

2-) How does he mentally approach the journey from the start? (10 kelime)

He expects

3-) How is his reaction to the garden different from his brother's reaction? (22 kelime)

His brother focused on what

4-) What lesson can be learned from the different reactions of the two brothers in the garden? (19 kelime)

Two people can enter

5-) What does he notice about the tree's roots? (6 kelime)

Two

6-) What does he conclude about the connection among all the strange events? (11 kelime)

He concludes

7-) What feeling grows in him after he starts wondering about the one behind the events? (9 kelime)

A desire

8-) What does the many-fruited fig tree help him realize about the place he is in? (13 kelime)

It helps him

9-) In his prayer, how does he describe his relationship to the ruler of the place? (17 kelime)

He says he is

10-) What moral contrast is highlighted in the closing words of the passage? (11 kelime)

The contrast

8sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 2

1-) What personal quality helps the fortunate traveler remain calm compared with his brother? (7 kelime)

His

2-) How do his thoughts influence his surroundings? (11 kelime)

They make

3-) What is the result of this choice in the garden? (8 kelime)

He gains

4-) How does this compare with his brother's earlier response to a similar place? (17 kelime)

His brother became disturbed

5-) What strange things does he observe while hanging in the well? (19 kelime)

He sees the lion

6-) What signs of danger surround him there? (15 kelime)

The roots are

7-) What feeling rises from his wish to know the hidden ruler? (5 kelime)

Love

8-) What does the impossible fruit tree reveal to him? (12 kelime)

It reveals that

9-) What does his prayer show about his attitude? (15 kelime)
It shows humility,

10-) What lesson are the reader and the speaker asked to learn by comparing the brothers? (23 kelime)
They are asked to see

8sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 3

1-) What protects him from the kind of suffering his brother faced? (10 kelime)

His noble

2-) How do these qualities change the feel of his journey? (10 kelime)

They make

3-) After leaving the garden, where does he travel next? (5 kelime)

He

4-) What does the contrast with his brother show about attitude? (14 kelime)

It shows that

5-) What shows that his situation is still serious even though he thinks well? (15 kelime)

The roots are

6-) What does the passage say is the reason his fear is much smaller? (16 kelime)

His good morals produce

7-) What kind of fear does he begin to experience instead of hopeless terror? (9 kelime)

He feels

8-) What grows out of that love? (17 kelime)

A wish to understand

9-) How does the setting transform after his prayer? (14 kelime)
The closed and

10-) What becomes of the dragon and lion after that answer? (15 kelime)
The dragon turns

8sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 4

1-) What kind of person is the second brother shown to be? (10 kelime)

He is

2-) How does he respond to the unpleasant parts of the garden? (14 kelime)

He does not

3-) What wise choice does he make in that garden? (11 kelime)

He overlooks

4-) What does he do when escaping from the lion? (8 kelime)

He throws

5-) What does he do next, and where does it lead him? (10 kelime)

He runs

6-) What conclusion does he reach about the strange events around him? (15 kelime)

He decides they

7-) How does curiosity develop into a deeper spiritual response? (9 kelime)

Curiosity becomes

8-) Why does he think the tree's many kinds of fruit prove a miracle? (13 kelime)

Because one tree

9-) How is his prayer answered in the outer world around him? (15 kelime)

The walls open,

10-) What lesson is introduced at the end of the passage through the comparison of the two brothers? (15 kelime)

The lesson is

8sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 5

1-) Which brother in the passage experiences the road in a healthier way? (6 kelime)

The

2-) What mixed condition does he find in the garden? (10 kelime)

He finds

3-) Which part of the garden does he choose to notice? (7 kelime)

He

4-) What thought gives him some comfort when he sees the lion? (17 kelime)

He thinks the desert

5-) What desperate move does he make? (7 kelime)

He

6-) What does he understand about the events in the well that his brother failed to understand? (15 kelime)

He understands that

7-) How does this belief affect his sense of loneliness? (10 kelime)

It eases

8-) Why does the unusual fig tree become a sign of hope for him? (13 kelime)

It shows him

9-) What changes happen right after his prayer? (13 kelime)
The well opens,

10-) What broad moral truth does the final call to compare the brothers teach? (17 kelime)
It teaches that a

8sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 6

1-) How does the passage present the second brother at the start? (10 kelime)

It presents

2-) What two opposite kinds of things are present in the garden he enters? (9 kelime)

There are

3-) What rule guides his behavior there? (11 kelime)

He follows

4-) What action does he take to avoid the lion? (6 kelime)

He

5-) Where does he end up while escaping? (9 kelime)

He ends

6-) How does that belief change his sense of being alone? (13 kelime)

He no longer

7-) How does fear become something more positive in him? (12 kelime)

It becomes mixed

8-) Why can the tree not be explained as something ordinary? (14 kelime)

Because a single

9-) What key request does he make in his supplication? (12 kelime)
He asks for

10-) What final comparison is the reader invited to make? (20 kelime)
The reader is invited to

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is one main difference between the intelligent brother and his brother at the beginning of the passage?

The intelligent brother does not suffer the same deep distress because he has good character and thinks in a positive way.

2-) How does he mentally approach the journey from the start?

He expects good and imagines matters in a hopeful way.

3-) How is his reaction to the garden different from his brother's reaction?

His brother focused on what was disgusting and could not settle down, but he focused on what was good and gained comfort.

4-) What lesson can be learned from the different reactions of the two brothers in the garden?

Two people can enter the same place but leave with very different results depending on what they focus on.

5-) What does he notice about the tree's roots?

Two creatures are chewing through them.

6-) What does he conclude about the connection among all the strange events?

He concludes they are linked and directed by one hidden authority.

7-) What feeling grows in him after he starts wondering about the one behind the events?

A desire to know that ruler grows into love.

8-) What does the many-fruited fig tree help him realize about the place he is in?

It helps him realize the place is carefully prepared and full of meaning.

9-) In his prayer, how does he describe his relationship to the ruler of the place?

He says he is seeking refuge, sees himself as a servant, and wants to please the ruler.

10-) What moral contrast is highlighted in the closing words of the passage?

The contrast is that goodness brings goodness, while evil brings evil.

8sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What personal quality helps the fortunate traveler remain calm compared with his brother?

His upright character helps him stay calmer.

2-) How do his thoughts influence his surroundings?

They make his surroundings feel safe and known rather than harsh.

3-) What is the result of this choice in the garden?

He gains benefit and rest, then continues refreshed.

4-) How does this compare with his brother's earlier response to a similar place?

His brother became disturbed by the bad parts, but he remained balanced by focusing on the good.

5-) What strange things does he observe while hanging in the well?

He sees the lion above, the dragon below, and two creatures cutting through the roots that hold the tree.

6-) What signs of danger surround him there?

The roots are being cut through, a lion waits above, and a dragon threatens below.

7-) What feeling rises from his wish to know the hidden ruler?

Love rises from that wish.

8-) What does the impossible fruit tree reveal to him?

It reveals that the place is arranged by extraordinary power and generosity.

9-) What does his prayer show about his attitude?

It shows humility, dependence, loyalty, and a sincere wish to find and please the ruler.

10-) What lesson are the reader and the speaker asked to learn by comparing the brothers?

They are asked to see that a good inner state leads to good outcomes, while a corrupt inner state leads to harmful outcomes.

8sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What protects him from the kind of suffering his brother faced?

His noble character and healthy way of thinking protect him.

2-) How do these qualities change the feel of his journey?

They make the road seem more peaceful and less threatening.

3-) After leaving the garden, where does he travel next?

He enters a wide desert.

4-) What does the contrast with his brother show about attitude?

It shows that attitude can turn the same place into either comfort or misery.

5-) What shows that his situation is still serious even though he thinks well?

The roots are being chewed, the lion is above him, and a dragon waits below.

6-) What does the passage say is the reason his fear is much smaller?

His good morals produce good thoughts, which help him see meaning and mercy even in hardship.

7-) What kind of fear does he begin to experience instead of hopeless terror?

He feels a fear mixed with wonder and attraction.

8-) What grows out of that love?

A wish to understand the mystery and become the kind of person pleasing to its owner grows.

9-) How does the setting transform after his prayer?

The closed and frightening well becomes an opening to a beautiful and peaceful garden.

10-) What becomes of the dragon and lion after that answer?

The dragon turns into an entrance, and the lion becomes a tame servant and mount.

8sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of person is the second brother shown to be?

He is shown to be thoughtful, fortunate, and morally sound.

2-) How does he respond to the unpleasant parts of the garden?

He does not focus on them and gives his attention to the beneficial parts.

3-) What wise choice does he make in that garden?

He overlooks the corrupted parts and benefits from the wholesome parts.

4-) What does he do when escaping from the lion?

He throws himself into a deep, dry well.

5-) What does he do next, and where does it lead him?

He runs and ends up in a dry, deep well.

6-) What conclusion does he reach about the strange events around him?

He decides they are connected and are happening by the order of a hidden ruler.

7-) How does curiosity develop into a deeper spiritual response?

Curiosity becomes love for the one behind the mystery.

8-) Why does he think the tree's many kinds of fruit prove a miracle?

Because one tree cannot normally produce the fruits of so many different trees.

9-) How is his prayer answered in the outer world around him?

The walls open, a doorway appears, and the threatening scene turns into a welcoming one.

10-) What lesson is introduced at the end of the passage through the comparison of the two brothers?

The lesson is that good leads to good results, while evil leads to evil results.

8sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Which brother in the passage experiences the road in a healthier way?

The fortunate and intelligent brother does.

2-) What mixed condition does he find in the garden?

He finds both enjoyable things and neglected, ugly things together.

3-) Which part of the garden does he choose to notice?

He chooses the good and useful parts.

4-) What thought gives him some comfort when he sees the lion?

He thinks the desert must have a master, and the lion may be under that master's control.

5-) What desperate move does he make?

He jumps into a deep empty well.

6-) What does he understand about the events in the well that his brother failed to understand?

He understands that they are not random and must be connected to a commanding power.

7-) How does this belief affect his sense of loneliness?

It eases his loneliness because he feels seen and guided.

8-) Why does the unusual fig tree become a sign of hope for him?

It shows him that the place is arranged intentionally and generously, not chaotically.

9-) What changes happen right after his prayer?

The well opens, a lovely garden appears, and the dangerous beings become servants.

10-) What broad moral truth does the final call to compare the brothers teach?

It teaches that a person's inner state and choices shape whether events lead toward goodness or misery.

8sinif short-words-p29-eighth-word-the-fortunate- brothers-journey-and-the-talismans-opening - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How does the passage present the second brother at the start?

It presents him as blessed with intelligence and good fortune.

2-) What two opposite kinds of things are present in the garden he enters?

There are attractive blessings and also rotten, unpleasant things.

3-) What rule guides his behavior there?

He follows the practice of noticing the good side of things.

4-) What action does he take to avoid the lion?

He jumps into a deep well.

5-) Where does he end up while escaping?

He ends up hanging in a deep dry well.

6-) How does that belief change his sense of being alone?

He no longer feels abandoned, because he believes a hidden ruler sees him.

7-) How does fear become something more positive in him?

It becomes mixed with wonder and leads him to search for meaning.

8-) Why can the tree not be explained as something ordinary?

Because a single fig tree cannot naturally carry the produce of countless other trees.

9-) What key request does he make in his supplication?

He asks for refuge and seeks to find and please the ruler.

10-) What final comparison is the reader invited to make?

The reader is invited to compare the brothers and understand that good brings good results and evil brings evil results.