

8sinif short-words-p33-eighth-word-summary-and-supplication - Set 1

1-) What is being asked from Allah in the first supplication? (14 kelime)
That we be

2-) Whose peace and blessings are being requested in the second supplication? (8 kelime)
Prophet Muhammad,

3-) How long does the prayer connect the recitation of the Qur'an across time? (11 kelime)
From the

4-) What image is used to describe how Qur'anic words are carried when they are recited? (13 kelime)
They are pictured

5-) Besides asking mercy for ourselves, who else is included in the du'a? (8 kelime)
Our parents

6-) What does the phrase at the end show about who deserves all praise? (13 kelime)
All praise belongs

7-) What does ending with praise to Allah add to the meaning of the whole passage? (16 kelime)
It reminds us that

8-) Which attribute of Allah gives hope that these prayers can be accepted? (3 kelime)

8sinif short-words-p33-eighth-word-summary-and-supplication - Set 2

1-) What four qualities or groups does the first du'a ask Allah to place us among? (12 kelime)

Happiness, safety, the

2-) Upon whom are blessings and peace sent after that? (8 kelime)

Upon Prophet

3-) What is unusually large about the number mentioned for these blessings? (22 kelime)

It is tied to all

4-) Which family members are directly remembered in the prayer for mercy? (2 kelime)

5-) Which larger group is also remembered for mercy? (5 kelime)

All

6-) What name of Allah is used to ask for this mercy in a very hopeful way? (12 kelime)

The One who

7-) What three groups are specifically included in the request for mercy? (9 kelime)

Ourselves, our

8sinif short-words-p33-eighth-word-summary-and-supplication - Set 3

1-) In the opening line, what kind of people are we asking Allah to make us? (12 kelime)

People who have

2-) What is asked for the Prophet in addition to blessings? (1 kelime)

3-) Which people close to the Prophet are mentioned with him? (5 kelime)

His

4-) How does the passage describe the recitation of Qur'anic words in the air? (15 kelime)

It describes them

5-) Who is reciting the Qur'an in this prayer's description? (5 kelime)

Every

6-) Over what full span of history are those recitations counted? (14 kelime)

From the first

7-) How does the passage close in a way that fits Islamic worship? (11 kelime)

It ends

8sinif short-words-p33-eighth-word-summary-and-supplication - Set 4

1-) What is the first request made to Allah in the target passage? (13 kelime)

That He place

2-) After that first request, what act of devotion is made for the Prophet? (9 kelime)

Asking Allah

3-) What comparison is used to express a very large number of blessings? (16 kelime)

The number is connected

4-) What part of creation is mentioned as carrying the sound or form of recited words? (7 kelime)

The

5-) What does the passage ask Allah to do for the speaker and the speaker's parents? (4 kelime)

Show

6-) Which wider community is also included in that same request? (5 kelime)

All

7-) How is Allah addressed when mercy is requested? (9 kelime)

As the

8sinif short-words-p33-eighth-word-summary-and-supplication - Set 5

1-) What does the first “Amen” respond to in this passage? (14 kelime)

The request to

2-) What is being asked for Prophet Muhammad, his family, and his companions? (7 kelime)

That

3-) How is the amount of these blessings described? (14 kelime)

By linking them

4-) What event causes those words to be represented in the moving air? (5 kelime)

The

5-) Which people are named after the request for mercy on ourselves? (2 kelime)

6-) Which believers are included after that? (7 kelime)

All

7-) Why are all believing men and women included too? (11 kelime)

Because Islam

8sinif short-words-p33-eighth-word-summary-and-supplication - Set 6

1-) What personal hope is expressed in the first line of the passage? (15 kelime)

The hope of

2-) What important Islamic practice appears in the second line regarding the Prophet? (6 kelime)

Sending

3-) Who else is honored together with the Prophet in that prayer? (5 kelime)

His

4-) What does the passage say about the reach of Qur'an recitation? (15 kelime)

It continues through

5-) What picture does the passage give of spoken Qur'anic words? (12 kelime)

It presents them

6-) In the mercy request, what does mentioning parents teach students? (14 kelime)

That remembering and

7-) What is the final statement of the passage? (13 kelime)

A declaration that

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p33-eighth-word-summary-and-supplication - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is being asked from Allah in the first supplication?

That we be made among the people of happiness, safety, the Qur'an, and faith.

2-) Whose peace and blessings are being requested in the second supplication?

Prophet Muhammad, along with his family and companions.

3-) How long does the prayer connect the recitation of the Qur'an across time?

From the beginning of its revelation until the end of time.

4-) What image is used to describe how Qur'anic words are carried when they are recited?

They are pictured as appearing in the movements of the air like reflections.

5-) Besides asking mercy for ourselves, who else is included in the du'a?

Our parents and all believing men and women.

6-) What does the phrase at the end show about who deserves all praise?

All praise belongs to Allah alone, the Lord and Sustainer of every world.

7-) What does ending with praise to Allah add to the meaning of the whole passage?

It reminds us that every prayer should end with recognizing Allah's greatness and giving Him thanks.

8-) Which attribute of Allah gives hope that these prayers can be accepted?

His vast mercy.

8sinif short-words-p33-eighth-word-summary-and-supplication - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What four qualities or groups does the first du'a ask Allah to place us among?

Happiness, safety, the people of the Qur'an, and the people of faith.

2-) Upon whom are blessings and peace sent after that?

Upon Prophet Muhammad, his family, and his companions.

3-) What is unusually large about the number mentioned for these blessings?

It is tied to all the Qur'anic letters found in all its words as they are recited by all reciters through history.

4-) Which family members are directly remembered in the prayer for mercy?

One's parents.

5-) Which larger group is also remembered for mercy?

All Muslim men and women.

6-) What name of Allah is used to ask for this mercy in a very hopeful way?

The One who is the most merciful of those who show mercy.

7-) What three groups are specifically included in the request for mercy?

Ourselves, our parents, and all believing men and women.

8sinif short-words-p33-eighth-word-summary-and-supplication - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the opening line, what kind of people are we asking Allah to make us?

People who have true success, protection, attachment to the Qur'an, and faith.

2-) What is asked for the Prophet in addition to blessings? Peace.

3-) Which people close to the Prophet are mentioned with him? His family and his companions.

4-) How does the passage describe the recitation of Qur'anic words in the air?

It describes them as being shown through the moving air when the Qur'an is read.

5-) Who is reciting the Qur'an in this prayer's description? Every reciter of the Qur'an.

6-) Over what full span of history are those recitations counted? From the first time the Qur'an was revealed until the end of the world.

7-) How does the passage close in a way that fits Islamic worship? It ends by praising Allah as the Lord of all worlds.

8sinif short-words-p33-eighth-word-summary-and-supplication - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first request made to Allah in the target passage?
That He place us among people of success, safety, the Qur'an, and faith.

2-) After that first request, what act of devotion is made for the Prophet?

Asking Allah to send peace and blessings upon him.

3-) What comparison is used to express a very large number of blessings?

The number is connected to all the letters in the Qur'an's words as they are recited.

4-) What part of creation is mentioned as carrying the sound or form of recited words?

The waves or movements of the air.

5-) What does the passage ask Allah to do for the speaker and the speaker's parents?

Show mercy to them.

6-) Which wider community is also included in that same request?

All believing males and females.

7-) How is Allah addressed when mercy is requested?

As the most merciful of all who show mercy.

8sinif short-words-p33-eighth-word-summary-and-supplication - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the first “Amen” respond to in this passage?

The request to be counted among people of happiness, safety, the Qur’an, and faith.

2-) What is being asked for Prophet Muhammad, his family, and his companions?

That Allah grant them blessings and peace.

3-) How is the amount of these blessings described?

By linking them to every Qur’anic letter in every word recited across all times.

4-) What event causes those words to be represented in the moving air?

The recitation of the Qur’an.

5-) Which people are named after the request for mercy on ourselves?
Our parents.

6-) Which believers are included after that?

All believing men and all believing women.

7-) Why are all believing men and women included too?

Because Islam teaches believers to care for the whole believing community.

8sinif short-words-p33-eighth-word-summary-and-supplication - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What personal hope is expressed in the first line of the passage?

The hope of being included among people of true well-being, protection, the Qur'an, and faith.

2-) What important Islamic practice appears in the second line regarding the Prophet?

Sending prayers and peace upon him.

3-) Who else is honored together with the Prophet in that prayer?

His family and his companions.

4-) What does the passage say about the reach of Qur'an recitation?

It continues through all reciters from the time revelation began until the end of time.

5-) What picture does the passage give of spoken Qur'anic words?

It presents them as appearing through the moving air by Allah's permission.

6-) In the mercy request, what does mentioning parents teach students?

That remembering and praying for one's parents is part of good faith and gratitude.

7-) What is the final statement of the passage?

A declaration that all praise belongs to Allah, the Lord of all creation.