

8sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 1

1-) What problem is being addressed at the start of this passage? (18 kelime)

It is dealing with

2-) What answer does the passage give to the idea that a person was made only for this world? (15 kelime)

It rejects that

3-) What does the passage say about many things people call worldly duties? (16 kelime)

It says many of

4-) What does the passage say about many busy activities in life? (17 kelime)

It says many of

5-) How does the passage show that worldly busyness is often exaggerated? (15 kelime)

It says many

6-) What is the danger of filling life with needless information? (13 kelime)

It wastes time

7-) What example is used to show how foolish a weak excuse can be? (21 kelime)

A worker is offered great

8-) What does the orchard stand for in the comparison? (11 kelime)
It stands

9-) What two “mines” are discovered through prayerful and sincere work? (17 kelime)
One is reward connected

10-) What are the two major gains connected with prayer and work together? (12 kelime)
They bring blessed

8sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 2

1-) What does the passage ask about the reason for being weak in worship? (17 kelime)

It asks whether the

2-) What question is asked about worldly occupations and prayer? (15 kelime)

It asks whether

3-) How does the passage use animals to make its point? (16 kelime)

It says humans should

4-) What does the passage say is wrong with living only for worldly needs? (12 kelime)

It lowers a

5-) What does the passage say about many things people get busy with? (13 kelime)

Many are side

6-) Why are those examples criticized? (17 kelime)

They waste valuable time

7-) In the example, what does the small wage cut represent? (11 kelime)

It represents

8-) What effect do prayers have on the spirit and heart, according to the passage? (13 kelime)

They refresh the

9-) What does abandoning obligatory prayer do to the results of that labor? (10 kelime)

It narrows

10-) How does sincere intention affect ordinary labor? (11 kelime)

It can

8sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 3

1-) What kind of self is being spoken to in this passage? (12 kelime)

It is the

2-) What wrong idea about human life is challenged here? (13 kelime)

The wrong idea

3-) What important question is asked about the purpose of human creation? (11 kelime)

It asks

4-) What is the lasting goal a person should work for? (13 kelime)

He should work

5-) What are two examples of useless information given in the passage? (20 kelime)

One is being busy with

6-) What is the main point of the worker-and-treasure example? (12 kelime)

Giving up a

7-) What does this teach about skipping prayer for work? (15 kelime)

It teaches that

8-) How is daily work in this world pictured in the comparison? (13 kelime)

It is pictured

9-) When are prayers said to fit naturally into a working day? (12 kelime)

They fit into

10-) Under what view of oneself can feeding others become reward like charity? (14 kelime)

When a person

8sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 4

1-) What main conflict is discussed in this passage? (10 kelime)

It discusses

2-) What two possible reasons for neglecting worship are mentioned first? (15 kelime)

One is having

3-) Why is the sparrow mentioned? (14 kelime)

It shows that

4-) According to the passage, what mistake do many people make with worldly matters? (14 kelime)

They get involved

5-) What attitude does the passage criticize when speaking about such information? (16 kelime)

It criticizes acting as

6-) Why is refusing the ten-minute digging job described as foolish? (15 kelime)

Because the person

7-) What lesson comes from the offer to dig for ten minutes? (12 kelime)

A tiny sacrifice

8-) What does this comparison suggest about the value of prayer? (14

kelime)

Prayer brings benefits

9-) What good use of break time does the passage recommend? (14

kelime)

It recommends using

8sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 5

1-) Who is being warned in the opening words of this passage? (13 kelime)

The warning is

2-) What does the passage say about human ability compared with animals? (13 kelime)

Humans have greater

3-) What is described as the true job of a human being? (15 kelime)

A human being

4-) According to the passage, how do people often misuse their time? (15 kelime)

They spend it

5-) How does the passage answer someone who says earning money keeps him from prayer? (22 kelime)

It gives an example showing

6-) What claim does the passage respond to after those examples? (17 kelime)

It responds to the

7-) In the comparison, why is the worker's refusal unreasonable? (14 kelime)

He would avoid

8-) If a person drops the required prayers, how are the results of his work described? (8 kelime)

They remain

9-) What are the two kinds of provision prayer helps a person gain? (12 kelime)

It helps with

8sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 6

1-) What weakness in a person's worship is the passage mainly trying to cure? (18 kelime)

It is trying to

2-) How does the passage compare human beings with animals? (21 kelime)

It says humans are above

3-) What higher aim is a person supposed to seek? (14 kelime)

A person should

4-) Why is learning random facts used as an example here? (17 kelime)

It shows how people

5-) What is the purpose of the example about facts on space and chickens? (13 kelime)

It is to

6-) How does the passage treat the excuse of earning a livelihood? (15 kelime)

It says that

7-) What does the orchard symbolize in that example? (10 kelime)

It symbolizes

8-) What two benefits are found when a person uses rest time for prayer? (16 kelime)

Prayer helps both worldly

9-) What extra results can prayer add to a person's work? (12 kelime)

It can add

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What problem is being addressed at the start of this passage?

It is dealing with being careless or lazy about worship and the required prayers because of worldly busyness.

2-) What answer does the passage give to the idea that a person was made only for this world?

It rejects that idea and teaches that life has a greater purpose than worldly survival.

3-) What does the passage say about many things people call worldly duties?

It says many of them are actually small matters that do not deserve so much attention.

4-) What does the passage say about many busy activities in life?

It says many of them are not truly necessary and are often unnecessary interference in lesser matters.

5-) How does the passage show that worldly busyness is often exaggerated?

It says many so-called duties are actually minor issues people involve themselves in too much.

6-) What is the danger of filling life with needless information?

It wastes time that should be used for more important duties and preparation.

7-) What example is used to show how foolish a weak excuse can be?

A worker is offered great treasure for only ten minutes of effort but refuses because of a tiny loss in wages.

8-) What does the orchard stand for in the comparison?

It stands for this world where a person works for provision.

9-) What two "mines" are discovered through prayerful and sincere work?

One is reward connected to what grows, and the other is charity-like reward from what others consume.

10-) What are the two major gains connected with prayer and work together?

They bring blessed worldly provision and reward for the life after death.

8sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage ask about the reason for being weak in worship?

It asks whether the reason is too much worldly work or the struggle to earn a living.

2-) What question is asked about worldly occupations and prayer?

It asks whether worldly busyness is really the reason a person becomes careless with worship.

3-) How does the passage use animals to make its point?

It says humans should not lower themselves to living only for food and survival like animals.

4-) What does the passage say is wrong with living only for worldly needs?

It lowers a human being beneath his real purpose and higher abilities.

5-) What does the passage say about many things people get busy with?

Many are side matters that people treat as important when they are not.

6-) Why are those examples criticized?

They waste valuable time on things that do not help a person in the most important duties.

7-) In the example, what does the small wage cut represent?

It represents the minor worldly cost or time spent on prayer.

8-) What effect do prayers have on the spirit and heart, according to the passage?

They refresh the spirit and give breathing room and relief to the heart.

9-) What does abandoning obligatory prayer do to the results of that labor?

It narrows the results down to weak worldly gain only.

10-) How does sincere intention affect ordinary labor?

It can turn ordinary labor into something that earns spiritual reward.

8sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of self is being spoken to in this passage?

It is the self that is attached too much to worldly life.

2-) What wrong idea about human life is challenged here?

The wrong idea is that people exist only to work for worldly needs.

3-) What important question is asked about the purpose of human creation?

It asks whether a person was made only for this world.

4-) What is the lasting goal a person should work for?

He should work for a real and lasting life beyond this temporary world.

5-) What are two examples of useless information given in the passage?

One is being busy with facts about Saturn's rings, and the other is learning the number of chickens in America.

6-) What is the main point of the worker-and-treasure example?

Giving up a huge benefit to avoid a tiny loss is foolish.

7-) What does this teach about skipping prayer for work?

It teaches that missing prayer for a small worldly concern means losing something far greater.

8-) How is daily work in this world pictured in the comparison?

It is pictured as labor in a garden or orchard for one's provision.

9-) When are prayers said to fit naturally into a working day?

They fit into rest times when the soul and heart need renewal.

10-) Under what view of oneself can feeding others become reward like charity?

When a person sees himself as a servant delivering Allah's property to His creation.

8sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What main conflict is discussed in this passage?

It discusses the conflict between worldly distractions and faithful worship.

2-) What two possible reasons for neglecting worship are mentioned first?

One is having many worldly tasks, and the other is being busy earning a living.

3-) Why is the sparrow mentioned?

It shows that success in getting food is not what makes humans truly special.

4-) According to the passage, what mistake do many people make with worldly matters?

They get involved in many small and unnecessary things and ignore what matters most.

5-) What attitude does the passage criticize when speaking about such information?

It criticizes acting as if one will stay in this world for an extremely long time.

6-) Why is refusing the ten-minute digging job described as foolish?

Because the person would give up a very valuable reward to avoid a tiny loss.

7-) What lesson comes from the offer to dig for ten minutes?

A tiny sacrifice is worth making when the reward is much greater.

8-) What does this comparison suggest about the value of prayer?

Prayer brings benefits so great that leaving it for small worldly reasons is senseless.

9-) What good use of break time does the passage recommend?

It recommends using it for prayer so the inner self can rest and recover.

8sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who is being warned in the opening words of this passage?

The warning is directed at the self that loves worldly life too much.

2-) What does the passage say about human ability compared with animals?

Humans have greater abilities, so their lives should aim higher than basic survival.

3-) What is described as the true job of a human being?

A human being should work for an everlasting life and live with a higher purpose.

4-) According to the passage, how do people often misuse their time? They spend it chasing side issues and collecting information that does not truly benefit them.

5-) How does the passage answer someone who says earning money keeps him from prayer?

It gives an example showing that losing a little time or money for a much greater gain is not a good excuse.

6-) What claim does the passage respond to after those examples?

It responds to the claim that prayer is neglected because of necessary work for earning a living.

7-) In the comparison, why is the worker's refusal unreasonable?

He would avoid a tiny pay loss while missing a treasure worth much more.

8-) If a person drops the required prayers, how are the results of his work described?

They remain small, worldly, and lacking deeper fruit.

9-) What are the two kinds of provision prayer helps a person gain?

It helps with fruitful worldly earning and with supplies for the hereafter.

8sinif short-words-p58-twenty-first-word-first-station-fifth-warning-rejecting-worldly-busyness-as-an-excuse - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What weakness in a person's worship is the passage mainly trying to cure?

It is trying to cure laziness and neglect in the required prayers because of attachment to worldly life.

2-) How does the passage compare human beings with animals?

It says humans are above animals in ability, but they should not live only to get food and survival like animals.

3-) What higher aim is a person supposed to seek?

A person should seek a lasting and real life, not just temporary worldly gain.

4-) Why is learning random facts used as an example here?

It shows how people may use their minds and time on things that bring little real benefit.

5-) What is the purpose of the example about facts on space and chickens?

It is to show how people can waste precious life on pointless details.

6-) How does the passage treat the excuse of earning a livelihood?

It says that even this excuse fails when compared to the huge value of prayer.

7-) What does the orchard symbolize in that example?

It symbolizes a person's place of work in worldly life.

8-) What two benefits are found when a person uses rest time for prayer?

Prayer helps both worldly livelihood in a blessed way and the person's provision for the hereafter.

9-) What extra results can prayer add to a person's work?

It can add blessing in worldly earnings and reward for the hereafter.