

1 In the comparison, who does the ruler stand for?	2 What does the daily amount of gold teach about how Muslims should view time?	3 What does the royal land represent?	4 What are the stages of the journey named in the passage?
8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure
5 According to the passage, why do people travel that journey at different rates?	6 What does the ticket symbolize, and why is that symbol meaningful?	7 Why is it described as a great loss to spend almost the whole day on worldly life and not give one hour to the hereafter?	8 In the example about money, what choice is shown as wiser?
8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure
9 How can a person's other daily actions become like worship?	10 How can all of a praying person's other actions become beneficial for the next life?	11 What is the main message of this passage about the prescribed prayers?	12 In the explanation of the comparison, who is the ruler?
8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 4 They are going to the grave, then resurrection, then the hereafter.	Cevap 3 It represents Paradise.	Cevap 2 It teaches that time is precious and should be spent for a purpose that lasts.	Cevap 1 He stands for our Lord and Creator.
Cevap 8 Giving the smaller share for the almost certain lasting gain is shown as wiser.	Cevap 7 Because the worldly life passes quickly, while the hereafter is long and lasting, so neglecting prayer harms a person's own soul.	Cevap 6 It symbolizes the prescribed prayers, because prayer is what helps a person on the journey ahead.	Cevap 5 Their speed differs based on what they do and how strong their fear of Allah is.
Cevap 12 The ruler is Allah, our Sustainer and Creator.	Cevap 11 The message is that prayer is worth a small amount of time but brings great benefit for this life and the next.	Cevap 10 With sincere intention, those actions can also count as worship.	Cevap 9 If the person prays and has the right intention, his other acts can also count like worship.

13 What kind of person is represented by the other servant?	14 What does the passage compare to Paradise?	15 What affects how quickly people cross that journey?	16 What determines how people move through that journey?
8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure
17 What does the passage say is enough time for all five prayers and purification?	18 What is wrong with giving all one's attention to short worldly life and neglecting prayer?	19 What three inner parts of a person are said to receive comfort from prayer?	20 How can everyday actions like study, work, or rest become rewarding?
8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure
21 Who does the ruler in the comparison symbolize?	22 In the comparison, which servant is the better example to follow?	23 What does Paradise correspond to in the comparison?	24 What stopping place on the way is symbolized by the station?
8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure	8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure

Cevap 16 Their actions and the strength of their taqwa determine it.	Cevap 15 Their deeds and their level of fearing Allah affect it.	Cevap 14 It compares Paradise to a royal domain.	Cevap 13 He represents a heedless person who leaves the prayers.
Cevap 20 If the person keeps the right intention and fulfills prayer, those actions can also become acts of worship.	Cevap 19 The spirit, the heart, and the mind.	Cevap 18 It is shortsighted and harmful because it ignores the life that does not end.	Cevap 17 It says one hour is enough.
Cevap 24 It symbolizes the grave.	Cevap 23 It is the royal estate.	Cevap 22 The servant who is devoted to prayer is the better example.	Cevap 21 He symbolizes Allah, the Sustainer and Creator.