Cevap 4 He is described as inexperienced and mainly concerned with himself.	Cevap 3 He is described as disciplined, careful about his duty, and properly trained.	Cevap 2 They were serving during a time of full military call-up and were together in one unit.	Cevap 1 It teaches that praying and staying away from major sins are basic duties that fit human nature and the purpose for which people were created.
Cevap 8 He saw them as service connected to the state, not as a personal job just to earn food.	Cevap 7 He helped with simple camp duties like preparing cookware, cleaning eating tools, and bringing them where needed.	Cevap 6 He understood that providing those things was the responsibility of the government.	Cevap 5 He focused on preparing himself and doing his part in the fighting.
Cevap 12 He had a strong sense of responsibility and took his duty seriously.	Cevap 11 They were in the same regiment during a public military mobilization.	Cevap 10 They are asked to understand that the daily prayers and staying away from grave sins are natural and proper duties for human beings.	Cevap 9 It shows he viewed them as part of obedience and responsibility, not as chasing personal gain.

13 What was the second soldier mainly thinking about?	14 What belief guided the first soldier's calm attitude about being fed and equipped?	15 How far did that trust go if he became too weak or sick?	16 What did the first soldier know was his own main responsibility?
