

8sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 1

1-) In the comparison, what were the two soldiers told to do at the beginning? (9 kelime)

They were

2-) What two outcomes are connected to worship in the introduction? (4 kelime)

Great

3-) What kind of information did the man at the fork provide? (12 kelime)

He gave practical

4-) Which soldier focused more on short-term comfort? (4 kelime)

The

5-) What two things were required on the right road? (6 kelime)

A

6-) What was the result of his choice for his heart and spirit? (11 kelime)

He felt

7-) What heavier troubles was he saved from inside himself? (13 kelime)

He was saved

8-) What did his path do to his relationship with others? (11 kelime)

It made

9-) What did he suffer inwardly? (7 kelime)

He

10-) What happened when the obedient soldier reached the city? (6 kelime)

He

8sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 2

1-) What is the main topic introduced in this passage before the story begins? (17 kelime)

It explains that worship

2-) What did the man say about the road on the right? (13 kelime)

He said it

3-) What order had the two soldiers received? (10 kelime)

They had

4-) What lack was linked with the left road besides loss? (5 kelime)

It

5-) What happened to the unfortunate soldier's emotional state during the journey? (6 kelime)

He

6-) How does the passage describe the effect of that load on his inner life? (14 kelime)

The outer weight

7-) What happened to him even though he avoided the smaller burden? (9 kelime)

He fell

8-) What did the unlucky soldier gain right away by leaving the army? (8 kelime)

He got

9-) How does the passage compare the two soldiers' hearts? (14 kelime)

One had a

10-) How did the obedient soldier travel emotionally and morally? (7 kelime)

He

8sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 3

1-) What two opposite ways of life are compared in the opening sentence of the passage? (9 kelime)
Worship is

2-) Where were the soldiers headed? (7 kelime)
They

3-) How were the two roads alike? (5 kelime)
They

4-) What did he say about the left-hand road's results for most people? (7 kelime)
Most

5-) What does the phrase about the weapon defeating enemies suggest? (14 kelime)
It suggests the

6-) How does the story show that discipline can actually protect a person? (12 kelime)
The obedient soldier's

7-) What happened to his heart after that choice? (9 kelime)
It became

8-) How does the ending of each soldier show a clear contrast? (12 kelime)
One is honored

9-) How did he behave toward people and events on the road? (11 kelime)
He begged

10-) What does the reward at the end tell us about the first soldier? (10 kelime)
It shows

8sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 4

1-) In this story, what choice were the two soldiers forced to make? (12 kelime)

They had to

2-) What job or role did both travelers have? (3 kelime)

3-) According to the man at the fork, what usually happens to people who take the left path? (6 kelime)

Most

4-) What did travelers on the left road not have to carry? (7 kelime)

They

5-) Why can lack of authority become dangerous in the story? (10 kelime)

Because without

6-) How is the first soldier described by the passage? (5 kelime)

He

7-) Which soldier was more independent in the best sense? (14 kelime)

The obedient soldier

8-) What does his begging from everyone show? (8 kelime)

It shows

9-) What value is praised through the soldier who obeyed? (5 kelime)

Faithful

10-) What happened when the deserter reached the city? (9 kelime)

He was

8sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 5

1-) What does the passage say a person will understand by listening to this comparison? (15 kelime)
He will understand

2-) What made the right-hand road seem more difficult at first glance? (8 kelime)
It required

3-) What percentage of travelers on the right road were said to gain profit and peace? (4 kelime)
Nine

4-) Why was the right path harder on the outside? (15 kelime)
It required the

5-) Why might the left road seem easier at first? (12 kelime)
It looked lighter

6-) What surprising result came from carrying the load? (12 kelime)
A small physical

7-) What did the first soldier lose outwardly? (8 kelime)
He had

8-) What final result matched his bad choice? (8 kelime)
He was

9-) Why was he punished at the end? (7 kelime)
He

10-) What happened to the obedient soldier at the end? (10 kelime)
He received

8sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 6

1-) What Qur'anic command is placed near the beginning of this passage? (8 kelime)

It is

2-) What important place did they reach on their journey? (11 kelime)

They came

3-) Which soldier thought beyond the outside appearance of the road? (4 kelime)

The

4-) Why is it important that both roads are equal in distance? (14 kelime)

It shows the

5-) How did the fortunate soldier respond to the advice? (10 kelime)

He accepted

6-) What burden did the fortunate soldier carry in a physical sense? (8 kelime)

He carried

7-) What was his reason for leaving? (8 kelime)

He did

8-) What did the second soldier avoid outwardly? (5 kelime)

He

9-) What actions showed his weakness during the trip? (10 kelime)

He begged

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the comparison, what were the two soldiers told to do at the beginning?

They were ordered to travel to a faraway city.

2-) What two outcomes are connected to worship in the introduction?

Great profit and happiness.

3-) What kind of information did the man at the fork provide?

He gave practical advice about the results and conditions of each road.

4-) Which soldier focused more on short-term comfort?

The unfortunate soldier did.

5-) What two things were required on the right road?

A supply bag and a rifle.

6-) What was the result of his choice for his heart and spirit?

He felt inward relief and freedom from great fears and humiliations.

7-) What heavier troubles was he saved from inside himself?

He was saved from deep fear and from needing to depend on people.

8-) What did his path do to his relationship with others?

It made him needy toward people and lowered him to begging.

9-) What did he suffer inwardly?

He suffered anxiety, humiliation, and inner heaviness.

10-) What happened when the obedient soldier reached the city?

He was given an honorable reward.

8sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main topic introduced in this passage before the story begins?

It explains that worship brings great gain and happiness, while sinful living brings serious loss and ruin.

2-) What did the man say about the road on the right?

He said it usually brings benefit, peace of mind, and no real loss.

3-) What order had the two soldiers received?

They had been commanded to go to a far city.

4-) What lack was linked with the left road besides loss?

It offered no real advantage.

5-) What happened to the unfortunate soldier's emotional state during the journey?

He became fearful, burdened, and restless.

6-) How does the passage describe the effect of that load on his inner life?

The outer weight was small, but it saved him from much heavier inner pain.

7-) What happened to him even though he avoided the smaller burden?

He fell into much greater emotional and spiritual burdens.

8-) What did the unlucky soldier gain right away by leaving the army?

He got rid of carrying the physical load.

9-) How does the passage compare the two soldiers' hearts?

One had a heart at ease, while the other had a heart weighed down.

10-) How did the obedient soldier travel emotionally and morally?

He traveled with peace, courage, and self-respect.

8sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two opposite ways of life are compared in the opening sentence of the passage?

Worship is compared with vice and careless sinful living.

2-) Where were the soldiers headed?

They were going to a distant city.

3-) How were the two roads alike?

They were equal in distance.

4-) What did he say about the left-hand road's results for most people?

Most people who choose it lose out.

5-) What does the phrase about the weapon defeating enemies suggest?

It suggests the traveler on the right path is equipped to face threats successfully.

6-) How does the story show that discipline can actually protect a person?

The obedient soldier's equipment and order helped him travel safely and honorably.

7-) What happened to his heart after that choice?

It became burdened with heavy pressure and debt-like need.

8-) How does the ending of each soldier show a clear contrast?

One is honored and rewarded, while the other is punished in disgrace.

9-) How did he behave toward people and events on the road?

He begged from people and was frightened by everything around him.

10-) What does the reward at the end tell us about the first soldier?

It shows his loyalty and obedience were valued and accepted.

8sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this story, what choice were the two soldiers forced to make?

They had to choose between a disciplined road and an undisciplined road.

2-) What job or role did both travelers have?

They were soldiers.

3-) According to the man at the fork, what usually happens to people who take the left path?

Most of them end up losing.

4-) What did travelers on the left road not have to carry?

They did not carry supplies or weapons.

5-) Why can lack of authority become dangerous in the story?

Because without order, a person is left weak and unprotected.

6-) How is the first soldier described by the passage?

He is described as fortunate.

7-) Which soldier was more independent in the best sense?

The obedient soldier was, because he did not need to beg or fear others.

8-) What does his begging from everyone show?

It shows weakness, dependence, and loss of freedom.

9-) What value is praised through the soldier who obeyed?

Faithful obedience to rightful command.

10-) What happened when the deserter reached the city?

He was punished for rebellion and leaving his duty.

8sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say a person will understand by listening to this comparison?

He will understand the great gain in worship and the great harm in sinful living.

2-) What made the right-hand road seem more difficult at first glance?

It required carrying gear and living under command.

3-) What percentage of travelers on the right road were said to gain profit and peace?

Nine out of ten.

4-) Why was the right path harder on the outside?

It required the travelers to carry provisions and a weapon and to stay under discipline.

5-) Why might the left road seem easier at first?

It looked lighter and more comfortable because there was less to carry.

6-) What surprising result came from carrying the load?

A small physical burden kept him from huge emotional and spiritual burdens.

7-) What did the first soldier lose outwardly?

He had to accept carrying a noticeable load.

8-) What final result matched his bad choice?

He was treated as a rebel and deserter.

9-) Why was he punished at the end?

He had abandoned his duty and rebelled.

10-) What happened to the obedient soldier at the end?

He received an honorable reward for faithfully doing his duty.

8sinif short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What Qur'anic command is placed near the beginning of this passage?

It is a call for people to worship.

2-) What important place did they reach on their journey?

They came to a place where the road split in two.

3-) Which soldier thought beyond the outside appearance of the road?

The fortunate soldier did.

4-) Why is it important that both roads are equal in distance?

It shows the better path is not longer, only different in character and result.

5-) How did the fortunate soldier respond to the advice?

He accepted the disciplined path and carried the required load.

6-) What burden did the fortunate soldier carry in a physical sense?

He carried a moderate load on his back.

7-) What was his reason for leaving?

He did not want to submit to discipline.

8-) What did the second soldier avoid outwardly?

He avoided carrying the load.

9-) What actions showed his weakness during the trip?

He begged from people and trembled at things around him.