

8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure - Set 1

1-) In the comparison, who does the ruler stand for? (7 kelime)

He

2-) What does the daily amount of gold teach about how Muslims should view time? (15 kelime)

It teaches that

3-) What does the royal land represent? (3 kelime)

4-) What are the stages of the journey named in the passage? (11 kelime)

They are

5-) According to the passage, why do people travel that journey at different rates? (16 kelime)

Their speed differs based

6-) What does the ticket symbolize, and why is that symbol meaningful? (16 kelime)

It symbolizes the prescribed

7-) Why is it described as a great loss to spend almost the whole day on worldly life and not give one hour to the hereafter? (21 kelime)

Because the worldly life passes

8-) In the example about money, what choice is shown as wiser? (14 kelime)

Giving the smaller

9-) How can a person's other daily actions become like worship? (17 kelime)

If the person prays

10-) How can all of a praying person's other actions become beneficial for the next life? (10 kelime)

With sincere

8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure - Set 2

1-) What is the main message of this passage about the prescribed prayers? (22 kelime)

The message is that prayer

2-) In the explanation of the comparison, who is the ruler? (8 kelime)

The ruler

3-) What kind of person is represented by the other servant? (9 kelime)

He represents

4-) What does the passage compare to Paradise? (7 kelime)

It

5-) What affects how quickly people cross that journey? (10 kelime)

Their deeds

6-) What determines how people move through that journey? (10 kelime)

Their actions

7-) What does the passage say is enough time for all five prayers and purification? (6 kelime)

It

8-) What is wrong with giving all one's attention to short worldly life and neglecting prayer? (14 kelime)

It is shortsighted

9-) What three inner parts of a person are said to receive comfort from prayer? (7 kelime)

The

10-) How can everyday actions like study, work, or rest become rewarding? (18 kelime)

If the person keeps

8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure - Set 3

1-) Who does the ruler in the comparison symbolize? (7 kelime)

He

2-) In the comparison, which servant is the better example to follow? (11 kelime)

The servant

3-) What does Paradise correspond to in the comparison? (5 kelime)

It

4-) What stopping place on the way is symbolized by the station? (4 kelime)

It

5-) Based on the passage, what helps some people cross that path more easily? (10 kelime)

Strong righteous

6-) What two things are said to affect that speed? (7 kelime)

A

7-) How much of the day is said to be needed for prayer and wudu together? (2 kelime)

8-) What moral judgment is made about ignoring prayer while living for worldly things? (13 kelime)

It is judged

9-) Besides reward in the next life, what immediate emotional or spiritual effect does prayer have? (8 kelime)

It gives

10-) How does the passage describe prayer in relation to physical effort? (10 kelime)

It describes

8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure - Set 4

1-) What two kinds of people are contrasted through the two servants? (9 kelime)

People who

2-) What do the twenty-four gold pieces stand for? (13 kelime)

They stand for

3-) What does the stop on the road represent? (4 kelime)

It

4-) What journey is being described in the passage? (18 kelime)

It is the human

5-) Why would prayer be a wise use of time, according to this passage? (16 kelime)

Because a small amount

6-) About how much time each day is said to be enough for the five prayers and wudu? (3 kelime)

7-) What criticism is made of spending twenty-three hours only on worldly matters? (14 kelime)

The passage says

8-) What benefits of prayer are mentioned for the inner self and the body? (19 kelime)

Prayer brings comfort to

9-) What does the passage say about prayer and the body? (9 kelime)

It says

10-) How can ordinary daily actions gain the value of worship? (14 kelime)

They gain that

8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure - Set 5

1-) At the start of the passage, what personal struggle is mentioned along with speaking to people who do not pray? (13 kelime)

The struggle of

2-) In the comparison, what kind of person is represented by the servant who does his duty well? (10 kelime)

He represents

3-) What is represented by the twenty-four coins given each day? (7 kelime)

They

4-) What does the passage teach about the trip to the next life? (19 kelime)

It teaches that everyone

5-) What full journey is the passage asking readers to remember? (15 kelime)

The journey from

6-) Why is prayer compared to a ticket? (13 kelime)

Because it is

7-) Why is one hour a day presented as a small price? (17 kelime)

Because it is only

8-) What lesson comes from the comparison with the lottery? (19 kelime)

A sensible person should

9-) What kind of relief does prayer bring? (13 kelime)

It brings inner

10-) What is one important conclusion of the whole passage? (14 kelime)

Prayer is a

8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure - Set 6

1-) What is the passage mainly trying to convince the reader to do? (12 kelime)

It is trying

2-) Why are the twenty-four coins an important symbol in the passage? (14 kelime)

They show that

3-) What future destination is symbolized by the royal estate? (3 kelime)

4-) What larger path does the passage describe beyond the grave? (10 kelime)

It describes

5-) Why are some people described as crossing great distances very quickly? (13 kelime)

To show that

6-) What act of worship is represented by the ticket? (4 kelime)

The

7-) What else is included in the one-hour estimate besides the prayers themselves? (6 kelime)

Purification

8-) How does the example of risky gambling support the argument? (19 kelime)

It shows how foolish

9-) What does prayer do for the spirit, heart, and mind? (6 kelime)

It

10-) What can happen to the rest of a believer's daily activities if the intention is sound? (7 kelime)

They

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the comparison, who does the ruler stand for?

He stands for our Lord and Creator.

2-) What does the daily amount of gold teach about how Muslims should view time?

It teaches that time is precious and should be spent for a purpose that lasts.

3-) What does the royal land represent?

It represents Paradise.

4-) What are the stages of the journey named in the passage?

They are going to the grave, then resurrection, then the hereafter.

5-) According to the passage, why do people travel that journey at different rates?

Their speed differs based on what they do and how strong their fear of Allah is.

6-) What does the ticket symbolize, and why is that symbol meaningful?

It symbolizes the prescribed prayers, because prayer is what helps a person on the journey ahead.

7-) Why is it described as a great loss to spend almost the whole day on worldly life and not give one hour to the hereafter?

Because the worldly life passes quickly, while the hereafter is long and lasting, so neglecting prayer harms a person's own soul.

8-) In the example about money, what choice is shown as wiser?

Giving the smaller share for the almost certain lasting gain is shown as wiser.

9-) How can a person's other daily actions become like worship?

If the person prays and has the right intention, his other acts can also count like worship.

10-) How can all of a praying person's other actions become beneficial for the next life?

With sincere intention, those actions can also count as worship.

8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main message of this passage about the prescribed prayers?

The message is that prayer is worth a small amount of time but brings great benefit for this life and the next.

2-) In the explanation of the comparison, who is the ruler?

The ruler is Allah, our Sustainer and Creator.

3-) What kind of person is represented by the other servant?

He represents a heedless person who leaves the prayers.

4-) What does the passage compare to Paradise?

It compares Paradise to a royal domain.

5-) What affects how quickly people cross that journey?

Their deeds and their level of fearing Allah affect it.

6-) What determines how people move through that journey?

Their actions and the strength of their taqwa determine it.

7-) What does the passage say is enough time for all five prayers and purification?

It says one hour is enough.

8-) What is wrong with giving all one's attention to short worldly life and neglecting prayer?

It is shortsighted and harmful because it ignores the life that does not end.

9-) What three inner parts of a person are said to receive comfort from prayer?

The spirit, the heart, and the mind.

10-) How can everyday actions like study, work, or rest become rewarding?

If the person keeps the right intention and fulfills prayer, those actions can also become acts of worship.

8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who does the ruler in the comparison symbolize?

He symbolizes Allah, the Sustainer and Creator.

2-) In the comparison, which servant is the better example to follow?

The servant who is devoted to prayer is the better example.

3-) What does Paradise correspond to in the comparison?

It is the royal estate.

4-) What stopping place on the way is symbolized by the station?

It symbolizes the grave.

5-) Based on the passage, what helps some people cross that path more easily?

Strong righteous actions and strong fear of Allah help them.

6-) What two things are said to affect that speed?

A person's deeds and fear of Allah.

7-) How much of the day is said to be needed for prayer and wudu together?

One hour.

8-) What moral judgment is made about ignoring prayer while living for worldly things?

It is judged to be a serious mistake against one's own best interest.

9-) Besides reward in the next life, what immediate emotional or spiritual effect does prayer have?

It gives peace and relief inside a person.

10-) How does the passage describe prayer in relation to physical effort?

It describes prayer as not being burdensome for the body.

8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What two kinds of people are contrasted through the two servants?

People who faithfully pray and people who neglect prayer.

2-) What do the twenty-four gold pieces stand for?

They stand for the twenty-four hours of a day in a person's life.

3-) What does the stop on the road represent?

It represents the grave.

4-) What journey is being described in the passage?

It is the human journey from this life to the grave, then to resurrection and the next life.

5-) Why would prayer be a wise use of time, according to this passage?

Because a small amount of time spent on prayer prepares a person for an endless future.

6-) About how much time each day is said to be enough for the five prayers and wudu?

About one hour.

7-) What criticism is made of spending twenty-three hours only on worldly matters?

The passage says this is a serious loss and a form of wronging oneself.

8-) What benefits of prayer are mentioned for the inner self and the body?

Prayer brings comfort to the spirit, heart, and mind, and it is not a heavy burden on the body.

9-) What does the passage say about prayer and the body?

It says prayer is not hard on the body.

10-) How can ordinary daily actions gain the value of worship?

They gain that value when a praying person does them with the proper intention.

8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) At the start of the passage, what personal struggle is mentioned along with speaking to people who do not pray?

The struggle of the self that does not want to pray is mentioned.

2-) In the comparison, what kind of person is represented by the servant who does his duty well?

He represents a devoted believer who performs the prayers eagerly.

3-) What is represented by the twenty-four coins given each day?

They represent the hours of daily life.

4-) What does the passage teach about the trip to the next life?

It teaches that everyone will make the journey, but not all will move through it in the same way.

5-) What full journey is the passage asking readers to remember?

The journey from this worldly life to the grave, then to resurrection and the hereafter.

6-) Why is prayer compared to a ticket?

Because it is the means that prepares a person for the journey ahead.

7-) Why is one hour a day presented as a small price?

Because it is only a small part of the whole day for a huge and lasting reward.

8-) What lesson comes from the comparison with the lottery?

A sensible person should choose what has far greater and more certain benefit, not the option with weak odds.

9-) What kind of relief does prayer bring?

It brings inner relief and calm to a person's spiritual and mental side.

10-) What is one important conclusion of the whole passage?

Prayer is a small effort with enormous benefit, so neglecting it is deeply unwise.

8sinif short-words-p11-fourth-word-explaining-the-comparison-and-its-rational-measure - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the passage mainly trying to convince the reader to do?

It is trying to convince the reader to perform the prescribed prayers.

2-) Why are the twenty-four coins an important symbol in the passage?

They show that every day's hours are like precious wealth given to a person.

3-) What future destination is symbolized by the royal estate?

It symbolizes Paradise.

4-) What larger path does the passage describe beyond the grave?

It describes the path to resurrection and then the hereafter.

5-) Why are some people described as crossing great distances very quickly?

To show that the righteous may pass the stages ahead with great ease.

6-) What act of worship is represented by the ticket?

The five daily prayers.

7-) What else is included in the one-hour estimate besides the prayers themselves?

Purification before prayer is included too.

8-) How does the example of risky gambling support the argument?

It shows how foolish it is to invest heavily in something doubtful while neglecting something with very strong promise.

9-) What does prayer do for the spirit, heart, and mind?

It gives them peace and ease.

10-) What can happen to the rest of a believer's daily activities if the intention is sound?

They can be counted as worship too.