

8sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 1

1-) What is the main idea of this passage? (24 kelime)

It teaches that giving ourselves and

2-) According to the passage, what does Allah receive from the believers? (6 kelime)

Their

3-) What is promised to believers in return? (1 kelime)

4-) How is this relationship described in the passage? (8 kelime)

It is

5-) What does the passage ask the reader to do if he wants to understand this matter? (10 kelime)

It asks

8sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 2

1-) Which group of people is mentioned in the verse? (2 kelime)

2-) What does the passage say about the benefit of this trade? (7 kelime)

It

3-) What does the passage say about the status of a person who does this? (8 kelime)

It says

4-) Besides a servant of Allah, what other role is mentioned? (4 kelime)

A

5-) What does the passage say about the rank of the one who gives these to Allah? (6 kelime)

It

8sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 3

1-) What is being compared to a business deal in this passage? (7 kelime)

Giving

2-) What makes this deal special according to the passage? (7 kelime)

It

3-) What reward is connected to this exchange? (1 kelime)

4-) How does the passage encourage the reader to think deeply about the verse? (11 kelime)

It invites

5-) Why does the passage tell the reader to listen to a comparison? (13 kelime)

Because the comparison

8sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 4

1-) What does the passage say about giving property to Allah? (13 kelime)

It presents it

2-) What word in the passage shows that the reward is certain and serious? (10 kelime)

The word

3-) What does the passage teach about being Allah's slave? (12 kelime)

It teaches that

4-) Why is the comparison useful for students reading this passage? (9 kelime)

It makes

5-) What should the reader expect after this short introduction? (12 kelime)

The reader should

8sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 5

1-) What does the verse say Allah has done with the believers' persons and property? (4 kelime)

Allah

2-) What is the result of that purchase for the believers? (4 kelime)

They

3-) What learning method is used right after the verse is mentioned? (6 kelime)

A

4-) What two things are included in the exchange mentioned in the verse? (7 kelime)

A

8sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 6

1-) What is the title of the marked passage? (3 kelime)

2-) In whose name does the passage begin? (13 kelime)

It begins in

3-) What does the verse say belongs to the believers in the end? (7 kelime)

Paradise

4-) What two honorable roles are mentioned for the person who gives himself and his property to Allah? (7 kelime)

He

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main idea of this passage?

It teaches that giving ourselves and our belongings to Allah is the best deal because it brings great reward, honor, and nearness to Him.

2-) According to the passage, what does Allah receive from the believers?

Their own selves and their property.

3-) What is promised to believers in return?

Paradise.

4-) How is this relationship described in the passage?

It is described like a trade or exchange.

5-) What does the passage ask the reader to do if he wants to understand this matter?

It asks him to listen to the comparison that follows.

8sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Which group of people is mentioned in the verse?

The believers.

2-) What does the passage say about the benefit of this trade?

It says the trade is very profitable.

3-) What does the passage say about the status of a person who does this?

It says this person has an honorable rank.

4-) Besides a servant of Allah, what other role is mentioned?

A soldier of Allah.

5-) What does the passage say about the rank of the one who gives these to Allah?

It says that rank is honorable.

8sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is being compared to a business deal in this passage?

Giving one's self and wealth to Allah.

2-) What makes this deal special according to the passage?

It brings both great gain and honor.

3-) What reward is connected to this exchange?

Paradise.

4-) How does the passage encourage the reader to think deeply about the verse?

It invites the reader to understand the idea through an example.

5-) Why does the passage tell the reader to listen to a comparison?

Because the comparison helps explain clearly how beneficial and honorable this exchange is.

8sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage say about giving property to Allah?

It presents it as part of a blessed exchange that leads to Paradise.

2-) What word in the passage shows that the reward is certain and serious?

The word showing certainty is “verily,” which gives strong emphasis.

3-) What does the passage teach about being Allah’s slave?

It teaches that this is an honorable position, not a low one.

4-) Why is the comparison useful for students reading this passage?

It makes a deep religious idea easier to understand.

5-) What should the reader expect after this short introduction?

The reader should expect a comparison that explains the meaning more clearly.

8sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the verse say Allah has done with the believers' persons and property?

Allah has bought them.

2-) What is the result of that purchase for the believers?

They will have Paradise.

3-) What learning method is used right after the verse is mentioned?

A comparison or parable is used.

4-) What two things are included in the exchange mentioned in the verse?

A person's self and a person's property.

8sinif short-words-p15-sixth-word-selling-the-nafs-and-property-to-allah-the-kings-trust - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the title of the marked passage?

The Sixth Word.

2-) In whose name does the passage begin?

It begins in the name of Allah, the Most Merciful, the Most Compassionate.

3-) What does the verse say belongs to the believers in the end?

Paradise belongs to them in the end.

4-) What two honorable roles are mentioned for the person who gives himself and his property to Allah?

He becomes Allah's servant and Allah's soldier.