

8sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 1

1-) What is the first gain mentioned in the passage? (12 kelime)

A temporary life

2-) What do the passing moments of life become in the hereafter? (8 kelime)

They become

3-) What does the passage say happens to each body part and sense in the third profit? (5 kelime)

Its

4-) Why does the passage say some sinful people run to drinking or useless fun? (13 kelime)

They want to

5-) What temptation makes the eye fall from its proper place? (8 kelime)

Chasing a

6-) How is the tongue lowered when it serves only appetite? (10 kelime)

It becomes

7-) What are readers told to do with the other limbs and abilities not named one by one? (11 kelime)

Compare them

8-) What is the healthy response to this weakness? (10 kelime)

To depend

9-) What happens inside a person who does not do this? (6 kelime)

The

10-) Who agrees on this fifth gain according to the passage? (11 kelime)

People of

8sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 2

1-) Into what does the passage say temporary property is changed in the first gain? (6 kelime)
It

2-) What natural example helps explain how brief deeds can have lasting results? (6 kelime)
Seeds

3-) What is intelligence compared to at the start of its example? (3 kelime)

4-) When intelligence is used for Allah, what does it help open? (14 kelime)
It helps a

5-) What destination does such a rightly used mind help prepare for? (2 kelime)

6-) What body part is linked with taste in the next example? (2 kelime)

7-) Why does the passage directly call on intelligence, eye, and tongue? (14 kelime)
To make the

8-) What kind of inner nature does faith build in a believer? (4 kelime)
One

9-) What protects a person from being crushed by life according to the passage? (7 kelime)
Dependence

10-) According to the fifth gain, when will the reward of worship be especially important? (6 kelime)
At

8sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 3

1-) What change happens to a short worldly life in the first profit? (5 kelime)

It

2-) Besides the eternal world, where else do those good results show a comforting side? (4 kelime)

In

3-) What does the third profit teach about the human body and senses? (12 kelime)

Their value rises

4-) What behavior is mentioned as an escape from that pain? (6 kelime)

Turning

5-) What happens to the eye when it is used for selfish desires? (12 kelime)

It falls to

6-) What honorable description is given to taste when used properly? (10 kelime)

It becomes

7-) What result does this comparison lead to for a believer? (5 kelime)

A

8-) What is the main reason believers and unbelievers end up with different values? (18 kelime)

The believer uses Allah's

9-) What extreme moral decline is mentioned as a possible result? (2 kelime)

10-) What will be returned as fruits of Paradise? (13 kelime)

The reward for

8sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 4

1-) What is the first benefit of giving one's temporary life and property to Allah? (7 kelime)
They

2-) What comes out of those moments in the life to come? (4 kelime)
Lasting

3-) What is the main point of the third profit? (12 kelime)
Each faculty and

4-) How does the passage explain some sinful people's search for distraction? (11 kelime)
They try

5-) What does the eye become when it is used rightly? (12 kelime)
A way to

6-) What raises the eye to a noble use? (11 kelime)
Using it

7-) What thinking skill are readers asked to use after these examples? (1 kelime)

8-) What is betrayal of trust in this passage? (12 kelime)
Using Allah's gifts

9-) What three attitudes toward Allah protect a person in that condition? (4 kelime)
Reliance,

10-) What do spiritually enlightened people agree upon in the fifth benefit? (13 kelime)
Worship done by

8sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 5

1-) In the first profit, what happens to life that is fading away? (6 kelime)

It

2-) What lesson comes from the example of seeds and flowers? (14 kelime)

Small acts in

3-) What example is given first to explain this third gain? (2 kelime)

4-) What wrong coping methods are mentioned for those hurt by such misuse? (4 kelime)

Intoxicants

5-) What does the passage present the eye as when used correctly? (10 kelime)

A viewer

6-) What happens to taste when it is used only for the stomach and the nafs? (10 kelime)

It drops

7-) What makes the unbeliever fit for Hell? (9 kelime)

Betraying the

8-) What reality about human life is stressed in the fourth profit? (13 kelime)

Humans cannot handle

9-) What strong warning is given about what this inner suffering can do to a person? (12 kelime)

It can overwhelm

10-) When will those rewards be presented? (6 kelime)

At

8sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 6

1-) What is the first of the five profits in the passage? (12 kelime)

Temporary possessions and

2-) What is the second benefit named clearly in the passage? (2 kelime)

3-) When intelligence serves the nafs, what two time-related pains does it bring? (11 kelime)

Sadness about

4-) What does the passage suggest this harmful state may drive people toward? (6 kelime)

Escaping

5-) What wrong use of the eye is criticized? (7 kelime)

Looking

6-) What low level does taste fall to when it is used only for appetite? (8 kelime)

It becomes

7-) How is taste honored when used for Allah? (10 kelime)

It becomes

8-) What is the unbeliever's problem in this comparison? (8 kelime)

Misusing the

9-) What brings peace to such a weak and needy person? (9 kelime)

Relying on

10-) According to the fifth profit, who confirms the truth of this reward? (8 kelime)

The spiritually

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first gain mentioned in the passage?

A temporary life becomes lasting when it is used for Allah's sake.

2-) What do the passing moments of life become in the hereafter?

They become lasting fruits of blessing and happiness.

3-) What does the passage say happens to each body part and sense in the third profit?

Its value becomes much greater.

4-) Why does the passage say some sinful people run to drinking or useless fun?

They want to escape the pain and pressure caused by their troubled minds.

5-) What temptation makes the eye fall from its proper place?

Chasing a few temporary beauties out of desire.

6-) How is the tongue lowered when it serves only appetite?

It becomes nothing more than a servant for the stomach.

7-) What are readers told to do with the other limbs and abilities not named one by one?

Compare them to these examples and understand the same rule applies.

8-) What is the healthy response to this weakness?

To depend on Allah, trust Him, and submit to Him.

9-) What happens inside a person who does not do this?

The conscience remains restless and overwhelmed.

10-) Who agrees on this fifth gain according to the passage?

People of spiritual insight who have seen the truth of things.

8sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Into what does the passage say temporary property is changed in the first gain?

It is changed into something everlasting.

2-) What natural example helps explain how brief deeds can have lasting results?

Seeds that later grow into flowers.

3-) What is intelligence compared to at the start of its example?

A useful instrument.

4-) When intelligence is used for Allah, what does it help open?

It helps a person understand the hidden treasures of mercy and wisdom in creation.

5-) What destination does such a rightly used mind help prepare for?

Eternal happiness.

6-) What body part is linked with taste in the next example?

The tongue.

7-) Why does the passage directly call on intelligence, eye, and tongue?

To make the reader notice the huge difference between low use and noble use.

8-) What kind of inner nature does faith build in a believer?

One suitable for Paradise.

9-) What protects a person from being crushed by life according to the passage?

Dependence on Allah through trust and submission.

10-) According to the fifth gain, when will the reward of worship be especially important?

At the time of greatest need.

8sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What change happens to a short worldly life in the first profit?

It gains an everlasting result.

2-) Besides the eternal world, where else do those good results show a comforting side?

In the Intermediate Realm.

3-) What does the third profit teach about the human body and senses?

Their value rises greatly when they are used in the right way.

4-) What behavior is mentioned as an escape from that pain?

Turning to intoxicants or pointless entertainment.

5-) What happens to the eye when it is used for selfish desires?

It falls to a low use by chasing passing beauty and desire.

6-) What honorable description is given to taste when used properly?

It becomes a thankful supervisor recognizing Allah's mercy in provision.

7-) What result does this comparison lead to for a believer?

A nature suited for Paradise.

8-) What is the main reason believers and unbelievers end up with different values?

The believer uses Allah's trust in the way Allah allows, while the unbeliever misuses it for the nafs.

9-) What extreme moral decline is mentioned as a possible result?

Becoming beast-like.

10-) What will be returned as fruits of Paradise?

The reward for worship and glorifying Allah done by one's limbs and faculties.

8sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first benefit of giving one's temporary life and property to Allah?

They become a source of everlasting gain.

2-) What comes out of those moments in the life to come?

Lasting blessings and joy.

3-) What is the main point of the third profit?

Each faculty and sense becomes far more precious when used for Allah.

4-) How does the passage explain some sinful people's search for distraction?

They try to flee the distress caused by their own minds.

5-) What does the eye become when it is used rightly?

A way to read the signs in creation and witness Allah's artistry.

6-) What raises the eye to a noble use?

Using it within Allah's limits to observe His signs in creation.

7-) What thinking skill are readers asked to use after these examples?

Comparison.

8-) What is betrayal of trust in this passage?

Using Allah's gifts for the nafs instead of for their true purpose.

9-) What three attitudes toward Allah protect a person in that condition?

Reliance, trust, and submission.

10-) What do spiritually enlightened people agree upon in the fifth benefit?

Worship done by one's body and faculties will return as reward in Paradise.

8sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the first profit, what happens to life that is fading away?

It is turned into eternal gain.

2-) What lesson comes from the example of seeds and flowers?

Small acts in this life can grow into great reward in the next life.

3-) What example is given first to explain this third gain?

The intelligence.

4-) What wrong coping methods are mentioned for those hurt by such misuse?

Intoxicants and shallow amusement.

5-) What does the passage present the eye as when used correctly?

A viewer of Allah's signs and artistry in the world.

6-) What happens to taste when it is used only for the stomach and the nafs?

It drops to a very low job, serving only appetite.

7-) What makes the unbeliever fit for Hell?

Betraying the trust by using it for the nafs.

8-) What reality about human life is stressed in the fourth profit?

Humans cannot handle life well by themselves because they are weak and needy.

9-) What strong warning is given about what this inner suffering can do to a person?

It can overwhelm the person or reduce him to a beast-like state.

10-) When will those rewards be presented?

At the time of greatest need.

8sinif short-words-p18-sixth-word-five-degrees-of-profit-from-selling-the-trust - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the first of the five profits in the passage?

Temporary possessions and life gain an everlasting result when devoted to Allah.

2-) What is the second benefit named clearly in the passage?

Receiving Paradise.

3-) When intelligence serves the nafs, what two time-related pains does it bring?

Sadness about what is gone and fear about what is coming.

4-) What does the passage suggest this harmful state may drive people toward?

Escaping into drinking or empty entertainment.

5-) What wrong use of the eye is criticized?

Looking at short-lived attractions with selfish desire.

6-) What low level does taste fall to when it is used only for appetite?

It becomes like a servant of the stomach.

7-) How is taste honored when used for Allah?

It becomes a thankful recognizer of divine mercy in food.

8-) What is the unbeliever's problem in this comparison?

Misusing the trust for instinct and selfish desire.

9-) What brings peace to such a weak and needy person?

Relying on Allah, trusting Him, and submitting to Him.

10-) According to the fifth profit, who confirms the truth of this reward?

The spiritually elect who have seen reality unveiled.