

8sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 1

1-) What is the main idea of this passage about human beings? (15 kelime)

It explains that

2-) How does the passage describe a person's strength? (8 kelime)

It says

3-) What kinds of things affect a person deeply according to the passage? (14 kelime)

Many events, losses,

4-) What does the passage say about the number of hardships and enemies people face? (5 kelime)

It

5-) How are human needs described? (5 kelime)

They

6-) What does the passage say about a person's ability to carry life's duties easily? (13 kelime)

It says a

7-) Why does a person feel pain when things in the world fade away? (16 kelime)

Because human nature connects

8-) What does the passage say reason shows a person? (8 kelime)

It shows

9-) Why can a person still not reach everything he hopes for? (19 kelime)

Because his ability is

10-) What picture of human life is built by all these descriptions together? (14 kelime)

It shows that

8sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 2

1-) According to the passage, what is one basic quality of human nature? (5 kelime)

Human

2-) What happens to a person emotionally because of this weakness? (9 kelime)

He becomes

3-) Besides weakness, what other lack does the passage mention? (8 kelime)

It mentions

4-) What is the relationship between human power and human troubles in the passage? (10 kelime)

Human power

5-) How does the passage compare what a person has with what a person needs? (15 kelime)

It says what

6-) What does the passage say about effort and responsibility? (17 kelime)

It says people are

7-) How does being human connect a person to the wider world? (14 kelime)

It ties him

8-) Why do the loss and passing of familiar things hurt a person? (10 kelime)

Because he

9-) What does the mind allow a person to see beyond everyday life? (10 kelime)

It allows

10-) What limits keep a person from fully reaching those goals? (12 kelime)

Short life, little

8sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 3

1-) Which human quality in the passage makes a person easy to affect? (7 kelime)

His

2-) What effect do outside events have on such a person? (6 kelime)

They

3-) How does the passage describe a person's ability to defend himself from harm? (8 kelime)

It shows

4-) What does the passage suggest about the number of things a person needs in life? (7 kelime)

It

5-) How are a person's natural ability and life's duties compared? (15 kelime)

The person is

6-) In what way does human nature increase emotional pain? (13 kelime)

It makes a

7-) What kinds of things especially bring this pain? (9 kelime)

Things a

8-) What hopeful side of the human mind is mentioned in the passage? (9 kelime)

The mind

9-) What sad contrast follows that hopeful side? (14 kelime)

A person still

10-) What overall lesson about the human condition can be inferred from the whole passage? (16 kelime)

Human beings have big

8sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 4

1-) According to the passage, how strong is a human being by nature? (8 kelime)

By nature,

2-) What shows that human weakness is not only physical in this passage? (14 kelime)

The passage says

3-) What does the passage teach about the number of dangers around a person? (8 kelime)

It teaches

4-) How does the passage describe human neediness? (13 kelime)

It describes people

5-) What does the passage say about a person's energy and skill for life's burdens? (16 kelime)

It says he is

6-) Why does a person suffer when familiar things disappear? (12 kelime)

Because his human

7-) What part of a person makes him think about great goals? (3 kelime)

8-) What four limits are named that make reaching those goals difficult? (9 kelime)

Limited reach,

9-) What contrast appears between human hopes and human ability? (17 kelime)

A person can desire

10-) If you had to summarize the passage in one sentence, what would you say? (20 kelime)

It says that human beings

8sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 5

1-) What does the passage first say about the natural condition of a person? (8 kelime)

It says

2-) Because of this condition, how does a person respond to many events around him? (8 kelime)

He is

3-) What does the passage add about human power? (8 kelime)

It adds

4-) How does that small power relate to the many calamities mentioned? (13 kelime)

It means the

5-) What is said about a person's needs? (5 kelime)

A

6-) What two personal limits are mentioned before speaking about life's heavy duties? (5 kelime)

Laziness

7-) How does human connection to the universe affect emotions? (15 kelime)

It causes a

8-) What does reason show a person that is bigger than daily survival? (8 kelime)

It shows

9-) Why is there a struggle between those aims and real life? (11 kelime)

Because a

10-) What kind of understanding does this passage build about human beings? (19 kelime)

It builds an understanding

8sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 6

1-) What human trait is emphasized at the beginning of the passage? (4 kelime)

Human

2-) What is one result of that weakness in daily life? (9 kelime)

A person

3-) What other limitation, besides weakness, does the passage mention early on? (5 kelime)

It

4-) What does the passage say comes along with that lack of power? (8 kelime)

Many disasters

5-) What imbalance does the passage describe between what a person needs and what he has? (7 kelime)

He

6-) How does the passage portray human ability in carrying out responsibilities? (11 kelime)

It portrays

7-) Why are people affected by the loss of things around them? (13 kelime)

Because being human

8-) What does a person's reason help him recognize? (9 kelime)

It helps

9-) Which limits stop him from fully reaching those benefits? (12 kelime)

His short life,

10-) What is the best overall conclusion from this passage alone? (17 kelime)

Human beings are created

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main idea of this passage about human beings?

It explains that people are naturally weak, needy, limited, and easily affected by many troubles.

2-) How does the passage describe a person's strength?

It says a person has very little strength.

3-) What kinds of things affect a person deeply according to the passage?

Many events, losses, and painful situations can touch the person and make him sad.

4-) What does the passage say about the number of hardships and enemies people face?

It says they are many.

5-) How are human needs described?

They are described as numerous.

6-) What does the passage say about a person's ability to carry life's duties easily?

It says a person is not very capable and finds life's duties heavy.

7-) Why does a person feel pain when things in the world fade away?

Because human nature connects him to other beings and to things he loves and knows well.

8-) What does the passage say reason shows a person?

It shows him high goals and lasting results.

9-) Why can a person still not reach everything he hopes for?

Because his ability is limited, his life is short, his strength is small, and his patience is not great.

10-) What picture of human life is built by all these descriptions together?

It shows that human life is full of weakness, need, limits, and emotional pain.

8sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what is one basic quality of human nature?

Human nature is very weak.

2-) What happens to a person emotionally because of this weakness?

He becomes hurt, saddened, and troubled by many things.

3-) Besides weakness, what other lack does the passage mention?

It mentions that a person has little power.

4-) What is the relationship between human power and human troubles in the passage?

Human power is small, but troubles and enemies are many.

5-) How does the passage compare what a person has with what a person needs?

It says what a person has is limited, but what he needs is a lot.

6-) What does the passage say about effort and responsibility?

It says people are not naturally strong in ability or effort, yet they still carry heavy responsibilities.

7-) How does being human connect a person to the wider world?

It ties him to the rest of creation, so changes in it affect him.

8-) Why do the loss and passing of familiar things hurt a person?

Because he is attached to them and feels their absence.

9-) What does the mind allow a person to see beyond everyday life?

It allows him to see noble goals and long-lasting outcomes.

10-) What limits keep a person from fully reaching those goals?

Short life, little power, limited reach, and weak patience hold him back.

8sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Which human quality in the passage makes a person easy to affect?

His weakness makes him easy to affect.

2-) What effect do outside events have on such a person?

They can cause grief and sadness.

3-) How does the passage describe a person's ability to defend himself from harm?

It shows that his ability is very limited.

4-) What does the passage suggest about the number of things a person needs in life?

It suggests that they are very many.

5-) How are a person's natural ability and life's duties compared?

The person is described as limited and slow, while the duties are described as heavy.

6-) In what way does human nature increase emotional pain?

It makes a person connected to many things, so their loss causes pain.

7-) What kinds of things especially bring this pain?

Things a person loves or has become familiar with.

8-) What hopeful side of the human mind is mentioned in the passage?

The mind can recognize high purposes and lasting rewards.

9-) What sad contrast follows that hopeful side?

A person still has limited ability, a short lifetime, small strength, and little patience.

10-) What overall lesson about the human condition can be inferred from the whole passage?

Human beings have big hopes and many connections, but they live with serious limits and weaknesses.

8sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, how strong is a human being by nature?

By nature, a human being is very weak.

2-) What shows that human weakness is not only physical in this passage?

The passage says a person is also emotionally affected and grieved by many things.

3-) What does the passage teach about the number of dangers around a person?

It teaches that dangers and opponents are numerous.

4-) How does the passage describe human neediness?

It describes people as having many needs while lacking enough on their own.

5-) What does the passage say about a person's energy and skill for life's burdens?

It says he is not naturally strong or fully able, even though life's burdens are heavy.

6-) Why does a person suffer when familiar things disappear?

Because his human nature links him to them with love and closeness.

7-) What part of a person makes him think about great goals?

His reason does.

8-) What four limits are named that make reaching those goals difficult?

Limited reach, short life, slight power, and little patience.

9-) What contrast appears between human hopes and human ability?

A person can desire and understand great things, but cannot fully achieve them because of his limits.

10-) If you had to summarize the passage in one sentence, what would you say?

It says that human beings are full of needs and hopes, but they are weak and limited in facing life.

8sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage first say about the natural condition of a person?

It says a person is naturally very weak.

2-) Because of this condition, how does a person respond to many events around him?

He is easily hurt and saddened by them.

3-) What does the passage add about human power?

It adds that human power is extremely small.

4-) How does that small power relate to the many calamities mentioned?

It means the person faces many hardships without having enough power by himself.

5-) What is said about a person's needs?

A person has many needs.

6-) What two personal limits are mentioned before speaking about life's heavy duties?

Laziness and incapability are mentioned.

7-) How does human connection to the universe affect emotions?

It causes a person to feel pain when loved or familiar things decline or disappear.

8-) What does reason show a person that is bigger than daily survival?

It shows him lofty aims and lasting fruits.

9-) Why is there a struggle between those aims and real life?

Because a person's reach, lifespan, strength, and patience are all limited.

10-) What kind of understanding does this passage build about human beings?

It builds an understanding that human beings are deeply dependent, emotionally affected, and unable to do everything they wish.

8sinif short-words-p42-ninth-word-fifth-point-human-weakness-impotence-and-needs - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What human trait is emphasized at the beginning of the passage?

Human weakness is emphasized.

2-) What is one result of that weakness in daily life?

A person becomes sad and troubled by many things.

3-) What other limitation, besides weakness, does the passage mention early on?

It mentions lack of power.

4-) What does the passage say comes along with that lack of power?

Many disasters and enemies come against the person.

5-) What imbalance does the passage describe between what a person needs and what he has?

He has little, but he needs much.

6-) How does the passage portray human ability in carrying out responsibilities?

It portrays human ability as limited while responsibilities are very heavy.

7-) Why are people affected by the loss of things around them?

Because being human ties them to the world and to what they love.

8-) What does a person's reason help him recognize?

It helps him recognize high goals and lasting benefits.

9-) Which limits stop him from fully reaching those benefits?

His short life, weak strength, small capacity, and little patience stop him.

10-) What is the best overall conclusion from this passage alone?

Human beings are created with big needs and hopes, but they are weak, limited, and easily hurt.