

8sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 1

1-) What human condition at night makes the 'Isha prayer especially meaningful in this passage? (22 kelime)

A person feels weak, needy,

2-) How does the example of Ibrahim, peace be upon him, fit the message of 'Isha prayer? (20 kelime)

It teaches the believer not

3-) What does the passage say a person asks from Allah's mercy and guidance? (24 kelime)

He asks for mercy and guidance

4-) What does the passage say causes wounds in a person's heart? (12 kelime)

The leaving, loss,

5-) How does the prayer help with a person's daily record? (14 kelime)

It helps him

6-) How is Allah different from the beings people usually depend on? (14 kelime)

Allah is eternal,

7-) What replaces the harmful beings that make a person afraid? (9 kelime)

The person

8-) What honor does the worshipper gain through his bond with Allah? (15 kelime)

He becomes like

9-) When asking for help in prayer, whose worship and request does the person present? (18 kelime)

He presents it in

10-) How is the Straight Path described? (12 kelime)

It is described

8sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 2

1-) How is the human spirit described at night in this passage? (18 kelime)

It is described as

2-) Why is a saying of Ibrahim, peace be upon him, used in this part? (16 kelime)

It gives an example

3-) What two gifts does the person seek from Allah during 'Isha? (7 kelime)

He

4-) What does the image of pouring out one's woes teach about dua? (15 kelime)

It teaches that

5-) Why is praying before sleep described as a final duty? (13 kelime)

Because it closes

6-) What wrong habit is left behind when the person stands for prayer? (14 kelime)

He stops leaning

7-) Which qualities of Allah are highlighted at the start of the prayer? (10 kelime)

His perfection,

8-) How does connection to Allah change the value of a human being? (13 kelime)

It gives dignity

9-) How does the passage connect the individual worshipper to the whole universe? (16 kelime)

It says he speaks

10-) What is the main cause-and-effect message in the passage? (21 kelime)

Because human beings are weak

8sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 3

1-) What time of day is being explained in the target passage? (11 kelime)

It is

2-) What lesson does the line from Ibrahim, peace be upon him, teach about love? (17 kelime)

It teaches that the

3-) In this passage, what kind of world is this life described as? (13 kelime)

It is described

4-) According to the passage, what leads to inner pain that needs to be bound up? (14 kelime)

The passing away

5-) Why is sleep compared to death here? (13 kelime)

Because both involve

6-) What is gained by ending the day with prayer? (16 kelime)

The person ends his

7-) What does Allah's being perfectly complete and free of need mean for the worshipper? (14 kelime)

It means Allah

8-) Which divine qualities make Allah the true One to praise in this passage? (18 kelime)

His perfection, His freedom

9-) What is being asked for in the prayer for the Straight Path? (16 kelime)

The person asks Allah

10-) Why is the Straight Path important in this passage? (12 kelime)

It is important

8sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha - Set 4

1-) According to the passage, what makes a human being feel helpless at night? (20 kelime)

His weakness, his many needs,

2-) During 'Isha, whom does a person seek as refuge and support? (17 kelime)

He turns to Allah,

3-) How does Allah's guidance affect the believer's future in this passage? (14 kelime)

It lights the

4-) What act is done before sleep, and why is sleep important in this part? (18 kelime)

A person performs 'Isha

5-) What is the purpose of praying at the end of the day besides worship itself? (19 kelime)

It is also to

6-) What replaces the weak creatures from whom a person asks for help? (11 kelime)

The person

7-) Which qualities of Allah in al-Fatiha are especially emphasized here? (17 kelime)

His lordship over everything,

8-) What change happens to a person through saying that he worships Allah alone? (18 kelime)

Even though he is

9-) What two actions are joined together in the phrase about worship and seeking help? (10 kelime)

Serving Allah

10-) What main lesson about 'Isha prayer is taught in this passage? (27 kelime)

'Isha is a time to leave

8sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 5

1-) What is the overall mood of the beginning of this passage about 'Isha? (15 kelime)

It has a

2-) Why is Allah presented as the right One to turn to in a passing world? (14 kelime)

Because Allah alone

3-) What does Allah's guidance do for a believer's present and future? (12 kelime)

It brightens his

4-) What does the phrase about the hidden world suggest about human loneliness? (19 kelime)

It suggests that a

5-) What does "last duty of worship" suggest about the end of the day? (12 kelime)

It suggests the

6-) According to the passage, why should praise not be centered on created beings? (17 kelime)

Because created beings are

7-) What does it mean that Allah is self-sufficient? (9 kelime)

It means

8-) What does saying "You alone we worship and from You alone we seek help" show about dependence? (13 kelime)

It shows that

9-) What is the believer asking for when he asks for the Straight Path? (14 kelime)

He is asking

10-) What is one strong theme running through the whole passage? (19 kelime)

A believer leaves what

8sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha - Set 6

1-) How does the passage describe man's condition when night comes? (17 kelime)

It describes him as

2-) What lesson is taken from the statement of Prophet Ibrahim, peace be upon him? (12 kelime)

The lesson is

3-) What blessings does the worshipper hope to receive from Allah's mercy and guidance? (17 kelime)

He hopes for light,

4-) What does weeping in supplication show about a believer's relationship with Allah? (9 kelime)

It shows

5-) Why is 'Isha linked to the idea of a person's final action before sleep? (18 kelime)

Because it is the

6-) What mistake is corrected by beginning with al-Fatiha? (14 kelime)

The mistake of

7-) What does al-Fatiha teach the worshipper about proper praise? (17 kelime)

It teaches him to

8-) Why does the passage mention the Day of Judgment when speaking about worship? (18 kelime)

It reminds the worshipper

9-) What gives the worshipper honor even though he is outwardly small? (17 kelime)

His relationship with Allah,

10-) What attitude should a Muslim have during 'Isha based on this passage? (16 kelime)

A Muslim should have

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What human condition at night makes the 'Isha prayer especially meaningful in this passage?
A person feels weak, needy, and surrounded by uncertainty, especially when thinking about the future and the many things happening around him.

2-) How does the example of Ibrahim, peace be upon him, fit the message of 'Isha prayer?
It teaches the believer not to give his heart to things that fade away but to turn to Allah instead.

3-) What does the passage say a person asks from Allah's mercy and guidance?

He asks for mercy and guidance that will brighten his life, help his future, and heal the pain caused by losing people and things.

4-) What does the passage say causes wounds in a person's heart?

The leaving, loss, and fading of creatures and friends cause those wounds.

5-) How does the prayer help with a person's daily record?

It helps him end the day in a good way by finishing with worship.

6-) How is Allah different from the beings people usually depend on?

Allah is eternal, powerful, generous, and protective, while created beings are temporary and weak.

7-) What replaces the harmful beings that make a person afraid?

The person seeks safety with the Most Compassionate Protector.

8-) What honor does the worshipper gain through his bond with Allah?

He becomes like an honored guest in the universe and is given a noble standing.

9-) When asking for help in prayer, whose worship and request does the person present?

He presents it in the name of all creation, as if joining the great worship of the universe.

10-) How is the Straight Path described?

It is described as a bright way that leads to everlasting happiness.

8sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How is the human spirit described at night in this passage?

It is described as very weak, very needy, and troubled by darkness and uncertainty about what lies ahead.

2-) Why is a saying of Ibrahim, peace be upon him, used in this part?

It gives an example of rejecting attachment to things that disappear and choosing what is lasting.

3-) What two gifts does the person seek from Allah during 'Isha?

He seeks Allah's mercy and Allah's guidance.

4-) What does the image of pouring out one's woes teach about dua?

It teaches that dua is a place for full honesty, sadness, and hope before Allah.

5-) Why is praying before sleep described as a final duty?

Because it closes the day with worship before a state that resembles death.

6-) What wrong habit is left behind when the person stands for prayer?

He stops leaning his heart on passing people, weak helpers, and frightening worldly powers.

7-) Which qualities of Allah are highlighted at the start of the prayer?

His perfection, His complete independence, His mercy, and His generosity.

8-) How does connection to Allah change the value of a human being?

It gives dignity and rank to someone who otherwise seems small and alone.

9-) How does the passage connect the individual worshipper to the whole universe?

It says he speaks in a way that represents the worship and need of all creatures.

10-) What is the main cause-and-effect message in the passage?

Because human beings are weak and life is temporary, they should turn to Allah alone for praise, help, protection, and guidance.

8sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What time of day is being explained in the target passage?

It is explaining the meaning of the 'Isha prayer at nightfall.

2-) What lesson does the line from Ibrahim, peace be upon him, teach about love?

It teaches that the heart should not be attached in the deepest way to things that disappear.

3-) In this passage, what kind of world is this life described as?

It is described as temporary, passing, and dark compared with what is everlasting.

4-) According to the passage, what leads to inner pain that needs to be bound up?

The passing away and decline of created things and friends lead to that pain.

5-) Why is sleep compared to death here?

Because both involve leaving normal daily activity and entering a state of helplessness.

6-) What is gained by ending the day with prayer?

The person ends his daily deeds on a good note and returns to Allah with worship.

7-) What does Allah's being perfectly complete and free of need mean for the worshipper?

It means Allah alone fully deserves praise and can truly care for His servants.

8-) Which divine qualities make Allah the true One to praise in this passage?

His perfection, His freedom from need, His mercy, and His generosity make Him the true One to praise.

9-) What is being asked for in the prayer for the Straight Path?

The person asks Allah to lead him on the clear way that ends in eternal happiness.

10-) Why is the Straight Path important in this passage?

It is important because it is the clear road to everlasting happiness.

8sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih

a - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what makes a human being feel helpless at night?

His weakness, his many needs, the uncertainty of the future, and the many events around him make him feel helpless.

2-) During 'Isha, whom does a person seek as refuge and support?

He turns to Allah, the One who never passes away and the true Beloved and One worshipped.

3-) How does Allah's guidance affect the believer's future in this passage?

It lights the future and helps remove the darkness and fear connected to it.

4-) What act is done before sleep, and why is sleep important in this part?

A person performs 'Isha before sleep, and sleep matters here because it is described as something like death.

5-) What is the purpose of praying at the end of the day besides worship itself?

It is also to end the day well and close the record of one's actions in a good state.

6-) What replaces the weak creatures from whom a person asks for help?

The person turns instead to Allah, who is powerful and generous.

7-) Which qualities of Allah in al-Fatiha are especially emphasized here?

His lordship over everything, His perfection, His freedom from need, His mercy, and His generosity are emphasized.

8-) What change happens to a person through saying that he worships Allah alone?

Even though he is small and alone, his connection to Allah raises his position and gives him honor.

9-) What two actions are joined together in the phrase about worship and seeking help?

Serving Allah and asking Allah for support are joined together.

10-) What main lesson about 'Isha prayer is taught in this passage?

'Isha is a time to leave temporary things, turn to Allah with need and hope, and end the day with worship, trust, and a request for guidance.

8sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatih - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the overall mood of the beginning of this passage about 'Isha?

It has a serious and reflective mood, focusing on human weakness and need at night.

2-) Why is Allah presented as the right One to turn to in a passing world?

Because Allah alone remains forever, while the world and its life do not last.

3-) What does Allah's guidance do for a believer's present and future?

It brightens his present condition and gives light for what is ahead.

4-) What does the phrase about the hidden world suggest about human loneliness?

It suggests that a person can feel left behind and alone, so he turns to Allah with his pain.

5-) What does "last duty of worship" suggest about the end of the day?

It suggests the day should end with obedience and remembrance of Allah.

6-) According to the passage, why should praise not be centered on created beings?

Because created beings are limited and needy themselves, so they are not truly worthy of ultimate praise.

7-) What does it mean that Allah is self-sufficient?

It means He does not need anyone or anything.

8-) What does saying "You alone we worship and from You alone we seek help" show about dependence?

It shows that worship and reliance should both be directed only to Allah.

9-) What is the believer asking for when he asks for the Straight Path?

He is asking for the right way of living that leads to eternal success.

10-) What is one strong theme running through the whole passage?

A believer leaves what is temporary and weak and turns fully to Allah, who is eternal, merciful, and strong.

8sinif short-words-p50-ninth-word-fifth-point-seeking-refuge-through-the-night-prayer-and-the-levels-of-fatiha - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How does the passage describe man's condition when night comes?

It describes him as extremely weak, needy, and shaken by the unknown future and many changing events.

2-) What lesson is taken from the statement of Prophet Ibrahim, peace be upon him?

The lesson is not to attach the heart to things that vanish.

3-) What blessings does the worshipper hope to receive from Allah's mercy and guidance?

He hopes for light, healing, and support that help both his life now and what comes later.

4-) What does weeping in supplication show about a believer's relationship with Allah?

It shows honesty, humility, and trust in Allah's mercy.

5-) Why is 'Isha linked to the idea of a person's final action before sleep?

Because it is the last act of worship of the day before entering a state that resembles death.

6-) What mistake is corrected by beginning with al-Fatiha?

The mistake of giving deep praise and dependence to imperfect created beings is corrected.

7-) What does al-Fatiha teach the worshipper about proper praise?

It teaches him to direct praise to Allah alone, since Allah is perfect and creatures are not.

8-) Why does the passage mention the Day of Judgment when speaking about worship?

It reminds the worshipper that Allah has full authority and that life has an ultimate meeting and account.

9-) What gives the worshipper honor even though he is outwardly small?

His relationship with Allah, the Lord of all time and the Day of Judgment, gives him honor.

10-) What attitude should a Muslim have during 'Isha based on this passage?

A Muslim should have humility, trust, hope, neediness before Allah, and a sincere desire for guidance.