

8sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 1

1-) What is the main point of this warning about worship and the daily prayers? (24 kelime)
It teaches that prayer brings huge

2-) What is one sign of this foolishness from the passage? (13 kelime)
A person may

3-) According to the passage, what does prayer give to a weak heart in this world? (7 kelime)
It

4-) How are prayers useful when a person stands for judgment? (9 kelime)
They act

5-) What help will prayer give on the Sirat? (9 kelime)
It will

6-) What example is given about someone promising a valuable gift? (10 kelime)
A person

7-) How is the time spent in worship described? (8 kelime)
It is

8-) How is the task Allah gives described in comparison to those rewards? (6 kelime)
It

9-) What fear from worldly life is used as a comparison near the end? (7 kelime)
Fear

10-) What punishment is mentioned for such behavior? (7 kelime)
A

8sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 2

1-) Who is being spoken to in this warning? (12 kelime)

The human self

2-) What does the passage suggest about the way many people choose their effort? (15 kelime)

They are often

3-) What future place is described as certain for every person? (2 kelime)

4-) What certain stop in every person's future is mentioned after this life? (2 kelime)

5-) At that time, how are prayers described? (11 kelime)

They are

6-) How do prayers benefit a person there? (8 kelime)

They help

7-) What worldly example is used about a reward after many days of labor? (13 kelime)

A person is

8-) Why is doubting Allah's promise especially wrong? (6 kelime)

Because

9-) How is the reward from Allah described? (8 kelime)

It is

10-) What forms can neglect take besides skipping prayer? (10 kelime)

It can

8sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 3

1-) What false thought about worship is this warning trying to correct? (14 kelime)

The false thought

2-) What everyday fact is used first to challenge that laziness? (15 kelime)

People can be

3-) Why does the passage connect prayer with life after death? (26 kelime)

Because prayer is presented as something

4-) In this world, who especially benefits from prayer according to the passage? (5 kelime)

A

5-) What does that show about human behavior? (9 kelime)

People often

6-) On the Sirat, what role do prayers play? (11 kelime)

They help

7-) How long is the service of worship described to be? (5 kelime)

It

8-) What is wrong with doing worship in a half-hearted way? (12 kelime)

It shows disrespect

9-) What serious outcome is mentioned for this disrespectful attitude? (5 kelime)

Harsh

10-) What worldly fear is mentioned before the final question? (4 kelime)

Fear

8sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 4

1-) Why does the warning call the nafs foolish? (12 kelime)

Because it gets

2-) What does that comparison teach about the value of prayer? (29 kelime)

It shows that if people can work

3-) What does the passage say about the reward of prayer after burial? (8 kelime)

It becomes

4-) What help will prayer give on the Day of Resurrection? (10 kelime)

It will

5-) What kind of help is promised there through prayer? (7 kelime)

Guidance

6-) What example is given to show that people trust unreliable promises more than they should? (22 kelime)

A person accepts a long

7-) What is the reward from Allah compared to in this passage? (8 kelime)

It is

8-) Why does the passage say such behavior deserves blame? (13 kelime)

Because it treats

9-) What other poor attitudes toward worship are listed? (14 kelime)

Being bored, doing

10-) What feeling should that fear create toward worship? (11 kelime)

It should

8sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 5

1-) What question does this warning raise about the usefulness of worship? (16 kelime)

It asks how anyone

2-) What does the passage say prayers are for the heart while a person is still in this world? (11 kelime)

They are

3-) What does this comparison teach about the heart? (11 kelime)

The heart

4-) What event is mentioned where every person will be judged? (2 kelime)

5-) What scene after that is mentioned to remind a person of accountability? (9 kelime)

The standing

6-) What two kinds of help are linked to prayer there? (9 kelime)

Light and

7-) What is the lesson from the story of working many days for a promised payment? (13 kelime)

People trust weak

8-) What makes Allah's promise different from a human promise? (4 kelime)

Allah's

9-) What makes neglecting worship so unreasonable in this passage? (13 kelime)

The work is

10-) What final comparison is made between prison and Hell? (27 kelime)

If fear of worldly prison can

8sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 6

1-) What problem in a person's inner life is this warning trying to fix? (12 kelime)

It is trying

2-) What role do the daily prayers play for that heart? (6 kelime)

They

3-) What four stages of existence are mentioned where prayer helps a person? (14 kelime)

Life in this

4-) In the example about money, what can make a person work until evening? (6 kelime)

Either

5-) At the resurrection, what role do prayers play? (9 kelime)

They help

6-) What does that contrast teach about trust? (11 kelime)

A believer

7-) How should that comparison affect a Muslim's attitude? (14 kelime)

It should make

8-) What is wrong with doing worship like someone forced into it? (13 kelime)

It shows poor

9-) What are the two major results mentioned for disrespecting worship? (7 kelime)

Deserving

10-) What final message should move a believer to action right away? (20 kelime)

Since even fear of worldly

CEVAP ANAHTARI

8sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main point of this warning about worship and the daily prayers?

It teaches that prayer brings huge benefits in this life and the next, so feeling lazy or bored about it is a serious mistake.

2-) What is one sign of this foolishness from the passage?

A person may work hard for tiny worldly gain but hesitate in prayer.

3-) According to the passage, what does prayer give to a weak heart in this world?

It gives inner support and spiritual richness.

4-) How are prayers useful when a person stands for judgment?

They act like supporting evidence in that serious moment.

5-) What help will prayer give on the Sirat?

It will help like guidance and support for crossing.

6-) What example is given about someone promising a valuable gift?

A person offers a reward after many days of labor.

7-) How is the time spent in worship described?

It is described as short and not hard.

8-) How is the task Allah gives described in comparison to those rewards?

It is short, easy, and good.

9-) What fear from worldly life is used as a comparison near the end?

Fear of being locked up in prison.

10-) What punishment is mentioned for such behavior?

A very serious punishment in the Hereafter.

8sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who is being spoken to in this warning?

The human self that becomes foolish, lazy, and too attached to comfort.

2-) What does the passage suggest about the way many people choose their effort?

They are often more motivated by small earthly benefits or threats than by eternal blessings.

3-) What future place is described as certain for every person?

The grave.

4-) What certain stop in every person's future is mentioned after this life?

The grave.

5-) At that time, how are prayers described?

They are described like a record that supports a person's case.

6-) How do prayers benefit a person there?

They help as evidence in the person's favor.

7-) What worldly example is used about a reward after many days of labor?

A person is promised a valuable gift after a long period of work.

8-) Why is doubting Allah's promise especially wrong?

Because Allah never breaks His promise.

9-) How is the reward from Allah described?

It is described as Paradise and everlasting happiness.

10-) What forms can neglect take besides skipping prayer?

It can include praying with resentment, boredom, or lazy effort.

8sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What false thought about worship is this warning trying to correct?

The false thought that worship brings little benefit and is not worth the effort.

2-) What everyday fact is used first to challenge that laziness?

People can be pushed to work long hours for little payment or out of fear.

3-) Why does the passage connect prayer with life after death?

Because prayer is presented as something that helps a person not only now, but also in the grave, at judgment, and during the crossing after that.

4-) In this world, who especially benefits from prayer according to the passage?

A weak and powerless heart.

5-) What does that show about human behavior?

People often push themselves hard for small worldly reasons.

6-) On the Sirat, what role do prayers play?

They help a person move safely by giving guidance and support.

7-) How long is the service of worship described to be?

It is described as brief.

8-) What is wrong with doing worship in a half-hearted way?

It shows disrespect for Allah's promise and little appreciation for His reward.

9-) What serious outcome is mentioned for this disrespectful attitude?

Harsh blame and severe punishment.

10-) What worldly fear is mentioned before the final question?

Fear of being imprisoned.

8sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Why does the warning call the nafs foolish?

Because it gets tired of worship even though worship brings great benefit.

2-) What does that comparison teach about the value of prayer?

It shows that if people can work hard for small and uncertain worldly things, they should be even more willing to do prayer for far greater and certain rewards.

3-) What does the passage say about the reward of prayer after burial?

It becomes provision and brightness in the grave.

4-) What help will prayer give on the Day of Resurrection?

It will serve like proof in a time of judgment.

5-) What kind of help is promised there through prayer?

Guidance and support for making the crossing.

6-) What example is given to show that people trust unreliable promises more than they should?

A person accepts a long job because another person promises a reward, even though that person might fail to keep his word.

7-) What is the reward from Allah compared to in this passage?

It is compared to Paradise and lasting happiness.

8-) Why does the passage say such behavior deserves blame?

Because it treats Allah's promise lightly and shows little respect for His gift.

9-) What other poor attitudes toward worship are listed?

Being bored, doing it carelessly, or looking at Allah's promise with doubt or complaint.

10-) What feeling should that fear create toward worship?

It should give strong motivation to do it sincerely and steadily.

8sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What question does this warning raise about the usefulness of worship?

It asks how anyone could think worship has no real outcome or only a small reward.

2-) What does the passage say prayers are for the heart while a person is still in this world?

They are like spiritual nourishment and treasure for a weak heart.

3-) What does this comparison teach about the heart?

The heart needs care and nourishment just as the body does.

4-) What event is mentioned where every person will be judged?

The resurrection.

5-) What scene after that is mentioned to remind a person of accountability?

The standing for judgment on the Day of Resurrection.

6-) What two kinds of help are linked to prayer there?

Light and a means of being carried or supported.

7-) What is the lesson from the story of working many days for a promised payment?

People trust weak human promises, so they should trust Allah's promise much more.

8-) What makes Allah's promise different from a human promise?

Allah's promise cannot fail.

9-) What makes neglecting worship so unreasonable in this passage?

The work is small and gentle, but the reward is enormous and sure.

10-) What final comparison is made between prison and Hell?

If fear of worldly prison can push a person to work hard, then fear of Hell should push a person even more toward easy and beautiful worship.

8sinif short-words-p57-twenty-first-word-first-station-fourth-warning-prayers-result-and-eternal-reward - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What problem in a person's inner life is this warning trying to fix?

It is trying to fix laziness, boredom, and weak respect toward worship.

2-) What role do the daily prayers play for that heart?

They strengthen and enrich it spiritually.

3-) What four stages of existence are mentioned where prayer helps a person?

Life in this world, the grave, the resurrection, and the crossing over the Sirat.

4-) In the example about money, what can make a person work until evening?

Either a small payment or fear.

5-) At the resurrection, what role do prayers play?

They help like a record or proof during judgment.

6-) What does that contrast teach about trust?

A believer should trust Allah's promise more than any human offer.

7-) How should that comparison affect a Muslim's attitude?

It should make the Muslim trust Allah fully and obey with a willing heart.

8-) What is wrong with doing worship like someone forced into it?

It shows poor respect, weak gratitude, and a bad attitude toward Allah's gift.

9-) What are the two major results mentioned for disrespecting worship?

Deserving strong blame and facing terrible punishment.

10-) What final message should move a believer to action right away?

Since even fear of worldly punishment makes people work, fear of the eternal punishment should make them eager to pray.