

1

What question is raised at the start of the passage about all beings saying “In the Name of Allah”?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 1

It asks whether this claim is really true.

2

Why is the image of one person controlling a whole town persuasive?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 2

It makes clear that extraordinary effects require authority and support beyond the individual.

3

In the analogy, why is the man identified as a soldier rather than an independent actor?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 3

Because his success depends on delegated authority and support from a ruler.

4

What do trees provide for people in this explanation?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 4

They bring out provisions and benefits from divine mercy and place them before us.

5

According to the passage, what do trees and gardens do for people?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 5

They provide food and other benefits as channels of divine generosity.

6

Why are gardens linked with many different foods?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 6

Their variety shows rich planning, generosity, and organized provision from Allah.

7

What surprising action of roots and rootlets is emphasized?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 7

Their soft structure still lets them pass through hard soil and even rock.

8

What argument is made against relying on heat and hardness as ultimate causes?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 8

These forces are themselves under command and cannot act independently of Allah.

9

What is the effect of the Qur'anic references in the final paragraph of the target passage?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 9

They connect the signs in nature with revealed reminders of Allah's power over creation.

10

In this passage, what does “the tongue of disposition” mean in simple terms?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 10

It means that things declare Allah's power by what they do and how they are made, even without spoken words.

11

What human situation is used as an analogy to make this claim easier to understand?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 11

A situation where one man appears to control and direct an entire town.

12

What is the concrete example meant to prove?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 12

It is meant to prove that remarkable action points to authority beyond the visible agent.

13

How are trees portrayed as serving human beings?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 13

They gather and deliver beneficial provisions to people as part of Allah's mercy.

14

What role do trees have in relation to mercy?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 14

They receive and pass on provisions from Allah's mercy to human beings.

15

What do cows, camels, sheep, and goats reveal through what they give?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 15

They reveal that Allah sends gentle and beneficial provision through living creatures.

16

What point is made by comparing roots in rock with branches in air?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 16

Producing fruit in hard conditions is made just as easy as in open space by divine command.

17

What broader point is made by the survival of delicate leaves in intense heat?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 17

Conditions that seem overpowering are still controlled by Allah.

18

What do the examples related to Musa and Ibrahim add to the discussion of roots and leaves?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 18

They show that Allah can make hard things open and harmful things become harmless.

19

What is being confirmed in the opening lines of the target passage?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 19

The truth that all beings, in their own created way, act with reference to Allah's name.

20

What does the example of the town teach about unseen authority?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 20

Great visible effects can prove the presence of hidden backing and command.

21

How do seeds and grains function
as signs in the argument?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 21

Though tiny, they produce huge trees, which shows they work through divine power, not their own limited ability.

22

What do seeds and grains reveal about the source of their ability?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 22

Their ability to carry the beginning of huge trees shows that their power comes from Allah.

23

How is the answer to that question given first: by abstract theory or by concrete example?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 23

It is given first through a concrete example.

24

What statement from earlier is brought back and questioned at the start of this passage?

lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-
through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 24

The statement that all beings, through their condition, say “In the Name of Allah.”