

1

What is the main contrast drawn between the two travelers at the start of the passage?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 1

One lives in fear, pain, and confusion, while the other is welcomed, hopeful, and able to understand what he sees.

2

How is the unlucky brother's relationship to fear described?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 2

He remains in ongoing dread and expects a terrifying outcome.

3

What makes the fortunate brother's fear easier to bear?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 3

His fear is joined with insight and love instead of despair.

4

How does the passage contrast despair with belonging?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 4

The miserable brother feels cut off and abandoned, while the fortunate brother feels connected and expected.

5

What three positive conditions are joined together in the fortunate traveler's experience?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 5

Hope, longing, and a feeling of being at home rather than abandoned.

6

What is wrong with the unfortunate brother's way of eating the fruits?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 6

He chases immediate pleasure without understanding their real purpose.

7

In that example, how does the person wrong both himself and his companions?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 7

He destroys his own peace and treats his friends as enemies
when they are not.

8

What two wrongs are committed by the drunken person in the example?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 8

He harms himself and dishonors his companions by imagining evil in place of goodness.

9

Why is imagining one's friends as wild animals especially blameworthy in that example?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 9

Because it is both false and insulting to people who are actually offering companionship.

10

According to the last sentence, what qualities brought the fortunate brother happiness and virtue?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 10

Good intention, sincere will,
upright character, and positive thought.

11

What overall lesson does the comparison of the two brothers teach?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 11

A person's inner state shapes how he experiences life, so bad motives and thinking lead to misery while good character and intention lead to blessing.

12

How does the second traveler respond to the unusual things around him?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 12

He studies them calmly as meaningful signs and lessons.

13

How does each brother mentally process the strange things he encounters?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 13

One sees them as crushing horrors, while the other sees them as meaningful and even educational.

14

Which uplifting feelings characterize the fortunate brother?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 14

He is filled with hope, yearning,
and a sense of welcome.

15

Why is the unhappy traveler's eating of the fruits spiritually and morally flawed?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 15

He treats temporary signs as if they were the final goal and follows appetite like an animal.

16

What does indulgence in the fruit reveal about the unhappy traveler?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 16

It shows he is ruled by impulse and outward taste rather than understanding.

17

What does the fortunate brother gain by restraining himself?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 17

He gains understanding and even finds joy in waiting for what is better.

18

Why does the fortunate brother deserve mercy?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 18

Because he honors the goodness and beauty of reality and so shows respect to its Owner.

19

What Qur'anic principle is explained through the brothers' contrast?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 19

Human beings are the source of their own evil, while all true good comes from Allah.

20

What role do noble inner qualities play in the second brother's fate?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 20

They open the way for plentiful blessing, real happiness, success, and visible virtue.

21

At the beginning of the passage, how are the futures of the two travelers presented?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 21

One appears headed toward destruction and fear, while the other is welcomed into beauty and abundance.

22

What is the purpose of the example about a person at a pleasant gathering who becomes intoxicated and panics?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 22

It shows how someone can ruin a good situation by false imagination and then wrongly blame others.

23

How does the author strengthen this point with the example of drunken confusion?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 23

The example shows a person in comfort imagining danger because his own state is corrupted.

24

How does the summer gathering example show personal responsibility?

lisans short-words-p30-eighth-word-comparing-the-two-
travelers-and-the-auranic-iudgment

Cevap 24

It illustrates that a person can create his own misery and then wrongly act like a victim.