

lisans short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual- lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 1

1-) In the comparison, what do the two travelers stand for? (20 kelime)

One stands for people who

2-) How is human life pictured as a journey? (19 kelime)

It is shown as

3-) What important paradox about worship does the passage teach?
(17 kelime)

It may look hard

4-) How does this testimony change the way a worshipper sees the world? (13 kelime)

He sees every

5-) How does affirming Allah's oneness help the worshipper deal with the world? (12 kelime)

It helps him

6-) After reaching this understanding, what actions of the heart follow?
(13 kelime)

He makes du'a,

7-) What is the root of cowardice in the passage? (4 kelime)

It

8-) What source of courage is identified in the passage? (4 kelime)

Faith

9-) What does the passage teach about the limits of human control?
(19 kelime)

A person's actual power

10-) What conclusion does the passage draw from human weakness and need? (20 kelime)

Worship, affirming Allah's oneness, trusting

lisans short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 2

1-) Which two human paths are being compared through the image of the two travelers? (16 kelime)

The path of submission

2-) What larger reality is symbolized by the road? (10 kelime)

The full

3-) How does the passage correct the idea that worship only weighs a person down? (16 kelime)

It explains that worship

4-) How does this faith help the worshipper interpret all things around him? (15 kelime)

He sees them

5-) What does the worshipper believe about who gives provision and who controls outcomes? (11 kelime)

He believes

6-) What kind of security comes from relying on Allah? (9 kelime)

A deep

7-) How are courage and belief connected here? (8 kelime)

Real bravery

8-) What connection does it make between misguidance and fear? (5 kelime)

Misguidance

9-) What two facts about human nature make reliance on Allah necessary? (13 kelime)

Human beings have

10-) Based on that imbalance, why are reliance and submission so important? (16 kelime)

Because they connect weak

lisans short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 3

1-) What kind of people does the first traveler represent in this passage? (9 kelime)

People who

2-) In this part of the comparison, what do the kit-bag and rifle symbolize? (7 kelime)

They

3-) What mistaken impression about worship does the passage address? (10 kelime)

The mistaken

4-) How does this declaration affect the worshipper's understanding of creation? (16 kelime)

It teaches him that

5-) What does the worshipper do after recognizing Allah's mercy and wisdom? (16 kelime)

He turns to Allah

6-) How does the worshipper view Allah's mercy and generosity? (8 kelime)

He sees

7-) What inner quality does belief produce according to the passage? (3 kelime)

8-) What contrast is made with the philosopher? (19 kelime)

Although he was thought

9-) What is the point of comparing a sincere worshipper with a worldly philosopher? (14 kelime)

The point is

10-) What overall judgment does the passage make about worship and trust in Allah? (14 kelime)

They are a

lisans short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 4

1-) What is the main contrast between the two symbolic travelers? (12 kelime)

One follows Allah's

2-) What two religious qualities are pictured as travel equipment and weaponry? (6 kelime)

Worship

3-) How does the passage describe the relationship between the outer form of worship and its inner meaning? (13 kelime)

Its outer form

4-) How does that belief affect a person's view of daily events and created things? (12 kelime)

He sees them

5-) Why is Allah's wisdom important in this passage? (9 kelime)

It means

6-) What four responses flow from that confidence? (6 kelime)

Supplication,

7-) What moral lesson is given about fearfulness? (10 kelime)

Deep fearfulness

8-) What extreme image is used to describe the boldness of a sincere worshipper? (9 kelime)

He would

9-) What does the philosopher's panic reveal? (14 kelime)
It reveals that

10-) According to the ending of the passage, what brings real benefit to the human spirit? (12 kelime)
Worship, belief in

lisans short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 5

1-) In this section, what does submission to divine law mean in contrast to following desire? (14 kelime)

It means living

2-) What is the meaning of the travel gear in the comparison? (9 kelime)

It stands

3-) What belief is affirmed in the prayer mentioned here? (13 kelime)

It is the

4-) What truth does the worshipper speak in prayer? (4 kelime)

He

5-) How do wisdom and mercy together shape the worshipper's view of Allah's actions? (11 kelime)

He understands

6-) According to the passage, what is the root of courage? (9 kelime)

True courage

7-) What does this trust do for a believer in times of danger? (9 kelime)

It strengthens

8-) How does the passage challenge the idea that intellectual fame guarantees real strength? (14 kelime)

It shows that

9-) How far do human hopes and fears reach compared to human power? (15 kelime)

Human power reaches

10-) What final insight should a reader draw about the human condition? (22 kelime)

Since people are weak and

lisans short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 6

1-) Who are symbolized by the obedient traveler and the rebellious traveler? (20 kelime)

The obedient one symbolizes those

2-) Why are worship and fear of Allah compared to equipment carried on the road? (12 kelime)

Because they help

3-) In the prayer, what central truth does the worshipper testify to? (6 kelime)

That

4-) What door does this faith open for the worshipper, according to the passage? (13 kelime)

It opens for

5-) Why does recognizing Allah's authority over all things lead to prayer and trust? (17 kelime)

Because once a person

6-) What emotional result comes from that trust? (6 kelime)

It

7-) What connection does the passage make between worship and bravery? (8 kelime)

Worship rooted

8-) What weakness is exposed in the example of the philosopher? (16 kelime)

Sharp reasoning without faith

9-) What imbalance in human life does the passage highlight? (17
kelime)

People face endless needs

CEVAP ANAHTARI

lisans short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In the comparison, what do the two travelers stand for?

One stands for people who obey Allah's law, and the other stands for people who rebel and follow their desires.

2-) How is human life pictured as a journey?

It is shown as a continuing road that moves through this life, the grave, and the life to come.

3-) What important paradox about worship does the passage teach?

It may look hard from the outside, but in its inner truth it brings comfort and lightness.

4-) How does this testimony change the way a worshipper sees the world?

He sees every created thing as pointing him to Allah's mercy and care.

5-) How does affirming Allah's oneness help the worshipper deal with the world?

It helps him read the world through Allah's mercy, wisdom, and care.

6-) After reaching this understanding, what actions of the heart follow?

He makes du'a, seeks shelter in Allah, trusts Him, and depends on Him.

7-) What is the root of cowardice in the passage?

It comes from misguidance.

8-) What source of courage is identified in the passage?

Faith joined with worship.

9-) What does the passage teach about the limits of human control?

A person's actual power reaches only a short distance and cannot match the size of his needs and fears.

10-) What conclusion does the passage draw from human weakness and need?

Worship, affirming Allah's oneness, trusting Him, and submitting to Him are a great gain and blessing for the human soul.

lisans short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Which two human paths are being compared through the image of the two travelers?

The path of submission to divine guidance and the path of rebellion driven by personal desire.

2-) What larger reality is symbolized by the road?

The full course of human existence leading into the hereafter.

3-) How does the passage correct the idea that worship only weighs a person down?

It explains that worship carries hidden relief and support that are greater than its outward demands.

4-) How does this faith help the worshipper interpret all things around him?

He sees them as openings to Allah's mercy rather than as random or independent forces.

5-) What does the worshipper believe about who gives provision and who controls outcomes?

He believes Allah alone provides and controls all benefit and harm.

6-) What kind of security comes from relying on Allah?

A deep inner steadiness in the face of disasters.

7-) How are courage and belief connected here?

Real bravery grows out of faith and worship.

8-) What connection does it make between misguidance and fear?

Misguidance produces fear and weakness.

9-) What two facts about human nature make reliance on Allah necessary?

Human beings have endless needs and troubles, but very little strength and ownership.

10-) Based on that imbalance, why are reliance and submission so important?

Because they connect weak human beings to the One who has complete power, mercy, and control.

lisans short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What kind of people does the first traveler represent in this passage?

People who live in obedience to Allah's revealed law.

2-) In this part of the comparison, what do the kit-bag and rifle symbolize?

They symbolize worship and fear of Allah.

3-) What mistaken impression about worship does the passage address?

The mistaken impression is that worship is only a hardship.

4-) How does this declaration affect the worshipper's understanding of creation?

It teaches him that everything points back to Allah as the only true source and controller.

5-) What does the worshipper do after recognizing Allah's mercy and wisdom?

He turns to Allah in supplication, seeks refuge in Him, trusts Him, and relies on Him.

6-) How does the worshipper view Allah's mercy and generosity?

He sees them as abundant and always available.

7-) What inner quality does belief produce according to the passage? It produces courage.

8-) What contrast is made with the philosopher?

Although he was thought to be intellectually advanced, his heart was empty, so he became frightened by a comet.

9-) What is the point of comparing a sincere worshipper with a worldly philosopher?

The point is that spiritual faith can give more courage than bare intellectual reputation.

10-) What overall judgment does the passage make about worship and trust in Allah?

They are a major source of profit, joy, and blessing for weak human beings.

lisans short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What is the main contrast between the two symbolic travelers?
One follows Allah's law, while the other follows his own rebellious impulses.

2-) What two religious qualities are pictured as travel equipment and weaponry?

Worship and reverent fear of Allah.

3-) How does the passage describe the relationship between the outer form of worship and its inner meaning?

Its outer form may seem weighty, but its inner meaning gives extraordinary ease.

4-) How does that belief affect a person's view of daily events and created things?

He sees them as connected to Allah's care, not as independent powers.

5-) Why is Allah's wisdom important in this passage?

It means nothing Allah does is meaningless or pointless.

6-) What four responses flow from that confidence?

Supplication, seeking refuge, trusting, and relying.

7-) What moral lesson is given about fearfulness?

Deep fearfulness grows from spiritual error and distance from guidance.

8-) What extreme image is used to describe the boldness of a sincere worshipper?

He would stay calm even before a world-shaking explosion.

9-) What does the philosopher's panic reveal?

It reveals that a mind without spiritual depth can be shaken badly by fear.

10-) According to the ending of the passage, what brings real benefit to the human spirit?

Worship, belief in Allah's oneness, reliance on Him, and submission to Him.

lisans short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) In this section, what does submission to divine law mean in contrast to following desire?

It means living by Allah's guidance instead of making the self's impulses the authority.

2-) What is the meaning of the travel gear in the comparison?

It stands for worship and being conscious of Allah.

3-) What belief is affirmed in the prayer mentioned here?

It is the testimony that no one is worthy of worship except Allah.

4-) What truth does the worshipper speak in prayer?

He affirms Allah's oneness.

5-) How do wisdom and mercy together shape the worshipper's view of Allah's actions?

He understands that Allah's actions are purposeful and filled with compassion.

6-) According to the passage, what is the root of courage?

True courage comes from belief in Allah and worship.

7-) What does this trust do for a believer in times of danger?

It strengthens him and guards him from collapsing inwardly.

8-) How does the passage challenge the idea that intellectual fame guarantees real strength?

It shows that a celebrated thinker may still panic if he lacks spiritual grounding.

9-) How far do human hopes and fears reach compared to human power?

Human power reaches only a little, but hopes, desires, pains, and fears stretch very far.

10-) What final insight should a reader draw about the human condition?

Since people are weak and needy, their true good lies in worshipping Allah, affirming His oneness, trusting Him, and submitting to Him.

lisans short-words-p08-third-word-worships-spiritual-lightness-and-beliefs-security - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) Who are symbolized by the obedient traveler and the rebellious traveler?

The obedient one symbolizes those who live under divine guidance, and the rebellious one symbolizes those who follow selfish desire.

2-) Why are worship and fear of Allah compared to equipment carried on the road?

Because they help the believer travel safely and face what lies ahead.

3-) In the prayer, what central truth does the worshipper testify to?

That only Allah is truly divine.

4-) What door does this faith open for the worshipper, according to the passage?

It opens for him the way to Allah's mercy in everything he encounters.

5-) Why does recognizing Allah's authority over all things lead to prayer and trust?

Because once a person knows everything is under Allah's rule, turning to Him becomes the natural response.

6-) What emotional result comes from that trust?

It gives strong confidence and security.

7-) What connection does the passage make between worship and bravery?

Worship rooted in belief gives rise to bravery.

8-) What weakness is exposed in the example of the philosopher?

Sharp reasoning without faith and a living heart can still leave a person helpless before fear.

9-) What imbalance in human life does the passage highlight?

People face endless needs and troubles, but they possess very little power and wealth of their own.