

lisans short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 1

1-) How does the passage describe the place of these prayers within religion? (11 kelime)

It presents

2-) What does the passage say about the “cost” of prayer? (9 kelime)

It says

3-) What does the ruler expect the servants to do with those coins? (16 kelime)

He expects them to

4-) What transportation options were available on the way? (8 kelime)

There were

5-) What does the mention of several transportation methods add to the argument? (17 kelime)

It shows that there

6-) How does his friend try to awaken his judgment? (16 kelime)

He reminds him that

7-) What advice did the first servant give about that last coin? (10 kelime)

He told

8-) What does the passage suggest about stubbornness? (16 kelime)

It suggests that stubbornness

9-) What kind of pleasure is criticized in this passage? (13 kelime)
It criticizes brief

10-) What human weakness is exposed by refusing to buy the ticket?
(11 kelime)
It shows

lisans short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 2

1-) What claim does the passage make about the certainty of the importance of prayer? (14 kelime)

It says that

2-) What literary form does the passage use to teach that lesson? (8 kelime)

It uses

3-) What does the ruler prepare for the servants at the end of their journey? (10 kelime)

He prepares

4-) What important stop is mentioned before reaching the estate? (10 kelime)

There is

5-) What surprising outcome comes from the first servant's good use of a small amount? (11 kelime)

A small

6-) What emotional appeal does the first servant use when advising his companion? (15 kelime)

He appeals to

7-) Why is the final coin especially important in the story? (15 kelime)

It is enough

8-) What does the desert symbolize within the story's plain meaning?
(15 kelime)

It represents severe

9-) What kind of reasoning is the reader expected to use in judging the second servant? (14 kelime)

The reader is

10-) How would you summarize the warning of this passage in one sentence? (21 kelime)

Do not waste what Allah

lisans short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 3

1-) What statement at the beginning summarizes the religious standing of prayer? (11 kelime)

It says

2-) What did the ruler give to each of the two servants before sending them out? (7 kelime)

He

3-) What equal provision do both servants receive at the beginning? (8 kelime)

Each servant

4-) What kind of spending is linked with success in the case of the fortunate servant? (14 kelime)

Careful and purposeful

5-) What happened to the careful servant's wealth because of that wise spending? (5 kelime)

It

6-) What pattern of behavior defines the second servant? (15 kelime)

He chases amusement,

7-) What does the possibility of being put on an airplane suggest about the master? (13 kelime)

It suggests kindness,

8-) What possibility of mercy from the master is mentioned? (12

kelime)

The master might

9-) What judgment does the passage make about someone who knowingly refuses the better option? (10 kelime)

It judges

lisans short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 4

1-) According to the passage, what two qualities of prayer are emphasized before the story begins? (14 kelime)

Its great value

2-) Who are the main figures in the comparison? (8 kelime)

They are

3-) What is the purpose of their journey? (10 kelime)

They are

4-) What does the fortunate servant prove by spending only a little on the way? (15 kelime)

He proves that

5-) What does the fortunate servant do differently from the other one? (20 kelime)

He controls his spending and

6-) Why is the one remaining coin presented as enough to matter? (15 kelime)

Because even that

7-) What does the story imply about using a small remaining resource wisely? (22 kelime)

Even a little left can

8-) What contrast is drawn between the two possible ways of traveling?

(15 kelime)

One way is

9-) What kind of person is expected to recognize the second servant's foolishness? (12 kelime)

Even a person

lisans short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 5

1-) What religious teaching is expressed in the line placed near the start of this passage? (13 kelime)

It teaches that

2-) Why are the servants given exactly twenty-four gold coins each? (14 kelime)

The story uses

3-) What instructions did the ruler give about the money? (19 kelime)

He told them to

4-) What are the servants supposed to prepare for at their destination? (12 kelime)

They are supposed

5-) What does the wasteful servant value more than his long-term goal? (13 kelime)

He values entertainment

6-) How much did the wasteful servant have left after his bad choices? (6 kelime)

He

7-) Besides avoiding hardship, what positive possibility comes with buying the ticket? (12 kelime)

The servant may

8-) Why does the passage appeal to even “the most unintelligent person"? (16 kelime)

It wants to show

9-) What overall lesson does the comparison teach about neglecting prayer? (15 kelime)

It teaches that

lisans short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 6

1-) What does the passage want the reader to understand clearly about the prescribed prayers? (22 kelime)

It wants the reader to

2-) In the comparison, what kind of person is the ruler? (11 kelime)

He is

3-) How far away is that estate from where they begin? (5 kelime)

It

4-) What does the first servant show through his actions on the road? (11 kelime)

He shows

5-) Why is reaching the station so important in the story? (17 kelime)

It is the point

6-) What kinds of things consume most of the wasteful servant's money? (8 kelime)

He throws

7-) What extra favor might the master grant if the servant acts wisely at the end? (10 kelime)

He might

8-) What does the phrase comparing the ticket to a key suggest? (12 kelime)

It suggests that

9-) What does the ticket represent in practical terms within the story itself? (13 kelime)

It represents the

CEVAP ANAHTARI

lisans short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 1 - CEVAPLAR

1-) How does the passage describe the place of these prayers within religion?

It presents them as a main support that holds religion up.

2-) What does the passage say about the “cost” of prayer?

It says prayer is obtained with very little expense.

3-) What does the ruler expect the servants to do with those coins?

He expects them to spend responsibly on transportation and whatever they need for their new place.

4-) What transportation options were available on the way?

There were road vehicles, trains, boats, and airplanes.

5-) What does the mention of several transportation methods add to the argument?

It shows that there are means available and that failure comes from misuse, not lack of opportunity.

6-) How does his friend try to awaken his judgment?

He reminds him that one small coin can still secure what he needs for the journey.

7-) What advice did the first servant give about that last coin?

He told him to use it to buy a ticket.

8-) What does the passage suggest about stubbornness?

It suggests that stubbornness can make a person reject an obvious good and choose harm instead.

9-) What kind of pleasure is criticized in this passage?

It criticizes brief enjoyment that drains a person’s resources and leaves him unprepared.

10-) What human weakness is exposed by refusing to buy the ticket?

It shows stubbornness that chooses short-term pleasure over clear long-term benefit.

lisans short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 2 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What claim does the passage make about the certainty of the importance of prayer?

It says that the truth of prayer's importance can be known with complete certainty.

2-) What literary form does the passage use to teach that lesson?

It uses an illustrative story with symbolic meaning.

3-) What does the ruler prepare for the servants at the end of their journey?

He prepares a rich place for them to settle in.

4-) What important stop is mentioned before reaching the estate?

There is a station one day away from the estate.

5-) What surprising outcome comes from the first servant's good use of a small amount?

A small expenditure leads to a tremendous increase in his resources.

6-) What emotional appeal does the first servant use when advising his companion?

He appeals to hope in the master's mercy and to fear of the hardship ahead.

7-) Why is the final coin especially important in the story?

It is enough to buy the ticket that could save him from a harsh journey.

8-) What does the desert symbolize within the story's plain meaning?

It represents severe hardship, hunger, and delay for the one who refuses the right means.

9-) What kind of reasoning is the reader expected to use in judging the second servant?

The reader is expected to use plain common sense about benefit, loss, and priorities.

10-) How would you summarize the warning of this passage in one sentence?

Do not waste what Allah has given you on passing distractions when a small faithful act can lead to lasting reward.

lisans short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 3 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What statement at the beginning summarizes the religious standing of prayer?

It says that prayer is a foundational support of the faith.

2-) What did the ruler give to each of the two servants before sending them out?

He gave each one twenty-four gold coins.

3-) What equal provision do both servants receive at the beginning?

Each servant receives the same amount of gold.

4-) What kind of spending is linked with success in the case of the fortunate servant?

Careful and purposeful spending that also earns the master's approval is linked with success.

5-) What happened to the careful servant's wealth because of that wise spending?

It increased many times over.

6-) What pattern of behavior defines the second servant?

He chases amusement, wastes almost all he has, and ignores what will truly help him.

7-) What does the possibility of being put on an airplane suggest about the master?

It suggests kindness, generosity, and a willingness to help beyond what is deserved.

8-) What possibility of mercy from the master is mentioned?

The master might forgive him and even place him on an airplane.

9-) What judgment does the passage make about someone who knowingly refuses the better option?

It judges that person to be acting without sound reason.

lisans short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 4 - CEVAPLAR

1-) According to the passage, what two qualities of prayer are emphasized before the story begins?

Its great value and the small effort needed to gain its benefit are emphasized.

2-) Who are the main figures in the comparison?

They are a powerful ruler and two servants.

3-) What is the purpose of their journey?

They are traveling to settle in the ruler's wealthy estate.

4-) What does the fortunate servant prove by spending only a little on the way?

He proves that discipline and good judgment can protect and even increase what one has.

5-) What does the fortunate servant do differently from the other one?

He controls his spending and uses part of it in a way that pleases his master and brings major gain.

6-) Why is the one remaining coin presented as enough to matter?

Because even that little amount can still secure the essential next step of the journey.

7-) What does the story imply about using a small remaining resource wisely?

Even a little left can still change the outcome if it is used at the right time and for the right purpose.

8-) What contrast is drawn between the two possible ways of traveling?

One way is fast and mercifully assisted, while the other is lonely, hungry, and difficult.

9-) What kind of person is expected to recognize the second servant's foolishness?

Even a person with very little understanding is expected to see it.

lisans short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 5 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What religious teaching is expressed in the line placed near the start of this passage?

It teaches that the prescribed prayers are a central support of the religion.

2-) Why are the servants given exactly twenty-four gold coins each?

The story uses that amount as a set provision for their journey and preparation.

3-) What instructions did the ruler give about the money?

He told them to use it for travel and to buy what they would need for their home there.

4-) What are the servants supposed to prepare for at their destination?

They are supposed to prepare for living in the ruler's rich estate.

5-) What does the wasteful servant value more than his long-term goal?

He values entertainment and passing pleasure more than what will truly benefit him.

6-) How much did the wasteful servant have left after his bad choices?

He had one gold coin left.

7-) Besides avoiding hardship, what positive possibility comes with buying the ticket?

The servant may receive mercy and extra help beyond what he deserves.

8-) Why does the passage appeal to even "the most unintelligent person"?

It wants to show that the lesson is so clear that almost anyone should recognize it.

9-) What overall lesson does the comparison teach about neglecting prayer?

It teaches that leaving prayer for temporary pleasure is irrational, harmful, and a serious mistake.

lisans short-words-p10-fourth-word-comparison-on-the-necessity-of-the-prescribed-prayers - Set 6 - CEVAPLAR

1-) What does the passage want the reader to understand clearly about the prescribed prayers?

It wants the reader to see that they are highly valuable, easy to secure compared with their reward, and wrong to neglect.

2-) In the comparison, what kind of person is the ruler?

He is a strong and wealthy ruler with authority and generosity.

3-) How far away is that estate from where they begin?

It is two months away.

4-) What does the first servant show through his actions on the road?

He shows self-control, foresight, and concern for what pleases his master.

5-) Why is reaching the station so important in the story?

It is the point from which proper transport can carry the traveler onward more safely and quickly.

6-) What kinds of things consume most of the wasteful servant's money?

He throws it away on betting and entertainment.

7-) What extra favor might the master grant if the servant acts wisely at the end?

He might forgive him and let him travel by airplane.

8-) What does the phrase comparing the ticket to a key suggest?

It suggests that the ticket unlocks access to a much greater reward.

9-) What does the ticket represent in practical terms within the story itself?

It represents the necessary means for reaching the destination safely and more easily.