

1 What question is raised at the start of the passage about all beings saying “In the Name of Allah”?	2 Why is the image of one person controlling a whole town persuasive?	3 In the analogy, why is the man identified as a soldier rather than an independent actor?	4 What do trees provide for people in this explanation?
lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state
5 According to the passage, what do trees and gardens do for people?	6 Why are gardens linked with many different foods?	7 What surprising action of roots and rootlets is emphasized?	8 What argument is made against relying on heat and hardness as ultimate causes?
lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state
9 What is the effect of the Qur’anic references in the final paragraph of the target passage?	10 In this passage, what does “the tongue of disposition” mean in simple terms?	11 What human situation is used as an analogy to make this claim easier to understand?	12 What is the concrete example meant to prove?
lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 4 They bring out provisions and benefits from divine mercy and place them before us.	Cevap 3 Because his success depends on delegated authority and support from a ruler.	Cevap 2 It makes clear that extraordinary effects require authority and support beyond the individual.	Cevap 1 It asks whether this claim is really true.
Cevap 8 These forces are themselves under command and cannot act independently of Allah.	Cevap 7 Their soft structure still lets them pass through hard soil and even rock.	Cevap 6 Their variety shows rich planning, generosity, and organized provision from Allah.	Cevap 5 They provide food and other benefits as channels of divine generosity.
Cevap 12 It is meant to prove that remarkable action points to authority beyond the visible agent.	Cevap 11 A situation where one man appears to control and direct an entire town.	Cevap 10 It means that things declare Allah's power by what they do and how they are made, even without spoken words.	Cevap 9 They connect the signs in nature with revealed reminders of Allah's power over creation.

13 How are trees portrayed as serving human beings?	14 What role do trees have in relation to mercy?	15 What do cows, camels, sheep, and goats reveal through what they give?	16 What point is made by comparing roots in rock with branches in air?
lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state
17 What broader point is made by the survival of delicate leaves in intense heat?	18 What do the examples related to Musa and Ibrahim add to the discussion of roots and leaves?	19 What is being confirmed in the opening lines of the target passage?	20 What does the example of the town teach about unseen authority?
lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state
21 How do seeds and grains function as signs in the argument?	22 What do seeds and grains reveal about the source of their ability?	23 How is the answer to that question given first: by abstract theory or by concrete example?	24 What statement from earlier is brought back and questioned at the start of this passage?
lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state	lisans short-words-p03-first-word-all-beings-say-bismillah-through-the-language-of-their-state

Cevap 16 Producing fruit in hard conditions is made just as easy as in open space by divine command.	Cevap 15 They reveal that Allah sends gentle and beneficial provision through living creatures.	Cevap 14 They receive and pass on provisions from Allah's mercy to human beings.	Cevap 13 They gather and deliver beneficial provisions to people as part of Allah's mercy.
Cevap 20 Great visible effects can prove the presence of hidden backing and command.	Cevap 19 The truth that all beings, in their own created way, act with reference to Allah's name.	Cevap 18 They show that Allah can make hard things open and harmful things become harmless.	Cevap 17 Conditions that seem overpowering are still controlled by Allah.
Cevap 24 The statement that all beings, through their condition, say "In the Name of Allah."	Cevap 23 It is given first through a concrete example.	Cevap 22 Their ability to carry the beginning of huge trees shows that their power comes from Allah.	Cevap 21 Though tiny, they produce huge trees, which shows they work through divine power, not their own limited ability.