

1 What main contrast does the opening of the passage set up?	2 At what point does their situation require a choice?	3 What does he say about the road on the left?	4 What practical difference is emphasized between the two roads?
lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers
5 Why might the left-hand road look attractive at first?	6 What choice does the successful soldier make?	7 How does the story challenge the idea that the easiest option is best?	8 Why does the passage use a story instead of giving only direct statements?
lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers
9 What does the man at the fork seem to provide besides directions?	10 How does the left-hand road appeal to human weakness?	11 What do the food bag and rifle suggest about the kind of journey on the right?	12 What inner problem replaces the missing baggage on the left road?
lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers

Cevap 4 The left path has no discipline or authority and lets travelers go without supplies and weapons, while the right path requires both.	Cevap 3 He says it offers no real benefit, and most who take it end up losing.	Cevap 2 They have to choose when the road divides into two different paths.	Cevap 1 It contrasts the gain and peace found in worship with the loss and destruction that come from sinful, pleasure-driven living.
Cevap 8 The story makes the moral lesson easier to picture by turning abstract ideas into a concrete journey.	Cevap 7 It shows that what feels easiest in the moment may bring the worst long-term outcome.	Cevap 6 He chooses the road on the right and accepts the load.	Cevap 5 It seems easier because the traveler does not have to carry extra weight.
Cevap 12 The traveler becomes burdened by anxiety and by needing help from others.	Cevap 11 They suggest preparation, protection, and readiness for real challenges.	Cevap 10 It attracts people by offering comfort, freedom from rules, and less effort.	Cevap 9 He gives moral guidance by explaining the likely outcomes of both choices.

13 What does the phrase about his heart being narrowed suggest?	14 What qualities define the soldier who takes the right road?	15 What kind of ending does each road produce?	16 How could this passage speak to a student tempted by a careless lifestyle?
lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers
17 What is the purpose of the comparison introduced in this passage?	18 Why is that shared starting point important?	19 According to his description, what is the advantage of the right road?	20 What does the first soldier show by accepting the burden?
lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers
21 How does the passage compare external burden with internal burden?	22 What does it mean that he is obliged to no one?	23 What emotional state marks the obedient soldier from beginning to end?	24 What is the best summary of the passage's message?
lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers	lisans short-words-p07-third-word-worship-and-happiness-sin-and-loss-the-two-soldiers

Cevap 16 It warns that ignoring moral discipline for short-term comfort can create deeper stress, dependence, and loss.	Cevap 15 The right road ends in honor and reward, while the left ends in punishment and shame.	Cevap 14 He is fortunate, disciplined, faithful, and respectful of order.	Cevap 13 It suggests emotional stress, pressure, and loss of inner ease.
Cevap 20 He shows wisdom and willingness to submit to order.	Cevap 19 It is associated with major gain and peace of mind.	Cevap 18 It shows that their different outcomes come from their choices, not from unequal beginnings.	Cevap 17 It is meant to teach the value of worship and the danger of immoral, pleasure-centered living.
Cevap 24 Worship and moral discipline may seem demanding, but they bring true benefit, while chasing unchecked desires brings harm.	Cevap 23 He is marked by steadiness, peace, and a clear conscience.	Cevap 22 He does not have to humiliate himself by depending on others for what he needs.	Cevap 21 A limited outward burden is shown as easier than overwhelming inward strain.